- MR:
- Please remember to support MariettaRobert's show, too

HARD NEWS:

- T: let's celebrate our gifts ahead of time – as we pay things forward, we cause things to happen forward
- Rama's birthday July 25th; Tara on Aug 5th & Barack's
 - Speaks of seeing Barack under a tree saying that Boehner's case is a stunt:

Craig Barnes radio program: [Barnes used to be a Supreme Court judge in New Mexico; knows the legal territory!]

- The courts are all a bunch of thieves
- Had on Cathy Christensen, husband was Bill Christensen, now dead; both Veteran CIA Agents

Right Left and Centre: Ray McGovern was on with Robert Greenwald

- Talking of Iraq and Afghanistan: the US has turned Afghanistan into a nuclear wasteland we have to fix it
- R says it is one of the most unique place on earth: has rare earth minerals that are in the chips in electronic equipment

- Camp Lovewave: Ben Stewart was on, talking about Kymatica, Esoteric Agenda & divine Consciousness
- What is happening with the frequencies now, and stepping out of the matrix and see that there are changes we have already won! ;
 - would be most auspicious if we would honour the Mahdi and his entrance now - aa
 - The Mahdi is part of the Islamic, Buddhist teachings, Judeo-Christian teachings

Ray McGovern, Robert Greenwald: what is war good for? Absolutely nothing

- R: saw Eric Burden in the late 66-67; nothing has changed – whether it is Iraq, Afghanistan, Viet Nam
- All that is going on now is super connected with the wave of frequency shift
 - Ben Stewart talked of how it was affecting whole groups of society across the planet and moving us toward peace, not war
 - The 13 families don't get what is happening with this energy; as they are locked in the matrix, should they try & move away from their program, they are taken out by their own people – they can use their own divine will
- R: spoke with Tom the Cat and Jack the Alien Hunter : they said this is the time of the return of the Goddess Isis and Sekmet: there is a double edged sword being played now – all is empty talk!
- The real war is about the war for our consciousness: these life forms feed on the energy of what is in the 4th astral level – as we play with fear etc, we feed them energy
 - Yes, we are in the 5th yet there are some life forms playing in the 4th levels and the 13 families are feeding on those energies
 - Those ones only have 11 strands of DNA – missing the 12th about love; Mother just takes them out: it is an easy transition

Ben Stewart on Camp Lovewave:

- That the people want peace and not war is something the 13 families cannot figure out:
- they cannot get the money, the astronomical deals, they used to get and there is a deep chink in their army now:
- George Bush is Rama's cousin; he can only send him love; would not want to be in their shoes
Can only send him love, even though he knows what he has done
- Refers to Dick Cheney as a Darth Vader, says he is a bit of a wimp Darth Vader: he's hiding behind secret groups who have technology – he is more machine than man and cannot face his accusers
- What must it be like to be a machine and have the consciousness of one who knows it yet can do nothing about it.

Mary Lynn LeBlanc – does a program called Moon Wise in Santa Fe:

- says we are in such a magical time, as we think it, it is made manifest
- the first thing that is being made manifest is a 3D printer that allows you to create whatever you want, so someone creates a gun and prints it on a 3D printer - then you can be arrested for an idea!
- this is about the idea that we have not dealt with our own issues about gender, race, guns, species, and so on

Ben Stewart: we are one People as he talked of the cosmic wave that is changing everything

- They still beat the drum for war, but it is a false flag war; it is more a war inside ourselves
- As we are going to meet people who are trillions of years ahead of us, it would be a good idea to have some respect and some manners

Ramadan has started; the Mahdi is here.

- T: more goods on Chris Christie: David Samson has Parkinson's and he's up on so many charges – looks like he's going to squawk against
- Bridget Kelly was playing with Bernie Madoff $ and so where lots of Hollywood people & others

R: this is a grand experiment in love: we choose not to be a pawn in their game

T: even bob Dylan was compromised – who did not want to die

R: when the Admiral says “walk with me; let's do this ”, he means it

T: This last week has been about the 3 who died in Mississippi in the 60s in the fight for voting rights:

- the two white ones were simply shot in the head
- the black one was tortured before he was killed.
- Still happening in Mississippi

R: LM Nada said that abominations of desolation will come before the people as we arrive

T: and Curly saying that before long we'll be seeing silver bracelets on TV!!

R: we are moving at Warp 10 and then some;

Ben Stewart said no future tripping, no past tripping – just be in this NOW where there is so much shit shakin' – take an hour, go read a book and the planet has changed in that one hour!!!

Max Keiser had on a British Rock star Russell Brand who says it all about the banking story and that spirit is needed to be brought in make things work: that is what Beloved Ascended Master St Germain told us – it's about spirit, not banking.

- It is about the f up with money and the filthy rich doing things like creating iron man suits -the planet has said enough!

C1: July 1, 2014 HR Bill 2648 – if you purchase gold, silver and take it outside the US, they will follow it.

R: Yes, that is what happens

- People are beginning to think that the RV will not happen, starting to question if they invested wisely.

