Mayan Calendar: Rainbird

We are in the Wave of Eb, the human - abundance, transformation. Right relationships with every being Cosmic Cornucopia of abundance! I am an open chalice; I am the joyful expression of the abundance of the Universe."

May 16th Thurs: 1 EB

17th Fri: 2 BEN - skywalker - a warrior aspect; it's a portal day so there are other dimensions coming in , as well; 2 is polarity, stabilizing;

18th Sat: 3 IX - IX is the magician; jaquar priestess; activating it with 3 which is electrical 19th Sun: 4 MEN 4 is structure; MEN is the eagle; - NESARA time!

20th Mon: 5 CIB - a portal day 5 is an overtone, representing the future; warrior sun glyph - about right action, communication with the Divine, accessing Cosmic consciousness

21ST Tues: 6 CABAN - Caban is the earth; we are the keepers of the Earth; work with the rhythm of the 6 tone

22th Wed: 7 ETZNAB - 7 is resonant tone about dream; resonant also describes the EB energy; time to work on groundedness, need for self-understanding; time to surrender illusions of separateness

23th Thurs: 8 CAUAC - will revisit the storm energy

MR: people called her on Sunday night and Monday: energies so weird, having uneasy feelings

Rainbird: had dragon energies on Monday; the wind and dismantling a lot of things with the wind of change; we were letting go of a lot on Monday in our lineage and our spirit world ; 10 energy is the manifestation - and it was of change

AnnieRose told Marietta Robert that we need to remember what she said last week - it still applies!

Rainbird: we are in the wave of storm which is dynamic energy ready to make changes - thinks T & R will be able to talk of this more; lightworkers called to work in a serious way!

MR: the lightworkers are aware and feeling these energies

Hard News:

T: the comment on calls that MR received: they got tons of the same kind

- Larry & Curly told Rama: we had 2 major mass coronal ejections on Sunday with effects being felt on Monday + 72 hours after that, as well

R: plus there was one yesterday!

T: there are effects on the grid - which means every one is feeling it too! Some know what's happening; others are wondering what's going on! Electro magnetic field got a beating; please work with the grounding energies as long as we remain in Taurus [until Monday when we go into Gemini]

[SEE BELOW]

R: Bix Wier is also talking about it with a bleaker picture - he does not talk about NESARA like they do

T: they won't be starting another system: NESARA will be taking over!

R: got to talk to KOS; Sheila Jackson Lee who sits on the Senate Judiciary Committee

- Ultimately, it is all about Barack Obama - they even got to the conspiracy discussions - like, is he the son of Malcolm X?

MR: where was this being discussed?

R: on Counterspin - NPR - it's a Canadian program on their local radio station; the Wikipedia article "is about the American radio program. For [Canadian television series on CBC Newsworld, see CounterSpin \(television program\)."

- there are wild events unfolding that have to do with the time having arrived to deal with the Bush Clinton Crime Family - this is coming full circle
- BO is doing it in his way - behind the scenes, things are going on where Benghazi is just another red herring - people beginning to talk about it and the 800 metric tonnes of gold and NOT Al Queda
- Sheila Jackson Lee: told Darryl Issa at the hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee: we have had enough of your crimes against the people; your conservative views with racial issues and religions, bigotry; people are in the streets all around the world; we are done with the blind leading the blind on purpose: it's time to get humble and love everyone regardless of appearance, religion

T: In contrast, the lunatic fringe continues to try & get rid of Obama Care - 37th time:

- Michelle Bachman was on the House floor - she is creating thought forms of energy outside of their time-space continuum [definition of evil] - saying that BO is a link to the Anti Christ

KOS: Said Roma Downey had a gun put upside her head: she had her Jesus moment and started following the Tea Party

What is going on is the exposure of the criminality that is going on; what the IRS has done is

