 - June 21st Solstice
 - Sept 23rd equinox
 - Dec 21st 2015 - solstice
- April 4th full moon, total lunar
- Sept 13th partial solar eclipse, new moon
- Sept 28 a fullmoon, total lunar eclipse

Hard News:

R: no one can stop talking about what is happening in Paris;

- it's ring around the merry-go-round that began as 9/11; Osama did not do it!
- Tricky Dicky Cheney did it

T: had on an Imam who was saying Islam means peace; the first mandate of that religion is if you harm one hair on someone, you harm everyone; they live by the law of the One

- It is Black Ops – Israel, Saudi Arabia, the US are doing it all

R: Richard Engel said the two young men were connected with Al Queda in Iraq

T: on Al Jazeera, said the older one was trained in Yemen in an Al Queda camp

R: the whole story is CIA – duh which was created for that purpose

- what we are seeing here in DC and over there: interesting timing that this Paris event happened at the same time we are watching the fiasco in our own gov't

T: being called Boehner the Brazen: he is kicking out the 25 who voted against him; throwing them off all the committees; there's a war within the party: a repeat show of Home Alone per Mike Papantonio

- Tomorrow they will try the Keystone Pipeline, and Obama will veto it

R: Tom the Cat explained: the energies we are moving through now: all the brotherhoods, sisterhoods of ancient stories and legends are back, including the Maitraya, the Mahdi

- the divine time where the issues of Christianity, Islam, buddhism are coming full circle
- the ship sightings are all over the planet, and increasing exponentially
- Portals where light is shooting up from the earth
 - something huge just happened – Jan 3 or 4th
 - Orbs showed up with a shooting star; then the portal opened and
- Going global – the guardians of the galaxy have returned!

R: the ones doing the not nice things on the planet: it is our job to send more love than we thought possible

Brazil: There is an extension of the Charlie Hebdo group in Brazil, making it clear that the power of the pen is more powerful than the power of a gun! She describes one of the cartoons: getting on to the idea that 9/11 was an inside job.

Caller: refers to Pres. Obama's speech this night ; we're going to have free community college for 2 years

- a so-called lame duck president - offering free education for those who want it. Is this part of Nesara?

T: it is a right of every human being to be educated; opening the door to the apprenticeship

- Cannot kill an idea with a gun: glad he's doing that
- Asks if it is just for 2 years?

Caller: There are reports that in South America black eyed children are being seen in South America

- their eyes are completely black – no white at all!
- And in Africa, there are kids with blue eyes

T/R: a huge starship showed up in LA over one of the freeways! Plain as day!

T: the Kumbh Mela happens nce every 12 years; there will be millions gathering on the Ganges River right now

- we can use that spiritual energy
- their resistance is making people say What CAN I do? Could even be the energy that is behind Obama's actions too.

[This video will be played on Friday]

Kumbh Mela: At A Glance

Every twelve years, tens of millions of men, women and children gather on the flood plain of the Ganges and Yamuna Rivers in Allahabad, India, for the Kumbh Mela, the largest gathering of humanity for religious purposes on the planet. Pilgrims come from across India and around the world to bathe in the water where the two sacred rivers meet. Such mass bathing in the Ganges has been recorded for more than 2,500 years.

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/sacredjourneys/content/kumbh-mela/>

Tom the Cat told Rama:

- We are ushering in the brothers and the sisters of the most high right now! This is what has stirred the pot regarding Islam, Buddhism and Christianity: Jesu, Buddha and Mohammed are on the planet with all other brotherhoods and sisterhoods, along with the Mahdi
- It's showdown time; these multiple of sightings have to do with the full disclosure coming And Obama as the Admiral in Charge takes the stage.
- And he meant to say Admiral in charge - since 1945, the Ashtar [thought is not finished]

North Korea: Kim Jong Un's birthday today; the photos show him in a plane today

James Comey, head of the FBI: said you could see that the IP addresses being used come from N. Korea

- It is Black Ops who did the hacking and blamed it on North Korea

China's Xi Jing Ping – China & Brazil are doing a lot of deals & other South American countries, and China and the Caribbean; they have to do with Venezuela collapsing due to the price of oil declining

Gas is $1.50/ gal in Santa Fe – a little later than Christmas!

