Audio: The Curious Case of Philip Marshall.

Published on 24 Jan 2015

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q7d7YYw6Jc4>

Philip Marshall, a veteran airline captain and former government "special activities" contract pilot, had authored three books on Top Secret America, a group presently conducting business as the United States Intelligence Community. Marshall is the leading aviation expert on the September 11th attack, as well as a masterful storyteller. In his final book "The Big Bamboozle: 9/11 and the War on Terror," a 2012 publication, Marshall theorized it wasn't al-Qaida but rather U.S. and Saudi government officials who orchestrated 9/11. In February 2013, he was found dead along with his two children in their home in California. Reports indicate all 3 died of gunshot wounds. Police regarded the case as a double murder- suicide case. But many pieces do not add up. Simply, a loving father and devoted husband would kill his children before turning the gun on himself. Besides, prior to his death, he had confided to his closest that he was terrified of his family being targeted by secret agents.

This movie looks into this whistleblower's investigations and tries to find out what he could have possibly found that cost his life and that of his loved ones.

Conference Call

1-209-647-1600, PIN 353 863#

Caller: AZ – helping an older couple, taking her to visit her husband in rehab centre – getting physical therapy help; hoping he will be closer to coming home next week. This has been going on for 6 wks. He's been picking up infections on the hospital & therapy centre.

Rama had said something is just about over: today is 27th of March – what was he talking about? Is everything going to start getting better now?

T: In answer to the question, she goes to the astrology by Carl Boudreau: will go over it again. Remember: this is not about money!

2015-03-25 Astrology Status for March 25, 2015 - - April 2015 - A Unified, Unifying Priority Emerges

Brings up an item she saw on TV of a man who served 4 years of a life sentence; got out: said wherever you are, life is life – have to take part wherever you are. Will be getting a settlement, which he intends to use to help kids and make sure they don't get involved in anything that could result in their incarceration.

- Goes back to the reading: LIVE AS IF THE NEW-SARA LAW IS IN PLACE – it already is! Reviews the events of Heidi and the White Knights in 2008

“Consciously or not, willingly or not, we will very soon have to put newly learned lessons about ourselves and the world into practice. . . .

- When we do astrology, remember it is a journey – we have been around since the beginning – 450 Billion years! Not necessarily on the planet, also in other realms or planets, or in the higher realms

- This is the first and only time when souls who have violated the cosmic law will go to their second death: everything about them will cease to exist - all of their incarnations wherever they happened, since the time they came into being; the energies will be released into the Dark Rift, Mother's Yanni, the cradle of civilization

R: Bernie Sanders, all Democrats & 8 Republicans, had a vote-a-rama in the Congress, and all voted to raise the minimum wage to $15 / hour ACROSS THE NATION!!!

Given the house placements of T-Square #2, the T-Square will most likely work at the community and international levels (3rd and 9th houses) to bring about better terms of employment and just rewards for laborers (6th houses).

- Her take on the idea of "rewarding work life" - working in community; new jobs; open a restaurant, grow your own food for it, have a large building / hall nearby for social events; get to the point of creating spherical structures,
- In answer to a caller's question about last night's audio:

2015-03-23 Peter Moon Transylvanian Sunrise & The Romanian Sphinx

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vvrYUh0gIDA> [51.30 min]

Published on 5 Jan 2013

Red Ice Radio - Author Peter Moon discusses the mysterious underground holographic hall of records found in 2003 by advanced satellite radar technology located at the sphinx of Romania in the Bucegi Mountains (close to the region known as Transylvania).

Peter has written and spoken about The Montauk Project, but this interview revolves around his other two books, "Transylvanian Sunrise" and "Transylvanian Moonrise", written by Radu Cinmar (a member of the Romanian Intelligence Service's occult department) and translated by Peter. He tells us how he became involved in these books, his trips to Romania, how the discovery of the sphinx chamber was made and the mysterious characters central to the story.

We also discuss Dr. David Lewis Anderson, director of the Time Travel Research Institute. Then, we talk about the Masonic and military interest in the chamber beneath the sphinx. Later, we review some history of Romania, including the Dacians and the Thracians.

Caller: asking about the crash in the French Alps

T: KOS said he was mind controlled; also found out that his existing condition was about some kind of deep, deep depression – could it have been created by the mind control process?

