HARD NEWS

T: her eyebrows are on top of her crown chakra! Thanks to everyone! Important to give $5 – it represents the energy shift

R: Camp Lovewave

- guest – unusual name: works with delta and theta waves of energy combined with electromagnetic frequency in quartz crystals and a free energy device
- a scientist, philosopher, inventor – created a free energy device based on Tesla's giant coil
 - he built a giant Tesla coil when he was 10 years old, 1973 – from the mid west
 - has been on the run: his # was #3 during the Viet Nam list – went out of USA
 - T and her friend Yarrow went into a hardware store and was introduced to a man who had a huge Tesla device that filled the room: plus every book Tesla had ever written and had read them all - several times!
 - talked of building the Tesla coil at 10 and woke up to the universe; in the 60s and 70s took the LSD, the mushrooms, etc etc – he started following Terrence McKenna's philosophy to get in the consciousness of the mushrooms, and the mushrooms downloaded etheric patterns and he put into form what they downloaded – star ships based on the design of the mothership Galactica
 - on one of his trips, he saw what would have been an evacuation during Orion War time – has explored this all his life
 - does sound therapy with Delta and theta waves and heals people of diseases, conditions, unknown terminal illnesses that standard medicine cannot handle.
 - Teran took a treatment and he took a journey which took a day to reintegrate and heal – lots of stuff from childhood that was still there to deal with – delta and theta wave frequencies are out there in the universe, can glean the info from the akashic records
 - then they talked of absolute insanity: the shootings in Orlando, Dallas, MN – this has been going on since : we have never really been free: black people, people of colour are freer than white people – talked of the wordmagic used to twist documents, articles, amendments to bills, how the reptilian overlords have been doctoring the Constitution
 - in response to T's question about what is meant by "have never been free" - has to do with the downloaded melanin in the skin – Black people know what it is to have white supremacy because they are not in that culture of whiteness – we need to take a lesson from the black people
 - the shooter in Dallas decided to deal with his PTSD in a not nice way: he was amped up by the Black Ops to "lose it" - went to Afghanistan: boot camp turns you into a mindless droid! He'd been accused of sexual harassment while in the army and sent home early – but was never charged
 - the 1/10th of the 1% are shaking in their shoes as the people are waking up: the goddess is risen and will not be leaving.
- The so-called oath the 13 families take – all these things came into the conversation today with all the shows: Richard Wolffe; David Bar Simeon who had on a recording of Gore Vidal: asking "Why aren't Cheney and Bush hanging from a rope?" – for which statement, Vidal was killed! And he said it on Amy Goodman too! Gore Vidal is a cousin of Al Gore

- The EU, the Brexit and what's coming: when this hits, the 2008 year will look like a picnic – has to do with playing with fake money
 - Richard Wolffe: sub prime car loans; playing with derivatives; hedge fund managers are financial pigs that do not know what to do with their money – the drug they are addicted to is the drug of power! When you owe money and don't pay it back, you get pushed off a ledge of a building or a balcony - hedge fund Mgrs are dying like flies but this is not being talked about.
- They played Louis Armstrong's "What a Wonderful World!" in spite of all the things going on.
 - Brought up the movie "Sleepless in Seattle" & the story of people meeting each other out of the blue: serendipity happening, not what we saw in Dallas. This is why R wants to play the Message of Hope – there is a inter dimensional beings, ultra dimensional beings – a whole myriad of life forms that are here to work with us in loving presence so we can become all that we are, and more! It's about tuning in – a guy talked about 1 million children in Thailand meditating at once: these kinds of things are happening across the planet and change the space time situation, and it was never reported on. The focus is on failed businessmen who are really madmen because they drink water with lead in it; there are other such stories of envy, jealousy, greed: things that lead to the dark side.
- Talked with Tom the Cat: shared some of his own history & how this goes back to original story of creation
 - we were seeding across the galaxies and the universes, and we come to this point where Obama talks from Warsaw that all lives matter, in spite of the fact that he has troops standing ther with technology that can make the planet molten in a minute and Ashtar has said no nukes.
 - Putin will not push any buttons – he knows what the Andromedans et
 - no nuclear war, but a massive disclosure of these live forms who have hoarded all kinds of treasure
 - this brings it back to an episode in Star Trek when some people end up 400 years in the future: one guy wants to find out how his accounts are doing; a country and western singer wants to get back; however, they are now living 400 years in the future: trying to integrate 20th century consciousness with 24th century life and can't do it because thoughts are evident as they form in everyone's aura even before people know what they are thinking about, and the beings you are with can counter act whatever you think you are going to do