- The IRS is gone, there are goons working for the US Treasury; Tim Geitner is a criminal, Eric Holder is a schill for Wall Street
- The people R talks say Obama will gut the system and Holder may be next
T then we can get Patrick Leahy up and running
- All day long it was said that they are going after the sources: when you hear Obama's name, it really means HILLARY - THE 13 FAMILIES ARE INSANE ABOUT COLLECTING THE MONEY - it is about the larger picture, and the fringe reporters putting out stories about fake invasion and Project Bluebeam
- as we approach Memorial Day, more and more stories about FEMA; Homeland Gestapo
- John Nichols standing in for Ed Schultz : had Leo Gerard CEO of Steelworkers: it is all the Republican party - I hold them responsible - the no 1 issue is race/colour - it is happening of itself that the issue is coming up to be healed - if we want to meet Ashtar or mother or any of them, we have to get over the idea of colour

- there are many pieces that are unravelling and in our face - so blatant
- Harry Reid: said his niece a teacher, is gay
- Tammy Duckworth: if we can get along with the black man in the white house, and with gays etc, we should be able to get along with those who might look different

R: a 3rd eclipse is coming: we are in an 11 year cycle of the solar flares; this is raising earth's frequencies, our frequencies and those of the solar system around us - we are moving into a different space of existence as we cross the Galactic Plane; Curly& Mo saying this is bringing up so many issues to heal that we can change in hours

T: Dr Keshe said we can be free of nuclear in 6 months with his technology

- He has been working on a miniature version of his system - says we are ready to hear about it he needed to have the full scale version which can be done in days; yet mechanically it could take up to 6 mos to complete the control system
 - He saw the reactor working in miniature 8 years ago - quite amazing
- A lecture he gave last year: Tesla meets Keshe talks about the new system; now we are ready to grasp the impact
 - he can see 2 mobile phone systems can produce enough energy to live comfortably in a home for the cost of a cup of coffee or a can of soft drink!
 - Will change the course of humanity in Africa! 2 phones will furnish a whole village
 - With a simple mobile phone, will have all the free energy we need - at a miniscule cost! No more nuclear, no more coal, no fracking, no natural gas, no more additional pollution or pipelines
 - This can also clean the water - so we can do something more about cleaning up the Gulf

R: little earthquakes going on all over the planet for the last 72 hours

T: a town completely flattened - 75 homes in NW Texas - it was a 10 on a scale of 1-19

R: All In with Chris: still haven't determined the cause of the fertilizer explosion! It was the depleted uranium rod, the Rod of God, that was sent from the Space Station - the Koch Bros

MR: asked about the explosion

T: took a depleted uranium rod and nuclear tipped it and triggered it from the Space Station - owned by Koch Bros.

MR: feels like there is more to the story than is coming out

T: We are learning that they will stop at nothing; They ARE BEING STOPPED!

T: They are in trouble and they know it: the last 2 Max Keiser program in a matter of one month,

Dr K: This new technology makes a nation like China energy self-sufficient; they have all the materials needed!

- The 2nd medical paper [Dr Keshe] will reverse all kinds of things

- James Tyman has been working with these kids: they are advanced and are here to help us
 - Drunvalo talking of the boy - because we have persevered, we are ready for a generation of children and there are also adults who were born before the kids were discovered; the kids by the time they were 6 had no more evidence of Aids - we gave ourselves a booster shot: the DNA

with our rising consciousness has figured out how to become immune to whatever they throw at us

MariettaRobert: Geoffrey Smith: Institute for responsible technology - knows all about how the GMO affects us; did an interview with a scientist www.Evolvepalooze.com - a wonderful conference in Wilcox; Dannon Brinkley, all kinds of scientists will be speaking; it is recorded so we can watch/ listen to it for free - it is recorded, so we can listen when we want to

Monsanto's Roundup Herbicide—Featuring the Darth Vader Chemical

It was “supposed” to be harmless to humans and animals—the perfect weed killer. Now a groundbreaking article just published in the journal Entropy points to Monsanto’s Roundup herbicide, and more specifically its active ingredient glyphosate, as devastating—possibly “the most important factor in the development of multiple chronic diseases and conditions that have become prevalent in Westernized societies.”