Paris: the youngest one, thought to be the driver, voluntarily gave himself up: said he was homeless but in school!

- The police found molotov cocktails and an id in the car used by the brothers.

R: in spite of all the heavy stories, he gets the sense that now is the time when all the magical kingdoms and their counter parts show up; they mean good business and the ancient ancient ones who are involved in the story called Samsara: pain is inevitable, suffering is optional!

Pope Francis: going to address a summit of world religions in March – to address the moral and ethical obligations to act to prevent these kinds of situations

- Mike Papantonio spoke of the infrastructures of organized religions: I did not leave my faith; the religion left me as the infrastructure did not appropriately address a deeper level of faith - have to continuously address this question, like the founders said about continuously addressing the current situations in the country
- Like what was in the Constitution: the 14th amendment had nothing to do with ending slavery but to do with the elites being the elites and everyone else is a resource to them
- Also the 13th amendment: if you take a Title of Nobility, you are no longer a citizen; you may not have gainful world or practice your profession – this is ignored!

Rainbird: about Universal Energy Stargate_Round_Table_2015-01-08.mp3

Gives the history of the processes: she's been studying it since 1995 – by the time she'd finished the first 2 levels, she was over her health issues!

- It integrates with your life: UE is prana or chi, the energy that is abundant in our life an attunement, an energy transfer tunes the chakras – she tunes them 100% when she does the teaching the body can magnify the energy; the chakras deal with different parts of the body the 7th deals with the circulatory system, nervous, the endocrine – when it is stimulated, it stimulates all those systems – can use it when someone needs a treatment right away with an immediate hands on approach.
- Come from a master born in 1842 in Sri Lanka: Nazira Muratta – had been a career person and took his father's position when the father passed. After 5 years doing that work, he retired and worked on self-development.. He figured out to use hands on and not have to spend hours in meditation as he had done.
 - He retired and passed on the teachings, and that person passed it on again, to 5 Viet Nameese people
- Rainbird learned it from Master Dang of Viet Nam who taught it and set up research programs related to it - to integrate the knowledge of science with spirituality
 - It is really about self-cultivation and really about god-like cultivations
- a powerful, healing technique – illnesses can be healed very quickly
- Has been working with Reetah and others on cancer issues
 - All kinds of people could do the teachings and Master Dang would come and do the energy transfers – in that last class, they learned how to do the energy transfers from the teacher which he had kept to himself all that time
 - Two weeks later he died -

- As we gain the freedom from anxiety, worries and fears and having a place of calm inside, All the concepts he taught and through his teaching, enabled them to reach those abilities too

Reetah, one of Rainbird's students:

- asked if she had shared the teaching about the meditation and 3 breaths
- the state of calm and inner peace that she has come to find, access in the meditations and in the higher levels, the chants
- very much appreciates and resonated with the meditation: short, to the point, very calming, in the early phases of the training & attunement, take 3 deep breaths: in through the nose and out through the mouth – asks all to do it with her; remembering to take the 3 breaths allows her to centre, ground, feel peaceful, focus thoughts;
- in addition to the short meditation, the encouragement is to be of service to the self, family, community and even to people we don't know
 - in the middle part of the training, encouraged to transfer Universal Energy to people in emergency situations when you see an ambulance, for example
- she has experienced that the UE provides a fluidity to situations, to allow for the highest good for all involved to continue to be there, in alignment with love
 - Always looking for the highest, purest energy connection she can find for self, family
- It is very clear: it is the energy of the Universe; according to the research and study – it is the energy that creates our universe and continues to do so; the universal force, essence around all beings: people, animals, plants - she has even given it with her car!
 - Was in an auto accident with a whiplash situation – gave herself a UE treatment and felt the focus happen in her neck; she had no trouble with her neck, no whiplash injury or further difficulty
- In terms of research, she is continuously tracking things happening in her life: the sooner a UE treatment can occur after an accident, trauma, or an incident that could be a challenge, the UE keeps the energy moving and does not allow any crystallization of the energy – it does not stop flowing and coagulate: because she gave herself a treatment within minutes of the whiplash experience, the energy continued to move and so she had no injury
- She heard Kaypacha talk of this: used no painkillers or anything during an operation: just focussed on the point of incision and had no issues with the surgery
- Uses UE with her child: has made some breakthroughs with chronic health issues – continues to be amazed at her healthy vibrant child!
- working a man with apnea, sleep problems – now sleeping the best in last 5-10 years since they've been doing the direct treatment
- a Breast Cancer patient: the toxicity due to radiation. The doctor said that 70% of his patients need follow-up treatments due to the toxicity of the radiation. The person talking to him had had UE treatments by Reetah
- Reetah feels very honoured to have received teachings from Rainbird who is a 4th generation recipient of the teachings.
- amazing all the different realms of service that have opened up; it's been a faith builder for her, as she has done more research and does her daily meditational practices: the more she practices, the more she expands. The gift of a lifetime.

