 - Reviews the programs which occur each week & are supported by t & r & many of us.
 - See page 1 for all the information.

NESARA IS A GALACTIC OPERATION AND ALWAYS HAS BEEN!!! IT IS NOT A 3D OPERATION

- FACTION 3 INFORMATION IS COMPLETELY CLASSIFIED – the cabal controls Faction 1, Faction 2, and all the media programs; after 9/11, the Men In Black threatened everyone in every form of news media, Hollywood, politicians, Government people – to speak about anything means they would be killed .
 - The Emperor of the NSA is controlling all this: they have cyber war warriors who do the threatening – this is a police state and a half!
- THERE IS ONLY ONE PERSON ON THE PLANET WHO HAS A DIRECT CONNECTION TO THE FACTION 3 GROUP, the white knights who are the ones responsible for getting NESARA announced.
- RAMA is the only one without the gag order. Lots of people know who KOS is and can talk to him but they cannot repeat what they hear for fear of being killed.

The whole story is a Sci Fi movie:

- Goes back 13,000 years; has to do with the Dark Priesthood of Atlantis & their posterity; they invaded the earth plane in Atlantis from the Orion War which had gone on for 5,000 years
 - the series called Star Wars is a direct reflection of this whole story
 - In the 80s, Spielberg made a movie called TSX

- George Lucas got in touch with Princess Leah who is a real being; the story is full of metaphors; it goes into legends which are not legends, but true!
- Things that have gone on since Atlantis have been put together by the 13 families that have played and misqualified the history and her-story
 - The original begins with the 12 rainbow rays of Living Light, Living Love
 - Star Wars is about the mitochlorians, the Force, the Mitochondria, the junk DNA in us that is activating right now which is why the cosmic stories are coming out [CIA & Mossad are being called another name in Syria – El Misra]
- The mitachondria – our junk DNA is activating and we are getting our abilities back
 - The Crystal Children are born with all intact
 - we are breaking out of this matrix:
 - for the last 100 years, the 13 families have taken out 2 billion people: no one else talks of this because of the gag orders
- The people we think are human are not: they invaded the planet during the time of Atlantis & they are full blooded reptilians
 - During the 1st Creation, Luciferia, a beautiful Archangel, got a little upset with the Roundtable of the day – he wanted to be in control
 - Who is the creator god? It's a feminine energy – Zudiachus in the African Tradition
Mother Sekhmet: means we are all sectors of all universes that meet in the heart / centre of All That Is – She is the Creator of All That Is, the entire Mazaroth. Mother has 4,000 names
 - The Vatican completely trashed that story underfoot, slapped the Creator in the face, wiped out the Divine feminine – wanted no women in their organization
 - in the late 1400s/ 1500s Jesuits took over – if you are not Catholic, you are expendible.
 - The oath all Jesuits take – Ignatius of Loyala not a nice guy
 - On paper there is the Club of Rome – that paper is an instrument
- Distinguishes between an instrument and a document
 - a document is something which can verified as an archeological find, for example: the Nag Hammadi documents, written on hemp paper in heiroglyphics, are in the Tibetan monasteries in the Hindu Kush;
 - Lady Di and Dodi have been researching these things since 1997 & putting them on the web; Crystal Links is one of the sites: these writings were intended for this time, as Jeshu, Mary Magdalene and others knew what would happen 2000 years hence
- the church is the complete opposite, 100% false information programmed into people, to take your power and give it to a fake god – it also produces instruments, not documents!
 - the church worships Lucifer in the form of Satan; the ones who have to be removed are called Satanists – they have killed millions and millions of people and feeding them to the Satonians
- they came in from Sirius during the Orion War and classified the story of Atlantis as a myth
 - It s a 5th dimensional civilization, not a myth
 - our bdiies are created to live for 5,000 years or more: there are all kinds of healing technologies
 - there are sound technonologies & others that have been created
 - we do not get these technologies; should anyone pass them on, they are killed
 - we were never created to eat one drop of meat: we are classified as HERBIVORES according the scientific classification system.. Animals are also Herbivores
 - This is done by looking at the pancreas and seeing what enzymes are there; in humans, they are for eating herbs and grasses and all the green things and fruit from fruit-bearing trees.
 - The church completely changed this
- The hidden history that has not been told, and ties into Nesara, is explained by Ben Stewart in Zeitgeist, Zeitgeist Addendum, Esoteric Agenda, Kymatica
 - Ben Stewart comes on Camp Loveway for the last 12 years: also Greg Breden, Terrence McKenna

Hard News:

- Camp Loveway: talked about Terrence McKenna today who explored inner and outer worlds, & experimented with psychotropic drugs & Rama was there in 1967 in Haight Ashbury – still happening there
- every night the DMT in our brain kicks in and helps us bridge realms into the night work where we go in the physical on the ships to the troubled places in the world.

- R started doing this in earnest when Bush Sr invaded Iraq, Kuwait the first time – he sees many of us on the ships

