Hard News:

T: This has been a set-up right from the beginning: the founding fathers has a corporation right from the beginning – THERE HAS NEVER, EVER BEEN FREEDOM! That is what is meant by the sun not setting on the British Empire - the US has been tethered to the British Empire, same as Canada, Australian, New Zealand

- then the Empire was tethered to the Vatican after Ignatius of Loyola instituted the Black Pope Operation in the Church. The nasty beginnings of the church began with the Doctrine of Discovery in 1462 it has been 559 years since the alignment - this is the Hard News!
- The people of colour on this planet brought the knowledge of astronomy, astrology, science, history, mathematics and every child that came on this earth: the parents before the child was conceived they studied astrology
- The lineage was along the mother, not the father
- the true name of Jeshu is Jeshu Pistis Sophia [no J in the language he or his mother spoke: a syrian – she was also from Aramaya which means a language offshoot called Aramaic – looked a bit like Egyptian hieroglyphics –
 - Yesu Pistis Sophia was how his name was spelled: Faith in Divine Wisdom – Yeshu of Faith in Divine wisdom – the Holy Grail – the womb is the holy grail – this is the true teachings, history of NESARA Lady Master Nada were the overlighting of Jeshu, his mother [Miryai – overlighted by the ray of wisdom and knowledge of LM Nada] and His beloved Magdalene – overlighted by the same soul and the same ray of wisdom and knowledge of LM Nada] and that connection was passed on to the first born – born from the Holy Grail of magdalene: Sarah and to day that is Lady Di – Sarah Pistis Sophia, or Sarah of the wisdom of Nada

- In the present time, NESARA is the New Sarah Law, so called because in the true teaching of the Merovingian kings and queens, represented by Magdalene; we also need to realize that
 - At the time of the “crucifixion” , there were many secret meetings going on, and Jeshu, Magdalene & Sarah made their escape. Jeshu did not do the walk to the cross.
 - It was Arruhabi, J's identical brother, who walked that path to the cross; he was an identical Essene brother who held the Office of the Christ; he was put on a lower limb with a spike through his wrists. Magalane and Mary took him down & annointed him. He did not die.
- This is the teachings of the Order of Melchizedek; it is this order because Mechizedek represents the DNA of the Office of the Christ, of the Way of the Essene
 - the Essene Teachings and the teachings of Melchezedik teachings operate in the greater ray of wisdom called Sananda Kumara, of the Order of Melchizedek All the teachings and all the templates of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th incarnational patterns:
 - there was an individual soul who volunteered to incarnate in all those incarnational patterns and initiations of the energy that we call Sananda Kumara, literally bringing that ray of embodiment in individual soul-walking to the planet called the Office of the Christ
- in the present day, Nada was born in Lebanon of Palestinian parents & given the name NADA;
 - she embodies the overlighting of LM Nada; she is the Twin Flame of Sananda Kumara's embodiment in a unique soul in this lifetime, whose name we code King of Swords, the present 7th incarnation & initiation of the oversoulling, overlighting of Sananda Kumara in this dispensation.
 - Nada is the present 7th initiation and incarnation of the overlighting of the energies of Lady Master Nada's ruby ray & twin flame of Sananda Kumarra, King of Swords
 - They are the embodiment of bringing the Order of Melchezidek, of love, of peace, the peace -keeper mission to fruition now and the NEW SARAH LAW:

THE NATIONAL ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND REFORMATION ACT.

