Hard News

Ed Schultz Radio Show: Mike Papantonio was host; guests - David Korn, Ed showed up, bobby Kennedy Jr.

- Talked of the last 13,000 years, the grand cycle, coming to a conclusion
  - nice to hear this from a completely different source!
- Time for our brothers and sisters to come and finish the story: the missing link
- talked of the Annunaki who fell from grace - the Elohim; the Annunaki who did not fall from grace are Elohigh
- The physicality of them is in the giant skeletons found in Saudi Arabia: the brain cavities could only house life forms that were 25', 50' tall!
- Angels have appeared to people, and they are 500' or 1/2 mile tall – part of who we all are
- Told story of Gilgamesh and Inkido, a wild man who lived in a forest outside the city; G had to fight him and conquered him & became his friend; took Inkido into the city – more like abducted him!
  - talked of the laboratories which were gleaming, with doors that opened as you approached them
  - the ancient cities in the Mesopotamian area were something out of the Federation; cool to hear this.
- They got to the last part of the story where we are now, and the “idea we are at end times”
  - It is only the end time of this grand cycle, & serendipity is the answer: the Lavendar Lad and our brothers and sisters are coming in now, here & we have made it;
  - theothers are still going through WW 3 in their own beings; thinking of war, creating that within themselves.

- Talked of the break down of Congress & the multi national death corporations who buy lobbyists at $5000 each
  - heard of a hedge fund – put $5,000 down and go into the silver market in the Forex;
  - for $5000, you get 5 oz of 99.99% pure silver in the form of a polar bear to help save them; they are disappearing as the ice caps disappear – R is sure they are being taken up on the ships.
- R hacked his own phone with Tor [the way to make yourself private on the net; also did a few other things]
  - called KOS & it looked like he was calling from Denmark; KOS answered in perfect Danish! R was demanding to know what was going on on the planet! KOS started laughing!
  - KOS said we are at the end moments: India just launched a mission to Mars; Russia, China, India, and the US are having secret discussions about a joint manned mission joint to Mars! This brings in the White Paper that Richard Hoagland talked about: the Sirian Commander
  - Anytime now, he will be bringing in the story in some kind of a town hall meeting and will introduce the structures on Mars, and the pyramids on Mars that line up with the ones in Giza Plateau and the stars in Orion's Belt
  - This brings in Iran: they have 12 nukes which are disarmed – everyone knows all nukes are disarmed but they cannot talk about it. - it's a shell game
  - Has to do with the proper protocols for greeting the galactics
- Asked KOS about Ben Fulford's story about the nuclear subs around the planet:
  - He said there are things going on we would not believe that are right out of – the gods are here, and we are them, and they are us!! Any time now we will see Valiant Thor, Thor and other folks just show up and fit the part for the moment; it is the ending of the Grand Cycle – the only things the cabal and the 13 families can do is surrender in loving presence.
- The invasion and occupation that goes back 65 MILLION YEARS and involves all of us in this story that has brought here genetic manipulation, cloning, splicing, DNA – the Annunaki were perfectionists.
  - After Atlantis, people were mutated on the planet after the nuclear winter, and some of the carbon dating and other things that have been discovered have shown the mutations of bones and organs; they found substances and things that correspond to what is going on in Fukushima and other things floating in the atmosphere.
- Mike P talked about KFC , McDonalds & Burger King – if you put a chicken McNugget under a high powered electronic microscope, you will see the fibres of Morgellans virus and the other technologies that are put in the “chicken” nuggets which have been put in upset our DNA and turn our young men and women people into killing machines – this has been going on for 13,000 years.
- When Angela Merkel tells the story of her daddy: it is about the fact that an ancient proud race came here without galactic permission which is a big deal, this changes the course of how things are brought in
  - the bible is a pack of lies and it was twisted so we would not wake up and know we are equal to the Thor and all the other gods of Mt Olympus, Ascended Master St Germain and all the others.
  - We are the rescue team – this is the way the folks were talking.