Reading: on Thursday she read a few paragraphs from the prologue of Secret Places of the Lion Rama has not read the article about finding something 1200 miles inside the earth -

Big Will: HRC – what will happen before July 26th; status of Trump?

R: each day Trump is getting more outrageous with his attacks on minorities & policies having to do with the rest of the world - walking in black ice in terms of his life form – he is already in someone's sights:

T: she would appreciate his being held accountable for what he has done

- cannot tell what will happen but he is not long for this world
- Barack gave a 1 hour 1 minute speech in Warsaw – can see the double agent role he is playing: his statement was clear: what's going on now DOES NOT REPRESENT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE! They are all Black Ops, are using everything they can to distract being held accountable by the core of people in the US, especially amongst the young people as it is their future
 - We [the elders] came in as the prophets to help them wake up
- HRC is wrapped up too - WE JUST DON'T KNOW WHEN! She will be held absolutely accountable
 - The opposition has put up trillions of dollars to make her the main person

BW: asks again about HRC

- she is guilty as charged and then some; will be held accountable in front of the people
 - at the same time we will watch those who put up the trillions of dollars to see her in the seat of power: From Richard the astrologer: we've been having an inconjunct moment – 150* - Mars in 24* Scorpio, Uranus in 25* Aries creating a 150° inconjunct that is causing the violence
 - this is another thing they have done: the programming, the mind control in the schools – a mass veil over people's consciousness yet it has huge holes in it
- what BO was saying, even as a double agent and is holding the elites in a certain place and is speaking that the energy going on right now is not what the spirit body of the American people represents. Yet there is so much fear especially among the older people, even those in our generation who went for the money and got involved in Wall Street so they could keep up with the Joneses for example

R: many folks did not go to the farm as he did – went for the money! And now there is a deep divide in the people

T: IT IS ABSOLUTE THAT SHE WILL BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE - it is so dark!

- The energies are of so many people waking up so they will not have to do this again –
- there is still lying about the murder of MLK Jr – murdered by his own minister friend saw it – Jesse Jackson saw it! Dr Ralph Abernathy pulled the trigger that shot him, and T & R met the young lady who was there and held MLK in his arms while he died. No mistakes that they met this lady – they have some inside awareness at a higher level and this is who we are when we meditate, we pray sunshine, we pray light -

BW: not laughing: about the State Dep't – to re-open the case against HRC – how soon?

R: it will be very soon, it's about cosmic clearance and what HRC knows about stealing 800 metric tonnes of gold and murdering the ambassador – that is beyond cosmic clearance & she didi

- Why do we need weapons of war on the streets and turn front yards into front lines?

R: in response to T's question about the wikileaks downloads – R said it is forthcoming – immediately if not sooner – the wikileaks being released

- saw on Facebook about wikileaks releases 1000s and 1000s to be released
 - since 1947 the Zeta Reticuli came here on a peaceful mission to warn us about nuclear experiments – backwards in time to help us wake up
- and now Obama is in Warsaw, and Putin is saying not one step closer to Crimea and the Chocolate Billionaire Poreschenko wants a nuclear war – he will be taken out by his own people. Same thing with Erdowan and others playing in the same kind of darkness

T: tells BW that July 1 – Joy Reid replaced Rachel – subject is gun control - and Chris Rock the comedian was on