- there were 3 people on board who worked in the State Dep't: there's a connection there

R: between 21 and 23 March, CERN super collider powered up, and there was something about a short circuit and they powered it down; there was some kind of pulse across some parts of the planet; the only way that kind of pulse could be created is by an X-Class flare or that the collider created some kind of flare

T: Not sure that this kind of ability can be ascribed to these ones: he has to find out more.

- Finishes the reading:

Both the inner and the outer turmoil will continue – it will not come from the misjudgment and misdeeds of political and financial leaders and the passivity and inattention of the public BUT FROM THE PASSIONATE, DEEPLY ROOTED DESIRE TO REFORM OURSELVES AND THE WORLD WE LIVE IN: this desire will also arise from deep within us!

R: the crystal children, the rainbow crystal children are here – they want a planet of peace and NOW!

Meditation: Om Gam Ganapataye Namaha

https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=M7WcWc1_a6M

Om-Gam-Ganapataye-Namaha_Ganesha_Humanity-Healing; Om Gam Ganapataye Namaha is one of the mantas of Lord Ganesh, one of the bringers of prosperity; he presides over all obstacles in our way!

Mother Sekmet / Father Alcyone

In the Light of the Most Radiant One; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

Greetings, Children of Ra:

Indeed! We are in a most auspicious time, as we approach the next cycle. [All of us are in there; in Rama] Coming up here the lunar eclipse, blood moon – the time is NOW! As we have heard, she and her ship are here to deal with her children and the issues at hand which, let's say, as we just heard from the Lady Master, Lord's Shiva's son, Lord Ganesh, Remover of Obstacles – now is the time; it is with the greatest of humility, humbleness, gratitude, grace that we come at this time.

- The task before us – we don't wish it on anyone! We must remove these obstacles that have created a few clouds in the path of the mighty I AM presence of Sol, the radiant reflection of Alcyone coming in – a few clouds, nothing to worry about – a few wisps, of fear, air. She has it in hand; the Captain and the Admiral are here: as we keep repeating NO NUKES, and the Captain means it.

- The story that is before all of us: we have passed every test; let us reflect these aspects of grace and gratitude every instance of our lives! Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace; where there is such hatred, let me sow love.

- What we are experiencing in these present moments are the most heinous of moments of the grand maya in this space / time moment. Yet all moments are NOW as we rise to the occasion where our the very cells, the mitochondria the force, the mitochondria are calling to active duty every cell, every particle and saying there is no spoon; it is only illusion; we are everything and nothing at all: Like the master said: a little white dot – is it a white hole or a black hole we are looking at? Depends on the view point, the vantage point, what side of the universe we are looking from: She comes from anti matter

- This story that is before everyone: those on the left hand path are playing with the ideas of anti matter and it's not in their best interests to go much further; anti matter has a way of creeping up on you and whacking you upside the head with a telephone pole or even larger! Anti-matter in the express moment of how we create/ uncreate – these ones have played with the magnetic frequencies. The super collider shut down – may not ever come back on line!
- Not in the best hands. Not in the best interests of this space/time moment. The realm we are working with in this present nano second: Gaia / Vywamus on a collision course with Ascension – not other way about it. These ones who represent Mother's children with all their gifts and abilities have used them for – it is like the lady on RT says – they are greedy sheep, and they have had their moment in the sun; it is their twilight.
 - As we watch the radical shift – and she does mean RADICAL – in the onset of how our energies, along with everything coming into play here: no longer do they have any reign of power – it is illusionary at best. At the same time, they wish to create such distractions of the highest order for us to remember, not our path, but to get lost in the maya with all of the things surrounding us; in a very easy to get lost these days with the energies from moment to moment.
 - This is why she says discipline; keep the mind focussed as a laser beam on this path to do your mission of great import: it is what you are here to achieve – it is already achieved and we are catching up with ourselves. As she has said, so many moments in time: we are at the moment where she and hers are meeting us. They come from our future to their past: she is here to let us know we have already made it; we are catching up with ourselves in this moment as space time is speeding up.
- there are very long moments now when we experience no time; and these moments of no time where we hear the thundering sound of one hand clapping, and it is moving so rapidly front and centre in our faces that we cannot deny it. It is everything that is in this moment
- Her wayward children want us to forget these no time moments and focus on the outer illusions of distractions of the highest order. That is the challenge for humanity: we are already in Sat Yuga; the Laws of the One apply.
- The laws of free will with choice are still here, but as we choose to follow the Law of the One, we are moved out of the circle / cycle of the gerbil hamster wheel where we get lost in the maya, day to day, month to month.
 - She can say with great certainty NOW IS THE TIME – EACH PASSING NANO SECOND RAISING OUR FREQUENCIES, HER FREQUENCIES TO MATCH EACH OTHER. This is why they are in the atmosphere of the planet: she has only one thing to say: welcome; well met; we come in peace.
- O yes: Interesting! Larry King put on a wig trying to look like a rock star: could be the Motley Cru – does not remember the names: this is part of the illusion, the maya here. It is the main order of business to focus on our ascension in this moment; it is how we get through the key hole which is as wide as the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy – it is all about L O V E – it's that simple. It is how we do this – Ave Satche – Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
- There are so many incidents in these moments where our brave men and women who want to do the right thing are looking for answers to the questions of life and the universe & everything - will not find it by joining the military on your planet, a police academy with training in how to kill, not going to find it in the illusionary realms where the maya runs rampant.