- The dark ones do not want this wisdom out: they want to use power without love
 - A long time ago, they literally spliced out the 12th strand of DNA which is love: they did this 450 billion years ago; Lucifera and the others decided to do this: the emotions were in their way, as they wanted to annihilate humans who got in the way and not feel emotion about it. The humans are a unique species; we have a reptilian brain base but without that 12th strand, they are only reptiles; there are good reptiles who did not do this
- The major problem is they invaded earth without permission, 13,000 years ago, half way through the Kali Yuga which started 26, 826 years ago; using Galactic Time, it is 8-8-8 Lions Gate is Creator Goddess, Mother Sekhmet in a lion's form; she is the Mother of All That Is, and her consort is Alcyone – means all Seeing Eye of The One God – and the god serves the goddess every time.
 - Each human person on the planet chose to be either male or female, and some chose to be hermaphrodites; everyone has feminine and masculine energies in their light bodies
 - if you chose to be in male form in this particular lifetime, you chose to serve the feminine
 - if you chose to be in female form in this particular lifetime, you came to lead with the feminine energy, to lead by love which has no opposite
 - Only love is real; all the negative emotions are ILLUSION [blame, shame, etc] – nothing to do with enlightenment; THEY ONLY CREATE STRESS
 - when that happens, your body is compromised, your mind, your spirit, your emotions and then your cosmic light body falters.
- There is no such thing as shame, blame, etc -THERE IS ONLY LOVE AND THERE IS NO OPPOSITE:
 - People have been programmed with a false program - Fundamental Christianity and Fundamental Islam are the worst –
 - in the 3rd century, the christian church introduced fundamental christianity and islam in order to create a clash of civilizations we have today – Jeshu and Mary M knew this would happen, and this is what we can do to change it: this is what the spiritual Hierarchy is about:
- The Keys of Enoch & The Pistis Sophia about the divine feminine goddess: those 2 books refer to the biblical texts but WITH THE TRUE ESOTERIC COSMIC MEANING OF what this is about. And even now, we are beyond the teachings of those books: the Kali Yuga
- Important astrological dates:
 - 10:43 am Jan 23rd, 1997 was the Dawning of the Age of Aquarius – that chart was a grand Tetrahedron
 - we have just had 2 more in our astrology and they are doubly powerful from the 1997 one
 - 2013, July 29th – with a kite and a T square
 - 2013, August 25th – this was a repeat of the July 29th one; the kite was exact and in the point of the Star Tetrahedron, and inside that was the Grand T Square, right inside the kite – a triple whammy
 - 2013, Sept 22nd - even more powerful and separating the wheat from the chaff
 - the reptilians who can shape shift will be arrested – many are gone, but there are still playing
- The fact that Chelsea / Bradley Manning and Edward Snowden have been given the wisdom to share freely what T & R share brings in the Mother's people, the 13 tribes of Ariadne that filtered down to Palestine
 - comes into Palestine; it is called Israel & Israel is a usurper – they are cabal, body snatchers: many are Khazarans in their lineage but don't know it – they follow the religious right of Judiasm – just don't know their history.
- This brings in Hyperboreans, and people like Asgard where Odin, Thor, Apollo are real people – stories have been twisted
 - Hyperborea is a real place, has been here for 65 million years, an aetheric 5th D light city directly over the north pole: there was no ice over either pole; the Annunaki invaded, dropped nukes and created a real mess

- Teran [Camp Loveway] the UN weapons inspectors confronted Israel and asked to inspect their nuclear facilities & chemical weapons facilities – faced by Israeli soldiers with M 16s & ouzies;
 - Israel will not allow the international body to inspect what they have
 - Israel wants to create a fake war with Iran which already has 12 nukes, has had for 27 years
 - Dr Keshe has solutions to all of the energy issues of this planet – this brings in the galactic realms of Tesla energy too [See www.KesheFoundation.com or .org]
- there is an Atlantean grid – we did not need solar panels, windmills, etc – by 2008 or 2009, we found the 13th point of the grid which is an Indian head on the border of Alberta & Saskatchewan
 - when you fly over it, you can see the Indian head, the last of the 13 spouts of the grid of Atlantis WHICH can be activated at any time which MEANS THE ENTIRE GLOBE IS OFF THE GRID
 - Since Dec 12, the Atlantean grid has come on line
- Nick Beggege comes on Camp Loveway all the time – www.earthpulse.com is his website
 - Nick and brother have been investigating the murder of their father which involves the galactics, something the 13 families do not want us to know about
 - Nick talks about the International Space Station and using cyber & particle beams to detonate the tritium based nukes at the bottom of the towers on 9/11
 - Go to www.drjudywood.com [try duckduckgo.com – literally a whistleblower who comes on Thom Hartmann – does not track cookies or ISP numbers, etc]
 - Nick talks of the technologies used against the people of earth: we are all made of scalar waves, light color and sound: on the morning of 9/11, we were supposed to hear about NESARA from Alan Greenspan, but he talked of nothing: 9/11 was done instead.
 - There were fake planes, holograms around the missiles
- On that morning, the towers were brought down via copper, thermite and something else added in which creates thermate, a common way to demolish buildings - you can see the bombs going off on every floor.
 - On the morning of 9/11, T & R were at the Four Corners waiting to see the announcements: instead they saw planes going into the towers where 78,000+ were killed & no one has gone to jail yet
 - this is about the Project for a New American Century [PNAC]; the technologies are being used to take humanity down.
 - Love is the answer: love them even more – they know that only love will take them into higher realms
 - Because they forfeited their 12th strand of emotion, they cannot ascend and they are jealous of humans: nor can they use the stargates - the TV program SG! Is absolutely real
- Ariel Sharon is in hospital to this day, still in a coma-induced reality which has to do with the Al Asqua mosque
 - the Dome of the Rock is the stargate which controls all the others on the world – you can quite literally dial in an address, as in SG1, & go through a wormhole; you cannot do this if you are not of the light.
 - Barack Obama, since he was 18, via the Pegasus Project went to Mars – a test. Left to defend selves from predators on the surface – Barack and Andrew made it.
 - Discussion of activities of Area 51
- NESARA is not about money: the dinars will never pay; NESARA is the only thing
 - Christine LaGarde, head of IMF & a 50' lizard, in charge of the dinars; putting them in the hedge fund markets in London & Wall Street to make money for themselves
 - Banks will not touch dinars [if you ask to cash them in] because they know they will get killed too
 - We cannot get paid with cabals, NSA, Patriot Act 1, 2, 3 still around – try to cash in a dinar & you get killed and robbed No one is safe until these ones are gone.
 - Discussion about 2 million US soldiers killed in Iraq – by 2006! Just in Iraq! Ave Age of US soldier is 19 – this is Kissinger, Brezinski, Hillary, Kerry, these ones are members of a city over the Dachau Death Camp in Germany.
 - Until you realize this is a galactic operation, you are not ready to understand what is going on here!
- Hitler was a transcendent soul who time-travelled with Pope Pius 12th via the Catacombs star gate to the 24th century & has been going back & forth to Bosnia, to Herzegovena, Sarajevo and showing the US military people the technology that he brought back

