Hard News:

T: all kinds of articles: by Michael Snyder, Robert

Audio: Anonymous – ANONYMOUS Declaration of Freedom Nov 5 2013

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_ZKEXK4ueFY

T: reading: we must unite for a 5th of November - see www.ukanonymousevents.com

- Circle of support around this area of the planet: a situation going on called Cyclone Phalian
 - gusts up to 195 mph; bigger than the size of France!
 - More than 2x size of Hurricane Sandy, it's a CAT 5 & getting bigger, & not scheduled to hit the shore until Saturday
 - There are 600 people / sq km in the area that is to be hit – doing their best to move people!
 - It is going very slow yet this builds up the water and the intensity

R: it is man made:at least, it is being strengthened by the dark ones.

T: worked on it in ways they know how; piggy backed stiff on it; a storm surge of 20' high, will go 12 miles inland

- Moving across the Bay of Bengal to area called Odisha in India

R: talked to Katherine today: no closer yet the rumours are smoke and mirros

- Obama will not negotiate with economic terrorists; Ted Cruz and the bunch are just that!
- The A Care Act is here to stay – get over it! No chips, no terminators at your door looking for guns
- K said we are at critical juncture; there are a few somebodies who can actually pay off the national debt out of their pockets today – one is the Lavendar Lad; and some others – all off world
- K would give R no names, just that they are friends of the L Lad and they are not from here.

T: that is not what they are going to do, though!

R: No. The Repubs want to go over the cliff and nullify the 2012 election; all about Barry Soto: ALL LIES!

- Mr 19.5* is getting it done – stories about him going to a bunker: it is the King's star ship is all Rama can say – has nothing to do with hunkering down and expecting an war
- There will be no Kent State

T: the truckers are mal-informed, and they have a lot of venom – think Democrats have to do, it's all Pres fault – something missing in the brain functions!

T: Nobel Peace prize for 2013 is awarded to the organization which is to eliminate chemical weapons across the planet – and wanting to eliminate nuclear plants as well

Human Rights Watch: the Syrian rebels are funded by US, G Britain and France; they have footage of the weapons provided being used to murder everyone they can: so US has bloodied hands too.

- Constructive talks: no results. OPCW a UN backed organization set up in 1997 to oversee the 1993 agreement
- They have many people on the ground and working around the world

NHK News: went to a place in Japan where there are new style “Share Houses” - 9 families in a building both husband and wife work; kids get input from a wide group; big kids teach the smaller ones; adults are always there as they do shift work.

Audio: Interview with Malalla and Jon Stuart on Oct 9th

Conf Call

Caller1: Gingerich was killed and cloned because of closing down the gov't in 1995 [Nov 1, 1996]

T: Yes

Caller1: Are Ted Cruz, & some of the other Tea Partiers also clones?

R: Lindsay Graham, John McCain – they are skin walkers, lizards, walking in human skin

- Rand Paul? He's a lizard tied in with Aryan ideas, Ku Klux guys -
- They are all lizards ; don't know about Rand or Ron Paul being cloned

T: What people saw on the last night of the last debate: John McCain as a little old man: what was that?

T: Katherine said Ted Cruz completely blew it, but nothing about what will become of him.

- McCain is an hologram; his wife is an android, and an android has been messed with – the basic lizard tradition goes back 13,000 years

- For those who have children and grandchildren: the line keeps on going

- Chelsea is part lizard [from her mother], part hybrid [from her father]

- she does hedge funds, so that is scary!
- She's a total vegan, and her father had to become a vegan to attend the wedding!
- Bill got a quadruple heart bypass a long time ago +/- 2004; he was scared about it – was on Johnny Carson show; becoming a vegan changed his health dramatically.

T: The closer we get to this, the less we hear: no one will talk! Just get a line of stuff: If I tell you, I will have to kill you!!!

- Going to play Dr Greer on Saturday: he went to an undisclosed island and talked to 120 country world leaders at the higher levels who are very invisible - they talked for 3 solid hours about integrating galactic life on earth

- The ones in the limelight today are the minions programmed by them and the minions are scaring them, the invisible ones! .

Caller: Who are the ones who are invisible? Are they Annunaki? Can't remember what he read!

Caller2: why are certain beings that don't belong here still on the planet as the energies are being raised up and the New Earth is here – what's going on?

T: does not work like that. When the energies occur at the higher dimensional levels they are available, but that does not make it so. Those of us who know the energies are available, it is up to us to do something.

Caller2: what about free will?

T: will take exception to “Prime Creator” - Mother Sekhmet is IT!