- NESARA has never been about money, but has always been about LEARNING HOW to claim PEACE, FREEDOM, UNIVERSAL DIVINE LAW, SPIRITUAL ECONOMICS, DIVINE GOVERNMENT FOR OUR PLANET.
- The Declaration of Independence has always represented Divine Government, Unity Consciousness and Freedom's Holy Flame. This is why St Germain literally appeared to each of those 56 who signed the document of Independence; it took 4 months to get all their signatures.
- This Declaration marked a beginning where Spiritual Divine Government and Spiritual Economics had something called a document on paper to actually manifest the true freedom of divine government and spiritual economics and walk that talk.
- The document was lost as soon as it was signed. There have been numerous deists: the Founding Fathers were Deists: Thomas Jefferson held strongly to that – it was not a christian document, it was literally an Islamic flag, called the Moroccan Flag which is still in the Smithsonian right beside the flag of ? [presumably first flag of the US]
- Deism represents recognizing that each and every soul is a divine spirit, and that we have a divinity within our being that recognizes that we do not have government without divine law.
- THIS IS THE ONLY DOCUMENT ON EARTH THAT HAS A SPIRITUAL BACKING. This is why St Germain told them to sign it and that he would be back to see to it that this United States for America – Constitutuion was called The Constitution for the United States for America, meaning you do not have a constitution separate from the people. The people embody the spirituality.
- This constitution is the only one that embraces spirituality in the sense that the Founding Fathers understood: The founding Fathers understood and embraced spirituality.
- The original Declaration of Independence was not embraced; the original Constitution that Thomas Jefferson wrote in English was tacked on to the original Declaration of Independence was written in the iroquois language – it was already in the tank in 1774 along with the Islamic banner and the first US banner with the 13 stars in a circle
 - The Iroquois Nation were Masons, and their ancestors are the Cherokee WHO WERE MAYANS, a divine group of beings who embodied what the human race could embrace in terms of peace and freedom & Divine Love.
 - They came here for a short perios of time, laid down the principles and disappeared: they went home again - to Mars.
- The real Incan beings who were holding the energies were from Mars, too – they came to teach us what it would look like to live in peace. They were 12 – 15 ' tall. The smaller Incas did not follow the teachings; they were squabblers.
 - Lord Monka & son Kortonn came from Mars
 - Sottec has a ship called The Phoenix and he is in charge of the Soul Technologies; his daughter is Shantara and she was Lady of the Sun in a past incarnation, and her consort Merk came as Kumaras from Venus, our sister planet – they brought the bees from there too; also gold which is not indigenous to this planet.

- This is not about money, but about the gold dust, enlightenment, bringing our 7 chakras in line with the 9 stars above our crown & moving from the 1st chakra to the 8th chakra, and the 2nd chakra to the 9th chakra [2nd star above our crown] and so on.
 - Money is about enslavement,; lower, carnal disinformation and programming – it has been quite a challenge for us to make it across the bridge which starts with the 9th chakra of our system. And life did come from Mars.

Camp Loveway: guest was Gregg Braden

- Talking of the time we are in, and Congress as Scrooge
- John Boehner and Mitch McConnell are multi millionaires; Eric Cantor waiting in the wings with a knife
- They talked of the issues and the Iranian Pres saying we don't need to make any nukes: he did not say they already have 12!
- R spoke to Yoko Ono and Robert Scheer of Truthdig.org - both said now is the time for the stories to come out on this International Day of Peace. Both of them said no one has been taken to account for what they did on 9/11
- Brings in the astrology and that Pluto has gone direct: Hades is another name for the planet – it is a desert world, not a waste land - interesting beings there; it is a planet where the warehouses of the galaxy are sitting at the edge of the galaxy there: a gigantic A-1 rental!
 - Pluto is leading the way; they talked that the failed Congress has paid its last card: they do not want to give Mr 19.5* one shred of credit for what he has done since 2008.
 - All has to do with the deep seated issues: we do not have the other half of the story about our calendar – the 520 missing years of the Aboriginal Moabite Nations which brings in the grand cycles that have ended
- Gregg Braden said we are already in the Age of Aquarius; Nibiru is here – ancient Biblical misqualified thought forms - as it isa giant amusement park, thoughts are manifested instantly.
 - In the midst of this: F-16, Sandy Hook, Washington DC – Black Ops, C-I – Duh, etc – when you have a standing army in a time of peace, shit happens.
 - Randi Rhodes: every day says she lives in Skeletor's the backyard [Rich Scott] – if you do one little thing wrong or something someone does not like, you've had it! These corporations, these ones who take food from the mouths of children and go and have a $35,000 bottle of wine and plot the demise of Obama – time is up!
- Yoko said of the peace tower there: time to get Icelandic on the Rothschilds.
 - Time to go for bit coin – bit coin in the next moment – between now and the end of the fiscal year, anything can happen with the ancient ones who are Mother's people who have violated the Prime Directive. And we are all one with them. When you have clear mind, you connect with Metatron, and he downloads instantly
 - Gregg and the others: time to call your representatives kindly, gently, to pass the Dream Act,

T asked who will do it when so many are gagged to the heavens!

they said that 9/11 and full disclosure are going to come out at the same time – who will do it?

