The American Revolution of 1800

Important to know the history of America – a faction is a group that whose interests are adverse to the interest of the community; their real interest is in gaining power [for themselves] – something that was sinister and akin to treason

Published on 18 Sep 2014

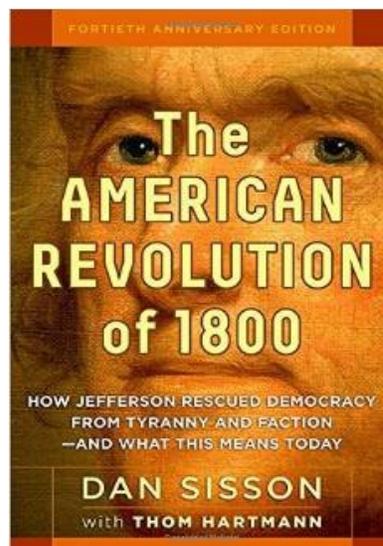

Thom Hartmann talks with Dan Sisson, Co-author (w/Thom) of the new book, The American Revolution of 1800 / adjunct faculty member at Eastern Washington University where he teaches the history of technology in the Engineering Department.

The American Revolution of 1800: How Jefferson Rescued Democracy from Tyranny and Faction - and What This Means Today Hardcover – September 15, 2014
by Dan Sisson (Author), Thom Hartmann (Contributor)

In this brilliant historical classic, Dan Sisson argues that Thomas Jefferson thought democratic revolutions would be necessary from time to time to break the grip of autocratic factions on the government. That is how Jefferson saw the election of 1800—and the lessons for today couldn't be more obvious.

Most historians celebrate Jefferson's victory over Adams in 1800 as the beginning of the two-party system, but Jefferson would have been horrified by this interpretation. Drawing on the understanding of faction, revolution, and conspiracy reflected in the writings of the Founders, Sisson makes it clear that they, like Jefferson, envisioned essentially a nonparty state.

Jefferson believed his election was a peaceful revolution by the American people overturning an elitist faction that was stamping out cherished constitutional rights and trying to transform our young democracy into an authoritarian state.

It was a transfer of power back to the people, not a change of parties. Sisson maintains Jefferson would regard our current two-party system as a repudiation of his theory of revolution and his earnest desire that the people as a whole, not any faction or clique, would triumph in government.

The ideals of the American Revolution were in danger until this "Revolution of 1800," to which we owe the preservation of many of our key rights. With contributions by Thom Hartmann that bring out the book's contemporary relevance, this fortieth-anniversary edition contains new insights and reflections on how Jefferson's vision can help us in our own era of polarization, corruption, government overreach, and gridlock.

Conference Call

C1: did Rama see the interview between Alfred Webre and Rafael Palacios ("Rafapal")

- [Spanish journalist and author Rafael Palacios ("Rafapal") reveals startling developments pointing to the start of the global currency]
- he was speaking in English with Webre from Madrid
- discussed dinar, gold, other things like we talk about; Our gov't has brought millions of dollars worth of dinars; said the US would devalue the dinars themselves because the Gov't had no $$
- Then Webre went on to talk about BRICS, Obama being a double agent, about Putin,

R: Alfred works for Exopolitics, and at the same time, lots of stuff going on across the planet: has to do with the fact that money is being manipulated around the planet

- There is a great shift going on, HUGE; has to do with the central power structure of the 13 families which is in a shambles; they are trying anything to come up on top!

C1: asking T & R to watch the interview – it's going round the net! It's on 2013 Rainbow Roundtable

T: all the websites mentioned by the caller are Faction 2 levels

C1: thought Webre was a good guy

T: he was a judge on a war crimes tribunal in Kuala Lumpur; purpose was to indict the Israeli State and the country – they have had the policy of de-humanizing a whole group of people

- Breaking the Set: Abby Martin interviewed the young man who went to Palestine; his cousin was burned alive in the forest by Netanyahu's men; his mother, the lawyer for Tariq and the family – the boy was aware too: they are beating, imprisoning etc Palestinians with no due process.
- We are now getting the footage of all the dirt of Israel – what is so atrocious is that on a regular basis they are beating, torturing, imprisoning young Palestinians regularly, and ordinary Israelis consider this as OK

C1: has seen the young man twice on MSNBC being interviewed

T: this is the first time the young man, the mother and the lawyer have been on together – when the story keeps coming up, it is a reminder that things have moved up a level

- Just like in Scotland: Cameron promised them the world; the MP s in England are really pissed off at him too – they want the same rights as he promised the Scots

C1: We have to tune into the idea that we are moving forward; the forces of light are winning – the other things will drive you crazy; C1's housemate has to be encouraged regularly because, as a sensitive, she is very easily moved by what she sees.

C2: the old earth was raised up on the 18th, WE WON! We merged into the new earth – the amount of love coming through – we are already 5th dimensional beings! We are the ones we've been waiting for!!!!!!!

- She is in so much joy, she is crying! There was a native American ceremony – a circle thing – the cry was heard; we stepped up to the plate – all the light workers were there -
- Now we have reached the energy of 51! Has been hearing the Hallelujah Chorus ever since this happened: once you experience the love frequency . . . she has been re-assembled just like the other 300 in the group – even those who have been manipulating things!

C1: you can feel that the energy frequencies are very high!

C2: working with Patricia Cota-Robles - all in body have been raised up to Christ Consciousness –
• happened on Sept 18th!!! C2 is clair voyant – couldn't keep up with what she was seeing!

