Conf Call <http://www.freeconference.com/Recordings/ConferenceRecording-13019007-695825.mp3>

Caller: Is this Black Ops? A video received, a copy of something from the NASA site – says that working with cyborgs and wanting to eliminate people – this only spreads fear – will T & R review it?
The more the video was viewed, the more horrifying it became: people are useless, take up room, are stupid, want human brains to put in cyborgs, etc -

R: part of the 4th Reich super soldier plan – cyber space star war plan; to transfer the essence of the human soul into a cyborg body – there will be no borg society, no matter how much they would like to

Caller: smart leaders will be taking over everything in a while

T: they have the technology that we are supposed to have; want to get rid of us so they can bring in their reptilian friends – we know about that – don't waste time on it! AND DON'T LET IT BOTHER YOU!

Caller2: had beautiful clear skies in Chicago as they had the Hawks celebration; last time such a beautiful day was when Rahm was declared mayor – can he order it up?

T: yes

Caller2: notices the subtle difference when the skies are clear

T: there are desiccated liver cells in the chemtrails and they affect you emotionally!

Caller2: has heard about the cyborg stuff on Alex Jones – glad to hear we don't need to worry

T: the galactics are in charge and all they are doing gets shuts down and they get arrested. Alex Jones is completely compromised and he will get arrested

Caller2: some of what he discusses has some element of truth in it

T: yes – this is the way it goes: all of them use an element of truth and so confuse everyone

Caller2: notices that listening to Alex Jones creates a downward emotion – need the upward to be creative

T: all they have left is the fear card; getting meaner by the second

Caller2: in the Bible, used to talk of a protective mantle – was that our emotional thing?

T: thinks it has to do with the aura – the mantle of protection; when you understand the aura is magnetic energy and has the ability to receive higher frequencies – it is feminine; the higher energy frequencies are to be received through the heart and fear shuts the heart down. When you are in the higher frequencies, you are not affected; also you can see right through the dis-information.

Caller2: challenging to maintain that energy

T: why we are being asked to give equal time: it takes time for the pattern to be made

Our patterns are changing, like it or not – lots of people cannot sleep all night so take a nap

- Mother told them that as we penetrated the higher dimensions, we only need about 2 hours sleep her sched is 14 -1 6 hrs a day to keep the programs going, and a few other things related to keeping the body going –
  - meditating every single day between 4:30 and 6:30 am which is the re-generative time of the earth • wherever you live – consciously alter your theta waves to be in a meditative state
- Draw, paint, write your dreams – and act on what you create
- the schedule we have been forced to create is not conducive to being open to the higher emotional state [the 8-5 job routine and running around doing things bit]

T: in response to the question: yes, this was done by design – the dark priesthood have been working on us for 13,000 years; they are demi-gods and they have messed with our DNA and adding in monkey, dog, reptilian DNA

Caller2: How do they get that into us?

T: GMO foods! They take out a few of the gene codes of the corn and splice in the insect DNA into the corn which means you are becoming more insectlike; they also put agent orange into the seeds

Caller2: asking about Obama and why does he appear to be a puppet of the dark side?

T: he's a double agent, working on both sides of the fence- he is doing what he can do

- Hillary has been running things, yet there is not one strand of her on the planet, as she was executed Nov 4/08

Background on that execution:

- on Sept 30, the G7 countries had an extended deadline to see the US become Basel II compliant
  - on 3rd anniversary of the Hurricane Katrina, Obama said it was a genocide against the Moorish people
- The US did not want to meet that requirement because it meant that all the hedge fund games were to be put on the books! Billions of dollars that they were pocketing would definitely not be put back!
- However, KOS made the country Basel II compliant, and he had the authority to do this because there are two things running in parallel tracks: EMPIRE which is the secret government and NESARA, signed into law on Oct 10 before Clinton left office; since that time there has been an overlap of 2 venues
- the Empire venue was fake right since the beginning: 1933 was when the Corporation of the US began
  - To have a real quorum, you have to let everyone know but they told no one – there were only 3 of them and they just created the Federal Reserve bank out of nothing, with no vote or agreement by anyone else!
  - 1871 was the date of the Organic Columbia Act – when the secret gov't was set up and run by the banksters – Rockefellers essentially [someone has just sent an article about the ACT – the truth about the land of the free]
- Hillary was arrested in 2007 & held in solitary confinement until Obama became President-elect when his first order as pres elect was to order her execution – this after he had been thoroughly briefed by the good guys in the military, including Ray McGovern
- Yes, it was totally legal: there was a jury trial in 2003 under Patrick Fitzgerald who was appointed as a Special Prosecutor

Reading: Tara begins reading “The Truth About The Land Of The Free”

Caller3: Carl Boudreau on the astrology and the ability to change things: would it not be great if things could change on July 4th?