T: NO it was not [a good investment]; it was only to keep the powers that were to stay in power

C1: will not be a re-valuing of Iraqi dinar

C1: the ISIS group stole $ 1 trillion dinars, reported on CBS, NBC,ABC all at the same time

R: the chances the folks who did it were McCain and Graham were behind it & others from Congress who want to create WWII

- Then the ISIS who are hired guns do what they are told by their corporate masters who get paid billions – how the defense industry happens, and people like Cheney sit at the pool waiting for dividend checks

C1: people slowly waking up, realizing they may have been duped – what good would it be to take a 25,000 note to the bank, knowing you cannot exchange it – how come the US only has higher denominations; the lower denominations were kept in Iraq, not sold in USA

T: by Monday, it will be 17 weeks since the money system collapsed – and it is a false system-wide called NASDAQ, S&P, DOW etc

C1: city of Dubai is imploding – meaning?

R: cannot afford to continue having a city in the desert while most of Africa is starving

T: the prince and the oligarchs all have their money invested there – banking system is collapsing – it has already collapsed and it is just catching up in Dubai.

R: the people working in restaurants and hotels in Dubai are indentured slaves! Work there for little to nothing, and then perform sex for those *****

C1: could see the ATM bars move shortly – something about gold bars

T: the gold bars they can play with are not solid gold – have tungsten in the middle! This has been since 1976!!!

C1: the more questions, the more learning!

C1: story: understands that there is talk about Mitt Romney running for pres again?

T: yes, of course: they have no where to go except staying in the limelight – we want them there, but they will go nowhere. Curly said to Rama that come early July we may be seeing people in silver bracelets on TV

C1; has also heard about silver bracelets

C1; saw movie Transformers: Age of Extinction – clues being dropped everywhere! All kinds of hints about the future.

- So many good things are in the movie – message is spot on!
- A dragon fly but it's not: it spies on you – that kind of technology

R: even have technology that look like house flies, butterflies that are very sophisticated listening devices

C1: TV series with Holly Berry going to star in – any news about it?

R: only that Holly Berry plays Storm in the X Men – is it related to that?

C1: pertains to her child which is not really hers; swapped out for a look-alike clone – has seen the preveiw and thinks it might be about introducing cloning to the people

T: it's the end of the cloning, not the beginning

C1: Bringing back Under the Dome – why? Was somewhat of a negative when it came out

T: wants to see movies about ETs that are not tainted

R: when people see movies like the one Craig Campobosso is making, they will have hope

R: in answer to C1 question: the Green Lantern is real, part of a group of folks who are guardians of the galaxy; ties in with Ashtar Command; another group of beings are the Watchers have always been here – they have upped the anti, and the 13 families know they are the thorn in the side that is going to be plucked out! Not sure how it will happen. In higher hands than his – he's just a messenger on a wire.

R: Bird on a Wire was a movie with Goldie Hawn, about folks spying, and a spoof too. 80S, 90s

T: Have never stopped spying – been going on since Sir Francis Bacon

- From the movie called Mediastan, about Wikileaks: Pentagon admitted that no one had been harmed by the Wikileaks disclosure – not a debatable thing: the Pentagon has put it out!
 - Yet the US investigation into Wikileaks publishing activities continues! Assange remains as a political refugee in the Equadorian embassy, and the Queen can do nothing about it!
 - The film exposed in plain sight that we have some treasonist activities in our military

We are joined in the first half by Russell Brand to talk about the austerity headlines. We chat about the UK government's expanding debt and growing deficit, despite the alleged austerity and GDP expanding thanks to heroin addiction and prostitution. Russell learns about the water cannons bought for use against anti-austerity protests which the government itself will stoke. Finally, we talk about the people revolting as they must do when the social contract has been broken: and crypto currencies are one of the most visible revolts. In the second half, Max interviews Russell Brand further about his independent media outlet – The Trews; they discuss revolution and spiritual journeys.

More intriguing ‘Bridgegate’ details emerge

Former federal prosecutor Paul Butler and New York Times reporter Kate Zernike talk with Steve Kornacki about the latest news and what’s at the heart of the issues in the “Bridgegate” scandal enveloping New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie’s administration.

Audio: bioengineering / synthetic biology – it is being driven by the bottom line of companies, and not much else. Using less and not more “stuff”, placing limits on a wide variety of aspects of our lives would be good for us: the consciousness of materialism is making us unable to look at other concepts: people rent storage spaces instead of limiting or down-sizing, for example, or are unhappy because they cannot have what others have.

Talks about necessity of having a spiritual outlook as a guidance behind whatever we undertake.

Audio: why bees have an easier time of it with democracy than people do Pirate TV - from 2013

- Democracy: decision-making for the group by the group – this is what is happening with the bees
- Democracy is not perfect: yet group decision making can be very powerful with the right organization because all the people are smarter as a collective than as individuals
- A queen bee is a mother, not a ruler: the power is vested in the workers!

5 habits of good bees

1. group members focus on their shared interests
2. group members have an impartial moderator
3. have the group members start their decision making by finding all the options – just get them on table
4. group members do not come to a rapid consensus – chew it over
5. group members can balance interdependence and independence [learn what other people think, yet still rely on own decision] no scout bee takes another scout bee's word for it – will go and look.

Some thoughts on the advantages bees have over humans

- Face simpler decisions: only need to find a home; we have health care, state of the military, education
- Bees rely on evidence, not emotion: what is evident in the campaign is huge amount of fear mongering which is not evidence
- Bees are honest – no Fox news, no fact checkers.
- Bees have no demagogues – no one bee is triggering emotional thoughts or cut taxes or bolster the military at no cost to you!!!