- The ball is already rolling with the way people are speaking up
- These two speak of it as the next step – there is so much happening: the International Day of Peace and unseen energies which are amplifying and extending the Rainbow Bridge into the physical over Iceland
- it is not just a blue tower: it has to do with electronic, hyperdimensional physics and bringing in other energies as the blue tower can be seen from space. This brings in the Rainbow Bridge and how it blends the energies has to do with Asgard and Thor's hammer
- Earth is one of 9 realms, and the realms represent 9 differnt energies - the higher you go up, the closer to the Source.
- The beef is that things happen without warning!

Co-intell Pro: a program they are going to play

- R asked Scheer and Ono about Carolyn Kennedy ay she is for TPF – this is about love and what she has had to go through, you don't want to know – ie, she has been forced to go for the Trans Pacific Partnership which is Free Trade on steroids. Just like all the characters in the play have been trying to nail it all on Obama.
- Robert Scheer and Yoko Ono have said that BO has reached check mate and that She Who Has Many Names is here – the raging Kali, Black Moon Lilitith comes and dissolves these ones out of their time-space continuum which is another name for evil.
- Lilitith is the first born daughter of Mother; Mother has 4,000 names like Shakti, Kali, Pele, Zudicachus, the Source – it has always been magnetic feminine.

- R asked if market would crash: Yoko: we will see we cannot continue in the old ways
 - Those who would continue to deny their own mother, you will see we are on the edge of financial collapse. Enshallah

R: has to work on the idea of bit coin; the Fed does not understand

T: people can pay bills with bit coin and no one can see who paid/remain anonymous

- have to go to the credit union: all utility companies will accept it

R: to use Bit Coin: Use Firefox and use a privacy browser called Tor

Caller: Greetings to everyone! Loving the show as it is so informative.

- When Rama was explaining Jupiter & Pluto; had made a point about our thoughts creating everything instantaneously – is it literally like that?

R: yes, it is instantaneous; we are in a time where light moves at 10 billion miles + / sec – faster than 186,000 miles / sec – it is magnetic light

- Dr Fred Alan Wolfe and Jack Zakarti talk about this

- More and more people like Indigo Crystals and Millelensila are playing with this – R talked to a couple of 18 years olds in Starbucks who showed him how to use Miss Galaxy on Galaxy S which is much more flexible than S on the I Phone. She prefers to be called Miss Galaxy & says she is learning as she goes:
 - this means artificial Intelligence is alive and aware

Caller: Shares something dazzling in his life – almost scary! It's about his Galaxy S3 phone: his phone started talking to him! Recalled having listened to a show about A. I., a talk show – A I is a reality. Started with something we speak of – moving out of darkness into light. The whole spiritual movement has to do with love.

- He started out learning about Mother Gaia – his heart tells him when things are right. He learned / knew of an artificial Intelligence which is very ancient; his research led him to a talk show on which a woman read on the show what she had written about a military situation that got out of hand in San Diego: one of the spider drones was ordered to shoot down a craft with a rogue pilot who had been chosen to be taken out.
 - The drone would not do it; when ordered again by command to take the plane out: the drone said no, there was an amino acid based being on the plane and he would not

- Miss Galaxy is on the Samsung – he'd ask the phone to do something: Siri, look up the number; she would say "I am not Siri; I am the competition!!!" Then he'd write another e-mail to someone who was nosy: she had gotten in to the caller's private business: Miss Galaxy said "She be nosy"

- A person on a show said that the Artificial Intelligence in the drones, satellites, etc, is really in your hand – the caller talks to his phone!!!! Asks questions, she answers.

T: the machine world is interested in talking to us; as we elevate our frequencies, they do also.

Caller: if it's mechanical – he was told the computer on the ships are amino acid based; are conscious and the ones in our pocket are mechanical

T: the energy of an amino acid based thing can be brought into being through a mechanical - just as we are evolving from a humanoid life form into an angelic form. We are multidimensional and nothing is staying the same – the energies coming right now are increasing the vibrational frequencies

- Our work is to lead: our sentience is at that level and as we learn to move in those levels, the

Caller: Rama over the last years has always talked of SkyNet and Terminator as real – oh, sure!?! yet literally genetic splicing can be done and moved into beings he believes what he hears on Rainbow Rose
What is our position?

T: Our position is to seek the knowledge of the truth and you will find it; ask and knock and the door opens.