That’s right. The herbicide sprayed on most of the world’s genetically engineered crops—and which gets soaked into the food portion—is now linked to “autism ... gastrointestinal issues such as inflammatory bowel disease, chronic diarrhea, colitis and Crohn’s disease, obesity, cardiovascular disease, depression, cancer, cachexia, Alzheimer’s disease, Parkinson’s disease, multiple sclerosis, and ALS, among others.”

Enjoy this videotaped guided tour of Jeffrey Smith interviewing co-author Stephanie Seneff, PhD, a Senior Research Scientist at MIT.

The above was taken from the website <http://www.responsibletechnology.org/posts/blog/>

- SS: goes through autism - if we continue on this path, more and more kids will have autism
- GMO foods are Round-up ready which creates super weeds and therefore more use of Roundup
 - will talk of the “gifts” Round-up gives
 - Monsanto: they asked themselves what would Darth Vader do? They are pretending they are beneficial and wormed themselves into regulatory bodies and then their true colours came out!

Review: Glyphosate's Suppression of Cytochrome P450 Enzymes and Amino Acid Biosynthesis by the Gut Microbiome: Pathways to Modern Diseases

This is the name of the article - the link to it is included at the end of these rough notes.

- obesity, diabetes, cancer, Alzheimers - see the list above!
- What is the central thesis of how this chemical
- Key nutritional deficiencies and toxins in the food
- Humans don't have the metabolic pathway that plants have -
 - we have gut bacteria which outnumber our cells and they will react to the glyphosate [the active chemical in Roundup] in spades - you get leaky gut and they can go to the brain

JS: gastro intestinal issues are involved

SS: she got into the topic because of autism - in the last 5 years, 1 in 100, 1 in 50 families are seeing it

- 20 years from now every other boy will be diagnosed with autism
- Most of the research involves genetics: research into environmental factors is NIL

- the GMO crops mean the Glyphosate use has gone up - the GMOs

JS: the herbicide tolerant crops - in 60 - 100%; in air samples, in the water, in the bodies of people in Germany - it operates in very smaller

SS: the US is the biggest user of Glyphosate

- autistic kids have problem with digestion - trouble eating lots of things; often need gluten
- sulphur is very important to the body - considered to be very present so off the radar
 - autistic kids have 1/3 the level of sulphur that most have
- Rosemary ? In 1990s wrote a paper on things that are sulphur based molecules are de-railed in autism

JS: you figured out how the brain works, about the leaky gut and the missing link was sulphate absorption due to *Glyphosate

SS: 2 things: gut bacteria - there are essential amino acids we need to get; when amino acids are hit with the Glyphosate, they are derailed from doing what they are supposed to do

Glyphosate

- Enzymes have a lot to do with
- Vit D deficiency
- depletion of micro nutrients - basically chelates magn, iron, zinc [zinc and sulphur to do with autism]
- Alzheimers: related to Autism: cells become deficient in the brain: they cannot absorb glucose
 - tired brain cells that cannot communicate with each other!
 - If we took glyphosate out of the diet, would we see a change? YES!!!
- Tryptophen - gets hit by glyphosate so we are deficient
 - low tryptophan, low

MR: Having heard this, you can now understand why MR and others are so incensed: why people should not eat anything with fructose in it. Eat only organic

