Astrology: Annie Rose

Readings will be basically psychic as her eyes still are not restored

Moon in Capricorn: New Moon will bring opportunities of a different sort this year, things we have been waiting for

Aries: changes, new things in the home; a few instances in 2014 of a move to another home if that is what you are thinking of

Taurus: new and more social life; personality plus

Gemini: emphasis on children and health, other family members

Cancer: new interests in personal life and surprises too – maybe a new mate or significant other

Leo: news will concern other people's belongings – maybe a gift from others

Virgo: the new moon will enhance the lives of Virgans, Cancerians - will be an ending of a long-concerning standing with no problems

Libra: will have others bring their problems to you, may have new acquaintances

Scorpio: will be concerned with older relatives, and added responsibilities – a tough sign!

Sagittius : will have new friends, and hear from older friends; possibly health issues – lower back, legs
They and Capricornians will have a new year, new you – more smiles!

Pisces: more communications, back off being bossy, pay more attention to needs of others; have to work hard to tell the absolute truth

Full Moon in Capricorn– will affect everyone also; the negative energies go to Cancer Libra, Aries

Aquarius: tie up your tongue – can get you in hot water; will be relieved of financial concerns

Pisces: same thing with the tongue! Speak only absolute truth

Aries: home life will be affected; beware accidents around the house

Taurus: their concerns around weight: begin to watch their diet by Feb 1 – will be thankful they did so

Gemini: need to listen to children and others

Cancer: will be hit hardest by the full moon; chaos in relationships, home life – will take some adjustment
Leo: will be concerned with affairs of those older than themselves, maybe even the oldest child in family
Virgo: should already be feeling some effects showing up; should be feeling more relaxed than a year ago
Libra: will affect their responsibilities: cannot rely on others, have to work out their own problems; have always shared the workload, will have to take it on themselves as the extra hands may not be available
Scorpio: don't drink – heed advice regarding health issues: don't put off going to doctors.
Capricorn: they might be going through multiple issues: financial, life, getting projects done – will have to work at it
Sag: will have new relationships; will be very wilful and not be willing to change so much – let the other person do the changing – they are not boring!

T: thinks Barack will give his State of the Union before end of month

AR: will do it before Mercury goes retrograde – he might be able to carry out his plans before this happens
 • Tells Tara she has to be careful of what she eats; certain aspects not getting the nutrients – body needs green vegetables

T: has 2 green drinks a day, and more veg – what should she stay away from? She's a Leo

AR: Will be happier this year! Her heart goes with changes for all the people of the earth.

AR: there will be more travel for all of us. Thanks Mr Maliki holding back the RV

T: he's a puppet of the existing elite; as a result, they all have to be arrested before anything can happen – he does not have a good bone in his body.

• His puppeteers are worse than he is: he is killing the Sunnis by sending out the Shi'ites and for 6,000 years, they used to live together

AR: feels that we will have pressure to stay in another war: thinks Maliki is part of the problem

T: al Maliki is no different than the elites – he wants the same thing they want;

• What is being said by the White Knights is that the elites are “the powers that were”. America is us – before the elites got into Iraq's business: they had a better everything.

• Any “elite” group in any place is subject to “the elites” and they all go down together: the galactics will come in and they will all go down together.

• Give them more love: love is painful to the dark heart & they can say 'ouch' and stop supporting their previous actions. The real people in every country are being helped by light workers

AR: we are going to have a political showdown over the question of term limits, not too far from now

T: meaning of “term limits”?

AR: length of serving – eg, president is 2 terms

T: which one? The president's! - T: they want to get 3 terms so they can hang on to the office!

AR: some people believe that power is more valuable than prayer! Want to hang on

Guest: Judy Beebe

• has had the opportunity to meet our star brothers and sisters

JUDY:

• she has a presentation tonight

[SEE BELOW FOR THE TEXT SHE PRESENTED as you listen to her commentary on the text]

• We will understand it is time for people on the planet to ask for this connection!

• Much of what she gives comes from The Understanding Heart; will also share The Unbroken Circle of Truth

• She was told this would prepare fertile ground for bringing the energy down.

Ecc 12: 6 – where they are defining what constitutes death

• for ever the silver cord be loosed or the pitcher be broken at the fountain or the wheel broken at the cistern

• Every circle is considered the symbol for the sacred; "sacred" is a red fluid containing sac

• A sacred circle is the ALL

- Judy went through all the writers, sacred books – The Unbroken Circle of Truth gave her the most understanding
- Everything around you displays the fact that man is a co-creator
- The concept of universal brotherhood GO TO www.judybeebe.com
– symbol of the heart which turned into the alpha & omega symbol

MR: spelling arc with a C makes sense

JB: Physically, there is a division between the AV node and the other node: there is a disconnection in our heart – we are broken away from the heart beat.

T: how did we get broken away?

JB: that's the game, what it's about. On other planets where life forms are not evolved,

T: we asked for it

JB: it's an electrical arc – as we ask for it, we electrify the fluid : tell God to connect us back via the Arc of the Covenant -

T: we didn't ask to be disconnected, but we did ask to do an experiment and descend into this world and co-create it with Mother: leave me alone and let me do it!

JB: we came back wanting to be herors; on other planets, that connection is there!