- As T understands it, these guys don't give a flying f about Mother, they are terrified of her and think they are smarter than her.
- The workings that go along with We the People have to do with KOS and LM Nada –
 - T & R have been part of the operations of the galactics since 1980,
 - What they know is that it all happens at once, and nothing else is going on
- What they hear from the others is that the dark ones have already determined their fate, and the orchestration of how it will play out is all at once, and St G is in charge
- We are in overtime! If anyone knows about patience being tried, we all know about it now!

Caller2: Love them more! Caller gets it that they are getting every chance to come back to love

T: Yet the needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few – and the ones wielding this kind of power and stealing from everyone – this is the final hurrah! Rama has been saying this for too many years!

Caller 2: IT IS ALL GOING TO HAPPEN AT ONCE! What the caller needed/ needs to remember!

T: a lot of us think we have done our part; we need to push ourselves and do more – it is because we stand in love, and we are sitting pretty

- She got quite a message of hope from Malalla – R says she is some kind of ascended master.

Reading: World Bank Whistleblower Reveals How the Global Elite Rule the World [SEE BELOW]

T: how does this fit with what Heidi does?

R: has never asked her, and does not go there; just grateful he gets to talk to her

T: asks R to talk to her about it.

Mother Sekhmet

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant one; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

T: asks at this time for a great change! May it be so that we can be done with the rug rats!

Greetings, Children of Ra!

- Indeed it is time for this to conclude, and that is in the works! The issues at hand – hate is not a family value!
 - The weighty issues of the day have been blurred by the present moment called “Jim Crow is Alive and Well in DC” and the moment is about change
- The ones that represent the filthy rich fat cats from other places, they are feeling the pinch, and their controllers are very much aware that there is a very limited amount of time left; they know she [Mother] is here; it is about the hour, the second.
 - We come as the man said: we show up unannounced, and it is about the issues here – eternal life, and how that is entirely probable, possible with all good things in the moment.
 - They would wish for us [we the people] not to have eternal life, and they are doing anything and everything to create that idea that we are very limited in our movements.
- Yet this is the very beginning of Sat Yuga, the Aquarian Age; peace. Love is the order of the day.
 - the rumblings in the jungle are just that: rumblings. Rest assured that the reable that represent the 1/16 of the 1% hold no power except the power of fear and they are breaking up!

T: Breaking up is hard to do – one group says don't shut down the gov't; the other is saying shut down the gov't!

- These guys are having a fight they never dreamed of! Even the Koch Bros are freaking out as their own Tea Party is going past the bridge that has “no return” written on it.

Mo: this is what has been talked about for the last 26, 826 years, or 520+ years of missing history of Mother Zudiachus. Why is it that Jim Crow is still alive and well, and if you are of colour or from the middle East, you have a target on your back?

- It is about more than 9/11 – it is about the agenda at hand that is failing now. They hold no power except FEAR [false evidence appearing real] and they seem to be doing a fairly decent job of scaring the ones who have been tainted because of the ability of folks who run the media and don't have 2 brain cells to rub together to put out ads on the one eyed monster that say Obama Care? Affordable Care Act? They want to chip you! Be very afraid of the UN coming to get your gun
- The only issue at hand - Mr Ted Cruz, Lindsay Graham, Mr Little Peter – they are the ones who want to take your guns away and declare you enemies of the state until you are not.
- And Mr Little Peter; the rest of this – about the ones who tell the loony toons in Congress how to bend at the knee, they are the ones who pull the puppet strings, yet they hold not a candle to the foreign investors who have the ability to pay the debt today.
 - The moment is in the hour when “Do we go over the cliff:?” She says expect nothing, expect everything, because we are walking on a path that is no path: it is what we make it; we are in uncharted territory that as you create it with your perfect thoughts, therefore it is. It is that place of clear mind, clear heart, the good Red Road we are travelling on is the one we create with perfect thoughts.
- This is how we walk through the valley of Mordor: single pointed like a laser. It is the only way. They want to distract us from the path with anything and everything; that is the place we need to do a few things and do them well and simple joys are holy. “Make me an instrument of thy peace, Lord” - it is simple.
- the needs of the whole of us are the needs, and having the gov't shut down over a temper tantrum about a law that has already been passed has nothing to do with debt crisis, or issues of colour, race or creed.

T: it does – the article she did not finish: leaving 2/3rds of the working class, mothers of colour with children and talks of 24 out of 26 states that are racist with Rep govns and the cruelty of not extending the medicaid program– as the 26 states refuse to extend the medicare system, there are 9 million women of colour with children are the ones without health care

- This is not working in those states: the rates go up high in those states which is what they want because the GOP govns refused to extend the medicaid because the people paying for health care have to pay for the people who are getting medicaid.

Mo: the govns were not lawfully elected in the 26 states – they were rigged! Gerry mandered; voter fraud – economic terrorists - and Little Mr Peter and the rest are a domestic terrorist group called the NRA

T: Mr Little Peter – a family of nazies all the way down!