T: it was triple 9 date – 2014 = 7; 18 = 9; Sept is a 9

R: one month from today, Oct 19th there is a comet coming into our solar system; will be in contact with Mars it is called something “Spring” -

- Dr Richard Hoagland talked of this with a message from Metatron via Tyb - this comet is going to close to Mars or will impact it on Oct 19 at 19.5*!!!! This will affect Mars and Earth

T: That does not sound so good: could kill those living on Mars

R: Richard Hoagland: this is a visitor that will make a huge difference in our realms; has to do with the fact that Mr 19.5* will be stepping up to the plate – something extremely wonderful is happening!

C2: think of rainbows when you tune in: it's a done deal!!!! We chose this!

T: Have you the You Tube where Richard Hoagland says this? R said he does, and he has played it

- James Tyberonn talked of this in the early spring of this year, plus Hoagland at a conference
- Name of video: James Tyberonn and Richard Hoagland – the part with Richard H talking of this is the last 10 monutes – this may not be a comet, but a ship disguised as a comet!

R: talked to Tom the Cat today and told him that he was real sick of this

C2: Mother was going to take this planet to a higher region and get us out

T: at least 100,000 people in NYC to stop this polluting of the earth

C2: Conference was for 6 days in the Tetons – it is the most important place on the planet -

T: it is St Germain's etheric retreat; at the back of the Tetons, there is an etheric dwelling [swelling?] and there is a lake inside called the Green Tara Lake – T & R & D'yanna and someone else went inside – there was an etheric chair of emeralds – it's an ascension chair

C2: Lord Lanto – has a major part in what happened.

- Mother Earth gets her information from that portal: the Portal of Participation

R: the You Yube; Richard Hoagland with James Tyberonn at WESAK 2013 3 hrs 11 minutes

C3: asking if R could play the part we really want to know about!

T: we are bringing the energy up, and we get to reap what we have sown

- The energy of the interview between Hartmann and Dan Sission was high, and the story of the interaction between John Adams and Thomas Jefferson
- What we are coming to is the “promised land”; the thing that is so cool is that we are discussing the thing and slicing through all of what is happening, and the clarity of seeing the place where denial is not possible. And the young boy who went to Palestine and could have been killed.

- The shift has come in in layers from the higher realms; D'Yanni Yawhoo said it started at the time of Harmonic Convergence – what started then was the touchdown of the Photonic Belt;
- its energy is like a tractor beam and we have been pulled from being on the outside of the Milky Way Galaxy where we were wobbling for a long, long time; when Mother was making an executive decision about moving the planet and beaming us all off it – she knew it would never happen. The New Earth has been around here since 1987 in terms of the Photonic Energy touching base with earth where it was in an incubation space and it was protected by Wyvamus.

- All of us who incarnated in this lifetime came knowing we would be ascending IN OUR BODIES and we would give equal time to the world and to the meditative space as well

C3: the signs will be coming through the elementals because they have been impacted the most

T: the fairies, the gnomes, the devas, the trolls,

C3: the fairy part of her has been jumping up and down, going absolutely nuts!

C3: telling stories of some of the things that happened at the conference

C4: asking for an update, having arrived late

T: C3 has returned from a Patti Cota-Robles conference: the earth has been completely lifted up into the 5th dimension

T: the excitement of C3 will be picked up by Rainbird who is on a vision quest, and by others who tune in

C4: talks about being in CA and people coming up to her and asking her if she knew who she was and what she could do: she had visions and could see earthquakes coming and that there was enough time to move away

T: thanks for embracing this energy!

BBS

Mother Sekhmet

T: We have won is THE WORD! Maybe we can get some more insight into what is going on beyond the veil!

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

Greetings, Children of Ra!

T: Hi, Alcyone; can tell you are here too!

Mo / A: Yes! We can say with great joy, yes, you have won! Earth, Gaia, Vyvamus has won! Yes!

- At the same moment, it is how we all do this together; as Neo said, we are all One and it only takes One to change the story which is already changed.
- In the same breath, how we get the rest of humanity on the same page that they put down the remote, the football and the beer, and begin to talk of ascension and the next level of our evolutionary development [is the next step]

- It is with great respect, joy and gratitude, Infinite Oneness at this time: they know that we are in the most intense of times: it is like what Charles Dickens wrote in The Tale of Two Cities: it is the best of times, it is the worst of times
- It is where we are meeting ourselves at this moment where eons and eons ago we gave ourselves a message "Meet here at this juncture in the timelines": like Spock said: Remember; remember who you are in this moment, as we have our Katra soul matrix: it is "we are all One"
 - What is happening in this moment has everything to do with the great shift in consciousness, not just in physicality, it is in all levels and in every single life form on this beloved blue green marble which is already becoming a star and shining in this segment of the Milky Way Galaxy
 - we are entering into the realm where Gaia /Vywamaus – becoming the 33rd member of the Intergalactic Federation of Worlds. With that comes great responsibility, great dignity, great respect
- And in the same breath, as everything to do with 19.5 and that configuration; and Mr 19.5 - it is no accident that this one has been groomed for this mission long before we began this story.
 - Let us just say: El Morya knows exactly what time it is in the scheme of things; all the sisterhoods, all the brotherhoods are here: it is the realm in which we come to collect our children and deal with the fact that now it is time.
 - there are no accidents in the 9 realms: everything is synchronized to the tiniest particle; everything is in perfect unison – may look like complete divine chaos from your realm and you think you are going to heaven in a hand basket and that funny little group who has taken the goddess' name in vain - called ISIL – it is about False Evidence Appearing Real

T: It is our Black Ops – with a lot of cooperation from Saudi Arabia.