Carl Boudreau – Astrology Report, July 2014

Richard: The week in review

- Moon in Cancer, square Uranus – 1:15 am in the morning
 - Moon was square Mars; conjunct Jupiter a few minutes ago

Sun am: moon moves into Leo

Sun pm: sun trines Neptune – is about working with higher frequencies of Neptune, the spiritual side of Neptune; Venus is a beauty aspect

Mon: moon in Leo; trine Uranus in Aries

Tues: moon is void of course, moves into Virgo at 5 pm

Wed: Mercury will be stationary retrograde at 25° Gemini; Mercury moves into Cancer in mid July

- So we are doing this through aspects of the Sun which is spiritual, and in 2 weeks the thinking analytical side of us does it again
- Moon is in Virgo, opposite Neptune, later opposite Chiron

Thurs: moon still in Virgo – Virgo is good at figuring things out, so this should help; it almost requires a whole brain approach: the school of earth is about integrating thoughts and feelings

Friday: sun will be opposite Pluto in early morning – 4th of July:

The weekend will be a Libra weekend.

Conference Call:

Magic Mary: getting better; about 64* - had some rain – Portland, OR;

A PRAYER OF ABUNDANCE

"I am so happy and grateful now
That money comes to me
In increasing quantities
From unlimited sources,
On a continuous basis.
So be it."

Say every morning upon arising and every evening before going to bed for good results.

Very simple, and it works.

T: this is the first time we have heard any of R's people say we might see arrests on the TV screen
Where did she get the info about the new banking system?

MM: does not remember

T: have to consider the source – send it to Rama and ask him: he will forward it to KOS and ask about it

MM: can we say a prayer for the world?

Tara repeats it, using "we" instead of "I"

T: reads Kaypacha's words too [both of the following are from Kaypacha]

Beneath the surface so full of tension,
Contradiction, opposition, and miscommunication,
There are watery realms of deep feeling and bliss,
Where I open my heart to love all that is.

"Let's use this New Moon in the watery sign of Cancer to sow seeds of deep feeling within the depths of our souls and allow healing to happen as a result. It may be all too easy to get lost in the airy Gemini Venus/Mercury maze of mental wanderings..... Come home this week..... Come home to the heart....."

C2: asks for the prayers so she can use them with a friend who has been threatening suicide this week.

Reading: Five Ways the BC land Title decision will affect Canadians [SEE BELOW]

T: this is huge! Will be the day we see this in the US of A!

C2: what is happening with the Keystone Pipeline?

T: Barack Obama said they would do nothing! Nebraska's tribal nations got in the face of the Nebraska gov't – it is Native American land & you cannot go through it. Yet now they are to swindle their way to the west coast – either through Washington or Oregon, or through BC.

C3: asks about Regulus

T: Regulus in in the Leo constellation, not part of the Pleiades; as you look at Orion's belt, you see Regulus
- the 7 sisters are really small; they are 400 light years away; Orion's belt is only 160 light years away. The lowest star of the Orion's belt constellation is Sirius. It's the largest and brightest star in the sky, and often the New Jerusalem is parked in front of it

C3: what kind of people live there? R: Lion people / paschats

C3: where is Obama from? T: Andromeda; he is also the 9th member of the Council of 9 from Sirius

C3: In response to the question, T said no; you need to know about the relationship between Andromedans and Sirius – our sun Sol is one of the 4 suns; in 1976, Jupiter was ignited and is becoming a sun, not a planet – we are part of the Sirian Constellation and moving to having 4 suns.

- The Ashtar Command from the Plieadians got a special dispensation to take over the planet from the dark Sirians – there is a lake at the South Pole called Vostok which never gets colder than 60*, and this is where the dark Sirians get into the inner earth and do their dirty deeds.
- Under Buckingham Palace, there are spiders the size of VWs; the regular job of the Queen of England is to round up babies and feed the Satonians/spiders – yes, it is sick!
- The Vatican does the same thing weekly – kill babies, drink the blood in honour of Satan.
- Satan is a vast energy, not encompassed by one being; has to do with the Satonians – has to do with Lucifer who is the son of ? - they are not individual incarnations, they are multi-dimensional energies that suck off human emotion; there are about 1 million Satonists serving the archons which are the larger energies who can take people out with their 3rd eye; their minions are the P2 lodge, the oligarchic web of demonic energy – that is why the energy now is so intense: tells of one of the caller whose friend is thinking of suicide and the satanic energies just love it when humans think like that!

• Important that we invoke the higher energy of Isis, Maitreya, Melchizedek

C3: asks for a bit about Lion People

T: Sekhmet is a Lion Person; names 2 books:

- Secret Places of the Lion: Alien Influences on Earth's Destiny – George Hunt Williamson
- The Goddess Sekhmet: Psycho spiritual exercises of the 5th Way - Robert Masters.

Audio: The Mysterious stone monuments of Markawase, Peru – Feature Film

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6xoGUg-nF6w>

Uploaded on 10 Oct 2010

On a remote Plateau, in Central Peru, hundreds of enigmatic figures and faces have been found in the living rock. Figures that should not be there at all. An Egyptian Pharaoh with headdress and beard looks almost identical to the death mask of King Tut. A gigantic face called "The African Queen" looks similar to The Great Sphinx of Egypt. The delicate Features of an Egyptian Maiden decorate the canyon walls. All of these features can be seen in a mysterious Peruvian plateau known as Markawasi. Were these figures carved by a lost race? Was there contact between Egypt and Peru in ancient times? Were these and more than 200 other bizarre images like them carved by intelligent beings, or created by the whim of nature alone?