T; St Germain is in charge; (2) things form in the etheric first (3) Rama didn't talk to #15 yesterday for his health

Caller3: a good sign for early this July

T: you've got a horn to St Germain! It is all set up properly – all is moving as it should.

- They will acquit Zimmerman and it will create a backlash and people will tear these ones a new one!!!!

Music: Medicine for Mother Earth

Audio: Rose pink flames – short audio from Radiant Rose Academy

MOTHER SEKHMET

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant one; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ; we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame

T: We ask for all of heaven to call it in: it would be such a glorious thing to bring the constitution and our true country back on July 4th, as St Germain was the one who made sure it got signed

- Refers to the article read by a caller which described how the new US was tethered to the British crown which got tethered to the Vatican and everyone lost their freedom

Mother:

Greetings, Children of Ra!

Our wayward children are scurrying as fast as their little furry feet - or scaly ones! - will carry them, as we are all One

- all that is needed is to say I am sorry, please for give me, thank you, I love you
- All they have created is universes after universes of dis-functionality; they are afraid of what we will do when we get our power back with love

T: coming soon to a neighbourhood near us!

Mo: The issues at hand: it is about LOVE AND ONLY ABOUT LOVE! The events unfolding in the last little while have everything to do with our ascension and their downfall.

T: How come they are going to acquit this one?

Mo: It is just rumours yet – as we watch, they hold no water with their prosecution with this innocent one

- it is changing now – and they wish to sweep this under the rug as Jim Crow is back in Washington.

T: the deal is that the NSA is bribing the supreme court, the congress, the cabinet, the administration, everyone

Mo: As Max Keiser says the dark side throws lots and lots of cash at the court, congress and you put it in safety deposit box and no one is the wiser - the insanity of suitcases full of cash -

T: As Ms Hudes describes the 2 weeks would bring us to July 1st – Thursday is July 4th -

Mo: a nice day to have the hammer hit the ground [Thurs-day]

T: Could be that weekend; Carl said we have to wait until July 29th

Mo: things moving so rapidly, at a radical pace; Venus has moved into Leo and has passed through Cancer today – means more cosmic events unfolding with the beauty of the ruby rose ray pouring forth on the planet with the ruby rose masters

- There is nothing more to do except deal with your feelings
- the biggest test is to keep your cool and not let them get under your skin; they are making a concentrated effort to get under your skin and create enough chaos so you don't meditate and you don't care and you just want to hit the showers
- Game over for them: they have no more available cash to pay the soldiers who want to go home and retire;
- there is more than enough happening in the moment with what is on our plates as we remember the ascension process

• Focus on the love coming in; the sacred wheel of life, circle of life that is most important and is being brought to the forefront in spite of the challenges that keep coming

- Even though we are light distances apart, There is no distance and you and I are one; there is just this moment – anything else is a reflection of that moment, as all we have is here and now. It is not over there or over here – it is right in your face.

T: rose pink ray has to be overshadowing everything

Mo: all that is happening is a day in the life of a galaxy on its way to ascension, with all its people on the way to ascension – magnificent to behold

- Anything else is the maya that takes you away from that place: we are asked to do the mediation – everything else will come into play and we simply remember who we are in the moment.

T: goes back to the 1871 Organic Columbia Act – the Washington Monument obelisk in DC is connected to the London Obelisk which is tied into the Vatican City one – what do we do about that?
They are using it for the wrong stuff!

Mo: Shiva knows what is right from wrong, and if they use it for evil, Shiva will see them in the Ganges River – let them do their cosmic dance of death that is playing out for them; Shiva has it in the bag!

T: The people have to do it - “tag we are it” - acquitting a man who has murdered a man in cold blood and setting an example for all other states is no way to do it!

Mo: maybe the Koch brothers should be sitting on trial

Soon enough! Soon enough! Love them even more for what is on their doorstep – they are not a clue of what is smacking them upside the head – they are not aware! Love them more!

Mo: agrees that we should listen to Sybel Edmunds tape

- The stories that are unravelling here are as large as the Travvon Martin case going on – where is the justice for the man who is the original inhabitant here from of the ancient land of Kennet? Where is the justice for Trayvon Martin?

T: it has to happen, Mother they won't let another story go down the drain

Mo: Trayvon Martin, Troy Davis – justice will be served; it has gone on long enough!

T: also includes the whole bribery scandal: Supreme Court, Congress, the Administration, the NSA, Alphabet agencies, the Vatican & the London city tower

Mo: Gov Scott, Bush – Jeb, Neil, Marvin – we are coming!