- All we have is the prayer and the words – had this not happened to her, she could not have shared this with us. There are 12 gateways of the spine – book is The 12 Electrical Gateways
- In The Emerald Tablets, it says there are 3 mysteries, 3 fluids that are not whole and they are not communicating: the abdominal pelvic, the thoracic, the cerebral spinal
- No matter how spiritual you are, you have not made it up there because YOU HAVE NOT ASKED FOR IT!
- When this happened to her, she literally yelled "The Father and I are One!". We have the right to this, as god promised us this.
- what happens in your spine as the fluid starts changing, they animate: hydrogen is sentient and is waiting for us to ask for this, to ask for our connection to god – it's the Divine Zipper – it goes up the spine and it hits the golden bowl, the cerebellum

MR: when we talk of all the tones: we have talked a lot of the Solfeggio tones that were taken away. She has been introduced to tuning forks with the frequencies of the Fibonacci spirals

JB: these are different tones, personal tones that vibrate with all of your past lives and your lives on this planet – The 12 Electrical Gateways

MR: would the frequencies each of us hear be different?

JB: yes – the AA is Raphael; note is A [but each of us will hear it slightly differently]; colour is green gold; element is fire; symbol is that for heart; spinal area is T1; body organ is the heart;

- Why Raphael? He is the AA of healing; his staff will guard us against unwanted energies.

ATTACHED IS JUDY'S PRESENTATION!

Hard News:

T: Chris Christie in the hot seat, not getting out of it at all. Also, where are the billions and billions of dollars received for Hurricane Sandy?

Ed show: Al Franken was on and said " We are watching the end of Chris Christie, the office boy for Bernie Madoff!"

- It is not possible for Chris to come clean: the whole story about the bridge: he comes from the ilk that he does not care about the people, he is a reptile and not a nice one; has the greedy bug!
- His governorship is toast; a 91 year old lady is dead because of what he did – she died of cardiac arrest.

R: on Chris Hayes & Joey Chin on Al Jazeera: he has intimidated and threatened members of his staff

T: the State Senator who ran against him said he runs a dictatorship: no one goes to the bathroom without asking.

- Rachel Maddow: Justice John E Wallace who was appointed: first time is 7 years, a re-appointment means they get on for life. Wallace had a perfect record: the State Constitution was ratified 63 years ago and Christie turfed him: he was a black justice and a very good one.
 - Justice Huens, a Conservative justice: Christie torpedoed her off the State supreme court – only 2 times this has happened and Christie did it! He said it was because the Democrats were animals.
 - He is power hungry and money hungry: where are we when people think this is the person we want to run for the seat of power in this country?
- T heard Annie say there is a pursuit for having 3 terms for president again – imagine Christie in that.
- FDR had 3 terms, and in his 4th term, he was killed
 - Bush had Reagan killed & announced he was the acting president of the US, for 3 terms: he set it up for 9/11 (2nd one)
 - Christie has lots of enemies:
 - Judy said don't worry, be happy

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2014: The Year that the new Technology will change the course of humanity and it will bring untold changes.

At Keshe Foundation, we make 2014, the year that advanced technologies will be mass-released to public that they can show their power to create conditions that change through all layers of human society will be achieved.

We shall put an end to hunger and wars, through the release of everything in our possession, this be it scientifically, or technically to every man, be it scientists or world governments around the world in equal measure.

In 2014, the Keshe Foundation through its Institute shall deliver to mankind as a whole the technology, which the mankind has been waiting and praying for from the beginning of time.

With delivery of an advance technology, unknown up to now, we shall put an end to hunger, wars.

We shall make sure that all men will have enough to attain sustenance and shelter that; there shall be no need for suffering.

We give and facilitate the release of technology to the men of greed that they can produce enough gold and precious metals that they could wish for, that eventually they will shy away even to show any interest in possessing such materials.

In opening the space in 2014 in its true sense, we would bring in more precious materials and sciences unknown to man that these new materials and knowledge will be used for forging tools of lasting peace on this planet.

The 2014 will be the beginning of the new era, the point of change for the humanity from what has been the same on this planet from the time of Adam.

We make one promise to the world leaders and that is, change your and your nations ways or your citizens shall change it for you through the delivery and application of the new technology and its use.

No man shall and from this year on will be allowed to take up arms to fight and no man shall be left hungry and homeless on this planet because of wars.

Use your arm manufacturing factories to deliver homes and food to the humanity, which up to now you have being developing tools of war in them, and you have instigated, unwanted wars because of them.

As the man who has the knowledge of universe at his disposal, I shall use every knowledge and power available to me to bring these factories, which you have erected for making tools of war and their products to standstill with stroke of a pen.

Then we wonder who shall disobey as is in the books of god that “one shall not kill.”

The promises of the change, as has been in the Holly books of the past, which the man has been waiting for centuries for shall be fulfilled.

Our program for this year is set to be.

We shall put an end first and foremost to the problem at Fukushima in January.

In February, we make all efforts to create the environment to stop the production of arms across the world, through release of technologies, which makes the present advance aircraft, missiles, and nuclear weapons irrelevant and ancient.

In Jun, we will deliver technologies, which can deliver sustenance's to world population totally free of any cost through the release of new systems that can change air into sustainable food and energy supply without a need for farming land that no child will sleep with hunger.

By September, we will deliver the technology for every man to be protected from the natural elements like cold and rain without being dependent on other man handout of tents.

We shall make delivery of clean water at any point on earth free of charge a reality by releasing the already developed technologies.

By the end of December we will make sure, that there are no grounds for disruption for space travels on regular bases from all the nations on this planet that all shall harvest the reaches of the universe collectively and equally.

Those who have doubts about our work, be ready to become soldiers of the peace and unity before the end of this year.