RB: points out that the meditations are not long, and the maximum time for a treatment is 5 minutes

- The maximum time for a daily meditation is less than 30 minutes!

She has done market gardening and raising goats – has used UE to increase the health of her garden and her animals; can use the energy to treat water and food

- gives you an action to take when there is some kind of concern: I can do this – I can send energy this way or that way!

- Noticed on NBC the story of a model, a member of their UE classes in St Louis; at the time she was 25 years old and the swimsuit model for a magazine – famous;

• this was a 10 year anniversary of the tsunami, and Tetra was in Thailand at the time of the tsunami. She and her fiancé got caught in the water, went under twice but came up and got on a mattress and went up a tree for 8 hours; she did a lot of energy work – had to stay awake to stay in the tree: 6 months or sooner, she was back modelling after having a crushed pelvis. Had a rapid healing. The movie Hurricane tells her story but not about her, rather a family.

- RB was weaving the path of the Cherokee & receiving from Rocking Bear, and the other indigenous & shamanic ways with the balancing power of the energy.
 - One of the teachings is doing something with every breath. She works at living her life
 - The Divine Dharma meditation is what D calls it
- Has started teaching this again – does it locally in groups and also by conference call

Sunday, Jan 25; 2 – 5 pm EST

- will do the basic level – conf call # 712-775-7031; PIN# 76722364
- This work supercharges the Violet Flame
- Standard tuition is $152; she will put it to us: any kind of donation will be fine;
 - plans to donate some to BBS radio or T & R;
 - & to increasing her own education on the subject: wants to go to Hawaii to audit how it's taught at the higher levels for a class
- Donation for the 5 levels; yes, she will be able to do all 5 in that amount of time
 - MR will accept the payments for the class, either by phone or by computer
 - some people may need to do it in increments
 - If it is too much for us, we can offer what we can – she does not want people to not take the class because it is too expensive
 - It is just a gift she wants to share
- Anyone can come - she is going to offer it in February next month too
- For more information on UE, visit the following sites :
 - www.stationabiyoga.com from a couple who live in Vancouver, BC – they have taken it and made it into their own evolution [Amir and Davoud, both Iranian]]
 - www.huesa.org site is run by Master Dang's partner, Ko I
- we will find other sites, locations and teaching centres as we search these sites
- there are active teaching centers in Albuquerque, NM and St Louis, MO

Reetah: different applications:

- everyone has something to do with food;
 - when her body was going through transformation, she was on a strict regimen which made it challenging to eat with others
 - one important use is to purify food and water: can be used in own home as we cook; she treated the food she was offered, and could eat with everyone over the holiday season!
- works for headache, stomach ache, sinus infection, chronic illness, fatigue, brain balancing, recalibrating our endocrine and immune systems – it has endless applications
- works when she has to have a conversation she does not look forward to: uses it with the cat, child, car, food, drink, air she breathes around exhaust pipes

RB: uses it in her gardening;

- people have done research with rice fields, gardens,
- labs investigating cancer taking pictures before and after cancer treatments;

- techniques for changing salt water to fresh water, or vice versa.
- Her friend in Mississauga who had a huge chicken farm – inspector came once a month to pick up a chicken to test for e coli; would come back the 2nd day to test it again because he could not find any evidence of e coli! Her friend said that's the way they come here!

