The Complete Music of Five Significant Banjo Books 1855-1865

Brigg's Banjo Instructor of 1855, The Phil Rice Method 1858, Buckley's New Banjo Book 1860, Frank Converse Banjo Without A Master 1865 (The Yellow Book), and Frank Converse Banjo With or Without A Master 1865 (The Green Book).

Played by Tim Twiss 2012-2013 and recorded in Hartland Michigan using fretless Hartel and Bell Boucher banjos.

The music is simple, pure, and faithful to the score. They are based on research, comparison, and old school trial and error.

An honest effort has been made to capture the original spirit of the music. They do, however, represent my own interpretation .

The music is in alphabetical order and does not appear in the sequence that they do in the books.