Mo: send them love, as they have a very short time to continue breathing – that is the word!

T: the same with the secret hierarchy of the Bank of International Settlements – Heidi has said it has been collapsed; the article says otherwise

Mo: there is one thing being said, and another going on!

- Because we are very close – or it is gone: 1st amendment: people are enemies of the state unless proven otherwise.
- This is why Anonymous is saying get out and do what you have to on Nov 5th. They want to go over the cliff, so ever the cliff she goes! Can we walk on water? Can we fly? Of course we can.
- It is about belief in miracles

T: The Supreme Court Opus Dei members pushed through a law that said the Repub govns could refuse at state level to extend the medicaid.

Mo: You don't have a Supreme Court; we have 9 kings that are told what to do by the elder dragons

- The pinnacle of this fiasco called Dominatrix Rule has come to an end; send them more love because it is that they hold no more power and only love changes everything in the moment and is more powerful than any weapon of mass destruction.

T: How long to we have to sit on this?

Mo: It is that they are in the final, final moments of their death throes! It is very much the end cos it can be concluded today, yet there is something about these ones who want to leave with dignity, not lose face – yet they've already lost face.

- You keep asking an a round about way - “When?” The moment is now; send them love on their way out. It began with them when they crash landed on this planet 65 million years ago and changed the destiny, Now it comes to conclusion.

- You are already in Sat Yuga; as you create the magic of what you wish to experience, there you are. Focus on love, focus on the simple joys of being wholly in this moment - as you change your thoughts, reality changes – it is that simple. If you can't get it any other way, change the channel, take a walk.
- What else is there to say? What you focus on, you create. If you want love, focus on love. If you wish to continue playing in that old arena – it is falling away;
 - at the same time, more and more are waking up and changing their thoughts, choosing to work with love, with balance, with joy. At that becomes the prominent focus of attention, the loony clowns in the background are screaming Armeggedon, WW # - they hold no nukes, only the fear card because they are deathly afraid of what we represent: a tsunami.

T: the Tsunami – Rachel had a whale on her program [Tuesday night] – tells the story of the skit they put on [Call me Ishmael]; the whale could pull them into ocean if you keep on hanging on to the harpoon and you could die; Mr Boehner wants to hang on the harpoon so as not to lose face

Mo: they have already made their choice

T: has the story of the church moulded the Islamic religion so they could create the clash of civilizations

Mo: these ones have never wanted us to achieve our ascension;

- the place of where we all are: focus on what is in our midst: we are already achieving the manifestation of who we are as creator gods: focus on this.
- The rest is maya which holds no reality. We would suggest you focus on the simple joys of healing your temple of the living god, not listening to the transmission box telling lies. Turn it off and walk into the glory of Father Sky, Mother Earth.

T: concerned about the masses watching this stuff

- There are a few stations out there: Free Speech; Amy Goodman on PBS;

Mo: Very soon, the FCC will be going on the wayside, and Pirate Cat Radio will come back on line – low powered transmitters that you can broadcast like a radio show; don't need an FCC license – it is entirely probable, possible and as we develop the next Tesla technology we need nothing but the magic of who we are, coming from Creator Source

- We are creator gods : the real broadcast wisdom is US, the creator gods, along with all the rest – yet some want us to forget we are creator gods and that we are lonely little useless eaters with no power. THIS IS THE FARTHEST THING FROM THE TRUTH!
- In this moment, we do not forget! Forgiveness - as you are in the place of infinite compassion and in divine awareness

T: they want us to just let them do it.

Mo: Vengeance does not help the heart heal; we just have to go through another round praise, respect. Love the feelings

T: Vengeance is not what Anonymous is talking about;

- The article she started reading is saying: WE ARE ALLOWING IT. The psychology is the dumbing down of intelligence and
- ANONYMOUS is saying we are going to hold you accountable!

Mo: that is so, and we understand the justifiable anger: what she had seen her wayward children do for the last 26, 826 years is unconscionable – mass ecocide, genocide; war crimes against the people and we have no words except to say: what is it that Malalla said

T: European Parliament Prize for Freedom of Thought, plus 50,000 Euros – Malalla is putting the money into her foundation along with other donations to build schools to educate the kids.

MO: the goddess has arisen; she is the Divine Mother, the divine representation of what Pele, Quan Yin the everlasting patience of a mother for her children: at the same time, ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!

- We may feel that you are sick of this and cannot take anymore:

Yet we are at the beginning of something we have never seen for 26, 826 years
What we are in the midst of is a grand cycle that HAS COME TO AN END!

- She can only speak of such infinite joy, orgasmic beauty about what you are stepping into - no words except to say: 2nd star to the right, and on until morning! And this is not about never Never Land: this is right here!

T: these characters want to override the next stage- completely believe they can override things!