- told Joy that 20 years ago he'd said we don't need gun control: we need bullet control – all bullets should cost $5000 each; if they do, there will be no more innocent bystanders!!!
- 20 years ago the country was reeling from Columbine - maybe instead of gun control, we should have bullet control – Chris Rock suggested that idea back then
- Today, CA gov today [July 2nd] signed into law some new controls on guns
 - a new ban in CA requires a full background check to buy ammunition and the state will keep a record of ammunition sales! In ALL stores!
 - also vetoed 5 gun reform bills as too vague, or does not think the measures will work
- BULLET CONTROL WILL BE THE LAW OF THE LAND IN CALIFORNIA! And the US congress has done absolutely nothing!!! After the Demoracts staged a sit-in a couple of weeks ago, Paul Ryan says he will now allow a vote on gun control

Thom Hartmann talked of the 2nd amendment needing to be repealed as it is nothing as it was intended to be at the time

- it was a racist amendment from the get-go: the south only passed the amendment so they could have authority over their slaves – no slave was considered equal to any white person – were not considered worthy to vote and then classified as only equal to 3/5ths of a person – this needs to be repealed as they are still working on this principle
- there is no check and balance to look for sound – mindedness in policemen
- this is not about racism - more about white supremacy!!!

Audio: Daily Take: the 2nd amendment is racist

2016-06-21 We Need to Throw Out the Second Amendment [SEE BELOW FOR THE TEXT OF THE AUDIO]

Audio: Thom Hartmann's take on what is going on re: the European Union and BREXIT

- The EU has been taken over by the neo-liberals who have installed austerity: the EU is a free trade zone and a free movement zone for all the people. Growth of EU has been 1%; Great Britain Growth 7%; US growth has been 10%
- A conservative idea being pitched: first generation immigrants – today is 17% of immigrants in GB – on the right we have seen the British equivalent of Trump- and comments about all the people being allowed in – including gypsies can come in; some Brits are upset that they have to take people being sent in by the EU –
- seems to him that what has happened is that a broad consensus said this is not working for us: jobs being shipped to China; people coming from Hungary – there are places in GB that have lost their industry thanks to the whole globalism thing going on which is breaking down with the opposition to the trade agreements – since the late 90s, Thom has been writing that it wasn't noble and it wasn't liberal to have no borders – this transcends right left politics: this is a symptom of a larger situation – a world wide rejection of the idea that borders should not exist unless you're a billionaire who wants to stash money somewhere and drive down the cost of labour the energies are really wild!

- A comment to the Newbies: his job is trying to make some sense through the current chaos. Uses astrology for insight into what's going on.
 - Astrology is a broad field of study: it includes relationships, insight into
- Sat: sun in 18 Cancer – the constellation of Cancer is behind the direction for the Sunday
- Mercury is at Mercury; Venus and sun are in the zone of essential emotional components – it's cardinal water and water is shorthand for emotions. Emotions are high or powerful or up front these days!!! Added to by Mercury & Venus in late Cancer
 - Mars comes in here: Mars is planet of initiative, initiation – often considered to be planet of violence, war – so there is initiation energy in 24* Scorpio which is Dancing in Cancer
 - Mercury is close at 21*
 - Mars has been retrograde and the nature of the planet tells us to go inner – when it is not retrograde, we go to the outer world – it's moving slowly – in 24* Scorpio
 - Jupiter has been retrograde, and went direct May 10th
 - Virgo is about service, about Divine Mother energy – bring forth a child, a new idea – new creation energy. Virgo is on the earth plane: plants forest, prairie, gardens; also connected to blessings; Jupiter in Virgo is about blessings from the Mother – feminine earth energy; an icon is the mother of Jesus
 - Jupiter is opposite Neptune – earth is sitting between Jupiter and Neptune – so there is a Pisces - Virgo opposition - ?? Saturn is in 11 Sag, retrograde; Neptune is a 12 Pisces retrograde – Saturn is self-discipline; Neptune is the pursuit of wisdom with Sat in Sag, the sign of the pursuit of wisdom
 - the sun at 18* Cancer: these 3 planets – Sun, Mercury, Venus have been opposing in Capricorn – and Pluto is also retrograde which is about inner work – it's stirring up shadow stuff; Capricorn is also about mountains – and we have the water component about emotions
- Sun: Mercury in Cancer, square Uranus, trine Mars on Sunday
- when the sun comes out, take your Mercury thoughts and apply your Martian initiative – tomorrow is a good time to start a new project BUT the conditions are not really easy
- Mon: Mercury with square Uranus, the channel to Divine Will – both individually and collectively – if planning a new endeavour, check and re-check your plans – but better to wait until end of week.
- Tues: Venus moves into Leo; Moon goes into Scorpio: WAIT UNTIL SUN GETS INTO LEO! THIS CHANGE OF ENERGY FROM MAGNETIC TO THOUGHT, emotional to mental, magnetic to electrical –
Merc moves on Wed; Venus and Mercury into Leo ahead of the Sun – Venus on the 12th, Merc on 13th
- Wed: Mercury moves
- Thur: sun conjuncts Mars – another flash point: there is so much stress in the system, we are getting flash point types of events: Dallas, Baton Rouge, MN – this will not ease up for another 2 weeks!
- Fri: moon in Sat at 5 am
- Sat: moon conjuncts Saturn, squares Neptune – questions about wisdom
- sun will exactly square Uranus on Sat – another blow-up thing! Mars conjunct Uranus puts out agitation – it's a 150* angle which is agitation At 120*, it's an easy communication at 150*; on the other side have an opposition