- This has everything to do with the downfall of the original story where someone whispered in someone's ear and it was the wrong whispering!

T: On RT tv: that Russia, China, and the US have no agreement with the World Court, and after WWII they never got tried for the war crimes they committed during WWII

- An RT special talking of African leaders being tried and put away, but there were 100,000 Nazis taken to Argentina and brought back to the US by Kissinger
- There is a new head of the World Court too – some of the world court people need to be arrested too

Mo: the net has been cast; justice will be served.

Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh

R: he has been in the equivalent of the galley of the New Jerusalem; makes Julia Child cry to see it!

- He knows they have replicators – has no idea why he was shown a galley, except maybe it is time to have that dinner they keep talking about
- Time for radical forgiveness: has no idea what it is to stand in the shoes of Rumsfeld, the Bushes, or any of the others – love these ones for what they have done!

T: there is a time for justice and the galley is a symbol

Audio: 2013, June 24 Monday - Sibel Edmonds

Sibel Edmonds on Hoover's FBI & Thick Files on Government Officials, Rubber-Stamp FISA, Edward Snowden, Recent Revelations by Russ Tice

James Corbett unplugs me (as always) on the recent revelations by NSA whistleblower Russ Tice, Edward Snowden, Qualifying Federal Judge Candidates, the Still-Hoover's-FBI, and much more!

In this remarkable conversation, Sibel Edmonds reflects on Russ Tice's recent revelations to Boiling Frogs Post and The Corbett Report that the NSA has wiretapped top government officials for years. Edmonds discusses from her own experience how the FBI collects dirt on Congressmen and public officials for use as political leverage. We also talk about how this scandal proves that there is no "official channel" for whistleblowers to follow when they want to expose wrongdoing because the system is being controlled from behind the scenes by the criminals in the national security establishment.

Retired General Suspected of Leaking Stuxnet Details

<http://technewsnow.com/news/report-retired-general-suspected-of-leaking-stuxnet-details>

Retired Marine Gen. James Cartwright is under federal investigation for potentially leaking details about the Stuxnet virus to the media, according to a report.

Cartwright recently received a letter from the Department of Justice informing him of the investigation, per NBC News citing "legal sources." The four-star general was vice chairman of the Joint Chiefs from 2007 to 2011, the second-highest position in military brass.

SEE ALSO: NATO Researchers Say Stuxnet Attack Was an 'Act of Force'

According to an earlier report from the New York Times, Cartwright was the lead figure in the Stuxnet operation (codenamed "Olympic Games"), which began under President George W. Bush and was accelerated by President Barack Obama.

The computer worm Stuxnet targeted Iranian nuclear processing facilities. Once it infected those facilities, it caused centrifuges to spin at much faster speeds than intended, which in turn damaged them.

Stuxnet was first discovered by computer security researchers as malicious code in the wild. Many experts at the time concluded that its highly advanced nature indicated it had to be the work of a government. The New York Times later revealed it was a joint United States-Israeli project designed to slow Iran's nuclear processing capabilities.

Cartwright did not respond to NBC News' requests for comment.

2013, June 27 Will Ohio find Its Wendy Davis?

by Michelle Goldberg

Days after Texas's epic filibuster, Ohio state legislators are voting on their own anti-abortion bill. Michelle Goldberg reports on why this one will be harder to stop.

<http://www.thedailybeast.com/witw/articles/2013/06/27/first-texas-now-ohio-for-anti-abortion-battle.html>

State-level abortion battles are a bit like a game of whack-a-mole—even if one is defeated, another immediately pops up somewhere else. So even as feminists celebrate victory over Texas's wide-ranging anti-abortion bill, pro-choice activists in Ohio are gearing up for their own protests against sweeping new anti-abortion legislation, hoping to capitalize on the momentum created by Wendy Davis's epic filibuster.

"This bill that we defeated in Texas was part of a much bigger narrative," says Planned Parenthood president Cecile Richards, who was just off a plane from Austin. "This opposition had been growing for months with the attacks on Planned Parenthood, the closing of women's health centers, a whole series of events that just hit the tipping point and really lit a fuse in the state of Texas. This wasn't just an isolated incident or isolated piece of legislation."

Indeed, on Thursday morning, Ohio state legislators will have a final vote on a budget bill packed with anti-abortion amendments. Among other things, it could close down four of Ohio's 12 clinics, impose mandatory ultrasounds on women seeking abortion, and defund Planned Parenthood. It will make it harder for women to get a medical-emergency exemption to the state's 24-hour waiting period for abortions and will transfer money from welfare programs for poor families to anti-abortion crisis pregnancy centers. If, as expected, it passes, Republican Gov. John Kasich will have until Sunday to sign it. Meanwhile, a separate omnibus abortion bill, the Ultrasound Access Act, was recently introduced in the Ohio House, though it likely won't move until the fall.