- Speaks of Edgar Cayce's prophecies: there were small groups of people who escaped from Lemuria and Atlantis when the continent was breaking up
- there were land bridges - the land - some went to South America, some to Africa
- Same thing happened with MU [Lemuria]: people got away -there was a land bridge from Australia to India - it is on the floor of the ocean now
- [Trigger point to having all this information come forward was to have the Citizens Hearing: there were 6 retired members of Congress/Senate - came in as sceptics, left convinced]
- Casey claimed that some small groups of survivors escaped - when you follow the DNA from the Caucasus' Mountains - all goes into Egypt, diagonally into the pit of Africa, goes diagonally to Brazil and then up to Meso American territory - the Malinese people [mali, Africa] took 2.5 years to travel in their Moorish sailing ships across the Dark Sea [Atlantic] - the Malinese in Meso America are called Aztecs
- Why would Egypt hide the Hall of Records? Because then people would find out that Egypt had not developed civilization independently; they were taught the concepts - Egypt was a colony of Atlantis: there is a white Atlantean city off the south of Greece on the floor of the Mediterranean and it is intact; there was no Mediterranean Sea - Egypt and Greece are one people;
 - the Egyptians and the Greeks were black, except for Tut, as his mother Tihi was from the Caucusesthis would make the Egyptian culture not so advanced as we have been taught.
- We have a 4.4 million human in Egypt [Lucy] and we have a 3.3 million year old one in Mount Ida, Arkansas

2013, May 14 Emergency G-7 Meeting: Elite Ready to Pull the Trigger?

The G-7 are meeting this weekend outside of London.

This was unscheduled and can only be considered as an emergency meeting.

I have maintained all along that a “bank holiday” would ultimately occur which sets positions in cement while a revaluation of assets and currencies takes place.

My guess is that the end game is in fact being discussed. How best to shut the current system down, reboot another one AND retain as much power as possible. I truly believe that preparations are being discussed here and now “how best” (for them) to close out this current chapter of world finance. All of this has been discussed and planned years ahead of time, these are not fools. The current discussion is merely about pulling the trigger.

Submitted By Bill Holter, Miles Franklin Ltd.:

I for one would love to be a fly on the wall to hear the goings on as I am sure the “outsiders” from the rest of the G-20 would. The G-7 are the traditional “power” nations, they are also the ones doing the most printing and inflating. Since the beginning of the Greatest Financial Crisis, these nations have bankrupted themselves the most, printed and borrowed the most and basically “lost power” with their actions. I might add that these nations of the “West” have also been responsible for Gold being shipped “East”...and thus with it “power”.

So what exactly is being discussed? We will soon find out (or see the results) but I would imagine that anything and everything pertaining to the “end game” will be touched upon. Bank weakness and insolvency must be at the top of the list, QE’s lack of traction is also surely up there. Gold inventories (or lack of) must also surely have been discussed and I would certainly think that currency collapse was on the agenda. “Currency collapse”, replacement of same and “bank holiday” including “bail ins” were probably all discussed and pre planned.

Tell me that I am crazy and that none of these topics were broached, the physical metals markets globally are telling me (and them) that they were and that the end game is near. The question is this, how much longer can inventories supply the outsized demand that has been created by the false and fraudulent “paper” crash of metals pricing? “We” do not know the answer to this question, “they” do. “They” know what is really left and whether or not the bottom of the barrel is already in sight. To the above I would add that here in the U.S. we also have a dangerous week ahead. The Obama administration is taking huge body blows over the Benghazi attack last year. None of the official stories add up and it turns out that orders came from somewhere to “stand down” while Americans were being killed. I say that this coming week is “dangerous” because “your” attention apparently needs to be altered in a different direction. The distinct possibility/probability of some sort of false flag event is now off the charts.

I have maintained all along that a “bank holiday” would ultimately occur which sets positions in cement while a revaluation of assets and currencies takes place. As time has passed, this looks more and more likely to me as nothing has been done to avoid this scenario. In fact, the West has simply pressed the accelerator harder and opened the monetary spigots further...with almost zero effect on the real economy. Stock markets are acting like an early warning signal to a hyperinflation. Gold and Silver have not been allowed to do this which is why physical inventories have been attacked so fiercely.

Since I am not a fly on the wall and can only speculate until “we find out”, my guess is that the end game is in fact being discussed. How best to shut the current system down, reboot another one AND retain as much power as possible. Call me cynical, crazy or whatever, I truly believe that preparations are being discussed here and now “how best” (for them) to close out this current chapter of world finance. By the way, all of this has been discussed and planned years ahead of time, these are not fools. The current discussion is merely about pulling the trigger. Regards, Bill H.

