T, R: thanks to all who assist – pretty scary when they are out on a limb all the time!

HARD NEWS

- They are getting so many messages – keeps thinking of George Mitchell who is the envoy for peace in the Middle East – made it very clear that his take on what is going on in Ferguson is the last straw!
  - Won't allow the policeman off the hook – the snippet from the convenience story was around 11: 00; police man killed him about noon. The police captain was not supposed to put that up without letting Ron Johnson know about it, as he had been put in charge – it was put up as character assassination – and it wasn't Michael Brown.
  - McCullough was asked if the policeman knew about this – no.

- what is so obvious: these people's exposure – they are buck naked and the people know their game.
- Everything is on the table with this issue
  - On its face, the law is not being followed: there should have been a warrant out and an arrest
  - the little video from the convenience store is not relevant
  - Obviously, there is an issue with the police force.

Camp Lovewave: had on the son & wife of Frank Herbert, author of a series of books called Doon.
- The son and the wife have written a new book called Ocean – about being contacted across the planet, whether those in black or blue like it or not. They've been contacted by a dolphin that comes right up to their property in Hawaii, cove area where the dolphins play and contact the people who come there.
- A dolphin called Stargazer got in touch with them, and put them in touch with some Sirians and Pleiadians; the dolphin is communicating telepathically with the son and the wife.

- The story is sci fi: the creatures in the ocean come together and address the humans via a communicator, a hump back whale, who talks of all the crap that humans have done to the ocean, and what are you humans going to do about it?
  - The humans tell the whale to get lost; so the ½ million group of beings from the ocean block the harbour in San Francisco and the navy gets involved. The dolphins and the whales start sounding and all the rivets in the mechanical devices start coming apart. Also talk of the mind control the dolphins and the whales are subjected to.
- The son and wife have taken on the mission of dealing with the navy & what they are doing to whales and dolphins with their sonar soundings; they also talk to Jacques Costeau and the entire Costeau family – want to do an expedition into the Bermuda Triangle and find the Great Crystal of Atlantis.

T: Who talks to Stargazer the dolphin in the book? The Sirians are talking to Stargazer, and they are in the same orbit as the ISS ,and they let Stargazer know that some Sirians are coming in to land, along with the Pleiadians; they are here to lead us into the change we are waiting for – which is to say we are kind of lost at the moment; it has to do with programs that have been used against the people
  - Eg, the tear gas used in Ferguson can make you temporarily blind; it can affect your kidneys and your liver – it is not allowed to be used in Iraq – one person on Melissa's program said there were 100s of canisters thrown out on the first night
  - Also the looters were paid off by the police – trying to get their policeman off – unconscionable that there is no warrant out for him and that he is not arrested.

• So it is just about that the whales and dolphins are stepping in to help.

• The wife was talking of Robin Williams and the mind control going on: How does she connect these ideas?

R: the police in the US are being sent to Israel and are being taught the tactics used on the Palestinians which is outright murder. The police in Ferguson have already been to Israel and learned it! This is because we have to bend on the knee to Israel – and it is done all across the country of the US.

T: was made clear that this is happening all across the US -

R: who knows what kind of mind control the Mossad uses when you are not watching?

T: goes back to the Doon series and the setting in the desert –

R: there was food there called spice that gave you super human powers

T: when we have our siddihis, we have no interest in money or other things

R: Frank Herbert was a Republican, learned about Co-Intel Pro and he backed off the Barry Goldwater scene and worked for the light.