Mo: yet the overwhelming of the next cycle cancels their plans of world domination, and they know it.

- To go to the place of admitting defeat and standing down would be a fate worse than death – to look you in the eye and say “I am sorry” : John MccAin, Lindsay Graham, Grover Lingquist do not have it in their DNA to say I am sorry!

T: Brings up what Malallay say about if she threw a shoe at the Taliban, she would be as bad as them; she saw education as the way out of this.

Mo: what would Jesus say? He would feed them, play with them and he would also say straighten your ass out, Dude, and pay it forward!

- hate is not a family value; Lord Kryon is in the wings with a wrecking crew – earth makes it and all her inhabitants except for this little rough spot in the story line where NESARA gets announced, and we get our freedom. This is where we are at, and we cannot tell you how it happens, but this crisis is part of what needs to occur to awaken the kundilini fire that gets everyone to the place where they say “I am going to make it, and I will make a difference.” Just like Malalla

- This one is an energy of the compassion of Quan Yin, having love for those who would wish her dead.

'We would say that what has been said -

T: demands a planetary response as these ones have no intention of doing anything!

Mo: as your UN fades away and becomes the Justice League of the planet, then the real story will happen and we turn the whole fiasco around to one of joy, abundance, bliss, not one of devastation

- Kadoish, kadoish, kadoish

T: Do a random act of kindness every day.

- 20 seconds in breath, 20 seconds hold the breath, 20 seconds out breath – will clear radiation, chemical poisoning from your system!

R: has been to the Fortress of Solitude. What has been said in the short documentary, it is not about global warming, it is about climate change – as earth is moving into a closer orbit to T: As long as we change our ways: otherwise it is about global havoc!

R: Superman is here!

- What he keeps being told is that as we get to the end of our rope with all we are watching now –
 - he keeps hearing, take a break, turn it off; do a walking meditation and clear the mind, clear the heart! Best way to get centered!

T: in the mood for a big change, and not so much “sooning it” any more

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2013, Oct 6 World Bank Whistleblower Reveals How The Global Elite Rule The World

By Michael Snyder

Global Research, October 06, 2013

Url of this article:

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/world-bank-whistleblower-reveals-how-the-global-elite-rule-the-world/5353130>

Karen Hudes is a graduate of Yale Law School and she worked in the legal department of the World Bank for more than 20 years. In fact, when she was fired for blowing the whistle on corruption inside the World Bank, she held the position of Senior Counsel.

She was in a unique position to see exactly how the global elite rule the world, and the information that she is now revealing to the public is absolutely stunning. According to Hudes, the elite use a very tight core of financial institutions and mega-corporations to dominate the planet.

The goal is control. They want all of us enslaved to debt, they want all of our governments enslaved to debt, and they want all of our politicians addicted to the huge financial contributions that they funnel into their campaigns. Since the elite also own all of the big media companies, the mainstream media never lets us in on the secret that there is something fundamentally wrong with the way that our system works.

Remember, this is not some “conspiracy theorist” that is saying these things. This is a Yale-educated attorney that worked inside the World Bank for more than two decades. The following summary of her credentials comes directly from her website...

Karen Hudes studied law at Yale Law School and economics at the University of Amsterdam. She worked in the US Export Import Bank of the US from 1980-1985 and in the Legal Department of the World Bank from 1986-2007. She established the Non Governmental Organization Committee of the International Law Section of the American Bar Association and the Committee on Multilateralism and the Accountability of International Organizations of the American Branch of the International Law Association.

Today, Hudes is trying very hard to expose the corrupt financial system that the global elite are using to control the wealth of the world. During an interview with the New American, she discussed how we are willingly allowing this group of elitists to totally dominate the resources of the planet...

A former insider at the World Bank, ex-Senior Counsel Karen Hudes, says the global financial system is dominated by a small group of corrupt, power-hungry figures centered around the privately owned U.S. Federal Reserve. The network has seized control of the media to cover up its crimes, too, she explained. In an interview with The New American, Hudes said that when she tried to blow the whistle on multiple problems at the World Bank, she was fired for her efforts. Now, along with a network of fellow whistleblowers, Hudes is determined to expose and end the corruption. And she is confident of success.

Citing an explosive 2011 Swiss study published in the PLOS ONE journal on the “network of global corporate control,” Hudes pointed out that a small group of entities — mostly financial institutions and especially central banks — exert a massive amount of influence over the international economy from behind the scenes. “What is really going on is that the world’s resources are being dominated by this group,” she explained, adding that the “corrupt power grabbers” have managed to dominate the media as well. “They’re being allowed to do it.”

Previously, I have written about the Swiss study that Hudes mentioned. It was conducted by a team of researchers at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, Switzerland. They studied the relationships between 37 million companies and investors worldwide, and what they discovered is that there is a “super-entity” of just 147 very tightly knit mega-corporations that controls 40 percent of the entire global economy...