FACTS ABOUT THE GLOBAL BANKING MACHINE

- 1) All the major banks in the world are owned and controlled by the banking families.
- 2) They control the entire process of the creation, the printing, and supply of money around the world.
- 3) The three biggest names in this cartel are the Rothschilds; Rockefellers and Morgans, and they ultimately own or control all the banks in the world, together with a small number of other powerful banking families, like Carnegie, Harriman, Schiff, and Warburg.
- 4) Collectively they have become known as the “banksters” by those who became aware of their devious activity.

- 5) All the major central banks of the world, including the Reserve Bank of South Africa, just like the Federal Reserve Bank in the USA, are privately owned corporations with complete control of the financial markets.
- 6) These banking families and central banks are a law unto themselves and do not have to answer to anyone. For example, section 33 of the South African Reserve Bank Act allows them to keep their actions secret.
- 7) The global financial system created around the supply of money is so convoluted and complex that only a few people truly understand it. This is always used as an excuse to exclude the involvement of ordinary people.
- 8) The deeply complex legal system is used in the same way to manipulate and support this structure, denying the ordinary person access to lawful justice.

- 9) Lawful justice cannot exist under the situation where the country is a corporation; the president appoints the judges, therefore the judges work for the corporation and have to uphold the well being of the corporation – not the people. And the courts are mere enforcers of the banking policy.
- 10) Banks officially do not work with money. They work with Bills of Exchange, Negotiable Instruments and Promissory Notes.
- 11) The word ‘money’ does not even have a definition in the Bank Act of South Africa, neither is the word ‘payment’ defined.
- 12) All the major money of the world is ‘FIAT’ money – this basically means that it has no intrinsic value AND it is not supported by any precious metals like gold or silver, as it was a long time ago. FIAT money is created by banks, out of thin air, when you take out a “loan.” There is actually no real loan – nothing physical is exchanged – this is the equivalent of counterfeiting. South Africa’s money supply has quadrupled in the past decade, and yet this increase supply has not seen a parallel increase in gold, silver or other real commodity reserves.

- 13) This means that the paper/plastic money we use is completely worthless. They are just fancy pieces of paper with some fancy logos printed on them with no value at all. The ‘value’ is derived purely from the masses of people who have confidence in their currency and keep using it as a method of exchange.
- 14) For example, very few people know that a payment / commission / legal bribe is paid to the South African government every time a worn note or coin is returned to the SA Reserve bank. This payment is called seigniorage and allows our government to profit from the exploitation of the people by the paper/plastic money controlled by the Reserve Bank, and ultimately the Bank For International Settlements from whom our Reserve Bank receives their orders.