AWAKENING YOUR COSMIC HEART

Ecclesiastes 12:6

“Or ever the silver cord be loosed, (solar plexus soul connection)

Or the golden bowl be broken, (head - hear GOD’s voice

Or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, (living waters - holy grail cup which is ever full)

Or the wheel broken at the cistern.” (heart - fluid-containing sac)

Every circle is considered to be the symbol for

SACRED ~ Look at the word sacred - red sac

A sacred circle represents the SINGLE ALL and a sacred circle connects you back to your all-ness.

When I was writing the description of the symbol for SACRED in “The Language of Light,” this is what I wrote:

We are the stardust of the universal mind, congealed and cooled to form a recognizable pattern.

Ultimately, our lives are a circular reality which can be energized divinely through the Arc (not Ark), of the covenant. This electrical Arc connects you back to your divine nature and allows you to hear the voice of GOD through all life streams and manifestations.

HEART ~ hear the voice of truth through the language which is not spoken

The first book I wrote after my out-of-body experience was called “The Understanding Heart.”

It was within the pages of this book that I was introduced to the idea of an electrical Arc, and not a chest outside of the body. Understand that there is more at work within the words which have described everything to us within the pages of the Bible. For instance, where does your heart live but within your chest cavity.

PROLOGUE

Let the reader beware.....You will never again look at the world around you in the same way. The mystery of life will be evident in the glory of each morning sunrise and the majesty of each evening sunset. The truth has been whispering in your ears and appearing before your eyes every day for however many years you are old. You have been veiled from this truth by many things, including the built-in limitations of your physical body.

So come with me on a journey of liberation and let us together weave a celestial tapestry which will awaken within you the knowing that you were meant to discover. Through this interactive experience, you will start to see, as I did, that the truth is glaringly evident in the basic premises of the majority of the world's spiritual disciplines and is exposed in most of the spiritual or channeled writings of recent times.

How many ways can the truth be presented and still not be understood?

As I present my own truth from an expanded awareness experience and the truth, as seen from numerous perspectives, including the Bible, the Bhagavad-Gita, yogic disciplines, popular Indian writings and other new age authors, as well as Druid truths which were brought out in a book on Merlyn the magician and King Arthur, you will begin to see that they have all been saying the same thing, albeit through different viewpoints and perspectives of the same truth, observed and presented from that different perspective.

The part of the tapestry which makes all of these truths come to life is the writing which was given to me from The Unbroken Circle Of Truth while I was influenced by the divine breath and mind of God ~ All That IS.

It was during this spiritual experience of triumph that I was given a profound understanding of life and its energy patterns. Through this expansive experience, I can tell you with absolute certainty that all religions and philosophies have at the heart of their doctrine the same truth, even if it is delivered in a different manner and observed differently.

Everything around you and within you displays the power and majesty of man as a powerful co-creator with God ~ All That IS. I hope to take you on the long walk up the mountain and give you the opportunity to ask the famous mystic - what is the meaning of life? But this time instead of a punch line to a joke, you will be given powerful insights into your own body, the nature around you and, of course, the universal concepts which will give you personal freedom and liberate you from stagnant theories and restrictions.

Your divine purpose has been to play and have fun within this three-dimensional world, while still maintaining your co-creator status with God ~ All That IS. Of course, this is no easy task and is the challenge that this planet was issued from the beginning of time. We are on the brink of an advanced new age and with that spiritual new age comes new opportunities through stepped up energy exchanges and newly activated magnetics which will allow greater penetration into what were former mysteries.

Purposefully, we are weaving a divine tapestry for this planet. The interactive mechanisms which are being woven into our planet and our bodies are meant to aid your naked eye to make a quantum leap in visual and geometric understanding. Ultimately, the final tapestry will contain the perfectly blended colors of personal equanimity, spiritual knowledge, and the liberating gift of self-mastery.

A powerful new you will walk away from this discourse into the bright light of a new day.

Personally, my intention is to walk this planet with awakened eyes, a nonjudgmental heart and soft neutral steps upon mother earth.

WE WILL BE CREATING A TAPESTRY OF COSMIC TRUTH WITHIN THE FIBERS OF YOUR RESTORED SPIRITUAL BODY

You are the purpose of this discourse and your understanding of the truth which will be spoken and woven into this tapestry of spiritual knowing will give you back your power to create a new and glorious life. It will give you the power to raise the consciousness of the entire universe. You personally must get it because we all depend upon each other. We have a mystical link of golden heart-to-heart energy webbing which vibrates between each one of us on this planet Earth, as well as every planet in the universe. We are all interconnected in a giant loving web of creation, which I call the GOLDEN WEB or THE HYDROGEN HIGHWAY.

Nothing can be hidden anymore; you need to get answers and a complete understanding of the functionality and reasons behind everything. As I was newly awakened to all this, I was spending each day asking questions, skipping, hopping, and smiling until I thought my face would break and my body would just teleport off this planet. What a liberating time. What a marvelous experience it was and is.

From my expanded perspective while out of body, I wondered what that music was I was hearing? The answer was immediate and the knowing was totally contained within me. The knowing answer contained a depth of understanding beyond anything that words could convey. The answer was known within the cells of my body and the energy field around me that this music was the music of the spheres in harmony with each other. After the harmony of the spheres was placed within my physical knowing and absorbed within the cells of my body, I was given access to the mind of God ~ All That IS. I knew that this was where I was placed, because the molecules of my body had expanded to the point that I was everything. I asked as many questions as I could and as fast as I could because I was afraid that I wouldn't have enough time or that something would take me out of this wonderful place. The questions were flying through my mind and the answers were immediately placed within my entire spiritual and physical knowing. This was an expanded knowing which is difficult to explain, but was as if the answer was playing through my body by a musical instrument which recorded the color, energy pattern, and tone of the answer, and then finally recorded it within my soul essence.