When the team further untangled the web of ownership, it found much of it tracked back to a “super-entity” of 147 even more tightly knit companies – all of their ownership was held by other members of the super-entity – that controlled 40 per cent of the total wealth in the network. “In effect, less than 1 per cent of the companies were able to control 40 per cent of the entire network,” says Glattfelder. Most were financial institutions. The top 20 included Barclays Bank, JPMorgan Chase & Co, and The Goldman Sachs Group.

But the global elite don’t just control these mega-corporations. According to Hudes, they also dominate the unelected, unaccountable organizations that control the finances of virtually every nation on the face of the planet. The World Bank, the IMF and central banks such as the Federal Reserve literally control the creation and the flow of money worldwide.

At the apex of this system is the Bank for International Settlements. It is the central bank of central banks, and posted below is a video where you can watch Hudes tell Greg Hunter of USAWatchdog.com the following...

“We don’t have to wait for anybody to fire the Fed or Bank for International Settlements . . . some states have already started to recognize silver and gold, the precious metals, as currency”

Most people have never even heard of the Bank for International Settlements, but it is an extremely important organization. In a previous article, I described how this “central bank of the world” is literally immune to the laws of all national governments...

An immensely powerful international organization that most people have never even heard of secretly controls the money supply of the entire globe. It is called the Bank for International Settlements, and it is the central bank of central banks. It is located in Basel, Switzerland, but it also has branches in Hong Kong and Mexico City. It is essentially an unelected, unaccountable central bank of the world that has complete immunity from taxation and from national laws. Even Wikipedia admits that “it is not accountable to any single national government.” The Bank for International Settlements was used to launder money for the Nazis during World War II, but these days the main purpose of the BIS is to guide and direct the centrally-planned global financial system. Today, 58 global central banks belong to the BIS, and it has far more power over how the U.S. economy (or any other economy for that matter) will perform over the course of the next year than any politician does. Every two months, the central bankers of the world gather in Basel for another “Global Economy Meeting”. During those meetings, decisions are made which affect every man, woman and child on the planet, and yet none of us have any say in what goes on. The Bank for International Settlements is an organization that was founded by the global elite and it operates for the benefit of the global elite, and it is intended to be one of the key cornerstones of the emerging one world economic system.

This system did not come into being by accident. In fact, the global elite have been developing this system for a very long time. In a previous article entitled “Who Runs The World? Solid Proof That A Core Group Of Wealthy Elitists Is Pulling The Strings“, I included a quote from Georgetown University history professor Carroll Quigley from a book that he authored all the way back in 1966 in which he discussed the big plans that the elite had for the Bank for International Settlements...

[T]he powers of financial capitalism had another far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was to be the Bank for International Settlements in Basle, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the world’s central banks which were themselves private corporations.

And that is exactly what we have today.

We have a system of “neo-feudalism” in which all of us and our national governments are enslaved to debt. This system is governed by the central banks and by the Bank for International Settlements, and it systematically transfers the wealth of the world out of our hands and into the hands of the global elite.

But most people have no idea that any of this is happening because the global elite also control what we see, hear and think about. Today, there are just six giant media corporations that control more than 90 percent of the news and entertainment that you watch on your television in the United States.

This is the insidious system that Karen Hudes is seeking to expose. For much more, you can listen to Joyce Riley of the Power Hour interview her for an entire hour right here.

2013, Feb 5 Who Controls The Money? An Unelected, Unaccountable Central Bank Of The World Secretly Does

 By Michael Snyder

An immensely powerful international organization that most people have never even heard of secretly controls the money supply of the entire globe. It is called the Bank for International Settlements, and it is the central bank of central banks. It is located in Basel, Switzerland, but it also has branches in Hong Kong and Mexico City. It is essentially an unelected, unaccountable central bank of the world that has complete immunity from taxation and from national laws. Even Wikipedia admits that "it is not accountable to any single national government." The Bank for International Settlements was used to launder money for the Nazis during World War II, but these days the main purpose of the BIS is to guide and direct the centrally-planned global financial system. Today, 58 global central banks belong to the BIS, and it has far more power over how the U.S. economy (or any other economy for that matter) will perform over the course of the next year than any politician does. Every two months, the central bankers of the world gather in Basel for another "Global Economy Meeting". During those meetings, decisions are made which affect every man, woman and child on the planet, and yet none of us have any say in what goes on. The Bank for International Settlements is an organization that was founded by the global elite and it operates for the benefit of the global elite, and it is intended to be one of the key cornerstones of the emerging one world economic system. It is imperative that we get people educated about what this organization is and where it plans to take the global economy.

Sadly, only a very small percentage of people actually know what the Bank for International Settlements is, and even fewer people are aware of the Global Economy Meetings that take place in Basel on a bi-monthly basis.