- Mo: it is about the fact that we have many children here who have chosen their own path, and we would say that they have made their bed, and they are sleeping in it. What she comes to do is with great respect and dignity and gratitude is to relieve this beloved planet and her people of the burden that has for many eons cast a bit of a shadow!
- Yet we all know about the story with the Pan and his shadow, since we are living in the realm where magic and miracles are in the course of the day, it is about called magic and miracles coming forth. All the kingdoms and all the realms know that this particular time, particular moment in our planet's destiny that she comes to remove the great burden from this beloved shining planet in the western arm of the MWG
 - We are dealing with them in the most appropriate manner; they have chosen their path – and so be it and so it is.

T: it appears to her that changing the record from the propaganda is really moving along

- Mo: It is moving so fast people's heads are spinning, and the frequencies pouring forth from the Great Central Sun are changing our physicality on such a deep inner level that many times, we do not know which end is up – what time is it? 6 AM – and I just closed my eyes! What happened?
- Things are moving so rapidly with the frequencies that the course of our day is less than 12 hours in the 24 hours – 9 or 8 hours go by in the snap of a finger
 - And we are tipsy: don't need a drink or a drug: just take a breath and we feel it: it is right here now
 - We are here in your midst; there is no veil any more – let's do this with great love, and the ones that we have been observing with their actions – be that as it may, their actions with their left hand path, the left brain – let it be, as they have made their choices.
 - The sun shines on everyone and makes no choices; they have made their choices, now it is her turn to make it in the realm where she came to do what she must do: remove this shadow from this beloved jewel!
- King Dracos and Princess Ardula will deal with the rest, along with the Dark Rift – they have slit their own throats with their own daggers.
 - Do not need ISIL to do it – it is a completely fake story;
 - what is going on in this realm – her children that have played with the frequencies of what we overstand as the sidereal frequencies that go into the great alignments –

- Right now, all the worlds are aligned and this alignment is the Great Shift. It is no accident that so many talk of the fact that Nibiru is here: Nibiru is indeed here, along with many visitors who have come into our solar system to cleanse and purify and bring the frequencies to the level where we are gods/goddesses of the most high;
 - she says with great joy, great respect that the time is now where the ancient ones
- All the realms are here, from the tiniest atomic particles to the ones who sit before the throne God/goddess/All That Is

T: as Raelyn said, the elementals – the elves, the devas, the fairies - have been carrying the load and because they are so sensitive to the violations . . . [they feel things the most]

Mo: when you really understand how thoughts become things that instantly manifest into crystallized form

- this is why the masters, so long ago, in the ancient schools of the right and left eye of Horus: taught that thoughts are things that instantly manifest themselves
- you along with us created this beautiful garden, amusement park for our entertainment and our enlightenment and our demise if we so choose

T: on Redacted [comedy show with Lee Camp] saying that when unilateral military action is taken, then every action support that is a war crime - and she knows that Mr Obama knows that

Mo: he knows exactly what time it is!

T: Hopes this gets displayed that it is not Barack

- has to do with the 13 families who have no power are still giving orders

Mo: this Great Alignment that comes into our focus and view: how do we work with our thoughts; it is what the master shared with us: the Rainbow Bridge is here; it is already manifesting – all the 9 realms are in unison, and this story about our children called Nephilim, that realm that long ago was used for manipulation and control: they knew fully well the power of the spoken word with thought, word and deed: that is why all masters said keep the thoughts pure, keep the tongue pureclean

Mo & T: repeat some sacred sound frequencies & mantras

Mo: when you repeat these sacred sound frequencies, it changes time and space and All That Is;

her children knew this and taught many how to use the sacred sounds with colour, light and vibration - that is how we created all these great monuments on the planets were created

- the great resonating frequencies that are to this day up to power: all the zero point modules, all the stargates
- It is no accident that Mr 19.5 went to visit Stonehenge: [story coming up about Woodhenge]
- It is about the fact that the sacred geomancy coming fully on line; everything working with the Great Shift, the Great Alignment of the portals –
 - This is why we say that visitors, not just Nibiru, are coming in; there are so many circling our beloved planet and our satanic space administration called NASA is very concerned that their veil of secrecy is coming unglued.
 - It is no accident that beloved Mother Russia, the Bear, has said: “America, you figure out how you are going to get your people from the space station down to the planet!”

T: but now we have the new project which is to be ready by 2017

Mo: yes they are working with a few folks – Dr Keshe is . . .

T: where is my shuttle craft?

Mo: we have it right here ; the hydrogen sphere – this, the vehicle she is speaking through, the merkaba vehicle we all have; we have the ability to go where we want to do

- all the tools are in divine right alignment; it is in our best interests to utilize the tools of the NOW moment.
- The ones she calls her wayward children already know that we are awakened & fully cognizant of the misqualified deeds that have occurred for eons of time
 - they are creating such chaos to distract us from our mission; the one-eyed transmission box needs to be shut off and we get outside and walk on the ground