- Gen Wesley Clark and Madeleine Albright are war criminals who killed more than a million people who were tortured and killed in underground death camps in that area – there are 104 of those camps
- Syria and AlAssad did not do this: John McCain did it – Henry Kissinger is his handler, as he is for John Kerry and for Hillary – he is the head of the 4th Reich. Bush Sr is a feeble-minded heroine addict – both Bush & HK have been cloned many times. This is what is happening behind the scenes.
- Captain Big Will asked the people to come to this call to hear these things, what is being said.
 - KOS, head of Faction 3 at 38th level above the President, begged that we not go to separate places
 - NESARA is dragging because the people in the US are not united – all kinds of groups & no focus
 - Refers to George Galloway's address to the Congress, Senate – you need to come together AS ONE
- THERE IS ONLY ONE FOCUS AND THE FOCUS IS NESARA – DROP THE REST AND LEARN WHAT IS HAPPENING – THE ONLY PLACE WHERE THIS IS HAPPENING IS IN FACTION 3.
- There is a group at 38 levels above the President: The Alien Contact Intelligence Operation - ACIO
 - This brings in the Wingmakers who have come from 175 million years in our future. Rama speaks with a being called Rana Mu who brought these ones back from the future; these beings go from the 38rd level to the 45th level above the President
 - They are the ones who prepared KOS. They did a mind meld with him like in Star Trek
 - after the mind meld, he could speak, read, write, translated 22 languages
 - he also has all the knowledge of the Akashic records in all those languages in his brain!
 - Rana Mu said when she came back from the future, 1/3 of the entire Milky Way Galaxy was already missing
 - All time is present: there is no past, present and future – it is all NOW
 - the plan of the reptilian invaders who had already moved 175 Million years into our future and destroyed 1/3 of the MWG before they came back
 - they came back because since the time of Jesus 2000 years ago, the 6th initiation and incarnation of the Oversoul of Jesus: Sananda Kumara
 - There are 7 female and 7 male Kumaras, all come from Venus:
 - Merk and Lady of the Sun [Kumaras] came here on a star ship with Sananda Kumara and Lady Master Nada, with Sanat Kumara and Lady Master Venus, with Sanaka Kumara/Quetsiquatal representing the story of the ancient Mayans returned who are galactic beings from Mars who came here to bring the wisdom of the red man to earth
 - The red man was originally black-red ; go back in the history of the Mohawks & to the original Cherokee – extremely black – indigo, black, ruby
 - Today the Cherokee and others now have DNA from the Caucus Mtns – same Khazarian thing that happened when the Hyperborean thing happened 65 million years ago – the Hs were were galactic beings; the 18th dynasty in Egypt has the combination of galactic,
 - The Haplo groups came in as galactics to intervene in our civilization's development over and over again to counter act the Luciferian reptiles who were taking over the planet, nuking the planet even then and subjugating us to cave life again, over and over and over again
 - The story in Genesis says it is against the Prime Directive for the sons of gods to copulate with the daughters of men: two different species: the galactic species were 5th dimension & had gifts; we were 3rd dimensional having already lost our powers & had already created a mess
 - We thought we could take out the Chinese and their structures; we thought we could use the great crystal of Atlantis to take them out
 - We had told Mother we wanted a veil so we could prove we could remember – we thought we wanted to control the planet in Atlantis – we got uppity: we took a laser and amped it up and up and sent it through the centre of the earth, through Terra, the heart of Mother Earth – she sent the laser back where it came from and it completely crushed the great crystal of Atlants, the entire grid around the planet; that is, destroyed the central nervous system of the entire planet AND blew a hole in the atmosphere around the earth and lost the xenon gas which gave us our gifts – some people today only have 1.5 strands of DNA!

- We came back to barbaric thought consciousness; war like tendencies
- The masters came back in 18th century: many of us were beamed up out of harm's way and were saved, almost 12,000 years ago – 10,000 years ago
 - There were land bridges: there was no Atlantic Ocean or Mediterraneans Sea, but 5 Atlantean Islands
 - the capita of Atlantis is intact, a white city completely intact under the Med Sea
 - There is a white Atlantean City under Antarctic Ocean
 - There is also one under Gulf of Mexico, also intact – the reason for the BP oil spill was to get rid of it – but they cannot stop it from surfacing. These ones know their time is up!
 - There is one below southern most part of England, off the coast of Spain – ABOUT TO SURFACE – the Basque people have already claimed it
- Lemurian Land beneath the Big Island is also rising: one of the volcanoes has been going off for centuries.
 - Below the Big Island is the ancient land – the volcano has been raising the land, each time it goes off, it raises the land more. This is the Land of Pangea
 - 5,000 years ago, Washington State, Oregon, British Columbia, Alaska were under the ocean and gradually re-surfaced
 - In later Ancient Lemuria, there were women warriors who lived on Pangea – that island was huge;
 - the South Pacific Islands are broken up parts of Pangea;
 - India is part of Lemuria too – it was originally attached to Africa; Africa was attached to South America and there was no Central America
- ALL THIS LAND WAS ATTACHED TO THE EAST COAST OF AMERICA AND CANADA
 - This is why there were TWO BANNERS at the founding of the COUNTRY – the two banners are in the Smithsonian
 - the original people in this land were MOORS, the country was not founded as X'ian
 - St Germain was a Moor, his mother [Sir Francis Bacon] was Queen Elizabeth 1st, a Moor with raven black hair; she had to cover herself with white powder – had aluminum in it and it killed her
 - her mother Ann Bolyn was a black Moor, married by Henry 8th who killed her
- THERE IS ONLY ONE “I AM” RACE; America leads the way and the red man's history, meaning the history of Mars, the human race was seeded on Mars

Reading: Did life come to earth from Mars?