Meet Daniel Ruzo, the world-famous explorer who first discovered Markawasi in 1952. Hear his theory about the lost Masma Culture who created the monuments before a great flood wiped out humanity. Meet Peter E. Schneider, a modern researcher who is determined to champion the work of Ruzo and discover the secret of Markawasi. Meet Geologist - Dr. Robert Schoch, who helped re-write history by re-dating The Sphinx thousands of years older than previously thought. Schoch explores Markawasi and gives some surprising explanation for these enigmatic stone monuments.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014, June 28 The Oracle Report

Shift in the Game: Cancer Cycle 2014

New Moon Phase: beginnings

Moon in Cancer

Ruling Mahavidya: Dhumavati (Goddess of Smoke) and Kali (The Destroyer)

Skill: uncomplicate things, aim for simplicity

Negative Imprint: disguise; stagnation

Positive Imprint: sincerity; progress

Instincts, impulses, and desires reach heightened proportions today as the New Moon phase continues.

But we want to be smart about this because Mercury remains retrograde with the energy of "a cat arguing with a mouse." Many things, especially our thoughts about ourselves, are locked in a loop - a circuit - of self-defeat and negativity. The energy is deeply imprinted with the tendency to look at things and feel deeply unsatisfied.

The feeling of dissatisfaction is one of the things from which this month's energy tries to liberate us.

Inherent also in today's energetic signature is the polarity of disguise versus sincerity. In other words hiding/faking or being real.

When walls come down, we see what's real. We see who or what is trying to push forward, advancing, or pretending to be more than they are. We also see the beauty and value of simplicity. We see what truly matters in life.

Aiming for simplicity takes us out of the space-time pace that is too busy to see simplicity, and therefore draws us off course.

Along this line, it is very important to integrate fun today. We are coming upon a very intense astrological window of time (July 1 - July 12) so we want to really work on grounding ourselves in nature and getting in good alignment now. Spend some time doing something that you enjoy. Recapture something that was fun for you as a child (or something that you wanted to do but couldn't). Return to something you love.

I will post a separate report tomorrow, as the Moon will move into Leo, joining the Black Moon for a couple of days, and putting new energetic elements in play. Instincts and impulses are strong today, but remember to slow down, uncomplicate matters, aim for simplicity, and keep it real. Though it may appear that we are putting less energy into things, in reality, tremendous progress will be made. Thank you for supporting the Oracle Report!

Happy NEW MOON in Cancer - Mystic Mamma

On this Cancer NEW MOON, from the heart of the Mother, may we be filled with love and reminded of the truth of who we are~~~

Here are the MYSTIC MAMMA Astral Insights from the most tuned in readers of the planetary movements... First from the wise Dipali Desai and her Celestial Space Astrology:

“There is a wonderful sparkle to the New Moon in Cancer at 5 degrees on June 27th, 2014. Something feels refreshing and even inspiring even if you can’t quiet verbalize what it is. Soak in the fabulous energy now as new moon phase tends to symbolize a fresh new start...”

“There are still ripples being felt, symbolic or literal after the Mars/Uranus and Pluto aspect this week leading up to the New Moon in Cancer. The energies may be felt like water pouring out of a dam. It will vary depending on your personal Natal Chart and what is being activated through transits for you.

“The New Moon in Cancer may soften the edges a bit to provide enough space for nourishing yourself where you feel drained or exhausted now...”

“The astrological sign of Cancer suggests tuning into the Sacred or Divine Feminine quality/energy including the Inner Mother Archetype. Some relevant themes under this new moon are; emotional awareness, nourishing, nurturing, belonging, family, habits, gut instinct, ancestral lineage as well as emotional security.

“Take time to be near a body of water such as a stream, lake, river, waterfall, sea or Ocean. If you are not able to, taking a nice bath with sea salts will do too. It is helpful to attune yourself to the water element, flow and be. The water element knows how to flow, be fertile as well as gentle and caring.

“During this time, Mars in Libra makes a ‘inconjunct’ aspect to Chiron in Pisces retrograde suggesting old wounds within all kinds of relationships may re-surface for closer examination and require you to redirect energy and desire so you can forgive and heal. It is a time to re-balance and surrender the pain.

“Mercury in Gemini retrograde slowly making its way by transit towards stationing to go Direct on July 1st, 2014. All the frustrations and delays in communications soon to move forward. Be patient and hang in there. Meanwhile, it’s a great time to check how your perceptions may confuse you or distract you from staying on course of trusting.”

From the wonderful Molly Hall from About Astrology:

“There’s some striking astrology at the Cancer New Moon, that calls for a tidal alert. Cancer, as you know, is the sign of moods and the Moon itself...”

“The atmosphere of this New Moon evokes cascading feelings, that at times open up to something sublime, and redeeming.

“Imagine cathartic cries, a ground swell of empathy and compassion for all who suffer, an outpouring of love, the miracle of forgiveness, dreams of a home beyond and divine inspiration.

“But there are mighty ordeal angles to heavy-hitters Uranus and Pluto that make this lunation more than a euphoric Neptunian fantasy. Mars (Libra) is in a showdown opposition to surprise-twist planet Uranus. There could be major upsets in relationships of all kinds, as one or both sides take a stand.”

“...What’s coming to mind is a deluge of all that’s been stuffed down, and that’s felt too intense, even dangerous, to express. Looking on Pluto’s sunny side, it’s a purging of core, compressed soul contents. The release under these conditions can feel like a devastating tsunami of feelings and raw material.