Al Jazeera's America Tonight: Joey Chen hour –

- Pulled out of the archives, a 1933 Neil Vanderbilt film in which he tried to warn the world of a serious threat; Hitler addressed an audience and Neil tried to warn the world of what he saw as a serious threat
- in the 1.5 hours in which Hitler talked to a packed audience: said he was “ as effective as a barking dog in a side show”; Vanderbilt set out to do his own exposé of what was going on.
the German people have suffered for so long that they were ready to accept the promise of anyone who offered some hope for the future even if it was Hitler

T: this is getting people ready to listen to what Angela Merkel is going to talk about.

- Sarah Palin's new book – how god has told her she's gotta become next for president of USA
- Tom Ridge of the Bush administration, head of Homeland Gestapo, is going to throw his hat in to the 2016 race!
- From the Fulford report last night - which is true: Barack Obama told Netanyahu after he bombed 2 places in Syria not to expect the US to back him up on any of your military adventures ever again a big deal!

- T: going to talk about mile & one half tall structures on the moon, and that nobody here knows how to build such things.
- Natasha, Dodi, Di only talk to Rama when there is something to say:
  - T had wanted to know what Nesara website was being discussed last night, as there was only one where the info comes from Faction 3, and that is Rainbow Rose.
    - Someone else called up and said there is a website www.midnightthinktank.com
    - it is all F1 & F 2, hodge podge of stuff - most of these folks do not like Barack Obama even though they say they are lighworkers!
    - They are Faction 2 at best, and F 1 behind the programming that is going out behind that energy
  - For Abby Martin to be taken off the air and Larry King showing up in her time slot!
    - this shows these ones are terrified and are doing nothing for good;
    - also the idea of shutting down the grid on the 11th won't happen & the shutting down of the gov't in October was about delaying NESARA stuff, delaying energies that need to move forward
    - the sabotaging of healthcare.gov by the coders was done by Republicans – same idea about trying to delay things
  - We have to get our facts straight and to be able to discern even with so-called Lightworker reports: the energy that comes through a document or any process or being is only as high as the evolution of the soul at the heart level giving the information
  - There IS NO CLONING OF BARACK OBAMA; that is Black Ops information!!!
It is stunning that so many people are saying this kind of thing – send them more love for doing this.

- From Al Jazeera: Consider This – example of a woman in Atlanta who lived in a tiny place, had 3 children, took 2.5 hours to get to work; got kids up at 5:30 am, how she had them ready for school and on the bus by 6:25 am, then she took a bus, 2 trains, and a bus for work by 9 am, and then reverse the process; applied for health care $70 a month and with the subsidy only $1.01 a month. Expect miracles!
- Brings up the story of Sally Kohn who was on Chris Hayes and her story of getting health care

KOS: we are at the zero nuke point; the market adjustment is coming

- Mr Christie – going to go to jail! The Red Cross is fraudulent!
  - when Romney was running & said he was donating to Red Cross for Sandy Hook– none of it got there!
  - Mike Papantonio on the Ed show was telling the story of a lady who was sneaking into her house to sleep at night, even though the national guard was in the Rockaways – her house & others are condemned and she and others are getting no help!

- William E Cameron Was gov in 1885; made history because his time in the State House was the last time that any party in VA held the governorship for one term only.
- In terms of party politics, the republicans losing the governship is historic: McDonald giving up the position after one term is also historic – VA has been careful to elect a gov who is opposite to the pres – it has been 36 years since this has happened.
- republicans like to think it has a structural advantage
- Phil updates the project in Trinity Point, Virginia www.trinitypointproject.com

Mother Sekhmet:

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One. In the office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

- We ask for the angels of computers and sound equipment, of sound, light and vibration to help – needs technical assistance! [Tara]