[SEE BELOW]

- The Mayans came from Mars on starships to Peru; the ancient Mayans are galactic humans –
 - the human form was created in the Lyran constellation by you and me in the 1st creation story, that started 450 billion years ago when we were 12th dimensional beings.
 - Tells how Jehovah / a polar universe / shadow cast by Alcyone: meaning the Mother Sekhmet and Alcyone created polarity and together we could create density with M S and her magnetic light which travels 10 billion times faster than the speed of light in our earth – 3D – plane.
 - We co-created the firmament, the heaven and the earth with Mother as 12 D beings – the polar Universe of Nabadon, one of 7 super universes; this is the only one that is a dense, polar, matter universe; the others are in anti – matter
 - Reading Genesis correctly: god is really “the god head” meaning all of us as co-creator gods and goddesses - the “fortunate fall” is so called because it allowed the creation of the polar universe to see if we could create a 98% peace in this density world: instead we created 98% war.
 - A small group of us remained neutral and did not join the dark side of the force. Many times we were reduced to nothingness & were re-created AA Metatron from the etheric blueprint he holds if any of us are destroyed. The Keys of Enoch and The Pistis Sophia talk about that. [This book was channeled through JJ Hurtak by AA Metatron.]
- Raelyn Allen, Faction 2 and all from there are compromised: Rama is the only one who has no gag order.
 - Many people in gov't, Hollywood, and others can talk to KOS and others but THEY HAVE GAG

ORDERS: IF THEY TALK ABOUT what they have learned, they will be killed.

- This is thanks to Cointel Pro, a black op of the Henry Kissinger kind: they use this program to kill activists who don't do what they want: this includes John Lennon, Malcolm X, Richard Pryor, Fred Hampton, Ted Kennedy, MLKing; Lady Di, Dodi, Henry Paul [all clones];
- no one died in 9/11 – they are in witness protection programs;
 - the planes flew into Canada at the very same time as it looked like they were hitting the buildings – there were bombs at every floor in all the buildings – it was not the planes which destroyed the buildings.
 - There were nukes in the floors – the white smoke came from the bottom – Hutchison Effect – a result of a particle beam from the ISS in space – whole story not out yet. The international investigation in Finland and proved all this: she read in 2004, 2005 on the conference calls and the document is in a file box somewhere!
- It all started on Oct 1, 1979: the light and the dark said “May the best man win” - it was the first day of the new fiscal year of 1980. Ronnie Reagan was running for pres, was killed and clone 2 months before he became president by CIA agent Hinkley. Bush Sr was VP. Jimmy Carter is a brother of JFK Sr [same father] – not one gets to be President unless he /she is of the right lineage.
 - Nesara Blogs and Forums are NOT white hats; they will be arrested for working with the dark.
- October 10, 2000 the NESARA bill was signed by Bill Clinton, and went into the hands of KOS at the 38th level above the Pres; Ashtar Command has been a member of ACIO since 1945 when the 2 nukes were dropped. There were 2 more planted underground at Fukushima at the same time.
 - We send love to people like Ben Fulford and all the others: we cannot have NESARA without full disclosure – the presence of the galactics has to be announced at the same time.
- It is time to wake up and realize we would not be alive, save for the galactics / Ashtar Command who took the bomb sent from Cuba and blew it up in space. Also the one built in China – she tells the STORY ABOUT THIS.
 - The Ashtar Command is part and parcel of what we are here for and why this is getting announced by Faction 3: they are part of Faction 3 and they are in charge.

Music: Kadosh, Kadosh, Kadosh

Reading: Key 3-1-6 LISTEN TO THIS TO HEAR THE COMMENTARY ON ALL THE VERSES.

More history on N:

- In 1949, there were huge note holders' notes: hundreds of thousands of trillions!
 - There was one man who held one of the hugest of notes: Sam Brown, of the House of Charcoal from England. They were protected by Interpol until they were killed by the Vatican.

Caller: are you familiar with Takion energy? How does it play out with the evolution of our consciousness, etc?

R: right now there are devices that use this energy, and work with the cosmic energies which are coming in.

- As we move closer to Galactic Centre, the energies increase in intensity;
- the takion stones sit on your chakras, move us up in frequency - R has seen this

Caller: a chamber surrounded by Takion devices? Yes! Is that technology connected to the Light Chambers?

T: when you choose to work with this energy, need to have a great deal of wisdom – using the energy in reverse will kill you.

Caller: have you experienced the devices, and felt the energies in your body? He has had one of these devices, made out of glass. Are there some companies more in integrity than others?

T: used to work with Mother S and a sister who worked with energy & takion beads – it was to bring in walk-ins
Describes the process, and how Mother worked with the takion crystals and bring in the new soul

T: the japanese created this in the first place: much farther along in this area than we are.

Caller: the energy feels like a vibration, a pulsation, goes through the body – feels things being balanced out -

T: a good tool

Caller: thought it was a portal, felt like a portal to the 5th dimension. If people don't feel it, they don't have the awareness at this time. T: that's right.

- The technology coming down; the idea of the Light Chamber: can it take anyone and bring you to full consciousness and remove all diseases, etc. Do you need to be prepared for this kind of thing?

T: Answer is both/and: there are many people ready for this. Have you heard of the Joshua Tree place where the Integra built by George Van Tassel - Rama went in it and got zapped in a good way: he watched it change his molecular structure. There are a lot of gifted people who can help you

- there was was a group of scientists who were contacted by the Ashtar Command – they finished the machine.
- There will 6,000 new technologies after N is announced, and 50,000 will be more released in the next few years; people will not be killed. Describes about what happens to the dark ones now.
- The rules for the Integrator, it's a post N an ascension device:
 - can only go in once in 35 years;
 - if you drink alcohol or drugs or cigarettes, all the benefits are lost & you have to start all over again.

Caller: a vegan on a pure vegan diet – into whole idea of cleansing and purifying; nothing toxic into the body

- Is the Takion is a toy compared to the Integrator?

T: relative to your consciousness, it can be a great tool; you can use it to help others, too.

- You can see blockages in the etheric body – you can clear them and get permission

Caller: as we are aware that this exists, we need to put a level of divine love in it so we can move forward ourselves

T: this is true, but also they need to be held accountable

Caller: don't put a lot of energy into saying how bad they are – pointing out the negative to them does not help

T: Yes. Also, we need to call reports that are false:

This week is all about 11's, a master number to help us clean up some of the messes around here! We are all being called to task these days and it can be hard. It is a time to face the wind as strong, cold, or hard as it is and with determination forge a new world order (beginning with our own inner reality, then close relationships, then larger and larger circles of influence).