“If you stay with yourself (stay present, alert), and let the feelings and whatever live, it is integrated. And it can be vitalizing, because you’re reclaiming energy (and dimensions of your soul) pure and simple.

“Tips: Give yourself space to ‘Be’ without having to smile (when you don’t feel like it) and make small talk. Move the energy with exercise....”

“A great one to deeply listen to your feelings as messages about what’s in need of change. These messages may be impossible to ignore, and seem to carry a sense of getting a second chance to make things right.

“Jupiter (in Cancer) is forming a magic trine to Saturn — adding to the big showing of water signs. The way through a tough spot could be to ride the emotional waves, to go with the flow. And to seek fresh water sources — inspiration, music, images, beauty — that move you.

“...The New Moon is a time of fresh starts — in this feeling water sign, it’s time to refill the well. Find a refuge where it’s safe to emote, and rest, be renewed.”

From the dear and always inspired Kelley Rosano:

“Pluto is opposing the New Moon. Pluto is about power. How you use power. How you own your power or, how you give your power away. This aspect can create power struggles with others and yourself.

“Do not disown your shadow side, feelings of guilt, shame and jealousy. Instead, channel this negative energy into more productive areas of your life. You can use it for working out. Yes, take your anger and frustration and build muscle. Your personal success is the sweetest form of payback. Focus on the positive. Focus your mind on what is working in your life.

“You are a powerful creator...Make your desire greater than your resistance and you will get what you want...”

“Cancer rules feelings. Cancer is about your soul power. You are being asked to pull up your personal power. Allow your feelings to guide you because your feelings are your truth. Being balanced in your male and female energy will empower you...”

“Creator has your back. Creator loves and supports you. Be in your integrity. Integrity and honor will protect you through your trials and tribulations.

“Take charge of your emotions. Be in control of your life. Don’t go down into the mud and struggle with the dark side. Rise up like the break of dawn. Be the victor and not the victim. Do what is right for you. This means follow your own Star. Your Mighty I Am Presence.

“Use this sweet Cancer New Moon to take good care of you. Surrender what is not working for you. Listen to your inner child (your soul) s/he holds the soul agreements that you have made. What you need is inside of you.

“...Use the New Moon to build your strength and vitality. Mercury is direct July 1. July is the time to take action. July is a busy month. There is great activity in the stars. The best of 2014 is ahead of you.”

From Cathy Pagano and her Wisdom of Astrology:

“Feelings are consciously named emotions, and we have to be able to express our feelings to stay emotionally and physically healthy. Our feelings help us understand our needs, which change as we grow older. Our feelings help us know what’s good for us.

“When we block, suppress or repress our feelings, we cut off an important source of information about our lives. The Cancer New Moon is very powerful, so make sure you plant healthy emotional seeds for your renewed emotional body.

“This Cancer New Moon is in a delightful relationship with Neptune, who is moving through his own sign of Pisces. Neptune’s realms are polluted, both the outer oceans and our inner unconscious. He’s cleaning out both. ...But who will clean up your inner psyche of images and beliefs that no longer serve you—or do violence to your soul? Only you! And this is your chance to do it.”

“...Since Cancer and the Moon are feminine archetypes, this month is a good time to become aware of how the Feminine operates in your life...”

“Take time to re-enter the Womb this Cancer New Moon and settle yourself into a healthy, new, inspired emotional body that will carry you into the future.”

2014, June 26 Five ways the B.C. land title decision will affect Canadians

By Laura Stone Global News

In a landmark ruling , the Supreme Court of Canada has unanimously granted aboriginal title to a B.C. First Nation. The ruling has implications for all outstanding land claims. Mike Le Couteur reports.

It's being hailed as a game-changer, a wake-up call, and a "very extraordinary" decision for First Nations rights.

But how does the Supreme Court's unanimous decision to recognize a B.C. First Nation's title to a specific tract of land, affect all Canadians?

Here, let us break it down:

1. Broader scope for aboriginal land

The Supreme Court said land titles can extend beyond what is regularly used by First Nations, to include seasonal hunting, fishing and resource-rich territory. This accounts for the fact that some land is used on a seasonal basis or reflects nomadic patterns of First Nations. In any case, it significantly increases the geographic scope of potential land titles. "It's crystal clear that across the province, there are very large pieces of land the province is going to have to deal with in a different way," said Gordon Christie, director of the indigenous legal studies program at the University of British Columbia.

2. Consent, or back to the drawing board

First Nation consent is required for economic development on land where title is established, the court ruled. Failing that, the government has to make the case that development is pressing and substantial, and must meet its fiduciary duty to the aboriginal group. "In some instances, the consent of the First Nations will be required for projects under development, and if they're under development already sometimes we'll have to go back to the drawing board and get the consent of First Nations," said David Rosenberg, lawyer for the Tsilhqot'in Nation.

Although there is more incentive for governments to get consent, it doesn't necessarily give the community a veto at the end of the day, as long as the government meets its stringent test, said Larry Chartrand, an associate law professor at the University of Ottawa, specializing in aboriginal rights.

"There's more cards in the hands of the aboriginal community," Chartrand said. For its part, the government said it was reviewing the decision. "Our government believes that the best way to resolve outstanding Aboriginal rights and title claims is through negotiated settlements that balance the interests of all Canadians," Aboriginal Affairs Minister Bernard Valcourt said in a statement.