- going to find it in the high heart – takes discipline, work – work made manifest: crow medicine. We heard her talk of the crows yesterday – the raven energy, that magical mystical energy of walking with the Jaquar woman, the naqual. Sit in your favourite spot, feel your energies expand out; get in touch with your compatriots in all the realms, all the levels 'cos we are all here, not just empty smoke: we are tangible and real. It is about what we are: these bags of water are not just bags of water: they are the essence of what we have asked to become – creator goddess/ creator god of the Most is High – it is why she continues to implore in our consciousness:

- This is the time; this is the Place. Same Cat time, same Cat Shadow - now is the moment when we get to meet Cat Woman: Batman is another story with Robin. Yet it is how we do this with Divine Goddess and how we work with these energies; the least among us are taking the brunt of the full fear factor; those with the melanated skin are in the cross hairs, and they are afraid of you because you represent great power with that melanated skin: Black is beautiful

- she makes a prediction which is already coming to pass: Michealle Obama will become the next president of the United States of Altea America, the New Atlantis like St Germain said.

T: Warren is not running because (1) they will take her out as they did with Carolyn Kennedy; (2) she is just waiting until the build up of what has to happen here, when these ones are gone – Hillary ain't going to be here!

Mo: This is an ancient story of her children who have to leave because they have taken the powers of what we understand of creation and have split the atom which is against Creator Source's Law – you cannot split the atom; you go with the atom, flow with them however it moves– the particles know their cosmic dance called the Kama Sutra, the Yin, the Yang

- The Big Bang story is how we merge with our Twin Flame in orgasmic joy and create universes upon universes; it is not about boson particles in a chamber; it is only about the Divine Union of Kali & Dirga; Shiva & Shakti –that energy is that creation; we have just heard the Lady master speaking those sacred words -

- very momentarily now, and she means momentarily in this moment right now: the vimanas are already here: Mother India and the Indian Army are already refurbishing the ancient Vimanas that have been taken out of mothballs – they've been around for millions of years, now getting a buff and a shine and a polish; it is not about the black guy giving you a shoe shine. It is about the fact that all of their craft are here: they represent Mother Earth's salvation: we asked, they answered.

- Yet the next steps in these lawful processes of what Dr Bassett, Dr Greer & others keep on saying we need to be discussing these matters of state, of how so many different cultures have come to this planet.

- At the moment, some of the cultures do not have the best intentions for us, and they are not able to call for backup: they are stuck! The planet is in lock down. The only frequencies that can come in are those technologies that are millions of years in advance of the tin cans floating around the planet; if we could see what she sees in terms of the junk that circles about our planet we'd need a clean up fleet the size of Darth Vader's Imperial fleet to clean up what has been stuck in space trying to figure out how the universe works – or trying to manipulate the laws of nature for their own purposes

- it is not about nuclear war, it is about the high heart and love; when you come from that place, everything comes into place and we see the magic flow and we dance with Elron, Airwin and the fairies of the most high; all these ones that are the ancestors of our DNA from the tiniest elemental and pixies up to the archangels at the throne of the god/goddess/ All That is - we are all here; we only represent the ascension what we have asked for; what you have been shouting for: where are you goddess? Show us other than the oceans of blood and the new atrocities we look at each day!