Program for the class:

- opening of the chakras – 7,6,5,4,3,2
 - new concept of meditation
 - chakras as energy centres of activation
 - a total activation of the chakras and tuning into what the energy feels like
 - discussing spiritual healing as a complementary therapy
 - cancer: can usually treat it and it clears up in 2 weeks
 - Usually people are afraid and think they have to do chemo, radiation & such, so most of the treatment goes to eliminating the side effects of chemo and radiation
 - in Thailand lots of centres with HIV / AIDS patients, can turn it around completely
 - total focus of the mind
 - Level 4: learning how to spin the chakras – a clearing technique
 - works on soul, body and mind – always advancing: it's a yogo technique – brief, rewarding, enjoyable
 - Those of us on the call already know how work with energy – it's scalar energy as Judy Beebe works with
 - Speaks of an antenna model that can be used to power a household!
 - Tells of master Dang's attention to a snow storm!
- MR: doing the radionics means the energy is familiar
- RB: used to do homeopathy and took her kit with her everywhere in case it was needed – now she just uses the UE
- Also uses Lloyd Mear's numbers – uses the number with her own protocol.
- Reetah: says she has felt those resonances coming into her own body thanks to Rainbird whatever skills and gifts we have, the UE helps them develop
- RB: most of the work she does is clearing work: buildings, spaces, offices both in North Carolina and in DC
- has cleared homes, places with ghosts, on real estate that does not move – because she moves the energy, the building can sell
 - can effect healing for someone who has already passed over
 - when you can help someone who has passed over and is stuck between worlds – a win-win.

MR: since RB did the healing, experiencing a lot of warmth in her body – it is cold where she is!

Hard News:

- T: refers to what RB said – as we see something going on, it can be used for good even though it seems to be bad – this is what she sees happening in Paris
- like the amount of indepth examination of ideas going on
 - eg the statement that rules that are within religious practice do not pre-empt people's freedoms and rights.
 - What is happening is the idea that there are rules that apply whether or not the other person is in that system of religious belief; If you don't like it, you can resort to violence.
 - Freedom of expression does not extend to insulting the prophets of allah whatever your views of what is happening in Paris: that is - what one group said. And as you realize that these are coming from the Black Ops of the west: Netanyahu, John McCain, the Republicans - like John Boehner kicking the others out because he didn't like what they did as they wanted to move him of
- these last 1-2 months, a lot of maturity showing up on Thom Hartmann's shows
 - the energies pouring in are being demonstrated in the people: they are grasping what is going on
 - Tonight MR getting warm just from that one treatment from the Universal Energy – an instantaneous result

T: This year is # 8 – 2015: 2+1+5 = 8

The Four Noble Truths and the Eightfold Path

Dan Bammes

http://www.sasana.org/sangha_noble.shtml

Some time ago, a young person sent me an e-mail note asking about the basic beliefs of Buddhism. The Four Noble Truths and the Eightfold Path represent that essence; this is my reply. It is simply my interpretation at this stage of my understanding; you're welcome to agree or to dispute it as you might choose.

Looking back over your message, I'm guessing you wanted something a little more than the obvious answers I included in my previous message. At the risk of giving you more than you asked for, here's my fundamental orientation to Buddhism.

