Meditation: Angelsu

Astrology: Annie Rose

- Let us all welcome the autumn – a beautiful season
    - Weather will be very nice, tho' maybe a bit more rain than we might like
    - People in the midwest will be pleased

- About the ISIL members: does not believe it will take years; feels that the crisis with these unruly ones has made us and other countries recognize the need for unity: working together works. Does not feel it will be like the last Iraqi war.

- The elections of Nov: thinks many are sweating it and they should: will get paid for their dallying and putting off things that should have been a long time ago: they will get paid what they earned. This will be one of the most interesting political events in a long time – will bring more people in to the process. Lots of candidates sweating this!

- Issues coming up with Egypt and Iran [not going to be a major player];
    - we have reason to be concerned about homeland security –
    - ebola will spread, and the treatment will grow. Wants to see security tightened up; thinks justice is not giving out enough real justice. Karma will come down on politicians.

- Sees a happy fall for everyone – especially for Librans, Taurans, Virgoans and for Pisces
    - Will be an active fall esp. in the next 2 weeks – will find we are ready to clean up our closets for the fall; expect to find misplaced articles even those things we are not even looking for.

- More travel for people.

- Forest fires will be more in the news: will see something knew ways of fighting fires – a wondrous thing.

- Will soon be hearing abour robotics and robitic beings.

- Will see more things coming out for installation in cars – we are just going back to inventing in America and back to industrialization and manufacturing – sees the movement going in this direction.

- Has been getting lots of calls about crops: because of atmospheric conditions we are going to see market prices go up; also sees transportation in the headlines a lot! We have seen nothing yet – it is about time we went to sterner conditions vis a vis flying – good for safety for all. Automotive: more security features to be put in them.

- Will be a pleasant week end – 95% will experience something; this will a few days of deep restful days for all signs.

Mayan Calendar: Rainbird Go to www.Spacestationplaza.com – to locate specific days

18th Thurs - 11 AKBAL - letting go of what no longer serves you
19th Fri – 12 KAN
20th Sat – 13 CHICCHAN
21st Sun – 1 CIMI
22nd Mon – 2 MANIK
23rd Tues - 3 LAMAT
24th Wed - 4 MULUC
25th Thurs - 5 OC

Rainbird is on a vision quest this week; hence, no report

T & R: they are desperate for money at the moment; has only 35 miles for gas; also need food
E-MAIL: Koran999.comcast.net

T: to Annie: a big scare in Louisiana, along the shore: people on the ship were displaying ebola- like symptoms – were taken by suited-up people who took them to hospital – it was MALARIA!

- Belle-Chasse is the name of the town
- happy to see that all precautions are being taken, no matter what
- Remember: BLACK OPS – A CHEMICAL CO IN LIBERIA STARTED THIS ON PURPOSE!

- There are new things happening, coming out from underneath: the whale and dolphin spirits ar with us – they have human hearts and souls, and they use their sonar to communicate with the galactics

T: the bill passed in the House and Senate to fund the training and arming of moderate rebels:

- This will happen quite quickly and in tandem with something like arrests

Scotland: 53.8% said NO; rest said YES. [at the time of the call]
AR: does not think the people know what all has to be done
T: the elites in London are not nice in the way they lay on austerity

- Federalism is what the founding fathers laid out in the original constitution

Ukraine: Poreshenko is sneaky: signed an agreement with the EU people; snuck in wording that really means NATO even though the organization is not named specifically.

- NATO - a criminal enterprise right from the start; will go under with the announcement of NESARA
- Bush Jr started the war on terror with no proper authorization; there is a paper that has remained classified since 9/11;
  - the real figures of our soldiers – over 2 million dead from Iraq alone! Average age of the men and women serving: 19 years. Joe Wilson told Rama that in 2006, and who knows what the real numbers are now.

9/11: They killed 78,000+ people in 9/11 – never was Al Queda; the classified document reveals this, but it has been kept classified

- The allegations are that John McCain and Lindsay Graham and the Nazi collaborators of the gov't funded ISIL, along with Prince Bandar Bush who also killed innocent children, men & women in Syria using gas from Netanyahu's collection – Netanyahu, not Assaud. supplied the gas

Russia and Iran are backing the Syrain Gov't because our United States and the Saudi background black ops is funding all the groups in Syria; same folks who funded Poreshenko

- Netanyahu – owned the Asian Jet that was shot down; it was shot down by our Black Ops dressed up like Russians; these ones are doing the bidding of the 13 families, the "powers that were" - they are puppets on a string: John McCain's handler was and still is Henry Kissenger.