3. Provinces play a role

For the first time, the court made clear that provincial law still applies to land over which aboriginal title has been declared (although subject to constitutional limits.) That means that provinces also have the ability to infringe on the territory if consent or other tests are met. This surprised a lot of experts, because provinces used to be left out of the mix. "The Supreme Court of Canada basically rewrote the Constitution by allowing provinces to do that, which from my understanding of the case law prior, provinces couldn't infringe on aboriginal rights, because of the fact that aboriginal rights were within the federal government's jurisdiction," Chartrand said.

4. Resource development

The court's ruling means First Nations have a much greater say in the development. "We're moving away from the world of mere consultation, into a world of consent. And that is absolutely enormous when one considers Enbridge's Northern Gateway pipeline proposal, the Kinder Morgan pipeline proposal, and a whole multitude of major resource development projects," said B.C. Grand Chief Stewart Phillip.

And according to Chartrand, bands are "quite sensitive" to need for economic development. "They want it on their terms and they want it based on the fact that they own the resources and the land," he said. As Xenigwet'in Chief Roger Williams put it: "Once the first people of this country have title, then only good things going to come."

5. Reconciliation

Arguably the most-quoted term following the decision was "reconciliation." Aboriginal groups said they were hopeful the decision would lead to a more equitable relationship with governments. Jody Wilson-Raybould, the Assembly of First Nations' B.C. regional chief, called the decision "a wake-up call" for governments, and called on Prime Minister Stephen Harper to change his tune on negotiating with First Nations.

"We look to Mr. Harper to actually seeing this as the fundamental impetus to sit down at the table and truly and meaningfully move towards reconciliation," she said.

"Reconciliation will be good for our nations and it will fundamentally be good for this country and transform for the better as we move forward based upon this historic day."

My article "Israel: On the Way to Empire in the Mideast" documents from Scripture an astonishing fact: Israel today is the symbolic "Mother of harlots" described in Revelation 17 and 18. Ancient Israel was first to be spiritually "married" to God and first to prostitute that unique relationship. Her forehead was branded "mother of harlots," an epithet which has never been removed.

Today, Israel lives up to her name as an international hub of prostitution and white slavery in the Mideast.

Amnesty International, in its 2005 Report on Discrimination Against Women in Israel says:

Trafficking of women for forced prostitution has occurred over a number of years but appears to have been compounded in the past 15 years by several factors, including increased links between traffickers in Israel and former Soviet republics, in the wake of the large wave of immigration of citizens of these countries to Israel...

...Many women are lured to work in Israel under false pretense and are then forced into the sex industry. While many are reportedly aware that they will be working as sex workers, they are not aware they will be subject to violent and exploitative environments, working seven days a week and up to 18 hours a day for extremely low salaries or no salaries at all. Many are subjected to other serious human rights violations, including rape, deprivation of their liberty, and debt-bondage. Women forced to work as sex workers are reportedly also frequently subjected to threats of abuse and even murder. Half the women interviewed by the Hotline for Migrant Workers were effectively incarcerated by their "pimps" and, according to a 2003 survey, almost half of all women "sold" to pimps reported that policemen were among their clients.

According to a report by the Parliamentary Committee of Inquiry on the Trafficking in Women (Summary Report) issued in early 2005, some 3,000 to 5,000 women are brought annually into Israel and forced to work as sex workers and some 10,000 were estimated to be currently in the country...

Most of the women known to have been trafficked into Israel are from Ukraine, Moldova, Uzbekistan, and Russia, and are brought into Israel through the Egyptian-Israeli border. In the course of their journey, many are reportedly raped before traffickers sell them for $8,000-$10,000... ¹

Jewish Michael Specter, in his article, "Slave Traders Lure Slavic Women," confirms Amnesty's report:

[In Israel] police officials estimate that there are 25,000 paid sexual transactions everyday. Brothels are ubiquitous...Once they [the women] cross the border [into Israel] their passports will be confiscated [by pimps], their freedoms curtailed, and what little money they have taken from them...The Tropicana in Tel Aviv's bustling business district, is one of the busiest bordellos. The women who work there, like nearly all prostitutes in Israel today, are Russian. Their bosses, however, are not. 'Israelis love Russian girls,' said Jacob Golan, who owns this and two other clubs, '...They are blond and good-looking and different than us...And they are desperate. They are ready to do anything for money.' ²

Israel: Slow to Correct Problem

Prostitution and white slavery constitute a billion-dollar-a-year industry in Israel that expands virtually unrestrained.

About two to three thousand women from FSU (Former Soviet Union) countries annually enter Israel's brothels. The US State Department, in its 2001 Trafficking in Persons Report, described Israel as among the very worst international offenders in allowing white slavery. They classed Israel in Tier 3, a group described as "not making significant efforts to bring themselves into compliance with the standards of the Dictums of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000." Israel was grouped with Albania, Gabon, Kazakhstan, Malaysia, and Pakistan, who also received an "F" for failing to protect human rights.

After this scathing 2000 report, Knesset finally passed a law criminalizing white slavery. ³ Enforcement programs and lesser statutes have been enacted, with increased police attention to the problem. In 2004, the courts actually handed down 28 convictions to white slavers. Such efforts caused the US State Department to elevate Israel's offender status to Tier 2. ⁴

However, recent reports by Amnesty and the state department are full of criticisms of Israel: While laws against sex slavery are now on the books, Israel shamelessly neglects to protect and encourage ex-prostitutes in their attempts to testify against their oppressors. Victims are largely denied full legal education, rights, services, and protection against vengeful pimps. Without victims' testimony, laws against white slavery can't be enforced.