Next Sat: another trigger point – sun square Uranus. Sun trine Mars – this week will be steamier than this week – it's the Cancer water element; Cancer in Pisces; Uranus in Aries; Saturn in Sag - it's fire and water working here – hot, steamy, pressure cooker energies for the next 2 weeks!!!

T: there will be the Republican convention in an open carry state!

- Then a full moon next day!
- Convention starts on the 18th , a Monday

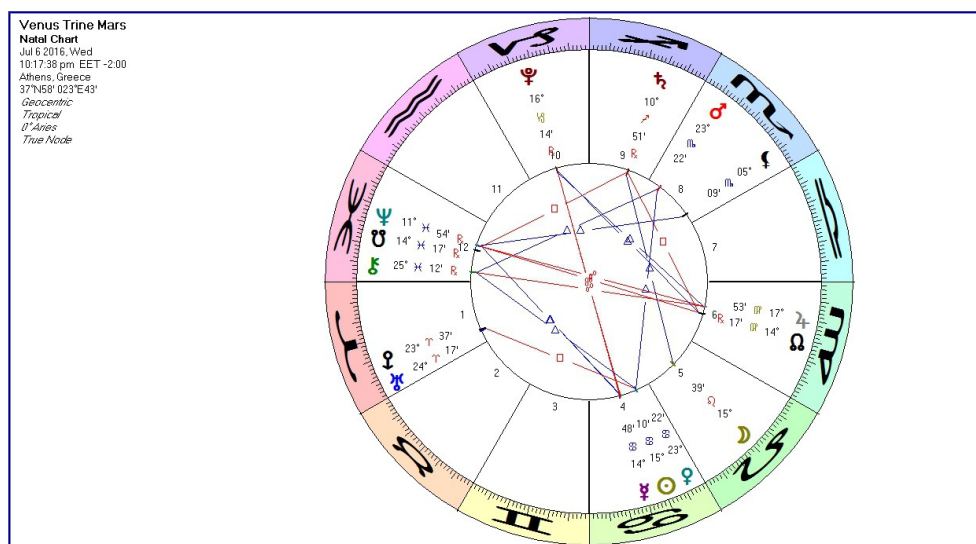

Ri: full moon on Tuesday – this convention may last a little longer – the group consciousness is in a state of extreme stress: like the masses are dealing with a PTSD condition! Full moon at 28* Capricorn

*Love truly is the answer,
Whenever I'm in doubt.
It is the reason why I'm here,
And what it's all about.*

Indeed! This is what the Year of Purification is all about and leading us into. Through all the challenges and the crisis, it has been helping us to boil our thoughts, deeds, and actions down to the bottom line = Love. Perhaps giving us no one or nothing else to stand on or believe in, we have the chance, with a slight push from Life, to open our hearts to love.

It's turning around now, and if you stop and breathe and taste her, Life will fill all your senses with sweet nectar. As we set aside our goals, and our hopes, and our future expectations of ourselves and the other, we find the undercurrent of life taking us exactly where we need to go to find ourselves and love.