- 15) Yet it is illegal to destroy these worthless pieces of paper, and people who introduce alternative pieces of paper, or copy these pieces of paper are jailed for infringement of its copyright.
- 16) The only reason our money has any value, is because we give it value – our perception of value is the only value it has. If the people lose faith in their money, the money will collapse, because nothing supports it. In fact the word ‘credit’ comes from the Latin credere which means “to believe.” Evidence of this is found almost every time a central bank governor opens their mouth. You will hear the word “confidence” uttered over and over and over again because the prime directive of a central bank governor is to maintain confidence in banking at all costs. Erosion in confidence leads to the collapse of the system. This is precisely why they placed Nelson Mandela’s face on the new South African notes – to instil and renew confidence in our money and abuse the man’s commitment to freedom.
- 17) Banks create money out of “THIN AIR” by simply creating debits and credit on the accounting computer system. This is called the Matching Principle and is governed by the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). A “loan” is not a loan in the ordinary sense of the word, it is an instruction that you, the customer signs, in the process creating a promissory note, which you “submit” to the bank authority, giving the bank permission to issue one of their promissory notes in return. Their promissory note (which comes in the form of a computer generated bank statement) is designed to look like a loan. So, their promise back to you (in exchange for your promise to them) is the loan you are receiving. So, in essence, you instructed the bank to make money out of thin air. Because you are none the wiser, you agree to the exploitative terms and conditions outlined in the agreement which, of course, the courts will enforce in their favour.
- 18) Banks do not have money of their own to lend you as most people believe. No money existed in the system before the so called “loan” was granted to you.
- 19) Banks create money on the signatures of their clients and the so-called contracts and loans they make the customer sign. These contracts are sold in a process called securitisation to third parties, who in turn sell it on the global stock markets. This is a highly secretive and well guarded technique in which they profiteer and create undue enrichment. Then they bundle such loans and sell them back to the people via pensions funds and insurance policies. Are you confused yet? You should be – many lawyers and most judges do not understand this and this is why we had to study this ourselves to be able to defend ourselves in the courts against those lawyers who defend the banksters and understand it well. The people have to know.
- 20) By selling your signature or ‘promissory note’ or mortgage bond contract, they lose all legal rights to any property that they financed. In legal terms this is called losing ‘locus standi’.
- 21) When the bank securitises a loan, they get paid the full capital amount of the loan, plus interest, up front. This means that your loan has actually been pre-settled by a third party who is insured in case you default, while you have no idea that this is going on behind the scenes.
- 22) The banks break contract law by claiming to lend what they do not possess – money. They only create money, in most cases cyber-money, after you signed all the documents and they sold your promissory note to the third party who then on-sells it, sometimes many times, to other parties by trading it on the global stock markets. This is why securitisation is a ponzi / pyramid scheme that everyone must become aware of. It is also known as “shadow banking” which is easy to research online.
- 23) They do not disclose any of this to their customers, keeping us in the dark. You believed that they actually loaned real money. This is a lie. They never loaned you anything of any value and therefore there was never “equal consideration” where both you and the bank stands to lose something. This flies in the face of basic contract law, never mind common morality among people. But then banks are not people – they are legal fiction corporations.

- 24) You created all the value with your own mind and it was your signature that caused the release of money from the third party buyer, which the bank received on your behalf – except they never informed you of that, did they?
- 25) The banks act as intermediaries, like estate agents, because they do not lend us THEIR money. Since they do not lend us anything, but only obtain it on the strength of our signatures, from a third party, any interest they charge is pure extortion and fraud. Disclosure must take place for a valid agreement to occur.
- 26) The money in South Africa is printed by the South African Mint – also a private company that simply profiteers on the hard work of our people. However, recently this has been outsourced to Sweden which was a disaster, causing huge embarrassment for the Reserve Bank after several billion Rands worth of notes were printed incorrectly with the wrong dimensions and had to be destroyed.
- 27) The Reserve Bank, which is a private company, is in charge of printed money, which it sells or loans it to the banks at a fraction of the face value of the bank notes.
- 28) When the banks return the used bank notes to the Reserve Bank, they get paid almost the entire full face value of those bank notes, creating enrichment out of thin air for themselves, by creating money out of thin air from shuffling paper.
- 29) Banks practice what is called “Fractional Reserve Banking”. This means that they only have to retain a small percentage of any deposit and can lend out the rest many times over to the public, creating a spiral of debt on money that does not even exist.
- 30) For example: For every $100 you deposit, the bank lends out about $900 of imaginary fictitious money to their clients. The real fraud is that they charge compounded interest on this non-existent money. This is blatant fraud and anyone else would be jailed for a long time for doing this.
- 31) Interest is charged up front. Interest is considered “real money” by the bank, and so they can make more loans, out of thin air, against that interest, that did not exist in the first place.
- 32) As it stands today, there is not enough money in the world to pay off all the debt in the world, because of interest. This is exactly the situation the banksters wanted to create. A situation that gives them complete control over property and other assets that can be repossessed by the banks only to re-sell it to another naive person who will most likely end up in the same debt situation.
- 33) All this activity is continually supported by the legal system and the ignorant judges who just perpetuate the fraud in the face of clear evidence.
- 34) In some countries, hard working people are jailed for not being able to repay their debt. This a blatant crime against humanity for which the bankers should be jailed and the judges should be answerable to the people they serve. But then, they don’t serve the people, they serve the corporation that employs them – THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA and other corporations that masquerade as countries.
- 35) The printed notes we call money are really instruments of debt and should be illegal. Money as we know it today can only be issued as debt. In fact, about 40% of the debt of the USA is fictitious / counterfeit debt, owed to the Federal Reserve Bank who initially created it out of nothing and then charged interest on that debt. All the income tax collected in the US is used to pay off just the interest portion of the debt to the Federal Reserve Bank owners.