R: on Craig Barnes show: had on Valerie Plame on – she talked about the story on Monster Mind that got leaked out – a cyber war game and with a non-human at the wheel and they picked the wrong country to do cyber war with, there were be a REAL problem Discussing the fact that the ABC agencies are devising other ways to kill people

T: the Dred Scott decision emphasized that the black people have no right to sue because bladk man had no rights which white men were bound to respect; they never intended for black people to be equal to white people, therefore no vote or to have any rights whatsoever to their grievances

Audio: Malcolm X – racism, police brutality and other discrimination against black people and how Malcolm X spoke about it many years ago

• Feb 21, 1965 is date of the audio; may be close to the end of his life

[http://malcolmxvideos.tumblr.com/ there are a series of videos at this location – not what is heard in this audio, but nevertheless very important]

T: Recalls what George Mitchell said: there are papers that have been issued from the World Court level allowing the White Knights to stop and frisk all of the 13 families and all their minions – they have gone to the place where they are going to be removed: the White Knight and the Sovereign World Militia forces have the right to remove them according to world law and galactic law;

• Mother Gaia is on red alert – I need your help now: the human race is in distress, and needs help because of this disturbance

More questions than answers in Ferguson

More than a week after a police officer shot Michael Brown to death, there are still more questions than answers around the circumstances of the incident. MSNBC.com national reporter Trymaine Lee and Rev. Clinton Stancil join to discuss the overnight curfew in Ferguson.

The militarization of police

Melissa Harris-Perry talks about how and why neighborhood police forces are looking more and more like the neighborhood military.

Should police in the suburbs wear camouflage?

When police on suburban streets dress in military style camouflage, is it because they are trying to blend in -- or stand out?

Why community policing matters

Marva Robinson from the Association of Black Psychologists joins to discuss the effects a militarized police presence had on the residents of Ferguson, Missouri.

Connecting with a community in unrest

The MHP panel talks about the case of Eric Garner in New York and how African American communities in the past have gravitated more towards federal authorities than local police.

Drastic measures to contain Ebola

The governments of Sierra Leone, Liberia and Guinea are taking drastic measures to contain the Ebola virus, cordoning off entire geographic sections from which no one is allowed to leave.

Jamie Kilstein on Robin Williams' passing

Comedian Jamie Kilstein shares his personal story of his friendship with Robin Williams. Jonathan Metzl talks about the concerns about suicide that have emerged in the wake of Williams' death.

The deaths of black men in America

Melissa Harris-Perry talks about the deaths of black men that have occurred at the hands of police in the past decade.
[SEE BELOW]

How young black men interact with police

Perceived threat of danger attributed to young African American men can lead to dangerous, and sometimes deadly outcomes. Jonathan Metzl, Phillip Atiba Goff, Jamelle Bouie and Phillip Agnew join to discuss.

TalkingStickTV - Max Blumenthal - Goliath: Life and Loathing in Greater Israel

Talk by Max Blumenthal author of "Goliath: Life and Loathing in Greater Israel" given April 10, 2014 at Savery Hall, University of Washington and sponsored by SUPER (Students United for Palestinian Equal Rights)

Life and Loathing in Greater Israel - Author Max Blumenthal Interview
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uDOplv6psuE

Published on 13 Aug 2014

Max Blumenthal is the author of Goliath: Life and Loathing in Greater Israel; he speaks to Cenk Uygur about the situation in Gaza straight from Ramallah on the West Bank. He has been a vocal opponent of Benjamin Netanyahu's right-wing militaristic leadership of Israel, the U.S. government's support of violent acts in the name of the state, as well as the treatment of people living on the Gaza Strip.

Max argues that the status of people living on the Gaza Strip is worse than what black South Africans suffered during Apartheid, asks why the U.S. continues to push for assault on the Gaza Strip, and explains how he, as a Jewish man, mitigates his criticism of the state of Israel. Can Americans protest the violence and death through boycott?

Max Blumenthal on twitter: https://twitter.com/MaxBlumenthal

T: Reading from the documentary: at the anti African rallies, the cry was “Infiltrators! Go home!”
one of the questions asked was why israel was against allowing Africans in the country: the answer was that it would no longer be Jewish: yet the original people in that area were black.

- Explains how we are all one, and that teaching embraces all of humanity – so we are all jews or all whatever: jew actually means juice, not about religions.