Alcyone came through first; Mother later

- The energies are at such a high frequency that maybe things are a bit wonky with what's coming through with the solar flares along with everything else; it is about the frequencies that are pouring at this time.
- It is at this time that we can say that all we have been watching has everything to do with the moment of completing this circle/cycle of frequencies. Everything has already happened.
  - All that is unlike love is on the table to be healed – all in the moment. The frequencies are such that we have to dance between the particles to get to the next moment.
- Don't know what to say about Mr Bill - yet the story has to be brought into focus which has to do with the expansion is our awareness to the frequencies that are pouring in at such a magnificent rate that they are changing the dimensions, your reality, the nature of our matter.
- The particles have a mind of their own; what is occurring here is such a frequency shift at this time, place- the synchronicity of the last 13,000 year is just a momentary flash of light and all has changed. All that is happening here has to do with that momentary shift;
- This is the time, the place; we have the answers of how to do this with only love. The ones that are playing with & tweaking the systems are simply in the moment, a temporary distraction at best.
- Let it be in the moment. All of it is simply about love and how we best deal with the uniqueness of the moment as our children have already made their decision. Let them be at peace with their fate, wherever that may be. It is their choice; they have a right to it; it is the Dark Rift, that is their fate and we will hear about the trail of entrails that goes back 13,000 years.
- They are at the final conclusion; the next step is that the Sirian Commander will do what he knows to be the right way of how to convey the message to the world; it is simply in the moment only about love.
  - Lord make me an instrument of thy peace; let me sow love where there is such hate for the moment of a momentary lapse of reason simply because they kinetically bred love out of their system
  - What is pouring into this planet is such magnificent, radiant, orgasmic ecstatic joy, they cannot stand it and that is why we have already achieved on the other side how to take the next step;
  - as we watch our thoughts, our actions, our deeds – keep the tongue pure, the thoughts and we live in that ecstasy:
- we are already in a time as we think it, we already are; it already is. This is how we create a new world: it is simply that what we think, it is.

T: Mother what do you think when Rama played his trick on the King and got him to answer the phone: she wants more on the tone

Mo: KOS is upbeat that we are in the final seconds; we mean nano seconds: we cannot go any further.

- As we heard Karen Hudes speaking – how can we continue with these atrocities of lies that have to do with 15,761 points that are not backed by gold: where is the gold backing it up? In St G's hip pocket

T: they have been selling gold like crazy to India, China and other Asian places

Mo: it is a drop in the ocean: St Germain has the rest of what is needed to change the rest of the story

- How we do this is the key – no one will talk about it; it just is; we will just see it. Cannot say more.
- Simply, we are visitors from your future, which is our past – we cannot reveal what is about to change time lines that have already been changed and what this man does with the uniqueness of the moment
- It is most unique, a precarious situation the world sits in; we are on the brink of ascension which is assured
- What we put our attention on is where the energy flows – so focus on the higher wisdom and peace and joy and ecstatic happiness and orgasmic love that will heal the devastation of Mordor – Earth Mother is moving it up & there ain't no stopping it; we are moving it up so you better move up with it. That's how it is.

T: How completely unlike the heart energy it all is; it has gone to such an extent to see the suffering
Mo: Samsara is over: suffering is optional; has to do with the lingering moments: as the whole of us get it, we change it for everyone. And that is the moment now.
• Next step: off the cliff

BILL'S BLOG

The New South

November 8, 2013

By Bill Maher

While the election in Virginia was close, Terry McAuliffe managed to eke out a victory over Ken Cuccinelli. The old joke in this race was that both parties nominated the only guy the other party could beat. Both have high unfavorable. But the interesting thing is, according to pre-election polling, McAuliffe was destroying Cuccinelli among people who disliked both candidates. Why? Because McAuliffe ran pretty unabashedly as a social liberal, while Cuccinelli is an extreme social conservative who women hate because of his "traditional" views on contraception, abortion, and gay rights.