I suddenly became aware that I was surrounded by twelve filmy-robed figures whose presence seemed to produce an immense joy within me. They chanted something which had no meaning to me and then joined hands. One from the twelve came forward and made a sweeping motion over my forehead. I immediately saw light flowing from my forehead in the space around me. This light flowed from my forehead in a manner which reminded me of a miner's headlamp because any direction in which I looked, the light was directed there also. The figure in front of me then brought a hand towards my forehead and placed a symbol there. I seemed to know that what was placed there was a symbol without being told and when I thought to myself ~ I wonder what the symbol is? ~ it immediately appeared in the space around me.

Since it was strange looking and really meant nothing to me, I asked what it meant. Without a word being spoken, the meaning of the symbol was placed within my knowing in a manner that involved responsibility. This was a feeling that was something like a world-shaking responsibility. The minute I saw the symbol and the meaning was placed there, the responsibility for this understanding was placed upon my heart.

The twelve figures started floating away and they were chanting as they disappeared. I suddenly felt very alone and immediately upon that thought, I was flooded with a circular wave of extreme joy and completeness.

At this point, I just seemed to know that whatever I asked of the universe I would have an immediate answer. My body was tingling and I felt more alive than I ever have before. I had the feeling that I was melting into whatever I looked at and the symbiosis of life was evident no matter where I looked. I felt fluid, energized, and expanded.

I was fluid and alive within the mind of God ~ All That IS. I felt as if my body was becoming lighter and lighter, seemingly as if reconstructed of some other material which would better suit me. I continued to put questions to the source and the answers were amazingly simple and explicit.

The concept of universal brotherhood was understood beyond words. The Universal Grand Design has been ever present in my spiritual and physical knowing and the trivial and mundane don't seem to impress me or have power over me anymore.

With an overwhelming and compelling need to share this information, I want to take you on a grand journey into The Understanding Heart which is there for your personal knowing.

I continue to be bombarded with new understanding which takes that which was previously understood even further in comprehension and expands one upon another and has done so from the night of the Winter Solstice of 1994. Our profound spiritual natures are the prize here, and our mastery is the eventual goal.

The symbol which was given to me during my experience is the beginning key and, if you will let me, we will unlock that mysterious, sacred, yet secret place which lives within your heart.

Thus, through the arc of electrical connection within the heart, the spiritual web of creation will begin to expand across this planet and, ultimately, throughout the universe. Through this connection of the arc of heart-to-heart golden webbing, you will better understand the words which are being spoken and you will start to vibrate to the words, creating your own energy patterns of understanding and knowing.

This writing from THE UNBROKEN CIRCLE OF TRUTH was printed in THE SEDONNA JOURNAL

THE UNBROKEN CIRCLE OF TRUTH

THE GLORY OF KNOWING

Your knowing comes from allowing yourself to feel emotion (ENERGY IN MOTION - E-MOTION) and understanding, embracing and knowing the feeling of that E-MOTION which is then recorded for all time within the essence of you which is your soul. Through all of the recorded and understood feelings and E-MOTIONS which have been lovingly caressed, we flower into the unlimited thought of the All That IS ~ God.

Your purpose, your mission, and the reason for your display of light on this earth plane has been only to play and co-create with the All That IS, nothing more and nothing less. Once you have played out every scenario which gives you pleasure or pain and once you no longer have the need to take in the "E"-motion of those sensations, you will be in rapture of the thought which is God ~ All That IS, The Unbroken Circle of Truth.

The beautiful light that you are is the thought of the ALL THAT IS which allows each of us our creation whatever we conceive it to be.

Your thoughts today become your tomorrow and your next moment.

As you play within this realm of the earth plane and matter you can create anything you choose.

It has been a wonderful illusion which has kept us all prisoners within our own thoughts. We each impact each other, for we are all one. We are all the thought of GOD, divine and alive, and with the inherent potential to have understanding and eventual mastery of this plane. There are many planes of understanding to explore and many joyous reunions as we connect in a living chain of understanding, ever moving toward the oneness which we all crave.

Each one of us who gains in understanding and knowing uplifts all others.

Do not judge your brothers and sisters on this journey; allow them their own mastery and understanding, for we all gain from the allowance.

THE DIVINE ESSENCE What is the divine essence that we all possess?

Your divine essence is the thought of God manifest in you. You are the I AM. How do you connect with your divine essence? You reconnect to The Unbroken Circle of Truth, God ~ All That IS by the arc of the covenant.

Let me explain further. In the beginning there was GOD, who in thought of himself/herself was brought into glory by the duality of himself/herself and created light. The light was composed of the duality of electricity and magnetism. The electromagnetic energy then thought into being the Seraphim and the Elohim, who by their thought further divided this electromagnetic energy into positive and negative polarities and, thus, man was created and the world of matter.

Our GOAL was to find the connection to the original source, God ~ All That IS. When man became manifest in the duality of matter, he became a co-creator with GOD. By man's thought let him be known. The word divine refers to the dive we took into energy in order to create the circle of knowledge of the All That IS. You are the circle of power, you are the thought made manifest in the world of matter.

The glory of knowing and the divine essence that you are is within you. Through the Arc of the Covenant you reconnect with the circle that was broken and gain reconnection to the circle of power that is within the heart center of every one of us, wherein lies the ever-waiting light. The light from the heart center is in wait for the electrical arc of spirit to reconnect to the electromagnetic center of the spine for your re-emergence into the All That IS. Once that arc has been reconnected, you are in the ever fluid knowing of the All That IS. The Holy Grail is within you then and you will forever drink from the spirit of God ~ All That IS, The Unbroken Circle of Truth.