R: Carl Calleman has been putting out new articles, tallking about how things are getting exponentially better and better – everything is moving up an octave including us, and the 13 families

- His article quoted Alfred L. Webre "It's time science, not rocket science, that earth is on a positive timeline . Calleman's article: "Positive Future + Positive Timelines = Unity Consciousness"

R went to see RanaMu – saw 25 cops inside of 2 hours; gave him a sinking feeling about the idea that around the US and the planet there are police states, and the fake war on terror is just that - fake

- also from the fact that the house and senate voted to train the Syrian rebels, which are tied into Blackwater and others.

- He went to see her to get some positive feedback, and shared what he'd been feeling;
  - She said "Come with me" & they walked ½ mile up the mountain near her office to a 25' medicine circle made of quartz crystals and sat in the circle
  - She started to make sounds he had never heard a human voice produce before - close to the Solfeggio tones; it shook him from the tonal into the naqual.
  - After about 5 minutes of toning, a holographic image of the Dalai Llama [DL] showed up, sitting in the circle with them; Rama greeted him, and DL answered."Greetings, Commander"

- Rama said he was having a hard time, and was told that he had asked to be here.
  - True, there is much hate and death going on, yet all the masters are here as well
  - As your Granny, Mother Sekhmet, said, they have until the last nano second to do the ho ' ho pono pona and ask for forgiveness, but they have no intention of doing that.
  - Many in the light community are not wishing to wake up either, as one must look at the choiceful walk that all of us have taken on this journey home.

R: I am sorry; please forgive me, thank you, I love you; asked about his physcial mother'

DL: Your mother is a very evolved being; she chose to bring you into this world to do this mission

- She went to the Anterres – Arcturus Midway station and got re-integrated into galactic law
- She went back to Andromeda; she chose to bring you into this world, and she wanted her 22' furry Eva body back, not her human 6'3" body – she has always been of the Eva race
- DL has been in contect with her back on Andromeda and she sent the message to Rama
  There is nothing holding you back except your own illusion about who you are and your Beloved has been pounding this into your head which is as hard as stone at times! I am handing you the gauntlet.

- DL then manifested a sceptre like the one that Krishna holds and handed it ot Rama:
  "You have the sceptre; use it wisely as the commander you are; you are to bring peace to this planet. I will show you the power you hold."
  - Then a female deer showed up from the forest behind them and licked Rama's hand.
  - Then 3 crows flew in & landed and sat the N, E and W points of the medicine wheel
  - The coyote showed up, sat at the S point of the wheel, licked his hand, actually winked at R!

R: He allowed all that love to flow and then asked "What do I do to fulfill the mission ?"

DL: Go and be love! You have passed through the eye of the needle; we were not sure you would pass your tests in this lifetime, but you did. As you see all the gut-wrenching stories in the news, remember that humanity is making quatum evolutionary leaps as a species now: I have a message to share with you now . . .

T inserts: Mother always says the human race is at its best when it is at its worst – R is an empath & feels it - don't take it on – take it through, pass it through you so it does not mess up the rest of the world

DL: A message for Thom - Thoma is doing the job he needs to do at the grass roots level to wake a whole lot of folks up right now; now it would be good to bring more of the positive energy to the forefront

- Rather than the hard right & propaganda pundits, bring in more positive attitudes

T: she knows what Thom's doing: he is showing the contrast by bringing lots of hard right fundamentalists and conservatives to show the contrasts: it kind of makes you sick to the stomach as they bring through the Koch Bros energy which is pure evil.

- Their mother was a Nazi and was in the death camps; she got off from the Nuremburg Trials and she started a business of making lampshades out of the skin of the dead people from the death camps – now we know that we might send them more love:
- this is why the Dhali Llama is saying push this energy right to the edge - this is the story of war and peace, and we want to end the story of war and of peace;
- it is only possible when we understand and overstand a greater picture, what is going on in the hieirarchy of the dark side and the higher energies of love: we push them with our super consciousness and our love
- This is the age of the 6th Sun: yes, we are in the 5th dimension and we access that energy by using the tools of prayer, meditation, making our lives a living meditation consciously, thinking with our hearts and working with our Buddha mind – the qualities of the divine virtues which is: what energy do I need to bring through as I do not like what is happening at this moment.
- This is the most Golden Rule: Praise, respect, thank and love all the feelings – because all the feelings have a message even if our ego does not want to hear it

DL:

- You are about to see humanity take a huge quantum leap into the Golden Age
- From Stargate Roundtable to Friday calls to the Saturday history calls to the spiritual invocation/evocation work we are involved in: this body of work our groups are doing is making a profound difference on this planet whether weknow this or not. Go in peace, one and all.