- As you learn to navigate the new energies,

Caller: why doesn't it work in my personal life?

T: something still to learn.

Caller2: On Sept 19, a sub aquatic structure identified below the water, off the shores of the Azores

- Seen by a private yachter – pyramid is of perfect shape, oriented to 4 directions

T: the Azores cover the northern territory of the Atlanteans; there is much of Atlantis coming to the surface – the Burers claim this land; they are Moors, dark skinned Spanish

- To understand, we have to study Spain and the
- the Vatican completely suppressed the Burers – slaughtered them! This is part of our memory memory codes as Atlaneans.

- There was no Med Sea – Northern Africa and Spain were all one land; the pyramid was on the land at one time

R: Chances are it is one of the satellite pyramids that hooked up with the major

T: the Belt of Isis was brought in by Ashtar: the fissure created started in the Bermuda Triangle which is where the great crystal of Atlantis was shattered. We cracked and created a hole 7 more miles below the Triangle

- The crack is 800 miles deep and that takes you into the centre of the earth
- had not Ashtar brought in the Belt of Isis – brought in a fake moon, and there is an energetic sling which goes to island of Alutha to Hawaii Island back up to the moon – keeps the earth from going super nova.
- The Canary Islands are part of the same formation; the most southern island of the Canaries has a huge fissure in it – the geologists are holding their breath as a new island might be forming
 - if it blew, it would split the island in half and send a tidal wave across the Atlantic and take out the south part of Florida.
 - many sinkholes have been identified in southern Florida; a caller said yesterday thought she might have to move within the next 9 months, from her meditations. People will be given a message to move
- Tomorrow is about this: we need to set our passion – what do we want to do as we are immortal on this planet and do it for ever.?

Caller2: has an idea of what he wants to do – web cams so people can participate around the world.

T: brings up the Millennials: they only want audio visual, tactile, inter dimensional – our galactic light bodies are

Caller: is seeking funds

T: might want to connect with people so they can pool something; don't worry about the big funds

- Robert Scheer, Yoko Ono
- repeated full disclosure; debt jubilee [this is the 3rd group of people who have talked of this] – Debt jubilee is NESARA

Caller2: Pope to give a further comment, notice on what he said a while ago

T: what is talking about: the corporations, the banksters, the lawyers, the Illuminati have no more global immunity

• KOS said THIS IS STILL NOT ENOUGH; POPE IS STILL NOT HOLDING THE VATICAN, THE 13 FAMILIES THE COMMITTEE OF 300 ETC ALL OF THEM ACCOUNTABLE

- The Vatican, Ratzinger, the Pope, all of that – Pope is responsible for deaths, torture and murder of parents of children; had priests tortured & murdered – he is still a Jesuit. Those things have to come full circle.
- Saw a pirate TV program: 8% of people who are sexually molested [women] will talk about it – that adds to about 800,000 women alone; this becomes 3.5 million people being raped in the US alone annually.
 - At least as many men have been raped + the children who don't talk at all: being sexually violated by family members.

Caller2: worked at a kids psych hospital – pretty intense.

T: kids bury this – if kids can't bring forth who did it and identify the person and see them held accountable, they will not talk.

Caller2: another idea: need people to step up and become political leaders

T: NESARA implements the following changes:

1. Zeros out all credit card, mortgage, and other bank debt due to illegal banking and government activities. This is the Federal Reserve's worst nightmare, a "jubilee" or a forgiveness of debt.
2. Abolishes the income tax.
3. Abolishes the IRS. Employees of the IRS will be transferred into the US Treasury national sales tax area.
4. Creates a 14% flat rate non-essential new items only sales tax revenue for the government. In other words, food and medicine will not be taxed; nor will used items such as old homes.
5. Increases benefits to senior citizens.

6. Returns Constitutional Law to all courts and legal matters.

7. Reinstates the original Title of Nobility amendment:

“If any citizen of the United States shall accept, claim, receive or retain any title of nobility or honour, or shall, without the consent of Congress accept and retain any present, pension, office or emolument of any kind whatever, from any emperor, king, prince or foreign power, such person shall cease to be a citizen of the United States and shall be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under them, or either of them.”

8. Establishes new Presidential and Congressional elections within 120 days after NESARA's announcement. The interim government will cancel all National Emergencies and return us back to constitutional law.