Your gross body will then become alive with the electromagnetic light and you will resonate with cosmic consciousness. The more you drink from the All That IS, the less dense you will become. You will become alive in the spirit, quickened by the mind of GOD. You will play in the fourth and fifth dimensions and expand in circular waves into the glory of the light that you are.

When we all reconnect by this Arc of the Covenant, the earth, as we know it, will be moving into the fourth and fifth dimensions.

When you reconnect to your light essence via the heart, your auric field is wiped clean of all impure thoughts which have attached themselves to you. You are free from the thought which has kept you veiled within the illusion and a slave to matter.

By the connection of your light essence to the electromagnetic energy which resides in the spine, you are in the full armor of God. No longer can the thoughts of others penetrate your armor and attach themselves to your auric field. You walk amongst the many with your essence of protection surrounding you. You cannot be swayed by man because your eye is single; you are the complete circle of All That IS, ever fluid and ever flowing towards the pure thought of All That IS.

In the quietest of moments, you will come unto the glory which is God and know how humble you are. The EGO, which has kept you its servant, will vanish in the blink of an eye. You are light and you are everything.

The illusion must be broken; you must take the veil from your eyes and see through the game that it is. Man, as a consciousness, has a grand awakening in store. It will ripple forward in great circles, ever encompassing the earth on which we reside, until in the twinkling of an eye we are all raptured into the knowing of that which we are.=_

All the words that have ever been written contain the TRUTH. They all have merit and they all have part of the power. It is when you merge with the I AM that you understand the words.

Come merge with the light, dip and dive, soar and fly free, free from the thoughts which have kept you a prisoner of matter. Let us together create a world of peace, unity, and love. Come my brothers and sisters; join me in the light of who you really are.

REUNION WITH THE I AM

Your reunion with the light that you are has been prophesied for many years. The mistake has been that we thought this would be brought to us by visitors from other planets, from the Christian rapture of the few, earth changes, and all kinds of other devices to keep us enslaved by our thoughts.

The Christ taught that the KINGDOM OF GOD IS WITHIN and so it is. We have made it difficult and unfindable by our thoughts. All the prophecies of old and new are to be found within you. You are the grand design, the sacred geometry of the never-ending circle of power, the light that you are, ever expanding, and ever growing and experiencing.

The duality of this plane is the positive and negative sides of the electromagnetic energy of the light that you are.

Imagine your spine as the center point and constantly bring into knowing, by your will, that this center point is ONE and no longer that of dual polarities. With this work complete, you will be ready for the Arc of the Covenant, the truth of who you really are:

The duality of your being is the veil and the illusion which has kept you in bondage.
You are one, KNOW IT, AND BECOME IT.

You are one within this gross body and one within the light. Once you have brought this concept of ONE within the spinal center, reach for the LIGHT and it shall be given unto you. This activates the Arc of electrical truth to reconnect you back to the SINGLE ALL, the place wherein you hear GOD's voice.

You are the MASTER who is yet to awaken into the knowing of the all that is. It is your divine right and your will is the key which has been sought for thousands of years.

Your reunion with the I AM is a glory to behold for you raise the consciousness of this earth plane. In being true to yourself, you help your brothers and sisters. You come unto the LORD in a fiery burst of divine light with your beauty shining for all heaven to behold. The Seraphim and Elohim weep with joy. This reunion is sacred and holy.

The circle complete, a circle within a circle.

BEAUTIFUL DAWN

Waves of beautiful light spreading in ever-widening circles to cover the earth. The power and majesty become unified, the light prevails. The fourth and fifth dimensions happen in the blink of an eye. We unite in the ONE, never more to be divided. We are joined with the All That IS, The Unbroken Circle of Truth, never more to be torn away. We have come to the TRUTH, never more to be deceived by the impostor MATTER. We have gained the experience which we sought and we now know the truth.

In the TRUTH we reside forevermore, yet ever expanding and ever knowing more experience, until one day the light becomes the thought and the light and the I AM merge into forever. =

We have many wonderful experiences ahead of us and glorious enactments to enjoy. Do not be afraid that if you give up matter that you lose who you are, for your personality merely goes on into forever and becomes the special quality that glorifies your creator. You are the sum total of all your experiences and, as such; your glory magnifies the Lord, All That IS.

I can say to you that after my merging with the light, I have never felt more alive. I feel electric and fluid and enjoy even more the things of matter but without attachment. I am no longer a slave of matter but it is my slave, and does my bidding. I enjoy the day-to-day affairs even more; performing the normal duties with a new perspective, because I know it is an illusion.

The chains that bind you to matter are an illusion, your life is your play, create it as you choose it to be.

KNOW that your connection to the LIGHT RESIDES IN YOUR HEART CENTER, activate it, energize it, and then merge it with the electromagnetic energy flowing within the spinal cord and you have ENLIGHTENMENT.

The grand illusion has been dispelled and you are now living free in the spirit of the I AM.

By aligning your dual nature into the ONE, you open yourself up to the light which will then connect by the Arc of the Covenant with the electromagnetic energy of the spine which has been brought into one polarity and then you know.

You become the Holy Grail, drinking from the cup of God, the thought of All That IS, unlimited thought, liquid and ever flowing in magnificence.

EACH MOMENT OF BLISS

What is the bliss which is promised?

Blending with the loving isness; the now of eternity.