The challenge afforded us through these times is to integrate the feminine qualities of softness, feeling, and inclusiveness into our personal and social lives. The old, easy way is when the going gets tough, we turn callous, cold, and hard..... let's see if that can change into a strength that includes rather than excludes the wisdom of the feminine.

Conf. Call:

T: the first time we've ever been told anything so specific about the arrests of anyone!

Caller 1: Ask Tara about people from Colombia: they could be Mayan, or Incas: the Mayans are focussed in Guatemala:

- The colours of the granite have to do with the mineral content of the rock.
- Discussion about orbs

T: all the news lately is about the galactics – and the nature of the conversations R has been having with those who are seeing the fleets and fleets of ships from the ISS – time to get our shit together.

Caller: the first time she has been on this call; heard about the call from another source; very informative – has been confused because keep getting dropped off.

T: BBS uses Skype, owned by Bill Gates' company – BBS on a new system: all kinds of confusion!

- Discussion of a range of topics related to NESARA
- JFK Sr is fine; has been on the ships & in witness protection programs; Teddy Kennedy also alive & Michael Jackson also Caller: wanted to do a development in honour of M Jackson: it was shut down! Would open up the tax base, bring revenue to the city, but they would not have it!

T: tells her about the visit of Michael Jackson to the back door of the morgue and identified his own clone! And about going to his own eulogy in CA! He knows everything. Bob Hope was the handler of the kids when they were young.

- Time to wake people up to the knowledge that the galactics are here on the earth plane with us.
- She told the caller about Mike Gravel filibustering for 5 days so he could read the Pentagon Papers

Caller: asks about the potential shut down at the end of the month, and that some may not come back.

T: Right. Mother is giving them enough rope to hang themselves, and people can see it.

- BO has never been out of alignment, ever.

Vossa & Webre: Preparing for Teleportation and Time travel -- A Dialogue

VANCOUVER, BC -- In an ExopoliticsTV dialogue from Baja California, Mexico with Alfred Lambremont Webre, new energy inventor and activist Fernando Vossa advocates a novel and challenging perspective for preparing the world for the advent of teleportation as a global transportation technology in the not too distant future through disclosure campaigns like those championed by former U.S. chrononaut Andrew D. Basiago.

It is known through whistleblowers like Andrew D. Basiago and Michael Relfe that teleportation was developed forty years ago by the DARPA as a weaponized technology. Vossa and Webre in dialogue explore the concept that humanity must bring teleportation to the public domain in a technological and cultural context of Love, not war. Humanity can prepare itself for teleportation in the not too distant future by becoming aware of and internalizing its own innate ability to teleport and time travel and by acknowledging the ancient traditions and cultures that focused on teleportation and time travel. An internally informed humanity can serve as a critical mass for the release into the public domain of teleportation and regulated time travel technologies that are not weaponized, but are adapted and transformed for healing the supporting the human body and liberating the human community while used.

In this public dialogue, Vossa and Webre explore the how of teleportation and time travel -- now coming out of the realm of science fiction -- can be holistically introduced, implemented, and adapted to our society in a positive way.

On this episode of Breaking the Set, Abby Martin examines a move by the US Congress to redefine what it means to be a journalist – by preventing independent media being able to protect themselves against revealing their sources. Abby then speaks to former Salt Lake City Mayor and 2012 Justice Party Presidential Candidate Rocky Anderson about the Syria crisis, and NSA spying. And with all eyes on Syria, Abby calls out the corporate media for failing to report on other important issues such as immigration reform and lawmakers attempting to extend legislation that shields Monsanto from future lawsuits. BTS wraps up the show with an interview with Maryam Henein, investigative journalist and director of the film 'The Vanishing of the Bees' about a phenomenon known as Colony Collapse Disorder, which not only threatens honeybees, but a $16 billion food industry in the US. Max and Stacy report from the heart of hedge fund land in Stamford and Darien, Connecticut, where they discuss the deja fraud of highly leveraged markets five years after Lehman collapsed and the nonsense job economy in which highly trained engineers spend their working lives dividing one simple mortgage into thousands of pieces of complex derivatives like piles of stinky fried fish. In the second half, Max interviews Jim Rickards, author of Currency Wars, who compares the Fed relationship to the BRICS nations to that of a drunk driver who runs down pedestrians and then blames the pedestrians for being in the way.

T: Last speaker was saying there would be nothing but a uniform unit, but THAT WILL NOT HAPPEN.

- there will be a basket of currencies, not just the dollar as a sole unit! any more
- Gold will be $50 / Troy oz; Platinum will be $100 / troy oz; Silver will be $10 / Troy oz – things will look the same for a month after NESARA is announced
- The changes: rent will go down; price of cars will go down; cost of items will diminish
- T & R are playing what people are saying because it makes sense in the current way of looking at things; THIS WILL CHANGE.

T: talks about # of homeless as per Melissa Harris-Perry's program – there are 25.9% of black women are homeless! 10.6% of white women live in total poverty – 17 million women of all colours are in total poverty in this country: totally homeless or in shelters; 633,782 people have NOTHING, ABSOLUTELY NOTHING: living in gutters, in water pipes under city streets!

- 42.6 % of the homeless are disabled; 22.1 % of the homeless of children, 13% of them are deaf.
- 281 unaccounted for in the flood in Colorado – no assurance that they are completely gone.

2013, Aug 28 Did Life Come to Earth From Mars?

Could life on Earth have been born on Mars? Photo via Wikipedia.

If the phenomena of Star Trek, Area 51, Ancient Aliens, or War of the Worlds can be taken as anthropological clues, humanity is consumed with curiosity about the possibility of life beyond Earth. Do any of the 4,437 newly discovered extrasolar planets contain traces of life? What would these life forms look like? How would they function? If they came to Earth, would we share ET-esque embraces or would the visit be more a Battle Los Angeles style throw down?