- She can only say: yes, these things are going on and they are not about the Office of the Christ. Yet she has asked to come in in the midst of the fray, at the most intense moment of this planet's story fray – she knew it would get deep: how high is the pile? She cannot say, yet she knows how to shovel compost out of the barn to create new universes.
 - It is about is the simple story is love – and don't mess with your neighbours in the local solar system because you ain't seen nothing yet! What you've already experienced in your stories and fiction that are not fiction - yes, the guardians of the galaxy are here: you are them and she is them – we are All One. It is how we heal the story right now in this very nano second.
- We have the abilities; we've been given the tools, the gifts: if we were to fully comprehend the nature of Dr Judy Beebe's GEM spheres and see them fully on line, we'd be in the faces of the Senators, Congress people telling them to shut down the nuclear power plants right now. This is how powerful - we have the frequencies in the moment: All the technologies are here to bring us into alignment and balance. The choice is simply ours.
- The time is nigh; it is these moments now, with the greatest of love and balance and wisdom, we come across with a simple message: remember who you are; you are only love incarnate. You asked to do this with the simplest of abilities: look around you: the animals, the plants, all the various kingdoms you may claim you cannot see or talk to; you are hearing voices: shut off the ancient technologies of the maya and you can hear sound of the one hand clapping, then you can hear the language of light; it is the language LM Cheryl, what Mother speaks, other Masters & teachers speak - Solex Mal – the universal language; already many on the planet know how to speak it; we see it; the language is coming forth at quantum light speed with the geometric patterns, the formulas of how to create and uncreate ; yes, we have that ability as creator gods and goddesses– use it only for love

Greetings in the light of the Most Radiant One

R: has been sitting in an observation bubble adjacent to the Bridge on the New Jerusalem; can look out into the vastness of space and see the trillions and trillions of stars. When you can see this planet in the vastness of space: it is so intense – we are like a dust mite on the back of a cat, yet it is everything – like the particle that Nassim talks about

T: yet there is the equal amount of love / power in the tiniest particles as there is in the star system

R: Mark Kelly's twin brother, Scott Kelly, is on his way to the ISS while Mark is down here and observes the conditions that Scott will go through while on the space station. We have not been told everything about that space station: there are lots of beings going through that space station!

- When everything comes out, we don't need that space station: we are the merkaba vehicle!!! Don't need that tin can!

T: there is acclimation, and time and space and

R: Pleiadian champagne and Vega wafers! Please!

Whips, Chains & Capitalism

https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=bqlhTLbiSgq

Millions of Americans have flocked to theaters to see the film adaptation of the wildly popular erotic novel series Fifty Shades of Grey. At first glance - the film and story seem to be about a woman who becomes filled with lust and desire for a well-off businessman. And - even the book's author says it's just about a simple - albeit very passionate - love story. But - when you take a better look at Fifty Shades of Grey - you see that it's more than just a run-of-the-mill love story. It's actually a great commentary on the role that capitalism is playing in America today. Joining me now for more on all of this is Lynn Stuart Parramore - founding editor of New Deal 2.0, contributing editor with Alternet and Reuters and author of "Whips, chains and capitalism: What 'Fifty Shades of Grey' is really about."

In this episode of the Keiser Report, Max Keiser and Stacy Herbert warn against trusting bureaucrats bearing false economy as 'shocking austerity' and 'bed blocking costs' more than is allegedly saved. In the second half, Max interviews Daniel Hassan of the Robin Hood Minor Asset Management hedge fund which rides the wave of trading whales with the best performance record. Having outperformed the S&P index since its inception, all profits have gone to groups expanding the commons and the public domain.

2015-03-25 Astrology Status for March 25, 2015 - - April 2015 - A Unified, Unifying Priority Emerges

April 2015 - A Unified Priority Emerges

Recap

In recent months, I have focused on several astrological themes.