Your moment of bliss will be the light of a new dawn on this planet. Your light and the light of all your brothers and sisters of this planet and all other planets will quicken in your light.

The bliss comes from the knowing that your light will raise the consciousness of man engrossed in matter. You will become lite in body and we will forevermore walk softly on the earth. The earth will expand in consciousness because the earth is a living being that has long awaited your birth into light and the birth into light of all humanity.

The LOGOS awaits your bidding. Let us create in joy together, for we are forever bound by our unity.

We are not separate from each other, but live within the essence of all that we are. We glow in unity and in a multicolored lamp which glorifies the All That IS. Our colors mingle and dance together; our light shines on the ONE.

With the breath of God living and dancing within each one of us, we will become a mighty lamp ablaze with the truth.

The sages of old, the Christ, the Buddha and all MASTERS of the world of duality and matter will come to warm themselves by our glowing isness. Yes, they say, a grand day has dawned and man comes unto the TRUTH. The ILLUSION is dissolving into the gossamer fragile thing it was.

Polarize your duality into the ONE. Search for the Arc of the Covenant that resides in the light center within your heart. Connect the electromagnetic polarized energy to the light, and you have transcended into the All That IS.

My precious brothers and sisters in the light, I bow at your feet for a grand day is on the horizon and the dawn comes. Let us walk this earth together, united in the light, unified in the glory of God and, truly, realizing that we are the purpose of the All That IS.

Simply desire less, know more, and you will have a reunion with your light essence.

I challenge you to come join me in the unlimited thought of the All That IS. Let us join hands, hearts, and minds in a living chain of raised consciousness. Let us laugh through and love all our experiences for they give all of us insight and knowing.

THE COSMIC HEART DOORWAY

You will be entering the temple of the most Holy. The shrine and temple of the holy blue rose of circular completion. The cathedral where the silent Holy one has placed a blue rose seed atom, a magnificent blossom of perfection and connection and the Holy Grail vessel of illumination. This is the holy temple wherein you receive your luminous garments of light and the baptism of light which is given by the angelical Elohim and Seraphim.

This is a sacred and wondrous event which infuses our celestial tapestry with the vibrating energy-strands of connection.

The luminous golden threads of the universe will now weave themselves through each cell of your body and each thread of this wondrous and mystical tapestry.

We are creating a tapestry which is in the shape of a sacred circle and it is through this circle that the tapestry will begin to hum and vibrate, as if it is a magical circular harp which is played by the loving hands of GOD. Each strum of the interwoven golden threads of the harp will send waves of divine love pouring through each vessel which is connected to this web of life tapestry.

How do you become a part of this loving web of life which is like a vibrating harp played by the hand of GOD?

The first step is understanding that you have been veiled from your oneness with everything. Realizing your oneness, you then allow everyone and everything their own isness and cease to judge anyone or anything. By eliminating judgment from your atmosphere and starting to speak from the oneness of life, your words will resonate in a lighted circle of attraction within your auric field. These words of oneness and power will attract a powerful energy to start vibrating within your spinal canal, gently nudging the Kundalini energy which lies coiled in your spine.

Ask for the circular connection in the heart via the Arc of the Covenant. This electrical arc of connection then brings the components of the silver below, the gold above and the final closing of the blue rose circle within the Christ center of the heart.

The circle complete, a circle within a circle.

You are now connected and will forevermore drink from the Holy Grail cup which is ever full. You have achieved that which you were meant to gain over many lifetimes. The triumph of the spirit over matter. The Holy reunion with ALL LIFE. You are now energized by the golden river which has connected you to the web of life and you will be quickened by the mind of god. You are now a living part of the celestial tapestry which we have been weaving.

Your body will begin to change and the molecules and cells will begin to vibrate in a rhythm of expansion and contraction which will synchronize you with the harmony of the spheres. You are now an instrument of the divine will. You will now step out into the world to fulfill the mission which will be given to you while you are under the influence of the mind of god.

You will never more wonder what your mission is and you will be inspired to complete that mission.

You will forever be guided by the divine fire which will be alive within you. This divine fire energy (hydrogen) will spiral out in great waves of connection to everyone you meet and will inspire them to also want to connect by the Arc of the Covenant.

The world of matter will have a dull glow and you will not be drawn to the world of illusion any longer. Your earth walk will now be accomplished within the Holy breath of GOD. You will become that spiritual giant you were always meant to become. You have triumphed and have won your victory.

Many have been the gifted writers, philosophers and spiritual adepts who have hinted at the truth. The Bible and its parables have been interpreted since its inception and have been a mystery until you start seeing it in the light of what is being given to you in this discourse. It is time for the truth to be spoken in a manner which everyone can understand and adapt to their own living situation.

You are a powerful being of light and this has been kept from you over many lifetimes. We are mighty warriors who have been searching for the proper instrument to sever the veil of duality which has kept us from our spirit source of power.

I would like to give you now some of the many passages in the Bible which give you this mystical information, albeit in a language and form which we have failed to recognize until this time.

First, what is the Arc of the Covenant?

Genesis 9:12 - 13 ~“And God said, this is the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations. “I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.”

Bow = rainbow - one-half of a circle.

Job 26:13 - “By his spirit, he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.”

The heavens are the cosmos which is 90% Hydrogen.

Jeremiah 31:33 - “I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts.”

The ARC needs the electrical connection back to the UNBROKEN CIRCLE OF TRUTH

Psalms 91:1

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

The heart is the key to many of the mysteries of the Bible. The heart is a doorway and we have needed the key which would allow us to enter into the kingdom.