Disseminating Moon Phase: share, communicate

Moon in Aries/Taurus

Ruling Mahavidya: Bhairavi (The Goddess Who Heals the Heart)

Skill: seek wisdom

Negative Imprint: giving up, hopelessness, dissatisfaction, neglecting self (especially the physical body and physical needs), standing still when you need to move, fear of change, fear for personal security

Positive Imprint: care, sharing, perspective, patterns, taking chances, self-care, care for the physical body and physical needs, learning, foreshadowing of the future

Friday and Saturday's energies are complex. The Moon will move into Taurus around noon ET/4:00 pm UT Friday, beginning to strongly aspect all of the planets in Leo and Scorpio. One by one, the Moon will make hits with Venus, Jupiter, Mars, Saturn, and finally the Black Moon. Since this process occurs through the remainder of the Disseminating Moon phase, I've detailed both days' energies in this report. Here's the chronology (keep in mind that energy flows in waves, so these themes will flow through time, not happen just at the exact time indicated):

August 15 8:00pm ET/midnight UT Moon square Venus

Venus reaches the degree that kicked off this lunar cycle, so the theme of "taking a leap or staying in place" focuses around relationships. The position of the Moon brings up losses, grief, and all kinds of things from the past. The purpose of this is to let go of things that are not working now or things that are haunting you from the past. It is easy to get lost in losses under this energy. Grief isn't always about what we've lost; it is sometimes about what we never had. This month has been about healing heartaches, and the Venus energy that is activated by the Moon is helping us purge that pain. New space needs to be made because new opportunities are on the way with the next lunar cycle (which begins August 25).

August 15/16 midnight ET/4:00 am UT Moon square Jupiter

Light is brought to things that are in shadow. This may involve seeing something about ourselves that we tend to keep in shadow. Sometimes we compartmentalize our lives when stressors or events become overwhelming. It is our attempt to maintain control of our psyches. But we pay a price when we cut off our emotions or cut things out of the picture. Whatever we remain in denial about eventually surfaces for clearing. This moves us to integrate our thoughts, feelings, and emotions. When we do this, we operate in a more holistic, mentally-balanced way. Take in the bigger picture.

August 16 9:30 am ET/1:30 pm UT Moon oppose Mars

Consider undertaking an experiment. What happens when you remove a burden you've been shouldering? To find out, you will need to put that burden down for a little while. When you do, note how you feel. Would you like this feeling to continue? If so, what would you need to do to assure that? Can you commit to it? If you are angry about something, it will show up to be addressed with this astrological aspect. There is wisdom here if we are willing to see.

August 16 7:00 pm ET/11:00 pm UT Moon oppose Saturn

Changes are indicated. These may come as a reaction against being constrained or restricted in some way. Things from the past are triggered, but this is happening to bring a rebirth – a change in form.

August 16 8:00 pm ET/midnight UT Moon square Black Moon

As the Disseminating Moon phase ends, enormous potential is beginning to stir. The highest octave of this energy wants to show us bright parts of the future, but the lowest octave reinforces feelings of being lost, ungrounded, or hopeless. The goal of the Friday and Saturday transit of the Moon is to bring healing. Attach to the rebirth side of the Black Moon instead of the death side of it. Reach for the light.

Thank you for supporting the Oracle Report. Blessings to all!

The rest of the week:

Saturday: 25* Taurus; moon is void of course on Sunday
Venus conjunct Jupiter – 1:20 am Monday am + a square to Mercury, square to Neptune
Wed: moon into Cancer; moon is trine Neptune
Thurs: Moon in cancer, sextiles Mercury and Opposite Pluto will trine Mars in the morning; square Uranus later & Mercury trines Pluto both Mon & Thurs
From Thursday to Friday: a void of course moon,
Friday: sun in last day of Leo

There is more going on than meets the eye, the ear, and the 5 senses. Death is a reminder for us to look beyond and through the realms of darkness for the meaning behind the events. Collectively, we are clearing massive amounts of ancestral karma-like veils that have been placed before our eyes. Don't be deceived by appearances but peer through to the paradise coexisting with the chaos.