These Global Economy Meetings were discussed in a recent article in the Wall Street Journal...

Every two months, more than a dozen bankers meet here on Sunday evenings to talk and dine on the 18th floor of a cylindrical building looking out on the Rhine.

The dinner discussions on money and economics are more than academic. At the table are the chiefs of the world's biggest central banks, representing countries that annually produce more than $51 trillion of gross domestic product, three-quarters of the world's economic output.

The article goes on to describe the room that these Global Economy Meetings are held in. It sounds like something out of a novel...

The Bank of England's Mr. King leads the dinner discussions in a room decorated by the Swiss architectural firm Herzog & de Meuron, which designed the "Bird's Nest" stadium for the Beijing Olympics. The men have designated seats at a round table in a dining area scented by white orchids and framed by white walls, a black ceiling and panoramic views.

The central bankers that gather for these meetings are not there just to socialize. No staff members are allowed into these meetings, and they are conducted in an atmosphere of absolute secrecy...

Serious matters follow appetizers, wine and small talk, according to people familiar with the dinners. Mr. King typically asks his colleagues to talk about the outlook in their respective countries. Others ask follow-up questions. The gatherings yield no transcripts or minutes. No staff is allowed.

So the fate of the world economy is determined by unelected central bankers in secret meetings that nobody ever hears about?

That certainly does not sound very "democratic".

But this is the direction that "global governance" is taking us. The elite believe that the "big decisions" are far too important to be left "to the people", and so most of the "international institutions" that have been established by the elite operate independently of the democratic process.

Sadly, the truth is that all of this has been planned for a very long time.

In a recent article entitled "Who Runs The World? Solid Proof That A Core Group Of Wealthy Elitists Is Pulling The Strings", I included a quote from Georgetown University history professor Carroll Quigley from a book that he wrote all the way back in 1966 in which he discussed the big plans that the elite had for the Bank for International Settlements...

[T]he powers of financial capitalism had another far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was to be the Bank for International Settlements in Basle, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the world's central banks which were themselves private corporations.

Back then, the Bank for International Settlements was only just starting to play a major role in global affairs. But over the years the BIS began to become increasingly important. The following is an excerpt from an article by Ellen Brown...

For many years the BIS kept a very low profile, operating behind the scenes in an abandoned hotel. It was here that decisions were reached to devalue or defend currencies, fix the price of gold, regulate offshore banking, and raise or lower short-term interest rates. In 1977, however, the BIS gave up its anonymity in exchange for more efficient headquarters. The new building has been described as "an eighteen story-high circular skyscraper that rises above the medieval city like some misplaced nuclear reactor." It quickly became known as the "Tower of Basel." Today the BIS has governmental immunity, pays no taxes, and has its own private police force. It is, as Mayer Rothschild envisioned, above the law.

Yes, it most definitely does bear a striking resemblance to the Tower of Babel as you can see from the photo in this article. Once again the global elite are trying to unite humanity under a single system, and that is most definitely not a good thing.

But many of these elitists are entirely convinced that "global governance" is what humanity desperately needs. They even publicly tell us what they plan to do, but most people are not listening.

For example, the following is an excerpt from a speech that former president of the European Central Bank Jean-Claude Trichet delivered to the Council On Foreign Relations in New York...

In the area of central bank cooperation, the main forum is the Global Economy Meeting (GEM), which gathers at the BIS headquarters in Basel. Over the past few years, this forum has included 31 governors as permanent members plus a number of other governors attending on a rotating basis. The GEM, in which all systemic emerging economies' Central Bank governors are fully participating, has become the prime group for global governance among central banks.

The speech was entitled "Global Governance Today", and you can find the full transcript right here. But most people have never even heard that such a thing as a "Global Economy Meeting" even exists because the mainstream media rarely discusses these sorts of things. They are too busy focusing on the latest celebrity scandal or the latest cat fights between the Republicans and the Democrats.

If you go to the official BIS website, the purposes of the organization sound fairly innocent and quite boring...

The mission of the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) is to serve central banks in their pursuit of monetary and financial stability, to foster international cooperation in those areas and to act as a bank for central banks.

In broad outline, the BIS pursues its mission by:

- promoting discussion and facilitating collaboration among central banks;
- supporting dialogue with other authorities that are responsible for promoting financial stability;
- conducting research on policy issues confronting central banks and financial supervisory authorities;
- acting as a prime counterparty for central banks in their financial transactions; and
- serving as an agent or trustee in connection with international financial operations.

The head office is in Basel, Switzerland and there are two representative offices: in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China and in Mexico City.

But when you start looking into the details, things get much more interesting.

So exactly how does the BIS achieve "monetary and financial stability"? An article posted on investorsinsight.com described how this is accomplished...