Isaiah 28:11 and 17

"For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place."

Mark 7:6

"This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me."

When I was defining the meaning of the symbol for ARC OF THE COVENANT for "The Language of Light," here is what I wrote:

This beautiful design created quite a stir when it appeared at Barbury Castle because of its intricate design.

There are numerous dimensional layers of knowledge within this crop circle and, thus, it is difficult to know where to begin. The first observation is the obvious symbol for MAN within the center. These are the three circles that we have come to recognize as the circle within a circle within a circle ~ or, the trinity of FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST. If we pull back from the symbol, we can definitely see a dimensional pyramid. The cells of our body are starting to whisper to us and we are ecstatic. Where are we? We have penetrated to the center of the circle at the apex of this crop circle symbol. We can now be filled with the DIVINE BREATH. We can EXPERIENCE GOD from this center point, blossoming with each truth which penetrates to the center of our being. We are now connected to the GOLDEN WEB of the universal matrix. We are one of the individual vibrating strands of golden harmonious webbing.

This symbol is a DIVINE BEACON which calls to us to connect ourselves to the GOLDEN WEB. It hauntingly entices us to allow the ARC OF THE COVENANT to move within us and fulfill the prophecies which have circulated through various languages for eons.

This crop circle symbol will AWAKEN, RECONNECT, and DIMENSIONALLY SHIFT the planet earth to its true place within THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN. This symbol is your personal tool to explore the universe - A DIVINE ZIPPER - which will realign you to the exalted matrix of unlimited GOD MIND. This crop circle symbol will begin the dialogue with your creator. You will then be connected to the GOLDEN UNIVERSAL HIGHWAY, where you will be allowed to enter the LIBRARY OF KNOWING, and obtain further MASTERY through the information which is contained within this hallowed space.

You can assist your progress by concentrating on this symbol. If you are so moved, carry a replica of this symbol around with you during the day. Reach in your pocket of purse every so often and touch its magical borders. This will continually enhance your cell memory and further your progress.

This symbol is REFORMATIVE - TRANSFORMATIVE - and MAGICAL.

Through the simple words of Kahlil Gibran, the essence of this is sacredly spoken.

"Beauty is not in the face;
Beauty is a light in the heart."

"Jesus came not from the heart of the circle of Light to destroy the homes and build upon their ruins the convents and monasteries. He came to make the human heart a temple, the soul an altar, and the mind a priest."

In the book WHISPERS FROM ETERNITY, by Paramahansa Yogananda:

"As I muse on Thee a thrilling fountain spray lightning like spreads from my heart to all cells of my body, saturating them with divine devotion. I seek to enter the inmost heaven of Thy presence.

The soul's secret door suddenly opens; and, oh, what bliss I feel at the sight of Thy light!"

From the Bhagavad Gita

"I am the Spirit seated deep in every creature's heart."

Swami Satchidananda's writings also refer to the heart and really establishes the connection which needs to be made.

"We are each of us like light bulbs. Unless the connection is well made through the heart, we won't draw His current and we won't get enlightenment."

"If you come close to that eternal light, you, too, will catch its fire; ego burns away and you are enlightened. Your individuality disappears, you become one with the whole. You are never separated from God."

In the book INITIATION, by Elisabeth Haich, the arc of the covenant is spoken of.

"The circle which began with his becoming conscious in matter - in the body - the moment he fell from unity, is closed."

"During initiation, the divine creative power will flow through your spinal column, reaching each of your major nerve centers in turn, and you will experience this power as a state of consciousness on each level."

In the book THE P'TAAH TAPES, as channeled by Jani King, it is said very explicitly.

"Why do you think it is that we say to you humanity is dying of a broken heart?"

"Animals and trees - they know who you are. There is no separation. The structure of each of you is exactly the same. We have said to you dear one, the real communication is God-light to God-light. That is from the subatomic particles to the very large organ you hold within you called your heart, and we are speaking of the heart-light, hm?"

Remember, I say that there is only one true communication and that is hydrogen-to-hydrogen.

In the book KRYON - Don't Think like a human, as channeled by L. Carroll, we can find additional confirmation of the Arc of the Covenant.

"The famous ancient Arc had a very similar attribute, and contained a similar energy; It was a traveling temple that held the balance of the entities power of the tribes it traveled with. Humans are now able to carry the entire entity power and enlightenment...and all they have to do is discover it."

The spelling of arc within this quotation. It is not spelled ark, as in a physical chest or ship, but rather is spelled as though it is a sustained luminous discharge of spiritual electromagnetic energy.

"There is a paper thin layer that separates you from the love of Spirit."

How can a paper-thin layer be so powerful as to keep us from our place of unity within the GOD MIND? How can we let a paper-thin layer keep us from this divine right? Well, it has and it is continuing to keep us in the shadows of all that is wondrous and mystical. This paper thin layer keeps us from our divine place within the universal matrix, the web of life.

In an x-ray view of the chest, the heart appears to lie right alongside the spinal column. This placement makes for a perfect Arc of the Covenant connection mechanism.

In the book, WE THE ARCTURIANS, by Dr. Norma J. Milanovich, I would like to provide you with some further information about the heart and, of course, further confirmation of the information which has been provided.

"The question is asked, "Do Arcturians have a heart?"

"Yes, we do have hearts. This is one feature that is consistent with most of the Beings in the universe. The heart holds the answers to the universal keys. It contains the balancing energy of the yin and the yang, or the positive and negative energies. We are of the same kind, when we say that our mission is of the heart. We are of the same origin, when we say that all of our hearts will lead us back to God."