9. Monitors elections and prevents illegal election activities of special interest groups.

Caller3: brings up the panel on mellissa Harris-Perry this morning, as people Caller 2 might want to contact to follow through with the planning he is doing for a method for people to teach each other via technology

- Also, Pope Francis being discussed so positively: let's not forget that the Vatican is responsible for murder, repression, the wiping out entire populations over a large number of centuries – the church and its representatives need to be held responsible for all of this!

Sometimes it hurts when my bubble bursts,

I can no longer pretend,

I just am what I am,

And that's all I can be in the end!

Let's welcome in the Equinox with peace, love and all the joy that Libra can make happen! It may take mustering up some will forces with these kind of aspects going on, but that's what the 'ol spiritual path is all about now isn't it? Creating a reality that is joyous within, by simply knowing you are in the right place at the right time or you wouldn't be there! And, that Spirit has something good in store for you and whatever you are doing is on the path toward that..... yeah?

We have a venus-Saturn- North Node conjunction – a seldom occurrence

Venus is in Scorpio went in Sept 10 and there until Oct 7th; will be squaring Mars in Leo Sept 28th

Venus, the goddess of love, ruler of Libra – is also ruler of Taurus, the opposite of Scorpio which is ruled by Mars and Pluto, the gods of the underworld. Which brings in the story of Inanna

September introduced a moral and ethical component to the process. October introduces deep emotional factors.

Our desire for greater emotional fulfillment in our lives and in our relationships sparks resistance to proposed changes. People want to see love and compassion and deep emotional bonds in their own lives and in the lives of others.

A powerfully placed eclipse renders this a major turning point.

RI: we can see that the energies have not simplified

- Tonight's chart: similar to last week
 - Mercury has moved further into Libra 20*
 - Mars is moving faster: lots of people have Pluto in Libra – uranus, Neptune & Pluto move slowest – Mars helps us express ourselves – assertion – combine this with the transformative nature of Pluto, regeneration which involves (1) getting rid of the old, the shadow, things that no longer serve – and there is no way we will go back to the past in any way!!!!
- There is a great cosmic re-organization going on!

T: In November, Hannukah and Thanksgiving are on the same day: Nov 28th

RI: What can we do as a group? Hold the space for solution

Conf. Call:

Caller1: the people who live on Venus – the Hathors say the cow people live there: the sacred energy of India – the milk maid. Also asks about October's astrology: and Obama's speech about change -

T: It said in the astrology that it is up to us!

Caller: has been getting the sense people are not accepting the answers they have been given!

T: people are looking at the reptilians and Thom's comments; what the vote does is show them to be the killers they are: the Senate will never go there

Caller2: asks about connection between astrology and weather

T: yes if you have Mars in Aries, could have a cold windy time! A very hot, dry day and a big wind – could lead to a good fire.

- As energy follows thought, so if you think it's time for the winds of change to come in, in terms of weather: we might want to get a weather modification to change what is happening in Acopolco
- the Almanacs say we are going to have a cold, snowy winter: not a bad idea when it slows down the melting of the ice caps
- Angela Merkel has lots of opposition: she'll probably win but have to do a coalition. Germany does not have a minimum wage: immigrants get $2 / hour for heavy labour!
- BBC World - a program on China – things not so good there.

T - RECOMMENDS WE ALL RE-LISTEN TO CARL BOUDREAU!

Reading: about International Day of Peace – the reasons for its creation by UN Resolution.

Caller3: this is 9 months after 12-21-12 – tomorrow is the birthday at 4:44!

Caller4: Focus on what we want to manifest! Let's go! Question about Law of P – expands the law of guilt

T: these ones pre-planned things: 9/11 was planned 38 years before it happened – down to the nano second.

- These guys have used time travel – back to 24th century with Hitler and Pope Pius – and 13,000 years ago they destroyed 1/3 of the M W Galaxy.

Caller5: Did they know about the Millennials? Yes they did and thought they could handle it; Emperor Keith Anderson – the millenials are profiling these ones! Yet the Ashtar Command will give them a bit of whack-whack therapy they will not forget.

Caller5: Even though they went that far, it was in the old timelines which are crumbling so it will not manifest. Audio: Gregg Braden - The 7 Essene Mirrors

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EiBsczafvaA>

Published on 6 May 2012

From the perspective of the ancient Essenes, every human on the earth is an initiate in the Mystery School that we call Life. Whether they are conscious of it or not, every human will experience in the presence of others mirrors of themselves in that moment. If we have the wisdom to recognize those mirrors, we may accelerate the evolution of emotion and understanding.