You can still win in the Old South being that kind of asshole, but you're never going to win in the New South – Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida, with even Georgia moving in that direction, too. What must be really scary for the Right is that, after Texas, these are the biggest Southern states.

Another recent poll shows that more Republicans (43%) think students should be able to wear a confederate flag to school than a gay pride flag (28%). This is the sort of thing that always looked bad in the North, but it's also starting to look bad in the only places in the South anyone wants to move to. Isn't the jig up for the GOP when the civil war isn't between North and South, but Old South and New South?

This also ties in with the Employment Non-Discrimination Act managing to get a tiny minority of Republican votes. Really? In 2013?

Another interesting thing is this race: McAuliffe has an “F” rating from the NRA and touted his support for background checks and an assault weapons ban. The NRA threw money at him. I’m sure it won’t get much coverage because it disrupts the media’s “NRA is all-powerful” storyline, but it does show that the NRA can be beaten.

We discuss burning matches at stall speed as the US is now producing as much new debt as goods and services and the rate of currency dilution exceeds the rate of production growth. And what happens when an Empire hits ‘stall speed?’ They plunder and steal from workers and savers through inflation; or through the NSA ‘surveillance.’ In the second half, Max interviews Wolf Richter of TestosteronePit.com about the ongoing and escalating economic fallout from the NSA spying scandal.

Closing: Rainbird.

The White House celebrated Diwali by lighting the White House diya, as Michelle Obama addressed the gathering in the Blue Room. This marks the fifth time that the Obamas have celebrated Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights.

The First Lady chatted conversationally then took a more solemn tone:

As you may know, we've celebrated this holiday here at the White House every year since Barack took office. And there's a reason why we've done that, and I mentioned it to the kids -- when we say that we want to make the White House the "people's house," we mean all people. We mean that we want to honor and embrace all of the many cultures and faith traditions that make us who we are as Americans. And Diwali is very much one of those traditions.

But Diwali is also a time for contemplation and reflection. It's a time for us to think about our obligations to our fellow human beings, particularly those who are less fortunate than we are. And as we light the diya -- the lamp -- we recommit ourselves to the triumph of light over darkness, of good over evil.

But as we gather here this Diwali, we remember that there is still evil in the world. And I'm thinking today about what happened in Oak Creek, Wisconsin just last year when an act of unthinkable violence shook a community to its core. But I am also thinking of how in the face of such evil, we also witnessed the power of goodness and forgiveness.

The families and community leaders I met when I visited Oak Creek just weeks after the tragedy, they showed us such courage and grace. Instead of giving in to bitterness or despair, they honored those they lost through service. They honored those they lost through educating others about their faith and standing up to prejudice in whatever form it takes. I'm also thinking of all the people across America and around the world who held prayer vigils during that time and sent messages of love and support, and held the people of Oak Creek in their hearts.

And I am so proud and so honored to be celebrating this beautiful holiday at the White House with all of you. I want to thank you for everything that you do for our communities and for this country. And I wish you all and all your loved ones a Happy Diwali and Saal Mubarak. (Applause.)

And with that, we will now light the White House Diya.

The President earlier made a statement about Diwali:

For the Hindus, Jains, Sikhs and Buddhists celebrating Diwali this weekend, the Festival of Lights reaffirms the things in life that matter most. Dancing, celebration, and good food remind us that life's greatest joys are the simple pleasures that come from spending time with people we love. Contemplation and prayer remind us that that people of all faiths have an obligation to perform seva, or service to others. And the flame of the diya, or lamp, reminds us that light will ultimately triumph over darkness.

Here in the United States, Diwali also reminds us that our nation is home to many faiths and traditions, and that our diversity makes us stronger, which is why I'm proud that this year Democrats and Republicans in Congress joined together for the first-ever celebration of Diwali on Capitol Hill. Over the last five years, Michelle and I have been honored to have the chance to observe this ancient holiday, both at the White House and in India, and we wish all those celebrating this weekend a Happy Diwali and Saal Mubarak.