Life outside of Earth has spawned endless interest, but less public interest seems to be given to how life on Earth began 3 to 4 billion years ago. But the two topics, it turns out, might be more connected than one would believe—in fact, it's possible that life on Earth really began outside of Earth, on Mars. At this year's Goldschmidt conference in Florence, Steve Benner, a molecular biophysicist and biochemist at the Foundation for Applied Molecular Evolution will present this idea to an audience of geologists. He's well aware that half the room will be adamantly against his idea. "People will probably throw things," he laughs, hinting at a consciousness of how out-of-this-world his ideas sound. But there's scientific basis for his assertion (PDF), a logical reason for why life maybe truly did begin on Mars.

Science holds a number of paradoxes: If there are an infinite number of stars in the sky, why is the night sky dark? How can light act as both a particle and a wave? If the French eat so much cheese and butter, why is the incidence of coronary disease in their country so low? The origins of life are no different; they, too, are dictated by two paradoxes: the tar paradox, and the water paradox. Both, according to Benner, make it difficult to explain the creation of life on Earth. But both, he also notes, can be solved by placing the creation of life on Mars.

The first, the tar paradox, is simple enough to understand. “If you put energy into organic material it turns to asphalt, not to life,” Benner explains. Without access to Darwinian evolution—that is, without organic molecules having the opportunity to reproduce and create offspring who themselves, mutations and all, are reproducible—organic matter that is bathed in energy (from sunlight or from geothermal heat) will turn into tar. Early Earth was full of organic materials—chains of carbon, hydrogen and nitrogen that are believed to be the building blocks of life. Given the tar paradox, these organic materials should have devolved into asphalt. “The question is, how is it possible that the organic materials on early Earth managed to leap from their asphaltic fate to something that had access to Darwinian evolution? Because once that happens—presumably—you’re off to the races, and then you can manage whatever environment you want,” Benner explains.

The second paradox is the so-called water paradox. The water paradox states that even though life needs water, if organic material could escape its asphaltic fate and move toward Darwinian evolution, you can’t assemble the necessary building blocks in a flood of water. The building blocks of life start with genetic polymers—the well-known player DNA and its less-famous but still very smart friend RNA. Experts agree that RNA was likely the first genetic polymer, partly because in the modern world, RNA plays such an important role in the manufacturing other organic compounds. “RNA is the key to the ribosome, which is what makes proteins. There’s almost no question that RNA, which is a molecule involved in catalysis, arose before proteins arose,” Benner explains. The difficulty is that for RNA to assemble into long strands—which is needed for genetics—you can’t have the assembly taking place in water. “Most people think that water is essential for life. Very few people understand how corrosive water is,” Benner says. For RNA, water is extremely corrosive—bonds cannot be made within water, preventing long-strands from forming.

However, Benner says that these paradoxes can be resolved with the help of two very important groups of minerals. The first are borate minerals. Borate minerals—which contain the element boron—prevent life’s building blocks from devolving into tar if incorporated into organic compounds. Boron, as an element, is seeking electrons to make itself stable. It finds these in oxygen, and together the oxygen and boron form the mineral borate. But if the oxygen boron finds is already bonded to carbohydrates, the carbohydrates linked with boron form a complex organic molecule dotted with borate that’s less resistant to decomposition.

The second group of minerals that come into play involve those that contain molybdate, a compound that consists of molybdenum and oxygen. Molybdenum, more famous for its conspiratorial relation to the Douglas Adams classic A Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy than for its other properties, is crucial, because it takes the carbohydrates that borate stabilized, bonds to them and catalyzes a reaction which rearranges them into ribose: the R in RNA.

Which brings us—however circuitously—back to Mars. Both borate and molybdate are scarce and would have been especially scarce on early Earth. The molybdenum in molybdate is highly oxidized, meaning that it needs electrons from oxygen or other readily available negatively charged ions to achieve stability. But early Earth was too oxygen-scarce to have readily created molybdate. Plus, returning to the water paradox, early Earth was quite literally a water world—with land making up only two to three percent of its surface. Borates are soluble in water—if early Earth was a flooded planet, as scientists believe, it would have been difficult for an already scarce element now diluted in a huge ocean to find ephemeral organic molecules to bond with. Moreover, Earth's status as a water-logged planet makes it difficult for RNA to form, because that process can't easily happen in water on its own. These concepts become less of an issue on Mars, however. Though water was certainly present on Mars 3 to 4 billion years ago, it was never as abundant as it was on Earth, creating the possibility that Martian deserts—locations where borate and molybdate could concentrate—could have fostered the formation of long strands of RNA. Moreover, 4 billion years ago, Mars' atmosphere contained much more oxygen than Earth's. Further, recent analysis of a Martian meteorite confirms that boron was once present on Mars.

And, Benner believes, molybdate was there too. “It's only when molybdenum becomes highly oxidized that it is able to influence how early life formed,” Benner explains. “Molybdate couldn't have been available on Earth at the time life first began, because three billion years ago the surface of the Earth had very little oxygen, but Mars did.”

Benner believes that these factors imply that life originated on Mars, our closest neighbor in space equipped with all the right ingredients. But life wasn't sustained there. "Of course Mars dried out. The process of drying was very important for life originating, but not sustaining," Benner explains. Instead, a meteor would have to have hit Mars, projecting materials into space—and eventually those materials, including some building blocks of life, might have made it to Earth.

Would the sudden change in environment have been too harsh for the fledgling building blocks to survive? Benner doesn't think so. "Let's say life starts on Mars, and becomes very happy in the Martian environment," Benner explains. "A meteor comes to hit Mars, and the impact ejects rocks on which your predecessor is sitting. Then you land on Earth, and you discover that there is lots of water that you were treating as a scarce element. Will it find the environment adequate? It certainly appreciated the existence of enough water that it didn't have to worry."

So, sorry Lil Wayne, looks like it might be time to relinquish your claim to the fourth rock from the Sun. As Brenner notes, "The evidence seems to be building that we are actually all Martians."