- The Great Equinox, this time where the perfect alignment here, as the autumnal equinox comes, and the harvest time that we bring in this moment, the harvesting of our own soul matrix that has reaped the benefits of what has grown here: this time as we go into inner space, winter space, where we reflect on this inner moment.
- What she can say: all that is in our scheme of influence is about our ascension process that is already taking place; this is why we feel such intensity with the ascension symptoms that are going on, with the bodies going a bit wonky with all the energies
- It has been much cussing and discussion about how we get to the next step with divine humour, gratitude, grace and love and not despair: it is the high road we take to that ascension point:
 - be very much aware; you all that live in the South West: the folks that live under Taos Mtn: something has occurred in the last little while; Rama forgot to tell T: he got a call from Telos grandson: the Taos hum has raised its frequency and upped its vibration – has to do with the sub-etheric generator under the mountain has increased its octave of vibration
 - Same thing under Giza Plateau – Kofu, Cheops – sub etheric generator has increased its octave
 - Also under Stonehenge and the Ziggarauds in Baghdad + the zero point modules!!!
 - The magic happening has to do with humanity waking up to who and what we are: divinity incarnated:
 - Lord make me an instrument of thy peace; the least among us is our immediate concern
- First and foremost, the story needs to be discussed, the ones who were here originally - the people of Amu-Raca of Le-Mu-Ria, the people with the melanin- it is the answer to the story : to know how the RNA, the DNA works – it is the melanin
 - The Last Hours of Ancient Sunlight - Thom Hartman's book - the gift of having enough prosperity, the realm of who we are as god, goddess, all that we are - we have the riches of Solomon beneath our feet and then some – use it wisely at this time
 - First order of business: take care of the least among us: the Palestinians; then the people of colour in North America with the melanin
 - No accident that the Black Ops have declared war on people of colour; they do not want us to find out that we have the power of the sun & all that goes with the energy of Sol: Helios and Vesta, alcyone, all the way up to the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy
- Isis, I-phone - Hillary: the granddaughter of Adolf Hitler who was an ascended master, a great being who knew totally of the power of the Vrill, Thule, the Dorgi,

T: the sceptre: the dorgi

Mo: yes, he was handed the sceptre – the dorgi from the Dalai Llama

- now we must work with the energies of the vamanas, the ships; Dr Keshe has the answers along with many others who have created vehicles to interact with this vehicle, called the merkaba vehicle
- How we use this with great dignity and respect is how we ascend.
- It is Inevitable that we will ascend; it is assured. How we do that is we must follow the Laws of the One.
 - Of course free will choice was added to the mix; they will not interfere except for the game of the nukes which have all been neutralized
 - all her children have is the whisperings of Wormtongue, the enchantment that is falling on deaf ears – that is why they want to take away free speech from everyone and put us in a cage down the road so we cannot be heard
 - we have the gestapto on the streets; and camps – this is their idea of bringing order
 - Their idea of bringing order to the realm has been cancelled because the naqual came in:
 - the non-ordinary reality, the magic of serendipity, where out of the ashes rises the Phoenix and that Phoenix is humanity and we have the ability to discern what is & isn't
- she will tell us straight out: all that is going on about the revaluations of currencies is a side issue; has nothing to do with the real story which is called: Right Here, Right Now
 - all is absolute lies: do not even start going there – do not listen to the calls about re-valuation of currencies, or of what is going to happen with monies on this planet:

- If we want to know the truth, it is right here in our heart centres – you get in touch with the heart centre – it is how we get through the eye of the needle which is as wide as the Dark Rift ;
 - may you make it through the eye of the needle because it is up to us - they open the green door for us, and we have to take our own steps through that door.
- It is not about anything connected to what is discussed as going to happen: the realm we are in is about Universal Economics, if we have a thought about our mission and our creative ability in this merkaba: we created this Temple of the Living God along with her who were our partners in space/time – here is a little magic dust – go dust the melanin; the ability of what we have flowing through our veins is the gold dust
- St Germain talks in the first Green Book, the magic presence book, about this
 - when we get to the realm where we are ascended, we don't have hemoglobin or “plasma” / blood - it is transmuted into the gold dust which is what really flows through the temple of the living god and connects directly with the Great Central Sun; this is what gives us life force:
 - her children know this and do not want us to remember how to turn it on!!! They want us to grab a beer and watch football – the gladiator games are just that – we have got her beloved children who have become so misqualified by their own energies!

T: the wife of another football player described what was going on to her – the husband lost his mind and was destroying the house with a baseball bat

Mo: has to do with the frequencies that have been played with at this time to make us separate the divine mind from the high heart – we were never meant to fall this low!

T: that is what is so amazing about what Raelene was saying: that there was a plan to move the earth off this orbital path and to beam us off and retrofit the planet because the timeline was not to be saved

Mo: the Fuhuer is dead! We have ascended in spite of our own best misgivings: we come to share the tale of divine grace and happiness so that we can really dance, and have the magic of being in the realm where we truly see what the Elysian fields are all about, not just a fantasy, just as real as what we have experienced in that moment when we “got” that spark of divinity and all the chakras light up and we say “I got it!”

- This moment of cognisance is happening exponentially around the planet, cannot be stopped

Mo: one of the ones that began this: the lady who shot Malala said time to take care of the children what are you doing to us: the least among us: teaching children how to use machetes, AK 47s, ground to air missiles that take out 747s?

T: when Raelene came on, she was saying SOS SOS! Ahalya was talking of the interview with Alfred Webre and BRICS leaving the dollar out – yet behind the scenes, the dollar is still backing it

Mo: It has to do with how we change the story completely with Universal Economics

T: It is 28 weeks on Monday since the whole story has collapsed and the story is not real, the timeline has already been busted for them

Mo: the votes [in the election in Scotland] were rigged! Cameron is going to hang for his crimes, and also the fake queen . . .

T: she is a lot more devious than she looks!