Saturn entered Sagittarius, promising to bring more thoughtful and constructive approaches to the many issues confronting others. <<http://on.fb.me/1K34CMS>> 12/05/15

Neptune, Chiron and Nessus in Pisces will leave many dealing with intense, even crisis level emotional releases. For at least a year, now (dating back to about last June), the daunting effects of frequent astrological ups and downs were compounded by the release of long-buried anxiety and suppressed emotional trauma. The ego's defenses were coming undone. This grouping in Pisces appears to be one more astrological cause, or indicator, of this kind of spiritual and psychological phenomenon. <<http://on.fb.me/1D0oaMF>> 12/31/14

A planetary grouping on the cusp of the 7th house in the Saturn Sagittarius ingress promises a transformation of relationships - personal, social and professional. <<http://on.fb.me/1z4uP4N>> 02/02/15

A new emphasis on the asteroids in the Saturn/Sagittarius ingress chart promises a dramatic refinement in the ideas and values active in the mass mind. This will almost certainly be a fertile source of controversy and conflict. <<http://on.fb.me/1LoemRr>> 02/20/15

Now

A spectacular series of astrological events around the time of the vernal equinox in mid-March, marked the end of a prolonged period of especially difficult astrological conditions. The lingering effects of those difficult conditions are being compounded by ever more psychological and spiritual crises triggered by the newly emerging energies. <<http://on.fb.me/18PSMXx>> 02/28/15

In combination, recent astrological conditions have required us to cultivate greater inner resources as we overcame social, economic and political turmoil and move toward a more positive future.

The underlying challenge during all the trials and turmoil was twofold: Don't let expectations based on past negatives determine your understanding of the present or your expectations for the future. And don't let ongoing trials and inner turmoil undermine your relationship with your higher self or your efforts to strengthen that relationship.

April 2015

My take on April is based on a composite chart combining info for the New and Full Moons of April. I always use Greenwich, UK for the birth place because it is where days begin in the modern world. This practice has yielded compelling results for a number of years.

Two T-Squares are prominent in April's composite chart.

In T-Square #1, a Pluto/Moon opposition forms the base of a T-Square capped by a Sun/Mercury/Uranus conjunction. Mars is nearby.

By one means or another, T-Square #1 will rid us of those patterns that lock us into narrow, fearful, self-protective and self-limiting lifestyles.

The Moon/Pluto influence will dramatically intensify feelings associated with these patterns and strengthen the force with which they come to the surface. The Sun's involvement ensures that the resulting confrontations will bring these difficult psychological issues to the surface.

Uranus will make the confrontations and crises that result more intense - more electric - and hard to predict or easily control. Mercury's involvement will ensure that thoughts and feelings become a matter of public discussion.

Mars will add greater intensity and an added note of self-assertion.

Ending Personal Disempowerment and Deprivation

In the composite chart for April, the angles of this T-Square are in the 4th, 8th and 10th houses, all houses connected to the phenomenon of societal power.

Consciously or not, willingly or not, we will very soon have to put newly learned lessons about ourselves and the world into practice.

We will see with increasing clarity that negative and self-limiting patterns not only disempower us, but they also deprive us of vital resources, material and otherwise. We will be increasingly determined to reclaim our power and the resources we surrendered by adopting those patterns.

All of the above will inevitably result in turmoil, both in our personal lives and in the world generally. However, we want to keep in mind that the Jupiter/Sagittarius/Uranus trine in fire signs will strongly support our efforts to find alternatives. The Saturn/Neptune square will deflect confrontation and keep us from adopting simple but deeply flawed solutions.

The Campaign for More Genuine Connections

In T-Square #2, a Venus/Saturn opposition forms the base of a T-Square capped by a Neptune/Vesta conjunction.

The astrological conditions of recent months have awakened a desire for more genuine connections with other people. Achieving such connections will become a guiding, driving principle in our lives. The Saturn/Venus/Neptune T-Square in April's composite chart will ultimately help us achieve such connections.

At first, though, this T-Square will impress upon us see the difficulty of achieving such connections and the flaws in our current relationship strategies. This will happen even as Vesta strengthens our readiness to sacrifice to achieve more authentic connections.

Accordingly, our desire for such connections and our understanding of the difficulty of achieving them will keep pace with each other. Inevitably, our efforts to create more authentic ties with others will accelerate.

The relationship issue is the core of a much larger, broader set of issues. Neptune will continually blur and tweak our expectations for the future across a broad range of issues. We will be drawn further and further beyond the expectations we start with, however visionary they seem at the time.