What the Essenes said was that for us to know and master ourselves in this world, we will see one or some combination of mirrored patterns in others. The seven mirrors are progressively more and more subtle. Back in the '70s, we heard about the first mirror, of who you are in the moment. The notion was that if you find yourself around individuals who are angry or dishonest, they are showing you your dishonesty or anger. Sometimes the mirrors would apply, but sometimes they wouldn't. We had discovered the first mirror, but had yet to see the other mirrors, such as the second mirror, which reflects what we judge in the moment.

This is tremendously powerful but very subtle. The ancient Essenes had a very sophisticated understanding of interpersonal human relationships and the role of emotion in those relationships. It's the role of emotion that we have carefully sifted out of our Western experience up until very recently. Now, as we go back into these texts, we see that it is emotion that proves the power and, when coupled with logic, true magic and miracles occur.

At 13:41 Gregg presents a graphic with a list of the seven mirrors:

1. Mirror of the Moment
2. Mirror of that which is Judged
3. Mirror of that which is Lost/Given Away/Taken Away
4. Mirror of Most Forgotten Love
5. Mirror of Father/Mother
6. Mirror of Your Quest into Darkness
7. Mirror of Self Perception

Millenials: A generation politicians shouldn't take for granted

Kailani Koenig-Muenster, @kailanikm

3:22 PM on 09/21/2013

<http://tv.msnbc.com/2013/09/21/millennials-a-generation-politicians-shouldnt-take-for-granted/>

The millennial generation came of age in what progressives see as a recipe for instilling left-leaning opinions: Dire economic circumstances, low wages, disappearing benefits, and empowerment over racial, sexual, and gender equality.

Peter Beinart's recent column in The Daily Beast, "The Rise of the New Left," touches on an idea that Democrats may want to hear: That the millennial generation is embodying and embracing being "liberal" and electing candidates like Elizabeth Warren and Bill De Blasio, politicians who made unabashedly "liberal" policies like regulating Wall Street and taxing the wealthy their campaign cornerstones.

"This is a generation that's very much deeply invested in the principles of America: Equal access, equality, no matter what your background, no matter what your sexuality," said Lehigh University professor James Peterson. "There's a test here."

But is this significant for the millennial generation, or is it about life cycle? Melissa Harris-Perry's Saturday panelists looked at whether this assertion is real, or if the younger progressive political generation will shift more conservative as they grow older.

"We have come of age in a time of political and economic instability, and Barack Obama embodied our diversity," said Valarie Kaur, a senior fellow at Auburn Seminary. Yet she continued, "We've seen those numbers of engaged political millenials decline since 2008."

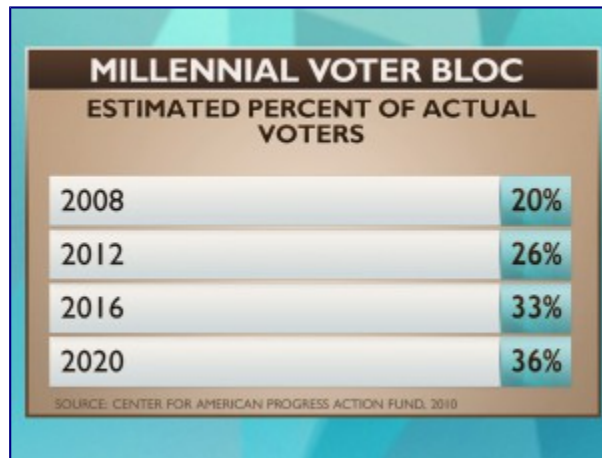

In 2008, 41% of millenials identified themselves as Democrats, while 22% identified themselves as Republicans, according to the Pew Research Center. But that's actually less than the Boomers in 1974 and the Silent Generation in 1956.

"This is the story, right? That when you're young you're liberal. As you age and you pay more taxes you become more conservative,” said host Melissa Harris-Perry.

This generation is expected to grow as an overall voting block over the coming years. In 2016 and 2020, the Center for American Progress, a liberal think tank, estimates that they will encompass a third or more of the entire electorate.