Pele Report, Astrology Forecast

Buenos Dias, this is Kaypacha with the weekly Pele report. It's an astrological forecast. This week is for the one of 9/11 / 2013. Not that bad, but it's pretty bad. This is gonna be a pretty serious report, these are serious times and there's some serious stuff going on. This week – very powerful, very very powerful time.

Next week, Tuesday, but even effective now, Saturn is joined together with the North Node of the Moon at 8 degrees of Scorpio. And that's not all. Venus has just gone into Scorpio. It actually went in there yesterday, Tuesday, 9/10. Venus goes into Scorpio, it's going to be joining together with Saturn and the North Node of the moon. The last time we had Saturn conjunct the North Node of the Moon, it was in the sign of Gemini in 2002. The next time we're going to have Saturn conjoin the North Node, it's going to be in very late Pisces, 27 degrees of Pisces, in the year 2025, if we are still alive (laughing*.)

So this is an 11 plus year cycle –2002, 2013, 2025 –and this moves around. I've spoken about it a little bit before; I'm going to go more into it. Because Saturn is objectivity. It's Chronos, Father Time, looking at the long - range picture of things. We need to be looking at the long- range picture of things. We cannot be an ostrich burying our head in the sand. This is a time of getting the wake-up call. It's like spirit taps us on the shoulder, whispers in our ears, gives us a little nudge, and if we are still asleep and we are still in old patterns, we're still getting run by external conditioning and external authorities and we're not waking up, then we start getting pushed and shoved and whacked, and the earth starts to shake and wars start to emerge and things start to happen bigger and bigger and bigger and bigger to wake us up and to help us get it.

Right now, if you look at this long - term thing, we're moving into the Age of Aquarius. We're in this 26,000 year cycle of the great year. That great cycle is bringing us into alignment that we've been experiencing with the winter solstice point conjunct the galactic center, going on for years but really culminating around this time period. This is the balance of the masculine and the feminine. This is a return to union like I've been talking about. This is the end of separation, this is the birth of a new paradigm, this is the turning of the ages. This Saturn coming around now in the sign of Scorpio is reminding us: evolution proceeds. Do not resist. Resistance is futile and only creates more pain and more suffering.

So we want to look at some of the other aspects. The Moon is now in Sagittarius. I could go on and on and on for quite some time (laughing.) Tomorrow, actually on Friday, the Moon moves into Capricorn, and it's going to join together with Pluto. We're going to have this great, grand cross going on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday; very, very powerful. Mercury has moved into Libra, 11 degrees Libra, opposite Uranus at 11 degrees of Aries, squaring Black Moon Lilith at 11 degrees of Cancer. Jupiter and Pluto have moved on – Jupiter's at 9, Pluto's up 12, 13. But Mars is also coming at 11 degrees of Leo. Chiron's at 11 degrees of Pisces. If you've got anything at 11 degrees it's our magic number for this week; eleven. Play the lottery, man. It's 11:11:11:11. Today's 9/11 (laughing.)

Eleven is a master number, and it's really connected with the High Priestess energy, which is the number two. One and one is two in the Tarot. We want to look at this, because this is Mercury, Lilith, Uranus, Pluto. Now it was just a couple of weeks ago, when was it exact, August 29th–Lilith came around and opposed Pluto. I talked about it then. Now she's coming around to square Uranus, and she's got this square to Mercury. Mercury is talking, communication. In the sign of Libra, which is ruled by Pallas Athena, the goddess of wisdom. It's the scales. It's balance of the masculine and feminine, the light and the dark. It's time to bring harmony through diplomacy and through non-violent communication. Mercury. But it's opposite Uranus in Aries.

Aries is masculine – the man. And masculine is different from man. Masculine has more to do with we are all masculine and feminine. Masculine has to do with the above, the light. The fire and air – in astrology the masculine is fire and air. It's up, up and away, up and out. It's theoretical, conceptual, abstract, cold. I won't say cold but I'll say removed, it's almost extraterrestrial. It's above, it's the light, it can burn you, it can be ruthless. Non - subjective. Cut you down to size. Has to be balanced with the feminine – the moist, the water and earth, the subjective, the human experience that we all feel and we all need connection. The masculine is alone and out there with the stars, the ETs. Forward, in the future, out there.

The woman, the feminine, brings the man into his body, into the now, into the feeling, into the human quality. We need both of these. The masculine does the work, and it's the fire and it's the energy and it's the change. It pushes, and it's got that direction but it needs guidance. It needs human connection and feeling so that direction goes in the right way. For everybody in the right time. To create community, to create connection, to create oneness. Otherwise we get wars: like Syria, like Iraq, like Vietnam.

We want to go back because this is now the time. Uranus square Pluto. Very interesting time period because in 1965 and 1966, Uranus was conjunct Pluto in the sign of Virgo. There we had Vietnam, and we had revolutions, and we had the hippies coming out saying, "No more war; this is bullshit." They demonstrated, some of them got shot. So we don't need this kind of masculine power-playing dominating energy any more. This is the end of the patriarchy, this is the turning of the ages. This is a time of letting go of the old dominating, hierarchical, cold, ruthless laws, banking, governments that don't care about the subjective personal feminine person. That are exploiting and destroying Gaia, the Mother, matter. The spirit is masculine that matter is the mater, the mother.

We want to bring together and re- balance this masculine and feminine. That's what this Saturn is about. It's a time of us being called to task, and it's in the sign of Scorpio, the sign of death, endings. Letting go of the old forms, structures, authorities. Saturn going through Scorpio – two and a half years, it's got another year and a half to go. But conjoining with the North Node of the Moon – this is our collective destiny. Our collective destiny is to get our shit together, and we need to get our shit together when it comes to what? Merging, union, cooperating, intimacy, vulnerability, humility. These are all the prerequisites for coming together.

And then Scorpio is mastery. Scorpio is the eagle that soars. We know that the prophecies of the South Americas and the North Americas – South America is the condor and North America is the eagle. The prophecies say 500 years of the condor then 500 years of the eagle, and then 500 years of the condor and the eagle flying together. With all of these symbols, all of these images of this union, above and below, spirit and matter, masculine and feminine, light and dark. We need to honor each other. We need to respect each other instead of fearing each other.