This is just a small taste of the convoluted web of deception that has been created to keep us ignorant and completely enslaved to the global control of the banksters.

There is no reason why we, the people, cannot create our own new form of money as an alternative to the banks’ tools of enslavement and use this new money as an interim tool to stabilise the economic crisis. A lawful kind of money that serves the people.

2013, May 14 Edgar Cayce's Prophecy Comes True: Hall of Records Discovered

Image credit: Viewzone

Rumors are circulating throughout the world recently with the supposed discovery of one of the legendary Hall of Records in Egypt. The Egyptian government along with recently retired Zahi Hawass who ran the Egyptian Antiquities Department have adamantly denied these claims saying that no such building or chamber has been found. However, many researchers and even some archaeologists are saying that the chamber was indeed found but has been covered up due to the contents inside and what it would mean to both our understanding of history and Ancient Egypt's history.

According to legend and the reknowned psychic Edgar Cayce, the Hall of Records are composed of three chambers spread throughout the world that contain the missing history of the lost continent of Atlantis along with the missing history of the human race. The three chambers are said to be located in Egypt (underneath the Sphinx's paw), somewhere on the Yucatan Peninsula and one on the lost continent of Atlantis, which would be most likely sunken in the ocean depths still. Each chamber is thought to contain the history of the lost continent of Atlantis along with information on any of the surviving inhabitants of the legendary island. It was Cayce's claim that there were small groups of survivors that managed to escape the destruction of Atlantis and it was these Atlanteans that brought civilization to both Egypt and Mexico. Cayce claimed that all of this information would be housed in these Hall of Records and would detail both the history before the destruction of Atlantis and the demise too.

So, why would Egypt hide the Hall of Records? Obviously, the main reason would be the knowledge that the Egyptians did not develop civilization independently but instead were taught the concepts of it.

This change in thinking would make the ancient Egyptian culture not as sophisticated as originally thought and all of their achievements would be questioned. Buildings such as the Great Pyramid and Abu Simbel would have to be questioned as to who was really responsible for the technology and ideas behind the building of them. Even the Sphinx would have to be questioned.

Where is the evidence for the finding of the Hall of Records in Egypt? The first piece of evidence was found more than twenty years ago and was a ground penetrating radar scan that revealed a strange anomaly underneath one of the Sphinx's paws. The scan revealed what appeared to be a small chamber exactly in the location that Edgar Cayce had predicted the Hall of Records was to be found. The second piece of evidence and the most important are a network of caves and tunnels that run all around the Giza plateau. When these caves and tunnels were first discovered, both the Egyptian government and Zahi Hawass denied the existence of them. The caves run underneath at least two of the three large pyramids on the Giza plateau and run very close to right beneath the Sphinx. It is this cave chamber that runs very close to the Sphinx that the secret Hall of Records was located. The Hall was located behind about 5 feet of rock that separated the end of the cave chamber to the entrance of the Hall of Records. According to some sources, archaeologists were able to drill through and clear this 5 feet of rock and have gained access to the hall. But other sources are saying that once the archaeologists realized what they had found, they further sealed the cave chamber thereby hiding the discovery.

So, has the Hall of Records really been discovered? And, if so, will we ever hear about the contents of what the chamber had inside it? My guess is that the Egyptian government will do everything they can to hide this discovery and unless they are forced to disclose, we will never get confirmation. Hopefully, I will be proven wrong.