Amnesty says,

The authorities—and in particular the police—still overwhelmingly considered trafficked sex workers simply as "criminals" who violated the Entry into Israel law, rather than victims of grave human rights violations who should enjoy the effective protection and assistance from state institutions. Consequently, the authorities have focused their activities on deporting trafficked women instead of protecting their rights and addressing their needs.

In addition, the Israeli authorities do not carry out any risk assessment of the possible dangers which trafficked women who have testified against their traffickers face after being deported back to their countries, leaving them and their families vulnerable to further human rights violations, including reprisals and re-trafficking.⁵

If a woman files a complaint against her Jewish slave master, as an illegal alien she will be imprisoned. As a result, an infinitesimal number of ex-prostitutes testify against their pimps. Consequently, very few slavers are convicted.

As a result of Israel's anemic response to the problem of white slavery, most slavers are able to mock anti-prostitution laws and white slavery continues to expand.

The government of Israel claims great difficulty in combating this problem. But Knesset hasn't even made organized prostitution a crime. The sex trade enriches Israel yearly by perhaps hundreds of millions of tax dollars. This may be part of the reason the government seems in no great hurry to clean up the industry.

History of Oppression

Four hundred years ago, Jewish slave traders dominated the lucrative business of shipment and sale of African slaves to the new world.⁶ For at least the last 125 years, Jews have also overwhelmingly controlled organized prostitution and white slavery in Europe, the United States, and South America.

Jewish historian Edward Bristow, in his book Prostitution and Prejudice: the Jewish Fight against White Slavery,⁷ says:

Rooted largely in Eastern and Central Europe where they "dominated the international traffic out of the area," (p. 2) Jews were involved in prostitution rings that networked, wrote Arthur Mora (of London's Jewish Association for the Protection of Girls and Women) in 1903, "to almost all parts of North and South Africa, to India, China, Japan, Philippine Islands, North and South America, and also to many of the countries of Europe." (p. 1)

Jewish criminals trafficked women under their control virtually anywhere, also including the major cities of Bulgaria, Bosnia, Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, Egypt, Ceylon, Manchuria, South Africa, Rhodesia, and Mozambique. (p.181)

"By 1900," says Bristow, "Jewish commercial vice was largely incorporated in underworld elements and many of its participants were predators of the poor. (p. 89)

Jewish pimps, procurers, and traffickers, preyed mostly on non-Jewish women but even large numbers of Jewish women were a part of their stables. In 1872, for example, Jewish prostitutes in Warsaw numbered 17 percent of the known prostitution population, in Krakow, 27 percent, and in Vilna, 47 percent. (p. 23)

Within the Jewish community itself, it was not uncommon for recruiters to marry innocent Jewish young women and "deposit them in foreign brothels."(p. 25)

Many of the Jewish criminal underworld figures apparently saw no gap between their day-to-day activities and their religious lives, often maintaining their religious obligations. A Warsaw thug, Shilem Letzsky, organized a small synagogue for "Jewish prostitutes, madams, pimps, and thieves." This criminal community even had a rabbinical court “to settle disputes between pimps.” (p. 60)

Other authorities say:

In Constantinople, prostitutes contributed money to “have their pimps called to Torah on holidays.”⁸

In Buenos Aires, Argentina, the Jewish pimp organization, called the Varsovia Society, “...ostensibly functioned as a neutral aid society...In fact, the Varsovia, consisted of pimps who wanted to maintain their businesses and still live a religious life...Varsovia associates established their own synagogues on Guemes Street in the midst of the traditional bordello district.”⁹

Tradition of Prostitution Continues

In Israel today, the sale of human flesh continues. Jewish pimps and brothel-owners bring FSU girls to Israel to turn tricks in the thriving bordellos of Haifa and Tel Aviv.

Many of these women, though fair-haired, are undoubtedly Jewish “Ashkenazim.” They may well have taken advantage of airlifts of Jews out of the FSU, such as Rabbi Yechiel Eckstein's Wings of Eagles ministry, funded by idealistic evangelical Christians.

Most, however, are Gentiles. They may also have hitched a free ride to Israel on Wings of Eagles. The US State Department says: “In a new trend, traffickers in Ukraine reportedly have begun exploiting an Israeli law that allows all Jews to immigrate to Israel by providing victims with false identity documents.”¹⁰

Specter's article says "elderly Jewish women in the Ukraine" were responsible for forging passports for Gentile prostitutes going to Israel. Presumably, these Jewish women received kickbacks from Jewish slavers in Haifa and Tel Aviv. With an FSU prostitute bringing in up to $100 thousand dollars annually, one suspects many of the "Jews" who are "ransomed" by gullible evangelical Christians are actually headed for white slavery in Israel.

The majority of FSU women who do not have the advantage of being labeled Jewish arrive in Israel through Cyprus and Egypt. Israeli customs police allow them to travel unhindered to slave auctions. Many are raped by pimps (testing the goods) and bought for $6 to $20 thousand dollars. In about 250 Israeli brothels, mostly in major cities, they satisfy the lust of Jewish businessmen, soldiers, tourists, etc. Servicing an average of 15 customers per girl per day, even a small brothel can make more than $8 thousand dollars per month from each woman.¹¹

Now virtual slaves to their Jewish pimps, these women pocket only a tiny percentage of their proceeds, most of which often go to support their families back in eastern Europe or Eurasia.