• Then the deer, the coyote and the 3 crows left, and the DL disappeared; he was left sitting in the circle with Rana Mu: he asked her what about Barack's training and arming of the moderate Syrian rebels

RM: Focus on changing your attitude, and saying I will be responsible for the outer realms through changing the inner realms of my attitude of Gratitude

• Praise [the highest form of love there it] all the energies and feelings; as we do that, the highest forms of love will bring the highest form of consciousness to apply to the medicine that is needed

• Remember, I am a Wingmaker and please allow me as I am one of them, to do this other hard part. Comprendez? And he said Yes Ma'am.

T&R: bring up information sent to them about Dr Igor Smernoff who was called to Chernobyl to find out why 3 million people living inside the circle of the radiation area did not have cancer!

• It is due to a geomagnetic mountain stream in the South Caucas Mtns.

• he spent a lot of time creating a technology with diodes and magnetic fields to change the water structure – she guesses it would take care of all kinds of viruses, etc - they are saying "This is curing cancer", [not "it may cure cancert"]

• Chanterah sent the info: will be a conference on Sept 26, 27th Friday night in Santa Fe – they will send someone in their stead to listen.

CL: Asks about his mother and all that was said about her killing her mother!!!!

T: his mother's mother was a Wicca master, was receiving money from the Saudi oil Emirates because she had property in South America and her property in Los A was over the tar pits: Chevron , Exon Mobil, Standard Oil wanted her land and she said NO;

• So each of the companies paid her off every month for 10 – 15 years; she invested it with compound interest and it became a huge amount.

• The KOE has the money and is looking after it for Rama

• Rama's mother knew that her mother had designated the money to the grand kids and left her out: she told the Saudi emirates where to find her and they sent a hit and run team to kill her

• Rama's birth mother was an Eva person right from the very beginning; before the ship of 144,000 crashed, Rama escaped in an escape pod, beamed out and ended up in an ice cave at the North Pole with his mother in her 22' body

• There is always a reason why we do these things and it can be found in our Akashic Records

• We all voluntarily showed up including ISIL, Poreshenko, and Angleca Merkel – it is all leading to this – she will still show up in the ICJ in front of LM Nada

• the Mother of Christ and Magdalene his Beloved were overlighted by LM Nada

• We are healing all the Christ stories with the special lawyer of the ICJ representing the Solar Tribunal on Saturn, as well as the whole galaxy with the NESARA LAW!!!!

This is so enormous: we are all here because we are needed to be here.

Guest: Michael King

he always presents so much about health, looking after our bodies, as well as about spiritual subjects & the connection to the spiritual realms.

MK: has found the last few months disconcerting: re-reading material he has read before

• had had a strong spiritual orientation; in '71, was invovled in Chrisitanity; in '81, moved to metaphysical things

• finally withdrew from all the reading and worked directly with his own soul.

• He wanted to know: how do you really forgive? And how to heal it all?

• He had lots of challenges, and he is grateful for them – having such a background makes one more compassionate. His challenges were in heatlh, spiritual, emotional areas

• In '93 he realized he'd created his own challenges: started with a 5 hour meditation and talking with

Mother/Father god. He was angry from his time in Lemuria when he thought he had been abandoned. Realized that things had nothing to do with god but with his own perceptions and that he could change what was going on.
- What he heard was You came from my bosom; therefore, we are one.

- Had long meditations – had a lot of work to do because of the large number of layers to go through
- Saw great improvements in himself: thought that the inner work was the only way he would make changes.

Discusses reading Gary Renard's books, The Disappearance of the Universe, and his various understandings gained with each reading.
- Within the last couple of years, MK came across a couple of people who shift back and forth between different realities – they show up in different clothes too.
- They had no control over it – just happened. Her husband knew it was going on: would see her going into different rooms and changing clothes.
- He began to understand [2nd book is Your Immortal Reality; in the 3rd book went into detail about this physical reality]

- Michael found it disconcerting when he found out that god did not create the material universe – depressed him; then it started to make sense - the material universe, because it is destructible, god did not create it – what god makes is indestructable

- That which is all inclusive – spirit, the Oneness of all that is – has no opposite.