In the book, RETURN OF THE BIRD TRIBES, by Ken Carey, there are several very important passages for our continuing understanding of the importance of the heart center.

"We are here to return your human circuitry to its Creator."

"The rainbow has been given to us as a sign to remind us that we must become tribes living in harmony together on the earth. The rainbow is a half circle that we must complete in our hearts."

"That is where God asks to be trusted - in the human heart. That is where the awakening takes place."

In many ways and books, we have been given the truth about the broken circle, or the electrical circular completion which needs to be made within the heart. Personally, I had never really understood this in its totality until my experience. The sole purpose of this dialogue is to give you prior understanding and encouragement to find the oneness, the Arc of the Covenant, and enlightenment beyond that which I obtained. You can push further to the center of the circle on your first encounter because of your prior knowledge of the mechanism involved.

The responsibility which I received in my heart to share this information has become the whirlwind which is guiding my every moment. The more within the oneness and the center of the circle that I penetrate, the more I become a major part of the universal design for enlightenment. This was not a voluntary responsibility, but one which has become lovingly championed from the moment that I became a vibrating golden thread within the web of life.

As I was writing this first book, "The Understanding Heart," and, of course, the very first writing which was given to me explicitly by "The Unbroken Circle of Truth," I often wondered who the Unbroken Circle of Truth was and what that represented. This is the information given to me for the final chapter of the book on January 18, 1996.

As we come forth from The Unbroken Circle of Truth, we are embracing the new energy spirals which are ascending to those of us who are gathered to welcome you to the brotherhood of man. The question was recently put to this vessel to define who The Unbroken Circle of Truth is for clarification. We had previously given her the answer as follows:

When I had finished the original writing of THE UNBROKEN CIRCLE OF TRUTH, I asked for a name of who had given it to me or what to call it. The answer was literally vibrating in the space around me ~ You will say this is from The Unbroken Circle of Truth where all knowledge exists and where there are no attachments to a personality or an entity.

Within the words thus spoken, you should have gained enough insight that we can further illuminate who The Unbroken Circle of Truth is or is not and what our mission is at this particular time in history.

From the beginning of your planet, we have been gathered as a spiritual unit to insert small pieces of the puzzle for the upliftment of mankind. In each portion of your history, you will find enlightened beings who came to carry one pearl for the enlightenment necklace of mankind. Always, the timeline has been an important part of which pearl was given and at what time.

There has been tremendous responsibility placed on each enlightened being who came to impart their piece of the necklace. Some came fully enlightened, as did the Christ, and some came with only a single glimpse and glimmer of a very large necklace. Always, we have been the center from which they operated. We have been the vehicle of enlightenment on this dense planet.

We are a triune principle of the ONE GOD. We are a unified whole who was given a HOLY COMMAND from the oneness of the GODHEAD to awaken mankind. We were directed to manipulate the corridors of time or whatever else was necessary to ensure that the conclusion was one of individual spiritual mastery and not cataclysm.

We consist of many planetary masters, many angelical messengers and an earth-based command center where the negative earth energies are transmuted to a neutral state.

We do not have one name which we want you to become attached to and we do not have one physical feature which can be worshipped. We were given the task, from the beginning of time, to ascertain the right time and the right human to impart the whole picture to an awakening population. We have given this message to the one writing these words. This information is meant for each person whose heart responds to the words which are contained within this truth.

The vehicle who has brought you this information does not want to be put on a pedestal, any more than do we. Over many years, she has been lifted, initiation-by-initiation, to a center point of knowing her oneness. She was given a spiritual mechanism of personal enlightenment, a key to each person's own divinity and a symbol for the understanding of the veil which you were placed within in order to come to the truth of who you are.

From the moment of her liberation, she has carried a tremendous weight around to get this information out to those people who can blossom from its content. We constantly bombard her with new information and new responsibility to get it to the masses. She knows the struggle of acceptance and feels each rebuff personally. The timeline has been accentuated to her and she knows that the race is on and that mankind must finish this race a winner!

Beautiful visions and experiences were placed within this vessel for her utilization. The words spoken are a tool of mastery, as they are a mechanism of fourth-dimensional frequency. Our energy is contained in every single word and we will activate your memory through each word. We ask you to accept this truth within your heart center. We urge you to come into alignment so that we may personally greet you within the interconnected golden web of life.

Our glory will be complete the day the golden web is completely activated within the Earth dimension. Our expansion will then be, as a group, back to the center, to the sweetness of reunion with the ONE GOD, where we will also await your presence into eternity.

Your planetary neighbors support our mission and, thus, support this vehicle.

Now, we would like to personally salute YOU for being drawn to this information. You, precious brotherhood of man, are about to embark on a journey which has been foretold from the beginning. The excitement which is being generated by this journey of awakening is being felt throughout the web of life. Many are being drawn from the far-off reaches of space to be spectators at this consciousness shift. This spiritual explosion is being felt throughout the cosmos and the glorious dawn must come first with YOU.

Come forward and claim your divine right, come forth and claim your oneness, because your "baptism of light" awaits you within the center of the UNBROKEN CIRCLE OF TRUTH.

A spiral pattern of completion is now activated, a spiral energy vortex of connection which is awaiting your interaction with The Unbroken Circle of Truth.

Spiritual blossom by spiritual blossom the fragrance grows sweeter and we are ready to pick a bouquet of harmonious living colors, a vibrational bouquet of magnificence, which we will present to the prime creator ~ All That IS.

Each blossom within this bouquet carries a unique perfume, yet they all harmonize and become the sweet nectar which glorifies GOD.