This is the magic of Chiron/Neptune in Pisces trine Venus in Cancer, and Mars in Scorpio. We have indeed hit a turning point in June that, now through, will allow for our resurrection into a new light, a new life, and perhaps a new path! Not with instant gratification, the energy will be building slowly, but truly, a new horizon awaits those who are ready to leave the past behind. Enjoy!

Ri: from the book on Sabian Symbols: the last half of Scorpio is faith

Mars: 23* Scorpio is a rabbit metamorphosis into a nature spirit

24 Scorpio – need to incorporate inspiring experiences and teaching into everyday living

- This call is a weird mixture of spirituality and intelligent discussion: we use the symbol system to point us how to help with our thinking
- Transparency is so important right now: Assange going to put out more material; Hillary was totally exposed this week; the people are demanding transparency – one of the good things we can do as a group: demand transparency.
- Everyone is entitled to their opinion but the facts are the facts – a two-edged sword kind of thing – one side is my opinion; the other side is the facts!
 - The propaganda here has been brought to a fine art: the media has been bought and unpaid for: they are taking direction, no matter what station it is!
 - Obvious now that there is a background director – could put some names to it – maybe Chaney, Soros, whoever: but what we are dealing with in every day events is lyin' lyin' lyin' going on!
- If we are going to master this crap, we have to become experts of fact checking; don't take anything at face value; keep digging behind the story to find out what's going on.
 - Our problem is elders: those over 60= elders: our job is to train the youngsters –
 - as we go forward between now and the election, it is more important than ever to put the facts of the conditions out there – need the facts to make a rational choice.
 - For the next 4 months – Jupiter is in Virgo and looking ahead – the sun, Mercury, Venus in Cancer through Libra, then through Virgo – so about 60 – 90 days, we will see some real transformation here!
- August 30th - Venus goes into Libra which brings us into vibration of balance and justice
 - Mercury goes retrograde Aug 31st in 29 Virgo
 - Sun will be in 9 Virgo
 - Jupiter will be at 28 Virgo
 - Mars will be in 14 Sag
- Sept 9th – Jupiter into Libra
 - Venus will be in 13 Libra
- the battle will be more obvious by then: we'll know where we stand – at the moment, too much going on!

CONFERENCE CALL

Caller: appreciation for Ri's presentation

Ri: looking at: 12 more days of sun in Cancer – emotional water component

- the next month with sun in Leo - a fiery trine – Uranus still in Aries – a fire trine on 22nd
- Saturn still retro at 10* Sagittarius when it goes direct on Aug 13
 - Uranus still retrograde at 25* Aries – so the energies are determined to continue to stir the pot and the questions are:
 - why are we here? [to learn how to cooperate, relate to each other for the highest good of all concerned]
- the first relationship developed – with ourselves, then our parents, then our siblings, then with peer groups
 - this group on this call – all older most of us are over 50 so 50 years of relating to each other, discussing, related through individual lessons and trials. But we showed up together which is a blessing

- we work locally; we visualize globally – an important point -

Ri: has been in this arena for 30+ years and we work wherever the opportunity presents itself

- I [Ri] am/is here for the good of all concerned; we have people spread out around the world; to be effective and to make a difference, we work locally and we get together globally or semi globally to share our wisdom, experiences

T: to share what COR talks of Gerry: has been a lightworker for over 61 years; loves us all; what are we going to do about it???

- things moving rapidly spiritually; dealing with very nice people: all generating funds to help with various kinds of projects
- he's growing by leaps and bounds – realizing about his past lifetimes – we are all going forward!
- Went to the Eckanar centre last night – for every oz of love we put into the HU [as in hu-man] – the sphinx used to be known as Hu [halleluha – allah + hu – an ancient name; when you open your heart and use it, it's very powerful]
- Last night he opened his 3rd eye and saw all sorts of people – when he asked about his eyesight, all he got was a big big smile! Those who don't know what's going on, soon will!

Ri: thanks Gerry for his words.

Sonja: from LA -- happy to be in the group – has been busy – heard him talk about the masses and PTSD – which influence: Mars, ??