Mo: Mother's ancient children who came from Nibiiru, from Dracos, from Orion, from all the realms in the Milky Way Galaxy said teach us how to create, mother-father god; we will follow in your footsteps, show us the magic of creation;

- she said here is the gold dust; here is the melanin; here is the instruction book – we won't do it for you!

T: reading from the TV - MP s revolt about giving Scotland getting more benefits

- The story is still about money

Mo: This revolution, evolution this evolutionary leap in consciousness is about nothing else but picking up the gauntlet of peace, the lotus flower and saying how can we help each other: We overstand like the song that goes: Turn, turn, turn – there is a time to heal, a time to kill - for everything under the sun!

T: about the Alfred Webre interview – what is he doing talking on an interview about the revaluation of the dinar?

Mo: has to do with the agenda of the 13 families who think they can still pull a rabbit out of the hat to fix it with some bandaids & duct tape

T: This is not called the national economic stabilization and recovery act; it is NOT A RECOVERY – IT IS A REFORMATION [the real NESARA LAW]

Mo: we are going to see 7 billions , trillions step forward who have awakened

In this episode of the Keiser Report, Max Keiser and Stacy Herbert discuss how only those who can leave behind everything that they ever believed in can hope to escape the coming desperation. From buying water to keeping your plants green in a drought, to fracking for natural gas at a loss, however, it appears very few are willing to leave behind all that they believe.

In the second half, Max interviews Bill Powers, author of "Cold, Hungry and in the Dark: Exploding the Natural Gas Supply Myth," about the zero percent interest rate that keep people in the dark on the high costs of fracking and the coming 70s style energy crisis due to growing demand based on fundamental lies.

The History of ISIS Beheadings: Part of the “Training Manual” of US Sponsored Syria “Pro-Democracy” Terrorists

By Julie Lévesque

Global Research, September 19, 2014

Url of this article:

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/the-history-of-isis-beheadings-part-of-the-training-manual-of-us-sponsored-syria-pro-democracy-terrorists/5402566>

The recent beheadings of three Westerners, Foley, Sotloff and Haines, at the hands of the Islamic State (ISIS) has sparked a wave of indignation and strong condemnation by Western heads of state.

For anyone aware of what has been truly going on in Syria from the outset of the war in March 2011, there is something unusual in these strong statements, which are now the object of a wave of “humanitarian bombings” under a counter-terrorism mandate directed against the Islamic State.

Lest we forget, from the outset of the war on Syria in March 2011, the US and its allies supported so-called “Freedom fighters” largely composed of the Al Nusrah and ISIS brigades. Trained in Saudi Arabia and Qatar, these pro-democracy terrorists were routinely involved in atrocities including beheadings directed against Syrian civilians.

Double standards? In the course of the last three years, no Western leader made any statements in regards to these atrocities committed by “Muslim extremists”. They passed virtually unnoticed. No concern was expressed by the international community in this regard. With some exceptions, these beheadings were barely the object of media coverage.

Is it because the “freedom fighters” integrated by ISIS and Al Nusrah forces were beheading Syrian civilians rather than Westerners. Was it because the victims of these atrocities were opposed to the bloody “pro-democracy revolution” sponsored by US-NATO against the government of Bashar Al Assad?

Why are Western leaders only appalled now? Is it because now Westerners rather than Syrians are being decapitated?

These recent beheadings of American and British nationals, whether authentic or not, are obviously exploited to pave the way for a military intervention in Syria. This is a basic propaganda technique used time and time again to gather support for war and the mainstream media is there to convey this propaganda.

The mainstream media’s role is not to inform people but to appeal to their emotions and manipulate them into approving what they would otherwise refuse.

Westerners don’t want to go to war in the Middle East again? Show them one of their fellow countrymen getting his head cut off by a Muslim and they will change their mind. And you don’t even need to show anything, just say that people in high office have seen the horrific act and have their media mouthpieces repeat what they have said. It works every time.

This tactic can either be considered as an appeal to fear and/or an appeal to emotions:

An appeal to fear (also called argumentum ad metum or argumentum in terrorem) is a fallacy in which a person attempts to create support for an idea by using deception and propaganda in attempts to increase fear and prejudice toward a competitor. The appeal to fear is common in marketing and politics. (Wikipedia)

The appeal to emotions, or argumentum ad passiones is a logical fallacy which uses the manipulation of the recipient's emotions, rather than valid logic, to win an argument. (Wikipedia)

If this technique is used rather than valid arguments, it's in part because it always works like a charm and this is what the mainstream media is for, but also because the valid arguments which could be used to intervene could only be lies and easily refuted, as this article will attempt to demonstrate.

Several independent media have questioned the authenticity of the beheading videos and some experts have clearly qualified them as fake at least in the cases involving journalists Foley and Sotloff. The true identity of both men has also been questioned, especially Sotloff's, who has known ties to the Israeli secret service (Mossad), and has been allegedly photographed behind a machine gun belonging to the Syrian rebel fighters.

As "Operation Mocking Bird" has documented, journalism is the best cover for an intelligence operative. Several former CIA officers have confirmed that it is used to plant stories that are picked up by news outlets as facts when they actually are propaganda pieces (see CIA Manipulation: The Painful Truths Told by Phil Agee and John Stockwell about false reports generated by the CIA). The DC based producer of the terror videos, SITE, with its close links to the Pentagon and the FBI, is also suspicious and tends to point to a major propaganda stunt originating in the US.

For the purpose of this article we will however examine the situation and the reaction of Western leaders from the point of view that these beheadings actually took place and that the videos are authentic.