- Our perception is what gives shape to the material universe, and our perception comes first
  - Gary R was taken on an inter-galactic trip to learn what he later wrote about.
- Michael began to understand that perception does rule the way the form shows up; his unique perception creates his story, even though he might have co-creators with him -
  - If you believe things outside of you are really outside of you, then you have been caught up in the illusion.

- He gave up channelling because he wanted to be in communion with his soul, then he found out that the soul was not what he thought it was.
- When we are living in spirit and are in our 'forms' we are expressing through the individuated form but there is only One of Us – this is the healing, the path to the healing of all things.

- What we see is a reflection of what we are projecting – now he gets it as it is beyond physics, beyond Metaphysical platitudes, way beyond Christianity: what he was seeing was what he was projecting.

- The people out there are other parts of himself, and to grok it at the deepest levels gives you the power to change the world – because you can change your version of the world to have a better experience!

- How do I change my world? What others do is up to them: not my responsibility - I am not part of their creation and I won't even be part of that experience if I am not involved as a co-creator.
  - Yet what I project is what I believe.

MR: when you talk about things in terms of experiencing relationships within families, for example
MK: you grow up very fast when you realize the bad stuff happening to you was created by yourself!
MR: asks about all the souls giving collective expression to war, to lack, or to the collective thought about anything: how do we sort that out in terms of us each being individuals but being here at the same time as others experiencing the same thing:

MK: there is an answer: what he has begun to do and put his understanding into practical reality:
- thinks that we have to own our reflections; once I own it: that which is in front of me, is me; if it is not a happy reflection, I Have to heal or forgive it – recognizes that it is HIS projection!

- What he has to do is FORGIVE THE PROJECTION - this is pivotal. Forgiveness without this understanding is counter productive
- if we try to forgive a wrong doing, we will cement that wrong doing of the other person, and we cement our own guilt back into place – and the guilt we are cementing does not even exist!
  - We will never set ourselves free if we say "So and so who did me wrong, I am going to forgive" - approaching the incident as the decision to forgive someone who did us wrong does not work
  - the ego wants us to believe that someone did us wrong and that we are separate from that person, and this enforces the guilt.

The Pivotal correction: if we forgive our projection of our own inner self, and bless that projection, we will set ourselves free in a matter of seconds: "I forgive this projection of my inner self" - he has already owned the reflection by looking at that other person who has shown me something I may have not been conscious of before.
- Forgive MY projection of MY inner self that is causing people and events to show up the way they are. - as we forgive this projection, we realized that we created it
- why do we do this? Because the guilt inside is something that was so devastating when the original being separated from Source and the whole experience of feeling abandoned by Source
- "What would it be like to be separated from this Source?" - it was simply perceivnig a dream into existence: that perception and the fear in that moment never left us. Ever since we have projected our fear outwards onto others
- Now when he looks at another person, he sees himself

- Nutritional Aspects of Vitality Herbs and Clay.com was created to support the spiritual work
- Need to have energy to pursue the work

Hard News:

Scotland the UK has been in existence for 370 years;
- John Nichols was on Thom Hartmann's Big Picture: "Power concedes nothing without a demand" and the people have Scotland have made a demand: no more austerity!
  - Over 70 million people in the US living below the poverty level!
- By means of the vote, the Scottish people triggered against the British Crown; the revolt has been against the elites because they have not been fair in terms of the austerity
- The Scottish people are more liberated within themselves than the English
  - The Queen was NOT crowned on the true Stone of Scone, therefore is not the true queen.

- This was planned – this story goes back to Sir Francis Bacon; and the Rothschilds who were the Bauer family before then; these ones are reptiles and shift back & forth between human and reptile;
  - Sir Francis sat with them and taught them the mercantile banking system which would prosper the people as well as the banksters:
  - They refused to do what he taught; they thought they knew better what to do with money and that they would hold it and use it; he told them he'd watch what they do, and he'd be back!