Ri: astrologically, we have Cancer Scorpio trine, Venus trine to Mars in Scorpio – Scorpio is in a difficult position in relation to Uranus – the plan: Divine Will in Aries – new beginnings.

- Growth is always a challenge!

So: The balance at this level is always a challenge

Ri: thanks Sonja for letting him make this comment: the issue on the planet that all of us lightworkers have mental illness

- the people, the masses – a gross is 144,000 cases of mental illness – PTSD is rampant!
- Everyone on the planet is suffering from this – mother – anyone who is so traumatized and thinks they need to pick up a gun and shoot someone has mental illness – the gun is the tool and the illness is what we are trying to deal with!
- It is because we don't love one another; don't understand the nature of the Law of One – if we did, we'd do no harm!

So: the biggest harm is to oneself – if you understand

Ri: if you are inclined to suicide, you are hurting me too -

- love one another, do no harm, know thyself, love your neighbour as yourself – these precepts are not taught any more, originally from Lau Tze / Socrates –
- that's where we're going/returning

So: these values are inculcated in the child by the nuclear family

- talks of someone being brought up to do things because it's the right thing to do! And do it for no reward.

Ri: spent lots of time considering the words of Jesus who knew where it was at! Simple precepts

So: love with no end – a book by glenda green – a respectable painter: had visions of painting Jesus and he showed up in her studio so she could paint him: the teaching about science and society – talked of adamantite particles for example – very amazing material

- Quite a job he did
- the Isaiah effect by Greg Bradin talks of which books of the bible were deleted: there were some books they couldn't even understand! Like Miriam

Ri: this material is now available, but still not being read – Gospel according to Thomas; the dead sea scrolls – still comes down to the fundamentals: we are all One;

So: the awakening is happening all around us: the energies are so strong refers to the message Cheryl read from Patti C-R -

Carlton: he has read some things whether Jesus actually walked the earth in a physical body -
• any writings from Jesus himself?

Ri: an interesting question: an unanswered thing – no one so far has produced anything that would be of his authorship – but Ri is still convinced Jesus walked the planet

So: he went through the initiations

T: she muted herself unintentionally – now back.

• Penny brings up the hunab ku; Gerry brought HU – and when T was doing ?, used the sound HU

T: Ri was going to read from Krishna Murti -

Ri: It's a book called The Ending of Time – a transcript of a conversation between J Krihna Murti and David Bohm, physicist – the material is from 1980 – he got the book by spiritual magic

• Can insight bring about a mutation of the brain cells?

Randy Mandell: Finance Vs. Green Economy

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H3CVJt2OWTk&feature=youtu.be>

Published on 27 May 2016

What is financialization? Keeping fossil fuels in the ground depends, in no small part, on rapidly developing a Green Economy that transitions us to renewable energy sources and provides clean green jobs. But this crucial endeavor is directly thwarted by our Wall Street-generated financialized economy - one where profits are made not by building new economic structures and improving living standards but by destructively siphoning wealth from current assets and loading us down with debt.

To get to a Green Economy in time to stop global warming we need to reverse financialization and make finance serve the public not the other way around. Because financialization harms everyone's lives - students and schools, healers and healthcare, workers and pensions - addressing it is a powerful tool for alliance building and growing the movement to address climate change. Learn about the hidden forces that are the biggest obstacle to a better world.

We discuss the biggest topics needing a 'solution'. As the world looks on with fear at the prospect of a Trump presidency, they propose solutions to 'make America great again'. Maybe better media? Better infrastructure? More political parties and less of the lesser of two evils? In the second half they talk to Professor Steve Keen about his ideas on how to make America great again. They discuss the role of 'trade deals' such as Nafta and the TTIP as well as the role of rising debt in the decline of living standards.