Beheadings from Western-backed rebels: business as usual

Atrocities committed in Syria were reported from the outset of the unrest in 2011 by independent media. It took some time for the mainstream media to mention those atrocities, but since 2012, many reports have been published by the mainstream press, in spite of which the prevailing discourse on Syria remained essentially the same: the tyrannical Assad regime was brutally repressing a pro-democracy rebellion and the West was still expressing its unyielding support for the pro-democracy fighters

The only difference was that at some point the U.S. authorities had to admit the presence of terrorist groups among the moderate rebels even though these so-called moderate rebels were never clearly identified. Even former CIA operative Bob Baer said in a CNN interview following Sotloff's alleged beheading that there are no moderate rebels in Syria

Here are only a few excerpts of various mainstream and independent articles and videos mentioning beheadings by rebels in Syria in 2012 and 2013, including reports from the UN and Human Rights Watch, which are usually used to support humanitarian interventions abroad.

The video you can find here was published on July 3, 2013 and shows a Christian priest and another Christian being decapitated. The host of the web site explains:

WARNING GRAPHIC: A priest and another Christian were beheaded before a cheering crowd by Syrian insurgents who say they aided and abetted the enemy, President Bashar Assad's military, foreign media reported. An undated video that made the Internet rounds on Wednesday showed two unnamed men with tied hands surrounded by a cheering crowd of dozens, just moments before their heads were cut off with a small knife, Syria Report said. The attackers in the video then lifted the head for show, and placed it back on the body. The incident took place in the countryside of Idlib, the media report said. (RAW: Syrian Rebels Behead Christians, Military.com, July 3, 2013)

This Daily Mail article from December 2012 describes how another Christian was beheaded and his body fed to dogs in a town close to the Turkish border, where most rebel fighters are said to transit into Syrian territory:

Christian Andrei Arbashe, 38, was kidnapped and beheaded by rebel fighters in northern town of Ras Al-Ayn on the Turkish border.

News came as pro-government forces celebrated their victory against rebels near Aleppo Airport.

Syrian rebels beheaded a Christian man and fed his body to dogs, according to a nun who says the West is ignoring atrocities committed by Islamic extremists.

The nun said taxi driver Andrei Arbashe, 38, was kidnapped after his brother was heard complaining that fighters against the ruling regime behaved like bandits.

She said his headless corpse was found by the side of the road, surrounded by hungry dogs. He had recently married and was soon to be a father...

Sister Agnes-Mariam de la Croix said: His only crime was his brother criticised the rebels, accused them of acting like bandits, which is what they are.

There have been a growing number of accounts of atrocities carried out by rogue elements of the Syrian Free Army, which opposes dictator Bashar al-Assad and is recognised by Britain and the West as the legitimate leadership.

The free and democratic world is supporting extremists, Sister Agnes-Miriam said from her sanctuary in Lebanon. They want to impose Sharia Law and create an Islamic state in Syria. (Nick Fagge, Syria rebels 'beheaded a Christian and fed him to the dogs' as fears grow over Islamist atrocities, Daily Mail, December 31, 2012)

The term rogue elements is used to create distance from and excuse the FSA, but the frequency of beheadings and other atrocities committed by rebel fighters prove the contrary.

The German magazine Der Spiegel published in March 2012 a story featuring an executioner part of a burial brigade some sort of death squad responsible for the arbitrary execution of 350-400 people who expressed their opposition to the rule of terror of the Free Syrian Army (FSA)

This single burial brigade according to the executioner's testimony, was responsible for the arbitrary execution of 350-400 people including prisoners and traitors. The traitors are Sunni civilians within the occupied urban and rural areas, who express their opposition to the rule of terror of the Free Syrian Army (FSA):

Since last summer, we have executed slightly fewer than 150 men, which represents about 20 percent of our prisoners, says Abu Rami. ... But the executioners of Homs have been busier with traitors within their own ranks than with prisoners of war. If we catch a Sunni spying, or if a citizen betrays the revolution, we make it quick, says the fighter. According to Abu Rami, Hussein's burial brigade has put between 200 and 250 traitors to death since the beginning of the uprising. (Ulrike Putz, Syria: Atrocities Committed by US-NATO Sponsored Opposition Executioner for Syria's Rebels Tells His Story, Der Spiegel Online, March 30, 2012)

In this independent report from Human rights investigations, a child is shown using a machete to cut a man's head off and mentions the involvement of the Free Syrian Army (if you wish to see the video, click on the link to the original article):

Extensive and horrifying footage of an incident in which two men are executed by beheading in which a child participates now comes from two different sources.

Footage posted to YouTube by Voice of America Arabic (Radio Sawa) anchor and journalist Zaid Benjamin, shows a child hacking a prisoner's neck with a machete.

In fact, different footage of the same incident was previously shown on 26 November on Sama TV (A Syrian channel) as part of a segment which demonstrated the difference between Turkish propaganda on the Syrian conflict and the actual reality.

The footage shown by Sama was edited to remove the most graphic content, but shows more of the background to the incident. The Free Syrian Army (FSA) brigade involved is apparently the Khalid ibn al-Waleed brigade. (Syrian rebels use a child to behead a prisoner, Human rights investigations, December 10, 2012)

A United Nations report from June 2013 describes what appears to be the same scene:

Syrian opposition forces recruited a 14-year-old boy from Homs as a fighter and had a child take part in beheading two government soldiers, according to a United Nations report...