That's what's going on; that's what has been going on. The masculine has been afraid, the light has been afraid of getting doused. You know, how do you put out fire? You pour water over it, or you kick earth over it, and you smother it. So the masculine has been afraid of being smothered, of being brought down. That's been part of this patriarchal – the misapplication of this masculine energy has been dominating, suppressing, suffocating, burning the feminine for 6500 years.

This creates Black Moon Lilith in Cancer – the angry, raging feminine. Whether it's the feminine in the form of a woman or the form of the earth or the form of the oceans or what's here in the present moment – it's anger and rage happening, and it's square Uranus. Uranus is what? Uranus in Aries – Aries is the man; Uranus is new. This is time for a new masculine. The emergence of a new relationship of the masculine that is awakened – Uranus, Prometheus, the third eye.

We are awakening to a new masculine. That new masculine has to really be able to, what? Opposite Mercury – listen to the rage of the feminine. Has to be there, has to prove – after 6500 years of domination and suppressing of the feminine – that he is open and ready to listen, ready to be guided. It's not going to threaten his masculinity. I've been reading up on this stuff now (laughing.*) I'm really excited I'll share some links to what is it, social alchemy? Marks Serra, I've gotten into some of his stuff. I'm going to be doing a webinar – Relationship and Intimacy in the Horoscope – coming next month, an eight week webinar. I'm preparing for that. I'm doing another webinar on September 20th on the Evolutionary Astrology Network. I'll give you a link to that – this is all on my website, newparadigmastrology.com.

It's just like this is the time – Venus has gone into Scorpio now. We've got this Saturn conjunct the North Node in Scorpio. We need to talk about the masculine and the feminine, the relationships, the sexuality, the merging – or the battling and the fighting. This is the downside of what has been going on ... and needs to stop. We need to stand, but we need to have a new vision. We need to become our own authorities. We need to show the way, pulling the way. This is the problem for the masculine.

Why is the masculine afraid of the feminine? Because true masculinity has been lost. Men have to discover their masculinity. You know we are born out of the womb; we are born into a woman's world. We go right out to the breast and are suckled by a woman. It's a woman's world – water and earth. The man is the foreign light element coming from the stars or the sun or whatever. It's just like, "Whoa, what is this?" So man has to discover himself; every man has to discover his relationship to masculinity. Until he's got his ground, his feet on solid ground of his own power and his own truth, and is in himself, and his self is a warrior for truth in life – then he's living in a woman's world and he can fear it or he can be guilty or ashamed of what he is not even aware of or in touch with. One way or another, there's this imbalance or inability to connect, to honor, to listen to, to be guided by the feminine –which is this subjective, feeling, intuitive source of wisdom and truth.

Of course the women, the feminine, has been terrified of the masculine, and women can actually be terrified of their own femininity. Now you know, there's a lot of this rebirthing of the feminist movement –it's a lot of women dressing up and looking and acting like men in very many ways. Feeling like, well maybe you know, we're gonna be heard. Our anger wants us to combat or raise conflict with these sleeping giants, these men that are asleep. We're going to wake 'em up by being more of them. So there can also then be women that are afraid to be soft, erotic, wild, penetrable, in touch with all of their water, all of their emotions, all of their physical desires and sexual nature. Shut down, close off, harden like the man and the sun and the light and the air drying them out. We don't want the women to dry out...and some of the men are getting too soft and gushy and warm, so the new man –anyway, I don't want to get too lost in this.

Now is this grand cross, and the main thing that I want to say is it's time for the feminine to rage. This anger creates – we've had enough of patriarchy, of external domination, of laws, rules, orders, machines. Created by mostly males –war machines, banking machines, hospital and operating machines. It's time to get into life again. Juicy movement of cells and blood and passion, and get our hearts beating again. So Lilith wants to come out. Lilith is angry, she wants to rage, she wants to fire up. She wants to be heard. Squaring this Mercury in Libra, opposing this Uranus. She just came and picked up that opposition from Pluto. The volcano is ready to blow is what I'm saying, and the perfect timing. I could see there being earthquakes –or the start of a war

It's time to say enough patriarchy, enough war, enough playing around with oil and money and power. Get out of it, get off of it, get over it, knock it off. So this is a time – Saturn, it's time to take our destiny –North Node of the Moon – into our own, become our own agents of power, Shiva. Destroy the war machine. It's time to put an end. So these rebellions of the 1960's – it's time for more rebellion. It's time to say, "Stop it, we've had enough. We want a new future, we want a new paradigm, a new planet that's clean healthy and safe for our children and their children, and the trees and the flowers and the birds and the animals."

So this is a time of ... this is a depressing week. We can read the papers, we can go into our feelings. If you're connected to the collective unconscious, you're not jumping around for joy right now. Nobody is. Internally we're all facing our shadow, of what we've suppressed, of what we've been afraid of. We've been afraid of the opposite sex, we've been afraid of integrating ourselves, we've been afraid of speaking our truth. We can feel guilty and ashamed and small and want to crawl –but I'm saying now's the time.

Mercury's coming out into this opposition, and Mars is in Leo – time to stand, the masculine, the realm of the king. It's time to rip it (laughing,*) This is going on for a while now. This grand cross is going to be active for the next six, eight months, nine months. Mars is going to come around to it, Jupiter is going to be moving around. We're going to have a lot of stuff going on creating this grand cross with Lilith, Pluto, and Uranus.

So, mantra for the week

I have a right to be angry and get fired up
When giving voice to the Goddess who's had enough.
For by piercing the silence imposed from without
We create a new world we can get excited about.

The pen is mightier than the sword. Get on the internet, get out there, get in touch with your throat chakra, with your Mercury, with your communication. This is a time, this is the time, we are the time, now is the time. Yeah, it's time for the revolution! It's time to get going and get all these thoughts and ideas and concepts and channelings of the love nature grounded real, Saturn conjunct the North Node. We are in third dimensional consciousness. Make it happen!

Namaste. Aloha. So Much Love. Buenos dias. Pura Vida.