In this episode of the Keiser Report, Max Keiser and Stacy Herbert note that as the Empire collapses, they've killed all the boogeymen and yet blood for oil has not helped create escape velocity. They also discuss what the return of humpback whales and great white sharks to the waters off Manhattan can tell us about the end of a monoculture in fiat currencies where the dollar has reigned supreme. In the second half, Max interviews Dr. Michael Hudson about the war machine, Judge Griesa's ruling, super imperialism and the end of a 60 year cycle in which there was no alternative to the dollar.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014, Aug 16 'No rights which the white man was bound to respect'

facebook twitter By Melissa Harris-Perry

In the past decade alone: The deaths of black men in America

January 24, 2004. Timothy Stansbury. Brooklyn, New York. Unarmed.

November 25, 2006. Sean Bell. Queens, New York. Unarmed.

January 1, 2009. Oscar Grant. Oakland, California. Unarmed.

January 29, 2010. Aaron Campbell. Portland, Oregon. Unarmed.

July 18, 2011. Alonzo Ashley. Denver, Colorado. Unarmed.

March 7, 2012. Wendell Allen. New Orleans, Louisiana. Unarmed.

September 14, 2013. Jonathan Ferrell. Charlotte, North Carolina. Unarmed.

July 17, 2014. Eric Garner, Staten Island, New York. Unarmed.

August 9, 2014. Michael Brown. Ferguson, Missouri. Unarmed.

In the past decade alone, these men and hundreds of others have lost their lives to police. Local police report to the FBI killing at least 400 people a year.

From 2006 to 2012, a white police officer killed a black person at least twice a week in this country. Which brings us back to Ferguson, Missouri, where according to a report in The Daily Beast, in 2009 police officers charged a man for property damage because he bled on their uniforms while they arrested him–and allegedly beat him bloody.

Ferguson, Missouri, where it took six days to release the name of the officer who shot an unarmed teenager to death.

Ferguson, Missouri, where police released images of someone who might be Michael Brown involved in a store robbery–and then hours later, said the robbery had nothing to do with why Michael Brown was stopped by the police officer who killed him.

Ferguson is just outside St. Louis, Missouri–the place where, as historian Blair Kelley reminded us this week in The Root, Dred Scott sued for his freedom, on the grounds that he and his wife had for years lived in a free state. His case eventually went to the Supreme Court. In 1857, Chief Justice Roger Taney declared that Scott had no right to sue because as a black man he was never intended to be an American. Speaking of the clause in the Declaration of Independence that "all men are created equal," Taney wrote:

"It is too clear for dispute, that the enslaved African race were not intended to be included, and formed no part of the people who framed and adopted this declaration."

Taney went on to say that black men "had no rights which the white man was bound to respect."

2014, Aug 12 The Oracle Report, With Special Commentary on Robin Williams

ADDITION 10:00 am ET/2:00 pm UT: The Mahavidyas are specific in correcting me with the report today. Regarding Robin Williams (below), note the change to the "power of TEARS of joy and humor to heal." This is important because it's always ok to cry, but especially today. This is Bhairavi in action on our hearts, healing them of pain that lingers.

Full Moon Phase: revelations

Moon in Pisces

Ruling Mahavidya: Bhairavi (The Fierce One)

Negative Imprint: out of control, disillusioned, disappointed, empty, hopeless

Positive Imprint: courage, seeing the bottom line, self-control, creativity

The intensity of the super Full Moon phase continues today, and we continue to hold on tightly to our tether with solid ground.