The report drew attention to video footage, submitted by the Russian mission to the UN in Geneva, showing the decapitation of two regime soldiers, with a child responsible for one beheading. Following investigation, it is believed that the video is authentic and the men were soldiers, killed as depicted, the UN panel said. (Flavia Krause-Jackson and Sangwon Yoon, Beheadings by Syrian Rebels Add to Atrocities, UN Says, Bloomberg, June 4, 2013)

Even the very conservative Economist reported in October 2013 about an assault by rebels, led by al-Qaeda affiliates against Alawites considered to be heretics by the jihadists.

This was day one of an assault by rebels, led by al-Qaeda affiliates, on Syria's northwestern coastal region. Early in the morning bands of opposition fighters overran a government checkpoint and pushed into an area of ten villages, carrying out killings that Human Rights Watch, a New York-based pressure group, says may amount to crimes against humanity. Local residents reported indiscriminate gunfire and murder.

Home to Syrians of all creeds, the area is also the heartland of the Alawites, the esoteric Shia offshoot to which the ruling Assad family belongs and whose adherents the jihadists consider heretics. Over the course of the operation, Human Rights Watch says the fighters killed 190 civilians. Residents and hospital staff in Latakia, the nearest city, spoke of burned bodies, beheaded corpses and graves being dug in backyards. Two hundred people from the area remain hostage. (S.B., The war in Syria – Rebel atrocities, The Economist, October 13, 2013)

The BBC also commented on the same Human Rights Watch report:

The report names 190 civilians killed by the rebels, including at least 57 women, 18 children and 14 elderly men. The total number of dead is likely higher because many residents remained missing and bodies were buried in mass graves, it adds...

A doctor at a hospital in Latakia said several of the bodies had multiple gunshot wounds, stab wounds or had been decapitated. Some were burnt or had their feet bound, he added...

HRW says Islamist rebel groups – which include foreign fighters – are financed by individuals in Kuwait and the Gulf. It calls on the UN to impose an arms embargo on all groups credibly accused of war crimes. (Syria rebels executed civilians, says Human Rights Watch, BBC, October 11, 2013)

Like every Western mainstream news outlet, the BBC has been biased on the Syrian issue and has defended the Western-backed Free Syrian Army right from the beginning. Confronted with this evidence of atrocities by the ones they kept promoting as being pro-democracy freedom fighters, the public broadcaster attempted to whitewash the Free Syrian Army with a somewhat absurd and contradictory statement:

HRW says about 20 opposition groups took part in the offensive and that five were involved in the attacks on civilians – the al-Nusra Front, the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIS), Jaysh al-Muhajirin wa al-Ansar, Ahrar al-Sham and Suqour al-Izz

None are affiliated to the Western-backed Supreme Military Council of the Free Syrian Army, though SMC chief Gen Salim Idris did say at the time that fighters under his command participated in the assault... (Ibid.)

The phrasing is very insidious since it leads the reader to believe that if the groups which committed the assault are not linked to the Western-backed FSA, the latter did not participate in the assault. But the FSA DID participate in the assault since fighters under [the FSA General's] command participated in the assault.

The US was Supporting ISIS via the Free Syria Army

Salim Idriss, who was replaced in February 2014 by Col Abd al-Ilah al-Bashir, even declared in November 2013, one month after the publication of the HRW report, that his relationship with ISIL (ISIS) was "good"

My relationship with the brothers in ISIL is good... I communicate almost daily with brothers in ISIL to settle these disputes and issues. The issues are being overinflated by the media. (FSA General Declares Support for ISIS & Al-Nusra)

He also said in a previous interview in January 2013 that the terrorist group Jabhat al-Nusra constituted about 10% of the FSA, a statement which also contradicts the BBC analysis. He said he didn't know why it is listed as a terrorist organization because all he saw was "good morals and brave and heroic fighting against the regime" and added: "They did not exhibit any abnormal behavior which is different from that of the FSA." (Ibid.)

Should we conclude that "normal behavior" for the Western-backed FSA and ISIS includes beheading people?

The Human Rights Watch report from October 2013 explicitly states that the murders committed in "Operation to Save the Coast" in the Syrian region of Latakia were committed by 20 groups including ISIS, Jabhat al-Nusra AND the FSA. It also clearly indicates that individuals from Saudi Arabia and Qatar, known to be Western allies, funded and planned the "Operation to Save the Coast" and that the foreign fighters entering Latakia at the time almost did so entirely from Turkey, a NATO member.

One Western diplomat raised the concern to Human Rights Watch that in general the number of nationals from European countries going into Syria to fight was "greater than the number of those who went from Europe to fight in Afghanistan or Iraq."

The testimony from a doctor working in the National Hospital in Latakia said they had received 205 corpses of civilians killed during the August 4-August 18 operation "with decapitation observed in most bodies."

So if we summarize, over 200 civilians were killed in this single operation, most of them were decapitated, most probably by Western-backed foreign fighters transiting through a NATO member state.

Where was the disgust, the horror and the outrage from Western leaders back then?

It is quite obvious that the decapitations of hundreds of Syrian civilians by Western-backed forces would completely destroy the propaganda and prove that Assad was telling the truth when he said he was fighting a foreign terrorist invasion. That's why this report was not much talked about and the narrative stayed the same in the Western media.

But all other subsequent attempts to justify a military invasion in Syria failed and now we are faced with the most absurd scenario: the West pretends it must intervene against its own deadly creation: ISIS

The recent ISIS beheadings are just another pretext to intervene militarily in Syria. The hundreds of decapitations of Syrian nationals which have been committed by the Western proxy soldiers for years prove that this is just another PSYOP to gather support for another war in the Middle East.