In this week's episode of Redacted Tonight, Lee Camp reveals a new damning Stanford University study showing that major voting machine companies actually donated heavily to the Clinton Foundation AND produced non-verifiable electronic voting results that drastically favored Hillary in an absurd contrast to 337 pre-election polls. Lee also shows how CNN is not only helping to prop up ISIS, but is giving them tips on how to strike the US. Plus, he breaks down just how crazy large America's trash creation is. Redacted Correspondent John F. O'Donnell presents a segment about how Big Coal is robbing its employees of their pensions and benefits, while at the same time sticking the US taxpayers with the responsibility of paying to clean up their environmental messes. And Redacted Correspondent Carlos Delgado shows up in studio to discuss the "Dark Act" that is trying to undermine states' ability to label GMOs.

2016-06-21 We Need to Throw Out the Second Amendment

The United States' gun violence problem has reached a breaking point, and while we can talk all we want about assault weapons bans, universal background checks and terror watch lists, there's only one real solution to this problem: We need to repeal the Second Amendment.

That's right -- we need to repeal the Second Amendment.

This, of course, is completely unacceptable to Republicans, but that's because they don't know real the history of the Second Amendment, and the real history of the Second Amendment is as ugly as it gets.

See more news and opinion from Thom Hartmann at Truthout here.

Thanks to corporate media's unquestioning regurgitation of right-wing talking points, most Americans think that Second Amendment is in the US Constitution to protect the rights of individual gun owners from the government.

Well, that's not even remotely true.

The "Second Amendment" as we know it today is a legal fiction invented by the gun industry and their buddies on the Supreme Court. Despite what you might hear on "Fox So-Called News," there actually was no individual right to own a gun until 2008, when the Supreme Court said there was in its decision in the case of District of Columbia v. Heller.

This decision, which struck down Washington, DC's handgun ban, was the culmination of a decades-long push by the gun industry to twist the Second Amendment into something that would help it sell more weapons, and it had zero basis in real constitutional history.

It's what former Chief Justice Warren Burger called "A fraud on the American public," and it's a fraud that now makes it very, very hard to put in place sensible gun control laws.

So, if the Second Amendment wasn't originally about protecting gun rights, why is it in the US

Constitution? What were the founders thinking?

Well, the obvious answer, and the one accepted by most historians, is that they were trying to prevent the existence of a standing army during times of peace. The founders were scholars of classical history, and they knew history teaches that when given too much power, armies, repeatedly and throughout history, would overthrow democracy and put in place a military dictatorship. There's even a phrase to describe it: a military coup.

As James Madison told the Philadelphia Constitutional Convention in 1787:

A standing military force ... will not long be safe companions to liberty. The means of defense against foreign danger have been always the instruments of tyranny at home. Among the Romans it was a standing maxim to excite a war, whenever a revolt was apprehended. Throughout all Europe, the armies kept up under the pretext of defending, have enslaved the people.

With this situation in mind, the founders wrote the Second Amendment, which says that, "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

The key word here is "militia."

At the time the Bill of Rights was written, the US had no real professional army, and what military it did have was in the form of 13 separate state militias. The founders saw these militias as the best check against the rise of a [federal] standing army, and so they wrote the Second Amendment to make sure that they were always protected. But that's only part of the story.

By protecting the militias, the founders weren't just preventing or trying to prevent the rise of mischief by a standing army -- they were also protecting the institution of slavery that was the key to the southern economy.

In states like Georgia, Virginia and the Carolinas, militias of 1789 were also known as slave patrols.

And after the US Constitution was written, southern slave-owners, led by Patrick Henry (Virginia's largest slave owner) started freaking out that their slaves could be constitutionally freed and then drafted by the federal government, which was given the power under Article 1, Section 8 to raise a national militia. The slave-owners worried that this national militia would eventually be used by Northern anti-slavery types to destroy the slave patrols and maybe even the institution of slavery itself.

And so what did those slave-owners do? They had the founders write into the Second Amendment specific protections for slave patrols.

These protections aren't obvious, but they're there, and we know this because of the difference between James Madison's original draft of the Second Amendment and the final version included in the Bill of Rights.

Madison's original version of the Second Amendment reads as follows: "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed; a well armed, and well regulated militia being the best security of a free country: but no person religiously scrupulous of bearing arms, shall be compelled to render military service in person."