It accomplishes this through control of currencies. It currently holds 7% of the world's available foreign exchange funds, whose unit of account was switched in March of 2003 from the Swiss gold franc to Special Drawing Rights (SDR), an artificial fiat "money" with a value based on a basket of currencies (44% U.S. dollar, 34% euro, 11% Japanese yen, 11% pound sterling).

The bank also controls a huge amount of gold, which it both stores and lends out, giving it great leverage over the metal's price and the marketplace power that brings, since gold is still the only universal currency. BIS gold reserves were listed on its 2005 annual report (the most recent) as 712 tons. How that breaks down into member banks' deposits and the BIS personal stash is unknown.

By controlling foreign exchange currency, plus gold, the BIS can go a long way toward determining the economic conditions in any given country. Remember that the next time Ben Bernanke or European Central Bank President Jean-Claude Trichet announces an interest rate hike. You can bet it didn't happen without the concurrence of the BIS Board.

In recent years, it has become increasingly obvious who really has power over our economy.

When Barack Obama speaks, the markets usually move very little.

When Ben Bernanke speaks, the markets often respond with wild gyrations.

A recent CNBC article entitled "Central Banks: How They Are Ruling the Financial World" detailed the enormous impact that central banks had on the global financial system during 2012...

In all, 13 other central banks in the world have followed the Fed's lead and set interest rates at or near zero in an effort to keep the liquidity spigots open and prop up their ailing economies. Those 14 economies represent a staggering $65 trillion in combined equity and bond market capitalizations, according to Bank of America Merrill Lynch.

Later on in that same article, the author discussed the enormous amounts of money that global central banks were creating out of thin air..

"When you add up all the central banks in the world, it's going to be over $9 trillion," said Marc Doss, regional chief investment officer for Wells Fargo Private Bank. "That's like creating the second-largest economy in the world out of thin air."

Indeed, central banking has become an economy unto itself, a multi-trillion-dollar empire that massages and manipulates markets, which respond to the slightest news out of the respective entities' policy making committees.

So who controls the money?

The central banks of the world do.

And who controls those central banks?

The Bank for International Settlements does.

If we don't like what the Bank for International Settlements is doing, can we do anything about it?

Nope. The Bank for International Settlements is above the law...

Maybe we'd feel better about the BIS if it were more transparent, but most everything about it, including its bi-monthly member and board meetings, is shrouded in secrecy. And perhaps more worrisome is that the BIS is free from oversight. By rights granted under its agreement with the Swiss Federal Council, all of the bank's archives, documents and "any data media" are "inviolable at all times and in all places." Furthermore, officers and employees of BIS "enjoy immunity from criminal and administrative jurisdiction, save to the extent that such immunity is formally waived . . . even after such persons have ceased to be Officials of the Bank." Finally, no claims against BIS or its deposits may be enforced "without the prior agreement of the Bank."

In other words they can do whatever they want, without consequences. How's that for a leak-proof legal umbrella?

If the BIS wants to "intervene" in the financial markets, they simply just do it.

If the BIS wants to bail out big banks or even entire nations, they simply just do it.

The BIS reminds me of this old joke...

Q: Where does an 800 pound gorilla sit?

A: Anywhere it wants to.

So what is next for the Bank for International Settlements?

Well, many have speculated that eventually the goal is to have just a single global currency which will be administered by a single global central bank. The BIS is already using Special Drawing Rights (SDRs), which are considered to be a precursor to the coming global currency. The BIS played a big role in the adoption of the euro, and more currency integration is almost certainly on the way in future years...

But in the end, how you feel about the BIS may come down to how you feel about a one-world currency. The bank was a major player promoting the adoption of the euro as Europe's common currency. There are rumors that its next project is persuading the U.S., Canada and Mexico to switch to a similar regional money, perhaps to be called the "amero," and it's logical to assume the bank's ultimate goal is a single world currency. That would simplify transactions and really solidify the bank's control of the planetary economy.

But if the United States ever did give up the U.S. dollar, it would be a massive blow to our national sovereignty. When someone else controls your money, it doesn't really matter that much who makes the laws.

Unfortunately, the global elite seem absolutely obsessed with the idea of a global currency, a one world economic system and a global government.

None of those things will happen this year, but that is where we are moving. With each new crisis that arises, the solutions that we will be given will always involve more centralization and more globalization.

So what do you think about all of this?