The foundation beliefs of Buddhism are the Four Noble Truths and the Eightfold Path. These were taught by the Buddha (a word which means The Enlightened One) about 2500 years ago. They are essentially the same through every sect and tradition of Buddhism. They are:

1. All life knows suffering. Nobody gets what they want out of life.
2. The cause of suffering is ignorance and clinging. Wanting it is the problem.
- 3 There is a way to end suffering. By learning not to want it.
- 4 This is the way to end suffering: The Eightfold Path.
 - 1, Right Understanding Learning the nature of reality and the truth about life.
 2. Right Aspiration Making the commitment to living in such a way that our suffering can end.
 3. Right Effort Just Do It. No Excuses.
 4. Right Speech Speaking the truth in a helpful and compassionate way.
 5. Right Conduct Living a life consistent with our values.
 6. Right Livelihood Earning a living in a way that doesn't hurt others.
 7. Right Mindfulness Recognizing the value of the moment; living where we are.
 8. Right Concentration Expanding our consciousness through meditation.

Beyond this, Buddhism is a mixture of monastic tradition and folklore. Some of it is helpful to me; much of it I reject as silly. I don't believe in reincarnation or in deities. I do believe Buddha had the human condition figured out.

Don't be in a hurry to embrace Buddhism. It will be here waiting for you when you're ready. It took me 20 years of living to come to understand that the truth doesn't have to be sold. It's all around us, accessible as soon as we're open to it. Yana Davis, a friend in our group, calls Buddhism "profound common sense." That's all it is.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2015-01-08 A Timeline~Where did the Paris Shooters Get Their Weapons?

By Tony Cartalucci

Global Research, January 08, 2015

Url of this article:

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/a-timeline-where-did-the-paris-shooters-get-their-weapons/5423445>

Heavily armed, well-trained gunmen executed what appears to be a well-planned attack in Paris, France, killing 12, including 2 police officers. Where did these terrorists get their weapons, training, political backing, funds, and inspiration? A short timeline featuring news stories from 2011 to 2014 helps explain how France's recent national tragedy could have been the direct result of its own insidious, callous, terroristic foreign policy that has visited this very same carnage seen in Paris, upon the people of Libya and Syria, a thousand fold.

2011 - France supplying weapons to Libyan rebels, London Telegraph:

A French military spokesman, Colonel Thierry Burkhard, said it had provided "light arms such as assault rifles" for civilian communities to "protect themselves against Col Gaddafi".

But the decision to arm the rebels is a further move towards direct involvement in the land war on top of the air war against Col Muammar Gaddafi. The Nafusa rebels have come closest to breaking through to Tripoli itself of any of the front lines of the conflict, while three months of Nato bombing have failed to dislodge Col Gaddafi from power.

Le Figaro, the French newspaper which first reported the air drops, said the shipment included rifles, machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades, along with Milan anti-tank missiles.

2011 - Libyan rebel commander admits his fighters have al-Qaeda links, London Telegraph:

Abdel-Hakim al-Hasidi, the Libyan rebel leader, has said jihadists who fought against allied troops in Iraq are on the front lines of the battle against Muammar Gaddafi's regime.

2012 - France to push for arming Syria's opposition coalition, the BBC:

France's foreign minister has said he will discuss supplying arms to the Syrian opposition coalition with European partners.

The government plans to push for a relaxation of the EU arms embargo to Syria to enable "defensive arms" to reach opposition fighters.

2013 - Syria crisis: France and Britain move a step closer to arming rebels, the London Guardian:

France and Britain have moved a step closer to arming the opposition to the Assad regime in a radical move aimed at tipping the balance in the two-year civil war while also ignoring European policy on Syria.

The French president, François Hollande, went into an EU summit in Brussels with a dramatic appeal for Europe to join Paris and London in lifting a European arms embargo, but the sudden policy shift was certain to run into stiff German opposition.

2013 - Syrian rebels pledge loyalty to al-Qaeda, USA Today:

A Syrian rebel group's April pledge of allegiance to al-Qaeda's replacement for Osama bin Laden suggests that the terrorist group's influence is not waning and that it may take a greater role in the Western-backed fight to topple Syrian President Bashar Assad.

The pledge of allegiance by Syrian Jabhat al Nusra Front chief Abou Mohamad al-Joulani to al-Qaeda leader Sheik Ayman al-Zawahri was coupled with an announcement by the al-Qaeda affiliate in Iraq, the Islamic State of Iraq, that it would work with al Nusra as well.

