REDISTRICTING: MOVING CLOSER TO THE FINAL LINES

Join us for a lively and informative discussion on the final district lines for Congress, State Senate, Assembly and Board of Equalization

Dr. Michael Ward

Dr. Ward is one of 14 commissioners on the first Citizens Redistricting Commission charged with redrawing district lines in conformity with strict nonpartisan rules designed to create districts of equal population that will provide representation for Californians over the next decade. He is a doctor of Chiropractic and Sports Medicine in Fullerton since 2005 specializing in myoneural medicine. Dr. Ward is a proud decorated veteran of the U.S. Air Force, and was also a Federal Agent in charge of international criminal, narcotics and counter-intelligence investigations and was part of the response team to the 9/11 terrorist attack on the Pentagon.

Sen. Dick Ackerman (Ret.)

An attorney with Nossaman LLP, Dick Ackerman draws on his 35 years of experience in corporate, real estate, and business law. Mr. Ackerman assists his clients in navigating through the political process in order to achieve successful results. He has over 25 years of experience in elected office, including serving in the State Senate and Assembly and on the Fullerton City Council. While in the Senate, Senator Ackerman served as Republican Leader and a member of the "Big 5," one of the legislative leaders charged with consulting the Governor on key infrastructure and budget issues.

Adam Probolsky

Mr. Probolsky is chairman and CEO of Probolsky Research LLC. A political adviser and pollster with over fifteen years of experience, he has conducted research and provided strategic advice to hundreds of local, regional and state government agencies, political candidates and ballot propositions, as well as associations, educational institutions, media organizations, non-profits and Fortune 500 companies. Mr. Probolsky has been featured on FoxNews Channel and published in the Orange County Register, the Los Angeles Times, Capitol Weekly, The Hill and National Review Online.