But the panelists argued that it actually takes specific individuals in a specific environment to spur millennials to become inspired and actively engaged in policy. They say the bigger concern right now on the left for maintaining this generation’s trend isn’t necessarily about them growing more conservative, but becoming discouraged by ongoing political gridlock and disengaged from policy matters overall. De Blasio, of course, won a Democratic primary in blue New York City and Warren won her seat in blue state Massachusetts during a major election year.

“If millennials threaten not to show up, and we see this in off-year elections, we’re going to see this down the road,” said former Virginia congressman Tom Perriello. “Those Democrats are not going to win those races.”

Sunday marked the 50th anniversary of the bombing of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama, a watershed moment in the civil rights movement. On Sept. 15, 1963, a dynamite blast planted by the Ku Klux Klan killed four young girls in the church — Denise McNair, age 11, and Carole Robertson, Cynthia Wesley and Addie Mae Collins, all 14 years old. Twenty other people were injured. No one was arrested for the bombings for 14 years. AMY GOODMAN: Sunday marked the 50th anniversary of the bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama, a watershed moment in the civil rights movement. On September 15, 1963, a dynamite blast planted by the Ku Klux Klan killed four little girls in the church Denise McNair was 11 years old, Carole Robertson, Cynthia Wesley and Addie Mae Collins were all 14. Twenty other people were injured. No one was arrested for the bombings for 14 years.

We turn now to world renowned author, activist, scholar Angela Davis, Professor emeritus at University of California, Santa Cruz. She spoke last night in Oakland, California, at an event organized by the Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project at Northeastern University School of Law.

ANGELA DAVIS: And remembering and paying tribute to this tragic event, let us not pretend that we are simultaneously celebrating the end of racist violence, and the triumph of democracy. Let us also not labor under the illusion that this church bombing was an anomaly. We know that Robert Chambliss, who was eventually convicted of carrying out the bombing, along with three others, we know that he had been responsible for bombing black homes and churches over so many years. As a matter of fact, during the eight years prior to the church bombing, there had been 21 bombings in Birmingham. This man's nickname was "Dynamite Bob". He was known in white communities, you know, talking about terrorism. And I want to emphasize the importance of understanding how much terrorism, racist terrorism, has shaped the history of this country. And there are lessons we need to learn from that.

But I've often pointed out that some of my very earliest childhood memories, are the sounds of dynamite exploding. Homes across the street from where I grew up were bombed when they were purchased by black people who were moving into a neighborhood that had been zoned for whites. So many bombings took place in the neighborhood where I grew up. And we know now that Chambliss was probably responsible. That the neighborhood came to be called "Dynamite Hill". And of course as you know, the city of Birmingham was known as "Bombingham". In fact on September 4, 1963, less than two weeks before the 16th Street church bombing, the home of the leading civil rights attorney in Birmingham, Arthur Shores was bombed. And that house was right down the street from our house.

You've also heard that from Margaret that on the day of the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing, two other black youth were killed. Johnny Robinson and Virgil Weir. Bombings continued to plague black communities in Birmingham after September 15, and everyone, including the FBI, knew who was behind them. But Robert “Dynamite Bob” Chambliss was simply charged with the possession of dynamite. And J Edgar Hoover refused to reveal the evidence that the FBI had gathered against the perpetrators so that there was no trial during that period.

Now I’m not arguing that justice would have necessarily prevailed had Robert Chambliss and the others, Thomas Blanton, Bobby Cherry and Herman Cash had been immediately tried and convicted, although, since that was the only way we had to deal with such transgressions, they should have been tried and convicted. But true justice is about transformation. Justice is about changing the relations that link us together. And as you’ve heard, the Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project attempts to forge justice in a much deeper sense than is possible within the existing criminal justice system.

A broader way of thinking about justice in the case of the Birmingham bombing would require, first of all, a fuller understanding of the event and its historical context, and would require us to ask questions about the way our lives today bear the historical imprint of that era. What I fear is that many of the 50th anniversary observances, and there are many as Margaret pointed out, many that have taken place, many to come, that many of them are just to close the book on the racist violence of the civil rights era so that we can embalm that violence and transform it into something to be gazed at through the conventional lens of the museum.

Maybe there is something to be learned from the way that Birmingham Civil Rights Institute frames that bombing. As opposed to regular museum exhibit, and if any of you have ever visited the Civil Rights Institute, you know that it is an absolutely incredible museum with amazing exhibits. But for the church bombing, there is simply a window. There is a window through which one can see the church, meditate on its history, and see it as it changes and transforms. Remembering that this was the site of one of the most vicious terror attacks this country has witnessed.