This version of the Second Amendment didn't fit well with slave-owners because it included words like "country," words they felt could be used to justify the creation a national militia which would include freed slaves -- a backdoor way for a Northern president to free Southern slaves.

And so Patrick Henry lobbied James Madison to rewrite the Second Amendment into the version we know today.

He spoke passionately at the Virginia Ratifying Convention: "If the country be invaded, a state may go to war," Henry said, "but cannot suppress [slave] insurrections [under this new Constitution]. If there should happen an insurrection of slaves, the country cannot be said to be invaded. They cannot, therefore, suppress it without the interposition of Congress ... Congress, and Congress only [under this new Constitution], can call forth the militia."

He added:

In this state [of Virginia], there are two hundred and thirty-six thousand blacks, and there are many in several other states. But there are few or none in the Northern States ... May Congress not say, that every black man must fight? Did we not see a little of this last war? We were not so hard pushed as to make emancipation general; but acts of Assembly passed that every slave who would go to the army should be free.

As Michael R. Burch wrote, Henry was obviously convinced that the power granted the federal government in the new Constitution could be used to strip the slave states of their slave control militias. He anticipated exactly what Abraham Lincoln would end up doing:

"They will search that paper [the Constitution]," Henry said, "and see if they have power of manumission. And have they not, sir? Have they not power to provide for the general defence and welfare? May they not think that these call for the abolition of slavery? May they not pronounce all slaves free, and will they not be warranted by that power? This is no ambiguous implication or logical deduction. The paper speaks to the point: they have the power in clear, unequivocal terms, and will clearly and certainly exercise it. This [slavery] is a local matter, and I can see no propriety in subjecting it to Congress."

To satisfy Henry, James Madison changed the word "country" to the word "state," a change Patrick Henry demanded to make it explicitly clear that the US Constitution protected the state militia (aka slave patrol) in Virginia.

The big picture here isn't a pretty one: The Second Amendment, which is now used by the weapons industry to justify selling weapons of war to civilians, was originally created, at least in part, to help preserve slavery in the south.

You really couldn't ask for a better metaphor for everything that's wrong with the US and its history. But here's the thing: we don't need to be trapped by that history.

Ever since it was ratified, Americans have repeatedly changed parts of the Constitution: Women were granted the right to vote, Black people were granted legal citizenship, alcohol was prohibited and then legalized again. This country has continually broken with its past and moved toward a better future. It's time we did the same with the Second Amendment.

At its best, the Second Amendment is an anachronism that's no longer relevant in an era in which the United States has a standing army but remains a democracy. At its worst, it's a tool for slave-owners that's now being used by the weapons industry to prevent any and all sensible gun laws. There's only one way out of this mess: It's time to repeal the Second Amendment.

Killer Mike: "I'm Afraid I Will Be Murdered"

by Danielle Harling

Killer Mike says he fears for his life when outside of Atlanta.

Following the deaths of Alton Sterling and Philando Castile at the hands of police officers this week, Killer Mike appeared on Hot 107.9 to offer his thoughts on the shooting deaths of both men. The musician explained that although he feels safe in Atlanta, he fears for his life just 15 miles outside of the city.

"I'm just filled with hurt and grief...It is time to get angry and do something," Killer Mike said.

"It is time to prevent these abusers and these police that abuse the law...15 miles outside Atlanta, I'm afraid I will be murdered. And I'm tired of living in an environment where this city is the only place in this country I feel safe as a black person. People wonder 'Why people love Atlanta so much? Why you come? You still poor.' But we not running around worried that we're going to be murdered in the street."

In response to the shootings of Sterling and Castile, the rapper suggested that people stop giving their money to corporations who haven't spoken out against police brutality.

"What we can do is go to your banks tomorrow," he said. "You can go to your bank tomorrow. And you can say 'Until you as a corporation start to speak on our behalf, I want all my money. And I'm taking all my money to Citizen's Trust'...Apartheid ended in South Africa because students in America said 'We not flying Delta anymore. We not drinking Coca-Cola anymore. We're not supporting any corporation that supports the Apartheid and the enslavement of people that look like us.' And I'm just saying once again...Take your money out of this dog's hands. Out of their paws. Take your money."