- The plans we are experiencing at this moment have been in pre-meditated planned state for generations; the 13 families kept the secrets for that long
  - Ashtar and Mother came in 1945 and said non-intervention in a civilization's development , unless in the case of nuclear or psychic holocaust
- T & R are watching a 7 part documentary on FDR – he was a member of the 13 families; he knew what was going to happen in Pearl Harbour & set it up; he knew Hitler and worked with him!
  - The first thing he did when he got into office was declare bankruptcy in 1933 and set up the Corporate United States of America
  - His cabinet was brought in right after he was sworn in: this had never happened before – it was all set up.
  - The JP Morgans and all the banks representing the royalty of Europe – pulled all money out

- The Havana Conference for the Americas: Noble Drew Ali literally mandated that the land of the entire western hemisphere be given back to the original owners, the Aboriginal Moabite Nation
  - This was done yet, as a result, the banks supported by the royals withdrew and took their money: if we can't have the land, and we have to prosper the land and the people – we don't want it - will take our money & go.
- 1930 The third Geneva Convention - the G8 of the time declared bankruptcy in Europe; in 1933, FDR [G8] declared bankruptcy in the US & created a corporation
  - the corporation went on for 70 years, with a balloon payment owed to China –
    - when Madam Lee showed up in 2003 demanding the money, no one had any
    - So when you need to make a profit, you make it by going to war – going into Iraq
    - THIS WAS ALL PLANNED ALL THIS TIME!

- Why is this so difficult? Because we asked to learn about how to get free, to learn about democracy in a way that repubilc would represent the principles set by the Founding Fathers as Deists – NOT AS CHRISTIANS
  - This is what Michael was talking about: that we are all gods and goddesses and this has always been true;
  - the illusions we set up for ourselves, the tests, are just that: illusions.
  - This is the ulitmate test: we cannot win with fear and violence, beheadings, etc etc ; cannot suppress the human spirit, heart and soul.
  - "Power concedes nothing without a demand" – the power of the 13 families has already lost this battle
  - and now Scotland is demanding a change, no matter which way it goes – they demanded a change and they'll get it Gordon Brown and David Cameron went up there and said we'll give you this autonomy and that – let's just keep the UK whole
    - There are 58 trident US nuclear submarines, leased to London, and sitting in a Scottish bay where it is safe;
    - the Scottish people want to end nukes - want the submarines gone from their waters and there is no place near London for them
    - unbeknownst to the general public: the Ashtar command has neutralized all the nuclear material and so there is a shell game going on – nothing works anymore! They can threaten nuclear brinkmanship all they want – nothing works!

- The energies we embody now are so absoultely foundational to continue with; as that energy is broadcast across the planet, it is picked up, by choice, by others wherever it is needed
  - the collective work we do, even with a small group, is being mimiced by small groups everywhere.
- John Nichol said that Soctland could be a fairer county: London has admitted that - people will have more command of their lives – more autonomy
  - they want to go off the gird and use more renewables.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014, Sept 14 I Ching For The Week of September 15, 2014

#35 Jin Flourishing

Above: Li Radiance, fire; brightness that brings clarity and passion

Below: Kun Center of the Earth; that on which everything rests; the basis of all things

The Wisdom: You are entering a time of great progress.
Achieving stillness is most important now.
Bring tribe and family together to serve the higher forces.
In this way you will shine and share the light.

Be clear and as honest with yourself as possible. At the same time give honor to Gaia, the gentle yet fierce energy of the Earth. Be grateful and while in gratitude give freely of your goods, treasures, love and care to those around you. In this way you honor spirit and spirit will visit you three times in each day bringing truth, love and abundance in all things.

Ask yourself, 'Are you ready to move into this time of rapid advancement?' If you do not feel it move into your inner planes of existence and focus on being of service to the earth and all sentient beings. In this way you will be prepared by matching outer strength with inner resolve, the resolve to be a better person. The time to move into action is here.

In times like these you may feel that your movement forward is thwarted in some ways and that will trigger doubt. Hold tight to your plan, you are not in error, you are backed by a great spirit force, the unseen helpers that have brought you this far will not abandon you now.

Strive for fairness in places and activities where you hold power or influence. Honor those who work with you and for you. If you are solo in your craft or art honor the dancing spirit who come as a silent muse to enliven you and be fully awake and aware, Make a relationship with this spirit and it will soothe you in these days of trials and tribulations.

Heed well the knowledge that the doorway of desire for abundance in your life is now open and will surely begin to flow – it is your destiny. To keep the continuity of progress in your forward movement there are vital universal laws and truths that will be of benefit to adhere to.