2014 - France delivered arms to Syrian rebels, Hollande confirms, France 24:

President Francois Hollande said on Thursday that France had delivered weapons to rebels battling the Syrian regime of Bashar al-Assad "a few months ago".

France Isn't the Only One

The cartoonish nature of France first being reported to give weapons to "rebels" before these "rebels" are reported to be, in fact, Al Qaeda is not simply France's bad luck. It is part of NATO's very intentional, vast network of global state-sponsored terrorism. It would be reported that terrorists armed by the US in Syria with antitank missiles sided with Al Qaeda franchise and US State Department listed foreign terrorist organization, Al Nusra.

The Daily Beast would report in its September 2014 article, "Al Qaeda Plotters in Syria "Went Dark" U.S. Spies Say," that:

One Syrian rebel group supported in the past by the United States condemned the air strikes on Tuesday. Harakat Hazm, a rebel group that received a shipment of U.S. anti-tank weapons in the spring, called the airstrikes an attack on national sovereignty and charged that foreign led attacks only strengthen the Assad regime. The statement comes from a document, purportedly from the group, that has circulated online and was posted in English translation from a Twitter account called Syria Conflict Monitor. Several Syria experts, including the Brookings Doha Center's Charles Lister, believe the document to be authentic.

Before the official statement, there were signs that Harakat Hazm was making alliances in Syria that could conflict with its role as a U.S. partner. In early Septemeber a Harakat Hazm official told a reporter for the L.A. Times: Inside Syria, we became labeled as secularists and feared Nusra Front was going to battle us...But Nusra doesn't fight us, we actually fight alongside them. We like Nusra.□

This group would later be reported by the Western press as having "surrendered" to Al Qaeda. The International Business Times would claim in its article, "Syria: Al-Nusra Jihadists 'Capture US TOW Anti-Tank Missiles' from Moderate Rebels," that:

Weaponry supplied by the US to moderate Syrian rebels was feared to have fallen into the hands of jihadist militants affiliated to al-Qaida after clashes between rival groups.

Islamist fighters with Jabhat al-Nusra seized control of large swathes of land in Jabal al-Zawiya, Idlib province, at the weekend, routing the US-backed groups the Syrian Revolutionaries Front (SFR) and Harakat Hazm, activists said.

Washington relied on SFR and Harakat Hazm to counter Isis (Islamic State) militants on the ground in Syria, complementing its air strikes.

Clearly, Harakat Hazm willingly pledged allegiance to Al Qaeda, bringing with them Western armament. Much of Al Qaeda's weapons, cash, training, and backing has been supplied by the West through similar "laundering" arrangements – intentionally – with plans to arm Al Qaeda and use it as a mercenary force against Western enemies in the Middle East laid as early as 2007.

Al Qaeda was intentionally organized and directed by the US, Saudi Arabia, and Israel to engage in a regional confrontation aimed at Iran and its powerful arc of influence including Syria, Hezbollah in Lebanon, and now apparently Iraq. A similar gambit played out in North Africa during NATO's war with Libya. Before that, in the 1980's, the US CIA notoriously created Al Qaeda in the first place to fight a proxy war against the Soviet Union in Afghanistan.

This most recent use of Al Qaeda was exposed by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Seymour Hersh in his 2007 article, "The Redirection: Is the Administration's new policy benefiting our enemies in the war on terrorism?" in which it was stated explicitly that (emphasis added):

To undermine Iran, which is predominantly Shiite, the Bush Administration has decided, in effect, to reconfigure its priorities in the Middle East. In Lebanon, the Administration has cooperated with Saudi Arabia's government, which is Sunni, in clandestine operations that are intended to weaken Hezbollah, the Shiite organization that is backed by Iran. The U.S. has also taken part in clandestine operations aimed at Iran and its ally Syria. A by-product of these activities has been the bolstering of Sunni extremist groups that espouse a militant vision of Islam and are hostile to America and sympathetic to Al Qaeda.