Today's energy reinforces the feelings of being unmoored and out of control that are prominent during this Full Moon phase. There is a sense of dangling. Everyone's shadow sides are being triggered to some degree or another. This means your shadow side and everyone else's shadow side, so be aware that you are dealing with much more than meets the eye with people.

Since the Moon is in Pisces, the shadow sides of Pisces and Virgo (trust and "failure" issues) are strong. Emotions are running very high and are stressed. The energy brings things to breaking point. Archontic interference remains at almost record-high levels with the super Full Moon's conjunction with the Black Moon.

But we are wise to the situation. We know to give people and situations space under these conditions. We slow down and give due diligence before making a move. We understand the tricks of the mind that are pushing people over the edge emotionally.

From one perspective, we are in a battle while the Moon remains in the Full phase. We think it is a battle with ourselves. This is a lie. The seeds of dissatisfaction, disillusionment, and disregard were sown long ago and are being harvested now.

But an ally has come onto the field of consciousness today to free us from the heavy astrological energies that threaten to send us tumbling down the canyon. Venus has entered Leo, joining the Sun, Mercury, the Black Moon, and Jupiter.

The addition of Venus into the mix of planets in Leo spoils all the plans of the dark side. You see, there is one thing that tames the wild shadows of the Black Moon and that is Venus. When Venus and the Black Moon come together, the two sisters, the light and the dark, are united. The schism of the feminine is healed. Blessings, gifts, and rewards are bestowed. Balance returns.

We are going to focus on this gift of Venus today and switch ourselves to this level. Venus is the archetypal energy of love, beauty, relationships, and pleasure. We will make space for this to settle in our hearts and heal any feelings of sadness, grief, or trauma that are surfacing

The Full Moon phase ends tomorrow, Wednesday, August 13 at 7:07 pm ET/ 11:07 pm UT. We will hold our ground until then, weathering all that transpires, and keeping things real.

(Commentary on the death of Robin Williams: It is appropriate to honor the life of a Master, but especially appropriate to honor it here, a place where many of the "Chiron family" of the planet gather. Robin Williams was a Chiron. His natal Chiron was located at the degree of the Galactic Center and his Ascendant was in aspect to the Chiron Point. His natal Chiron was in opposition to his Black Moon. This means his soul carried the energetic signature of the Wounded Healer/Teacher. Underneath his persona, he was a master healer anchoring great love on the planet.

But the Sun's conjunction with Mercury and the Black Moon at the super Full Moon on Sunday was too much for him as it made conjunction with his natal Pluto. The archontic attack that accompanied the Full Moon inundated him. His natal Black Moon in Cancer, along with his three other planets in Cancer, made 2013 a difficult year as the Black Moon transited Cancer. Chiron has been transiting his natal Moon by conjunction and also his natal Venus by opposition. He was overwhelmed by grief and self-loathing.

For all Chiron people, the proportion of one's healing abilities is relative to the amount of pain one has experienced. In this way, we see the great depth of Robin's pain and the accompanying ability to heal. His performances in Good Will Hunting and What Dreams May Come? – among his many others – heal the heart.

I do not believe Robin Williams ever recovered from the loss of his dear old friend Christopher Reeve. You can see Robin's devotion to helping his friend in the picture below. Note the prominence of Robin's hands firmly on Chris. Chiron rules the hands and healing power is transmitted through them. His love was boundless.

Robin Williams knew he was battling demons. But he thought the demons were part of him. If he had known about the parasitic mind infection of the Archons would he have viewed things differently? We will never know.

We can honor his contribution by recognizing the wounding, the teaching, and the healing presented. The wound is from a force that stands against us that can trick us into hating ourselves enough to feel unworthy of life. The teaching is that no one can be a superman alone, but the power of one person can be superhuman. The healing comes from embracing tears of joy and humor to heal.

In the Mayan Calendar, Robin Williams was born on the day 1 Death, which means the power to initiate transformation. May his life serve to heal us.)

Thank you for supporting the Oracle Report. Blessings to all!