As you gather the fruits of progress, do not forget how you got here and who has been your support and recognize the ones who have blazed the trail before you. You are gaining an abundance of power, influence, love, and prosperity; share this with your mentors, tribe and family. In this way you are signifying that you are grateful and not being overpowered by the ego. Honor your mentors and guides, both emotionally and spiritually, and give them praise and honor. In this way you are operating in the fullness of gratitude, and gratitude is a catalyst in the alchemical mixture that will deliver you to love, peace and abundance. When the energy of prospering is present, whether in your business, projects, health, or relationships, you are being given a very special, albeit temporary force.

Coming mercifully into your life now is a very clear and powerful energetic force; it is a currency of sorts. Spend this currency wisely. Be guided by compassion as you move to examine your patterns of behavior and are identifying those that have not worked in the past that will surely create obstacles for further progress. Replace these outworn negative patterns with positive actions, thoughts, and prayers. The words you think are more powerful than the words you say. You must correct and change the words of the inner voice when it speaks of negativity, hurtful actions or revenge. This is the ego pushing you to go off track merely for a temporary pleasure or to bask in the ego-light of the work you have done for, and in harmony with, the greater good.

Achieving an inner stillness is crucial now for it is in this stillness where you will hear and feel the voice of your intuitive wisdom. Look to your practice, whether it is meditation, writing, painting, hiking, tilling the land, or any activity that gets you out of your mind and free from the voice of the judgmental and critical ego.

What is being presented to you is fresh and new and it is filling you with confidence and strength. Power such as this can be a tricky thing. The way here is to make sacrifice: Let go of old habits, friends, or associates who are too much work; gift portions of your abundance to those in need; and/or speak up on behalf of those who are powerless. Your abundance will also be expressed in words and kindnesses that you can gift along the way. You may chose to gift material goods, clothing, or books you don't use anymore. Pass the energy around, all the while shining the light that is emerging to and through you from the very center of the galaxy. Be a part of your community and tribe with an open heart and a welcoming doorway,

You are perfectly positioned and have prepared and practiced well. Have no doubts about this. Accept fully that you are in the right place at the right time. But just being in place is not enough now: You must activate this earned gift of strength and influence with compassion, dignity, and kindness. Proceeding in this manner, with humility, will please spirit and open many doors that have previously been closed and often unseen. Spirit is with you and watching you and assisting you in finding direction. You once were lost but now you are found and it was this dancing spirit that led you out of darkness and into the light.

This flourishing that is in bloom is making way for a beautiful and full journey for you and your family, tribe, and associates. Often on journeys such as this you will encounter obstacles and difficulties on the way toward your goal of peace and abundance; this is the natural order of things. Progress itself breeds these challenges, and they must be met head on. Obstacles can be easily dealt with by being very aware as you plan your moves and actions. Be certain you are not hiding your truth or trying to be "reasonable." To deal with any angst that will arise, and to insure continuing progress and preserve your sanity, be grateful; cherish the love all around you; and remain centered and calm through your spiritual or physical practice. Find a place in your life to give back, to be of service, and through it all, find your stillness, your confident center. Gratitude for this time and for your gift of life and tribe is an elixir that will insure your clarity on this adventure of living in a body on earth.

You will be of great influence now in your social, familial, and tribal circles. Set goals and work together to accomplish better communication as you move forward and reap your rewards. Do not let yourself slip into judgment or conservatism. Operate with abandon socially and in communication with your loved ones. Be of unconditional love, surprise the ones who have been there for you through the most difficult times. Plan a fiesta, gather the tribe together for a celebration of life. Be intimate and affectionate to those around you. Embrace your brilliance and illuminate the dark corners of the psyche so that with this light, the truth will shine like the sun at midday.

Open your mind and heart to the art and ideas of the indigenous peoples of your geography, go to them and listen to the soothing and somehow familiar messages that have remained through the ages. Open your eyes as well as your ears and hear the secrets and see the visions waiting for you. The ancestors, whether your direct antecedents or not, have left coded messages in the great storehouse of knowledge: the writings, songs and feasts for the eyes that have remained. The ancient messages have remained for you to discover and embody them and to have them be signposts for the world's residents to discover along the road to peace and prosperity for all. The gifts on the path are great, you need only to find a stillness of mind for them to be shown to you.

The earth is entering a Golden age where with effort, dignity, compassion and kindness we can join as one with Gaia and all her sentient beings to find again peace on Earth and good will to all.