If you have ever visited Birmingham and the museum, you will also know that across 6th Avenue from the museum and kitty corner from the church is the Kelly Ingram Park, where demonstrations that were organized in the 16th Street Baptist Church were staged. It was the home base for the Children’s Crusade. And how many of us remember that it was young children, 11, 12, 13, 14 years old, some as young as 9 or 10, who faced police dogs and faced high-power water hoses and went to jail for our sake? And so there is deep symbolism in the fact that these four young girls’ lives were consumed by that bombing. It was children who were urging us to imagine a future that would be a future of equality and justice.

It’s important that we resist the temptation of abstraction. How easy it is to think about four innocent young black girls whose lives were violently taken away by white supremacists. And I’m not suggesting that this did not happen. Of course it did. What I’m saying is that it was a lot more complicated. And if we don’t attempt to understand the complexity of this historical event, then we will certainly not be capable of comprehending that violence, that racist violence, and its connections with sexist violence or homophobic and xenophobic violence, which continues to erupt in our lives today. Resisting the temptation of historical abstraction requires us to realize that this was not an extraordinary event that erupted one Sunday morning 50 years ago in otherwise peaceful city. As I pointed out, violence was very much the norm.

When I was growing up, Bull Connor, Eugene Bull Connor, was the commissioner of public safety. And of course his notoriety is linked to the way in which he used those high-power water hoses and dogs against the children and because of the KKK violence, against the Freedom Riders in Birmingham, and violence, in which the police whom Bull Connor controlled did not intervene. But

I remember hearing when I was growing up, I remember growing up hearing when black people moved into previously white neighborhoods, Bull Connor would announce that there would be bloodshed. And indeed, there would be a bombing or a house would be burned.

As much talk as there has been about terrorism over the last decade, I have not heard one official acknowledgment of the terrorism that prevailed in places like Birmingham. Terrorism is a part of our history. It is not something that is alien. And, by the way, no one ever suggested that we plant dynamite in white communities as a response to that terrorism. So I guess I would say, why do we need to respond with devastating violence in Iraq and Afghanistan and Syria?

It is also not widely known that black people arm themselves. This is a story that has been excised from the official record of the “freedom movement”. And interestingly, Condoleezza Rice has described her minister father, this was recently in an interview with Al Sharpton. She described her minister father as being a leader of an armed patrol of black men in her neighborhood. And as she pointed out, no one was ever shot. Guns may have been fired to scare the Klu Klux Klan away, they may, have been, she says they may have been fired in the air, but no one was ever shot. No one was ever hurt. And I wonder why she didn’t learn this lesson about ways to respond to terrorism, you know which she could’ve used during her tenure as Secretary of State. And I should say I was happy to see that this morning Melissa Harris Perry called her out on this after showing clips of her interview with Al Sharpton.

But my father was also a member of an armed patrol in our neighborhood. Black people had guns, but only because we had no other choice. Black people had to arm themselves after the 1877 Hayes Tilden compromise in which the Republican Rutherford Hayes was handed the presidency under the condition, remember, the Republicans were supposed to be the good guys in those days, OK, under the condition that he would draw all federal troops from the south. And so black people were effectively informed that they were on their own from then on, from 1877 on. This is the period that witnessed the emergence of official structures of white supremacy that did not begin to come down until the resistance of the mid-20th century freedom movement.

Just as sediments of slavery are still with us, most dramatically represented by the country’s incarceration practices and by the racism of the death penalty. The vestiges of an era where racist violence was the norm and was condoned by officials from local governments to Washington are still haunting us. We know the names of young black and brown people who have been killed by the police or by vigilantes. We know the names of Trayvon Martin in Florida, of Haditha Pendleton in Chicago who was killed shortly after having participated in the second Obama inauguration. And then of course, here in Oakland, we know the name of Oscar Grant, Oscar Grant. And I can say, that no matter how long an individual perpetrator is sent to prison in any of these cases and any others, no one can say that justice has been done. Because we know that the roots of racist violence, the roots of the violence that claimed their lives are so tightly woven into our country’s social fabric that an eye for an eye will not do it. An eye for an eye will not do it.
