RE: Short Sale Request Package

The enclosed materials are being sent in response to your recent inquiry regarding a short sale settlement on the above referenced loan. Please complete and return this entire package with supporting documentation.

Important Information about the Short Sale Process

- ◆ DO NOT send an incomplete package or your request will not be considered.
- ◆ Send the documents in the same format as this package as any document substitutions will delay the process.
- ◆ Submission of this information is not a guarantee that a short sale payoff will be accepted.
- ◆ The processing and review of the documentation you provide generally takes 20-30 days.
- ◆ Your submission will NOT result in an automatic stoppage of any foreclosure proceedings.
- ◆ If the loan qualifies for a short sale under the Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives Program (HAFA), you may download and send HAFA Matrix document

If you have not previously contacted us regarding eligibility for a loan modification, you should consider this alternative. Under the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP), you may qualify for a modification with affordable and sustainable monthly payments that would allow you to keep your home. Please contact us within 14 days of the date of this request if you would like to be considered for a loan modification.

Sincerely,

Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC

This communication is from a debt collector attempting to collect a debt; any information obtained will be used for that purpose. What is the Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternative (HAFA) Program – Short Sale?

For homeowners looking for help selling their home and avoiding foreclosure, the federal government has introduced the Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives (HAFA) Program to help. As the mortgage servicer, we are offering the opportunity to participate in this program by utilizing HAFA's short sale option if the loan qualifies. If the loan does not qualify, Ocwen may still be able to assist with an Ocwen short sale program.

A "short sale" is specifically designed to help borrowers who are unable to afford their first mortgage and want to sell their home to avoid foreclosure, even if the sale price may not pay off the amount owed on their mortgage. A short sale requires a number of parties (the homeowner, the buyer, the real estate broker, and sometimes mortgage insurance companies and other lenders) to work together to make this option successful. However, it could be a good solution for the homeowner's current situation.

If the homeowner(s) qualifies for the HAFA program they will receive $3,000 to help pay some of the moving expenses. (The check will be paid to the homeowner(s) by the settlement agent as part of the closing and this amount would be included in the short sale offer and the HUD-1 Settlement Statement.) In the event there is any money left over from the sale after paying the entire amount owed on the mortgage plus the approved sale costs, the homeowner(s) will not be eligible to receive the $3,000.

How Does a Short Sale Work?

◆ Offer:

When an offer is received for the home, you will submit the required information and documentation to us for review.

◆ Review:

Ocwen will process and review the offer and the information you submitted. This generally takes 20-30 days.

◆ Approval (if applicable):

Provided the offer is approved, we will send you an agreement letter.

◆ Closing (if applicable):

Once the sale closes, we will release the borrower(s) from all responsibilities for repaying the mortgage

Homeowner Responsibilities

- ◆ Keep your house and your property in good condition and repair and cooperate with your broker to show it to potential buyers.
- ◆ Be able to provide the buyer of your home with clear title. To start, determine if you have other loans, judgments or liens secured by your home, such as a home-equity line of credit or a second mortgage. If there are such liens, you will need to either pay these loans off in full or negotiate with the lien holders to release them before the closing date. Under this program, you must make sure other lien holders will agree not to pursue other legal action related to the pay off of their lien, such as a deficiency judgment. You can get help from your broker to negotiate with the other lien holders.

IRS and Credit Reporting Information

- ◆ The difference between the remaining amount of principal the homeowner(s) owes and the amount that we receive from the sale must be reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on Form 1099C, as debt forgiveness. In some cases, debt forgiveness could be taxed as income. Amounts allowed for moving expenses may also be reported as income. We suggest that you contact the IRS or your tax preparer to determine if you may have any tax liability.
- ◆ We will follow standard industry practice and report to the major credit reporting agencies that your mortgage was settled for less than the full balance. We have no control over, or responsibility for the impact of this report on your credit score.