2013, Oct 8 Racism and Cruelty Drive GOP Health Care Agenda

By Robert Scheer (about the author) Source: Truthdig

http://www.opednews.com/articles/Racism-and-Cruelty-Drive-G-by-Robert-Scheer-Hate_Health_Health-Care-Legislation_Politics-131008-531.html

Before he was disgraced into resigning his presidency over the Watergate burglary scandal, Richard Nixon had successfully engineered an even more odious plot known as his Southern Strategy. The trick was devilishly simple: Appeal to the persistent racist inclination of Southern whites by abandoning the Republican Party's historic association with civil rights and demonizing the black victims of the South's history of segregation

That same divisive strategy is at work in the Republican rejection of the Affordable Care Act. GOP governors are largely in control of the 26 states, including all but Arkansas in the South, that have refused to implement the act's provision for an expansion of Medicaid to cover the millions of American working poor who earn too much to qualify for the program now. A New York Times analysis of census data concludes that as a result of the Republican governors' resistance, "A sweeping national effort to extend health coverage to millions of Americans will leave out two-thirds of the poor blacks and single mothers and more than half of the low-wage workers who do not have insurance, the very kinds of people that the program was intended to help. ..."

Why anyone who claims to be pro-life would want to deny health care to single mothers is an enduring mystery in the morally mischievous ethos of the Republican Party. But the exclusion of a working poor population that skews disproportionately black in the South is simply a continuation of the divide-and-conquer politics that have informed Republican strategy since Nixon.

The game plan of gutting the Affordable Care Act despite its passage into law and before its positive outcomes are demonstrated can be traced to a "blueprint to defunding Obamacare" initialed by the GOP conservative leadership under the aegis of Heritage Action for America. Ironically that is the political front of the Heritage Foundation, the leading GOP think tank that is credited by some architects of Obamacare as the initial inspiration of their health care program. The difference is that whereas the Heritage Foundation was pushing a mild health care reform based on increased profit for private insurers, as in the plan Mitt Romney introduced in Massachusetts, the Republicans object to the provisions in this president's program that broaden access for the needy.

They were abetted in this decision by a Supreme Court ruling last year granting the states the option of not expanding Medicaid to cover the uninsured under the new act. As a consequence, 8 million of our fellow Americans with annual incomes of less than $19,530 for a family of three have been prevented from obtaining the health care coverage that we as a nation decided to grant them.

It might seem odd for governors to reject a program to help those living in their state that is fully funded by the federal government for the first few years and then 90 percent covered by the feds thereafter. But turning down a federal program to aid your own state's population makes perfect sense when connected with the racist appeal initiated by Nixon that has turned the once Democratic South into a rock solid Republican bastion. There are certainly many whites among the 435,000 cashiers, 341,000 cooks and 253,000 nurses aides who the Times estimated will be denied needed health care in the states controlled by Republican governors who have decided to veto the most important provision of the Affordable Care Act.

In the end, this is a replay of the civil rights drama that gripped the nation more than half a century ago, but back then the Republican Party, following the enlightened leadership of Dwight Eisenhower, was on the humanitarian side of the equation. Now the elected leaders of a party that has been on the side of emancipation since the presidency of Abraham Lincoln acts to deny the basic human right to life-sustaining health care to the Southern progeny of slaves. As the Times study noted: "In all, 6 out of 10 blacks live in the states not expanding Medicaid. In Mississippi, 56 percent of all poor and uninsured adults are black, though they account for just 38 percent of the population."

But that also means that almost 44 percent of the poor and uninsured in Mississippi are white, and the gutting of this program that hurts them is evidence of the false consciousness that informs racist appeals. As the Times points out, someone, black or white, making $11,000 a year frying chicken in a convenience store falls into the gap of making too much to qualify for the state's existing Medicaid program but not enough to be subsidized under the new health care plan as the state defines it.

For those who lose out, there's what the Republican die-hards call tough love. That's not love. It's hate.

Permian–Triassic extinction event

The Permian–Triassic (P–Tr) extinction event, informally known as the Great Dying,^[2] was an extinction event that occurred 252.28 Ma (million years) ago,^[3] forming the boundary between the Permian and Triassic geologic periods, as well as the Paleozoic and Mesozoic eras. It is the Earth's most severe known extinction event, with up to 96% of all marine species^[4] and 70% of terrestrial vertebrate species becoming extinct.^[5] It is the only known mass extinction of insects.^[6]^[7] Some 57% of all families and 83% of all genera became extinct. Because so much biodiversity was lost, the recovery of life on Earth took significantly longer than after any other extinction event,^[4] possibly up to 10 million years.^[8]

Researchers have variously suggested that there were from one to three distinct pulses, or phases, of extinction.^{[5][9][10][11]} There are several proposed mechanisms for the extinctions; the earlier phase was probably due to gradual environmental change, while the latter phase has been argued to be due to a catastrophic event. Suggested mechanisms for the latter include large or multiple bolide impact events, increased volcanism, coal/gas fires and explosions from the Siberian Traps,^[12] and sudden release of methane clathrate from the sea floor; gradual changes include sea-level change, anoxia, increasing aridity, and a shift in ocean circulation driven by climate change.