The latter bill—described by an Atlantic writer as perhaps "the biggest and baddest piece of anti-abortion legislation to make its way through the laboratories of democracy yet"—has a number of bizarre provisions, including one that forces doctors to tell patients exactly how much they earn from abortions. But while it might overshadow the attack on reproductive rights in the budget bill, that doesn't mean the budget bill isn't plenty extreme itself.

To start with, there's the sneaky two-step process it's using to try and regulate abortion clinics out of existence. First, it includes a provision mandating that all clinics have agreements with hospitals allowing them to transfer patients if something goes wrong. That's something often seen in anti-abortion legislation, including the bill defeated in Texas. But in a twist, the Ohio bill also bans public hospitals from entering into such agreements with clinics. According to Jaime Miracle, policy director at NARAL Pro-Choice Ohio, this catch-22 will lead to the closure of at least three clinics that don't have access to private hospitals willing to work with them. Depending on how hospitals involved with public-private partnerships are defined, a fourth clinic in Cincinnati could be threatened as well. That would leave the entire western half of the state without an abortion provider.

There's also a mandatory ultrasound provision, which was slipped into the bill at the last minute on Tuesday. Ohio legislators learned from the uproar over forced vaginal ultrasounds in Virginia and are requiring abdominal scans only to search for a fetal heartbeat. But they've included no exemption for rape victims. There's also language ordering doctors to tell women that once a heartbeat is found, her pregnancy has a 95 percent chance of survival, which seems to apply even if the pregnancy in question has complications that make coming to term less likely. This seems especially cruel in cases of wanted pregnancies with severe fetal anomalies.

Then there's the benign-sounding "New Pregnancy and Parenting Support Program," which redirects funds from Temporary Assistance to Needy Families—the program that provides cash payments to poor parents and children—to anti-abortion crisis pregnancy centers. How much is up to the state's director of jobs and family services: "He could take the entire TANF block grant if he wanted to," says Miracle.

Pro-choice protesters will be gathering at the statehouse on Thursday morning in advance of the vote. Unlike Texas, Ohio doesn't have the filibuster, so there's no opportunity for a brave lawmaker to try and repeat Davis's performance. But Ohio does have a line-item veto, and so activists are doing everything they can to urge Governor Kasich to strike out the abortion restrictions. He is, of course, an anti-abortion Republican and, as of Tuesday afternoon, he'd refused to comment on the possibility of a veto. Nevertheless, pro-choice forces are clinging to the possibility that he'll fear being cast as an aggressor in the war on women. "The only thing that can happen to stop this is the governor realizing it's too much of a liability," says Miracle.

That's unlikely, but so was a pro-choice win in Texas. "Maybe that will be the shot across the bow that stops more stuff from happening," Miracle says. "You've got to have a little bit of hope."

2013, June 28 Arrested Vatican cleric allegedly smuggled $26 million into Italy

Nunzio Scarano, second from left, a Vatican official in charge of Vatican accounts, was arrested on charges of corruption and slander. Police also arrested a member of Italy's domestic intelligence service and a financial broker in a probe into a failed attempt to fly 20 million euros of alleged tax-evasion proceeds from Switzerland. (Guardia di Finanza / June 28, 2013)

By Shan Li

A Vatican cleric, who is already under investigation in a money-laundering plot, was arrested on Friday for allegedly trying to sneak about $26 million in cash into Italy from Switzerland by private jet, a report said.

It was just the latest incident in a widening probe by the Italian police into the murky world of the Vatican bank.

Msgr. Nunzio Scarano, along with two others, was arrested by Italian police and accused of corruption and slander, according to the Associated Press. Scarano was an accountant in the Vatican's finance office until a recent suspension. The others involved are a financier and a member of the military police.

Nello Rossi, a prosecutor involved with the case, said the investigation was cracked open by wiretaps, which revealed that the three planned to bypass Italian customs and smuggle in millions of euros held by the financier in a Swiss bank account, the Associated Press said.

The plan was so carefully crafted that an armed police escort showed up at the airport to ferry the cash to Scarano's home in Rome, the AP said. The prosecutor described the arrests as just one part of a "mosaic" of investigations into the Vatican Bank, known as the Institute for Religious Works.

Scarano is also under investigation in another money-laundering investigation in which he is accused of taking about $730,000 earmarked for a home for the terminally ill and using the funds to pay for a home in Salerno.

This week, Pope Francis created a commission to investigate the Vatican Bank, which has long been the subject of speculation and scandal for the Catholic church.