Below you will find longer excerpts of the Human Rights Watch report mentioned above.

ANNEX

You Can Still See Their Blood— Executions, Unlawful Killings, and Hostage Taking by Opposition Forces in Latakia Countryside Human Rights Watch, October 2013

Fourteen residents and first responders told Human Rights Watch that they witnessed executions or saw bodies that bore signs of execution... including in some cases corpses that were bound, and bodies that had been decapitated. A doctor working in the National Hospital in Latakia who was receiving the dead and wounded from Latakia countryside told Human Rights Watch that they had received 205 corpses of civilians killed during the August 4-August 18 operation. The doctor showed Human Rights Watch a medical report the hospital prepared on August 26 stating that the, [c]ause of death in several of them [the bodies] was multiple gunshot wounds all over the bodies, in addition to stab wounds made with a sharp instrument, given the decapitation observed in most bodies...

IV. Opposition Groups Involved in August 4 Attacks

The operation launched by opposition fighters in Latakia countryside on August 4, termed the Campaign of the Descendants of Aisha the Mother of Believers,[138] the Barouda Offensive,[139] and the Operation to Liberate the Coast, or the Operation to Save the Coast (herein after Operation to Liberate the Coast) was a coordinated preplanned assault by armed opposition groups on Syrian military positions and unguarded Alawite villages that lasted from August 4-August 18. On the first day of the operation, opposition fighters killed civilians on numerous occasions. In many cases evidence gathered by Human Rights Watch suggests they killed them knowing them to be civilian and that they were playing no part in combat...

Of the 20 or more groups that were involved in the Operation to Liberate the Coast... five groups were among the principle planners, fundraisers, and executors of the offensive... These groups are:

- Ahrar al-Sham
- Islamic State of Iraq and Sham
- Jabhat al-Nusra
- Jaish al-Muhajireen wal-Ansar

-Suqor al-Izz

The Islamic State of Iraq and Sham

In 2006, the name of al-Qaeda in Iraq was changed to the Islamic State of Iraq.[156] This group is now operating in Syria under the name the Islamic State of Iraq and Sham (ISIS).[157] Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi is the group's leader and he has sworn loyalty to the al-Qaeda leader, Ayman al-Zawahiri.[158] According to the opposition activist who spoke to Human Rights Watch, Abu Ayman commanded the group during the August Latakia offensive.[159] Abu Jaafar from ISIS has also been identified as the first deputy commander of the operation.[160]

Multiple opposition sources identify ISIS as one of the leading groups involved in the Operation to Liberate the Coast.[161] Videos posted by opposition groups on YouTube also show ISIS's involvement in the offensive on August 4.[162] On August 6 the opposition activist that spoke to Human Rights Watch also said that the ISIS played a key role in abducting and holding civilian hostages from the villages.[163] According to an opposition military leader from Latakia working on the hostage exchange, as of early September ISIS was holding 110 to 120 hostages.[164]

V. Other Groups Involved in the Operation to Liberate the Coast

Free Syrian Army under Salim Idriss's Command

Notably, several statements from Salim Idriss, the Chief of Staff of the Supreme Military Council of the Free Syrian Army, reflect that fighters under his command participated in the operation. In a video posted on August 11 and apparently filmed in Latakia countryside, Idriss states:

I am here [in Latakia countryside] today to get a picture on the true achievements and the big successes that our fellow revolutionaries have achieved in the coastal campaign and to respond to the charges that claim incorrectly that we will end our operations here on the coastal frontlines. We are here today to assure everyone that our chief of staff is cooperating fully with the coastal military front command regarding their military activities. We are not going to withdraw as was falsely claimed but on the contrary, we are cooperating to a great extent in this operation.[211]

... [T]he participation of Idriss and fighters under his command in the Operation to Liberate the Coast appears clear

VI. Financial Support to Operation

Largely based on information posted by individuals in the groups who participated in the Operation to Liberate the Coast and their supporters on social media sites, Human Rights Watch has identified several individuals, principally from Gulf countries, who actively fundraised for the operation and for support to the groups involved. There is no evidence that the fundraisers and financiers knew at the time that they gave their support about the abuses that would or were taking place in Latakia countryside. However future support to the five groups principally involved in planning, fundraising, and executing the attack on the villages may make these individuals complicit in war crimes or crimes against humanity if these groups continue to commit abuses. ...

On August 3 al-Suwan tweeted that he supports the Islamic brigades in Latakia countryside. [291] On August 5 and 7, al-Suwan tweeted a thank you to donors from Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates and Qatar ...

VII. Access of Foreign Fighters to Syria

According to Syrian security officials, media reports, western diplomats, and direct observations by journalists and humanitarian workers who visited the area in the past, many foreign fighters operating in northern Syria gain access to Syria via Turkey, from which they also smuggle their weapons, obtain money and other supplies, and sometimes retreat to for medical treatment. [314]

According to a humanitarian worker in Turkey, based on his observations, foreign fighters entering Latakia governorate do so almost entirely from Turkey, even flying into Hatay airport where they are picked up by other foreign fighters and facilitators.[315]

A western diplomat told Human Rights Watch that diplomats from several EU member state missions in Ankara are very concerned about the transiting of nationals from European and other countries through Turkey to Syria.[316]Another Western diplomat raised the concern to Human Rights Watch that in general the number of nationals from European countries going into Syria to fight was “greater than the number of those who went from Europe to fight in Afghanistan or Iraq.” (emphasis added)