Double Standards

How can such vice and human bondage exist in what Christians consider God's “Holy Land?” How can Orthodox Judaism, the official position of the state of Israel, tolerate such egregious human rights violations?

In my latest e-alert, “Talmud: Wellspring of Jewish Pornography Industry,” I document how the Talmud, the highest religious authority for observant Jews, sanctions adultery with Gentile “bondmaids” or slave girls. The Talmud gives Jewish men the right to rape them if they are found sleeping, or while they are awake if the rape is performed in a perverted manner, or if withdrawal occurs before climax is finished.

Judaism's loopholes for adultery are nothing new. Both Christ and St. Paul accused the Pharisees and their followers of claiming to uphold God's laws against sexual sin, yet violating them at the same time. (Matt. 12:39, Romans 9:22)

Judaism and Islam: Darkened Religions

Does Judaism alone among the world's great religions provide moral exceptions to God's laws against sexual vice? Of course not. Islam gives similar license. Many Moslems believe they can be "married" for as short as a minute or as long as 99 years. The brothels of Tehran are daily filled with "righteous" Moslem men involved in 20-minute "marriages" and "divorces" with prostitutes! ¹²

But there's a big difference between religiously excused sex trades in Iran and in Israel: Islam does not claim to be part of the hallowed "Judeo-Christian" moral tradition. Most evangelicals believe rabbinic Judaism shares Christianity's essential ethics. Indeed, it is their confidence in shared moral values that prompts their unconditional support of Zionism.

They have been massively deceived. Orthodox Judaism's values could not be more distant from Christianity's. In the streets of Israel's major cities, sex slaves are brazenly flaunted and their pimps and slave masters go virtually unprosecuted. Why? The Talmudic ethics underlying the state of Israel endorse such degeneracy, especially with "goyim" women. The Talmud and Zohar regard Gentile women as chattel for Jewish men; they are "beasts of the earth," not fully human. ¹³ (See, "Have You Read the Talmud Lately?")

Talmudic denial of the humanity of Gentile women causes many Orthodox men in Israel to take advantage of the Talmud's rationalization that sex with the Gentile "shiksa" (whore, abomination) is morally neutral.

Moment magazine, the "Magazine of Jewish Culture and Opinion," says paid sex with blond Russian girls is a "national institution." Even rabbis, says Moment, visit these "shiksas" in whorehouses.

A good percentage of the customers or johns, in the lingo, are ultra-Orthodox Jews, pious men whose lives are guided by halaka (religious law), which tells them when they can or cannot have sex with their wives. So, on Thursday afternoons (boys' night out in Israel), busloads of Orthodox Jews travel from Jerusalem, Haifa, and points beyond, to Tel Aviv, for a few precious moments of passion in a massage parlor, behind a sand-dune, or in an alleyway. Other customers are accountants, lawyers, policemen, and politicians. "The entire spectrum of Israeli society is keeping the hookers in business," claims detective Shackar, a cynical veteran of the Tel Aviv vice detail... ¹⁴

Israel does not vigorously enforce its new law against white slavery for a simple reason: The Talmud repeatedly upholds the right of rabbis to sexually violate their "designated bondmaids" or sex slaves, free of punishment or moral guilt. The government of Israel can't effectively enforce a law forbidding what the Talmud permits.

Without strong, vehement, righteous indignation against prostitution (such as true Christian activism provides) the government of Israel, from Supreme Court to local police, remains largely powerless to stop the burgeoning sex slave industry.

What's Next?

I've described the past and present of the harlot Israel. What of her future?

The book of Revelation tells us Israel, the great harlot, will continue her spiritual and physical whoredom, until, through Jewish control of world media, government, finance, and commerce, she dominates not only the Mideast but the world. Ultimately, she will enter a "covenant" of spiritual marriage with her false messiah, the one-world leader, anti-Christ (Daniel 9:2). The "beast" is a substitute husband for her true spouse, Jesus, whom she crucified 2,000 years ago.

The harlot will ruthlessly persecute Christianity, being "drunk with the blood of the saints of Jesus" (Rev. 17:6). The beast will continue such onslaught against the church, given power to "make war with the saints and to overcome them..." (Rev. 13:7).

Yet at the apex of Israel's power, the beast will throw Jerusalem off his back, and with his confederation of world armies, kill at least two-thirds of world Jewry (See, "Bible Prophecy Made Simple"). A remnant, however, will survive until Christ's coming in glory. Christ, from the heavens, will judge the nations who attempted to destroy the Jews. Realizing how Christ has saved them from extinction, a beleaguered, astonished remnant will at last understand the magnitude of their father's apostasy. They will "look upon me (Christ) whom they have pierced" (Zech. 12:10). In national repentance and mourning, they will turn at last from their harlotry.

Thirty-five hundred years ago, Christ rescued Israel from the garbage heap of Egyptian bondage, choosing her as His bride and washing her of her blood and uncleanness. In the same way, someday, Christ will purify these repentant Jewish survivors. He will spiritually remarry Israel, joining her with His other spiritual bride, the Christian church. These Jews, at last giving Christ the obedience He demands, will finally be allowed to legitimately dwell in the land promised to the obedient descendents of Abraham. It will be a truly holy land.

At that time, He says, "You shall not play the harlot...but afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek the Lord their God, and David their king (Christ) and they will come trembling to the Lord and to His goodness in the last days" (Hosea 3:5).