The angles of T-Square #2 are in the 3rd, 6th and 9th houses.

Given the house placements of T-Square #2, the T-Square will most likely work at the community and international levels (3rd and 9th houses) to bring about better terms of employment and just rewards for laborers (6th houses).

Taking everything into account, we will begin to understand the vital connection between the quality of our spiritual and emotional lives and the terms of our employment. We will want to harmonize our efforts at spiritual growth, our quest for authentic personal bonds and a more rewarding work life. All of this will likely emerge as a new global priority.

Prevailing astrological conditions will forge our spiritual and worldly aspirations into a single, synergistic drive for inner and outer reform - for spiritual, psychological, social, economic and political reform. And that will doubtless be yet fertile source of turmoil.

Summarizing

Both the inner and outer turmoil will continue. However, in the difficult cycle that just ended, social, economic and political crises arose from the misjudgment and misdeeds of political and financial leaders and the passivity and inattention of the public. But this new turmoil will come from a passionate, deeply rooted desire to reform ourselves and the world we live in. This desire will also arise from deep within us.

Washington, DC (PRWEB) March 28, 2015

On April 30, 2008 Paradigm Research Group sent an open letter to Senator Hilliary Clinton. Two things remarkable about that letter and this resend are: 1) every word of the letter as sent in 2008 is exactly applicable in 2015, and 2) since 2008 the mainstream political media have refused to engage the facts behind that letter, which have huge implications for the nation and the American people.

March 26, 2015

Open letter to the Honorable Hillary Clinton
Washington, DC

Dear Secretary Clinton:

In March of 1993 billionaire Laurance Rockefeller initiated an extraordinary approach to your husband's administration via the Office of Science and Technology Policy headed by Dr. John Gibbons. A memorandum from Mr. Rockefeller's attorney Henry Diamond dated March 29, 1993 conveyed a request to meet with Gibbons "to discuss the potential availability of government information about unidentified flying objects and extraterrestrial life." Rockefeller, a friend and supporter of you and your husband, wanted to meet with the President and inform him "there is a belief in many quarters that the government has long held classified information regarding UFOs which has not been released and that the failure to do so has brought about unnecessary suspicion and distrust," and that "Many believe that the release of such information on a basis consistent with national security would be a significant gesture which would increase confidence in government."

Thus began a three-year effort by a notable American to convince your husband to essentially be the "Disclosure President" and end a then 46-year truth embargo on providing the full facts to the American people regarding an extraterrestrial presence engaging the human race. This effort, which included meetings, reports, briefings, a book, draft letters to the President and more, came to be known as the Rockefeller Initiative. You were aware of this initiative from the beginning as was a key advisor to the President, John Podesta. You and your husband met with Rockefeller at his Wyoming ranch in August of 1995. Your husband tasked a close friend, Associate Attorney General Webster Hubbell, to look into the UFO issue at the Department of Justice and elsewhere. He tasked John Podesta, his eventual Chief of Staff, to reform and accelerate the document declassification process. You were kept informed of the ongoing initiative and helped draft a letter from Rockefeller to the President. It is notable that John Podesta, the founder and now CEO of the Center for American Progress, in 2002 and 2003 called for the release to the public of all UFO and related documents in government files. In 2004 Governor Bill Richardson, UN Ambassador and Secretary of Energy during your husband's administration, made a similar request for documents pertaining to the events in Roswell, New Mexico during July of 1947.

These facts are known from news articles, public records and, most importantly, from nearly 1000 pages of correspondence and documents obtained by researcher Grant Cameron from the Office of Science and Technology Policy via the Freedom of Information Act. Additional relevant documents were released from the Clinton Presidential Library.

Madam Secretary, it is your ambition to reach a significant milestone in American history by becoming the first President of the United States who happens to be a woman, or put another way, the 49th female head of state. While this would be an admirable legacy, what the American people need is less legacy and more truth. The people have lost patience with "in loco parentis" government that treats them like children and candidates with long lists of issues they can't discuss because it is not convenient to their campaign or the people "can't handle the truth."

Because you have been introduced to these matters within the context of the White House, because you aspire to the highest office in the nation, you have an extraordinary opportunity and primary obligation to address what is easily the most profound issue of our time - an issue with major national security and policy implications.

Respectfully,
Stephen Bassett