Now these "extremist groups that espouse a militant vision of Islam" and who are "sympathetic to Al Qaeda" are running loose in France spilling French blood, with an inexhaustible supply of weapons and cash courtesy in part of the French government itself, and with years of combat experience fighting Paris and the rest of NATO's proxy wars for them everywhere from Libya to Syria.

#54 Gui Mei Subordinate/Converting

The Wisdom: Your energy has been usurped.
Do not attempt to
Ingratiate yourself
With others who have control.

This hexagram signified a maiden who was to be married into an influential household. She is advised not to make waves but, for the time being, to subordinate herself to the family until she has achieved a deeper level of maturity, clarity and contemplation. Only then would she be able to make her move.

Look to this example as it symbolically applies to your present situation. You have worked hard for a desired goal or union. It will be destructive to exert your influence at this time, as the energy of dynamic change is, for the moment, locked, held in bondage.

This is not the time to express your inner truth, though you can see it well just over the horizon. If you try to be the truth talker now, your words will not be heard; they will be construed as being negative and counterproductive. You would then lose the opportunity to join with the tribe of your choice, those who have, for the right reasons, chosen you. You are in the energy of maturation no matter what age you are or how much experience you have clocked on the trail.

It is a precarious time.
You are on the brink
Of joining with others
To move forward.
For now remain docile.

This is the time to deconstruct what have been your ego-based actions. These actions, if repeated, will bring great danger to you and will quell your movement toward the greater good and take you off the path of finding peace on the path, the road less travelled. To show your light of wisdom now will be seen as a threat and will be held from joining the family, relationship, group, or tribe you desire and who desire you. As hard a pill as it may be to swallow, be subordinate. This will allow you to see the inner workings of the situation, where many truths are hidden from view. If you stoke by the voice of your ego, bluster your way in, you will be rebuked, and truths will not be exposed, and the road you have worked so hard to maintain will be destroyed, and you will be sent back to begin anew. This can be a prosperous cycle if you adhere to your correctness, free of caring what others think and free of the nagging voice of the ego wanting to move into abundance without doing the work of taking the path of self knowledge. This is a quiet path.

Although you have learned and experienced much on the path to your goal, you still need the maturity of having the deep and perhaps mystical knowledge of the situation so that, at the proper time, you can step up and have the influence that will bring the relationship, business, or tribe into a successful position. It is here that you will, with subtly, influence the sacred journey leading to the goals you desire, and are in harmony with the greater good.

For now, metaphorically bow your head while you determine the lay of the land. It is then, and only then, that you should raise your head and shine the light you have held in your heart.

Trying to have influence with words or heroic deeds now will only have the effect of blocking your entry into garden. Chill . . . bide your time. It won't take long. Quiet the ego, meditate, and feed the soul.

Know well your long-range plans.
In the quiet of contemplation
Silently make your plans.
Your time of influence is not yet.

Not yet does not mean never. It means that energies are not properly aligned for you to have influence on the situation. Be a part of the nameless crowd or a member of the team that works diligently but does not try to show its greatness or cleverness. It is from this position that you will observe where there are dangers and pitfalls; the benefit is to become a secret agent of the soul, so that when you make your move into the inner sanctum of your desires you do so with ease, style, and grace. This will be the dance you have desired, the dance of love nourishing life.

Adapt to the morays of the situation and do not stand out at this time. You will soon be recognized for your value, but not yet. And the benefit is to make this okay with you; you will be served by embracing modesty and compassion while serving the whole, bringing light to closed corners and, by standing up to the dark forces found in the search of quietude, know the power of a confident stillness. In this way you maintain your dignity and when you do step up, you will shine like the sun at midday, a beacon of love, completion, compassion and satisfaction.

Lessons of humility and compassion are contained in this hexagram. At this time, be without visible direction; this will lead to the harvest. So, be inconspicuous . . . but that doesn't mean you must not laugh and dance. Do so. Definitely. And be here now, be fully present, you are in no danger: your protection is stillness.

Lock this advice deeply in the place of your wisdom of surety and knowing and signify, there is great power in signification, by singing every day. You have the voice that pleases spirit; do so with no judgment or good or bad, just be in your song.
