Hard News:

T: yesterday they said they need $600, and $275 came in! Please keep it coming!

R: spoke of the 14' tall Paschats beside their bed; Like Magic Johnson last night on Al Sharpton's program who is 7' tall, makes Sharpton look like a midget!

- The stories are amazing at this time: Ashtar is here! Where's the beef, is the question – it's us the people!

Camp Loveway: This is a sci fi movie and a disclaimer and we love to lie!

- Discussion was a highly credible story about Mother's people from Nibiru, and life forms not aligned with the Office of the Christ. There are many corners being swept clean
- Guests were Bruce Lipton, Neil Donald Wash, Dennis McKenna [brother of Terence] who has written a book The Sacred Face of the Screaming Abyss!
- All 3 of them shared their near death experiences, going through the naqual & coming out the other side.
- We are already past the turning point as Denise Le Fay talks about: we are creating the new heaven and the new earth, as we are the ones who are meeting ourselves on active duty now. We are taking it to the next level of where we have been and where we are going, and healing this story for all time!
- What is happening with the 5D chess game being played out by Mr 21.5*; he is playing with another excellent chess player called Vlad [Putin!]
 - Both understand the ramifications of this a brinkmanship game where Ashtar & Sananda have said NO NUKES, AND THEY MEAN IT! They have all been neutralized.
- As we watch Mr 19.5* come from the Oval Office this coming Tuesday to gain support from his party, those not decided about striking Syria, he will try to win them over, futile as it is.
 - The guys said there will be a no confidence vote about hitting Syria.
- Next step: peaceful solutions – the largest story humanitarian crisis Jordan, Lebanon where people are running from Al Assad
 - This has to do with an ancient story of the 12 / 13 tribes of Mother's people: originally from Ariadne, the spider constellation, which became the 12 tribes.
 - 1978, 1980 – there was a program called Battleship Galactica: the updated version which very much played out the story on Iraq, torture and abuse: not pretty - R & the 3 on the show did not like it because of the darkness, but they brought it back to the story: the Lords of Cobol which comes from the Book of Mormon
 - It is a huge story having to do with the Tribe of Dan, one of the 12 tribes or Ariadne; pieces of this fit in with the Alawites, the Sunnis, the Shia: Alawites are a sect of Shia; generations have been ruling in Syria
- Syria has the largest group of Alawites – over 2 million - of any other country; other countries have way less.
 - this brings in the Ottoman Empire and Suliman: this fiasco has to do with the Aboriginal Moabite People, Mother's people of Nibiru and the stargates – this is right out of SG1 – what is happening is the majority of earth's people want peace, we want love, we and want it now.- so be it!
- So these 4 guys and those in the Out of Control room [the control room at the radio station] were sharing the wisdom of what comes from Jaquar Medicine woman as she shows up, unannounced, and taps you on the shoulder and says “You gotta find your special spot” - you sit there and then the magic happens.
 - Dennis shared the story of going to the Amazon River; took 10 g of ayawaska and left his body for an hour – he was gone!
 - the pygmies were getting very worried and started to get him ready for the death ritual
 - suddenly a pink dolphin showed up and touched Dennis' hand with his beak and he was literally sucked back through the little worm hole of white light, at the speed of light and faster, and was back into his body – the pygmies were bowing to him, but he made it clear he was not The One!
- Each guest shared about the peaceful technologies that will be brought in; there will be peaceful solutions to help these people around Syria, technologies that are right off the ships: yet they have to be brought in in a way of the next step that is not frightening
 - We have a president who represents the Office of the Christ and a do-nothing Congress except for 64 good members – the rest have violated their oaths of office by committing murder, rape, etc – they are guilty of high treason, genocide,

Taren: these people need to be held accountable. Say you are at a restaurant with McConnell or Cantor who can slip something in the drink and the next thing, you are in the emergency room, victim of a date rape drink. The members of Congress are guilty of this kind of thing. Needs to be brought to the forefront at the ICJ in the Hague.

- R: We have a constitutional crisis of biblical proportions because 3/4 or more will refuse to vote - major constitutional crisis because they are not representing the will of the people because the mass of the people want no more violence.
- As we have a constitutional crisis, this brings up what is going on at home.
 - Come Oct 1st, the exchanges open; Obama Care comes into physical manifestation - registration for health insurance begins and these ones have voted 40x against the ACA & done nothing to help undocumented workers who simply need food, water, medicine a roof – what did the Man with Plan say?
 - there are folks who will hold them accountable called the White Knights and the Sovereign Militia Forces who are standing true to power: they are everywhere, infiltrated into every sector of society, along with the galactics: as Bob Dean said, they are walking in the west wing & you don't know who they are: they can shape shift suddenly - and you don't know who you have walking beside you!
 - R was driving along and who showed up but Anonymous 7&1/2 ; he is one of the State Police, as black as coal and almost as big as Magic Johnson. He's an F3 White Knight, too
 - Driving a brand new Dodge Charger or a venger, like in the Sci Fi movie show called Defiance
 - Rolls the window down, and got R to roll his down: “Hey, Dude are you on it? We're moving forward” “Don't think for one second that we are not in charge, and that we are not going to see NESARA. We are. Your father who art in heaven has this in the bag. Please listen to what the the Sirian Commander: has to say; because he is a constitutional lawyer, he knows this inside out and backwards, and he is the One, the man who brings this into the story: he needs the people's backing.”
 - As well, so many people showed up at the Apollo “Advancing the Dream” event: to cuss and discuss their backgrounds and their stories & dreams -
 - The dream time people of Uluru, the aboriginals; they were the very first nation who were here with Mother before the gods were here, the watchers, the ones who come from Nibiru, the Great Central Sun and from Salvington, the centre of our Milky Way Galaxies, the 7 Super Universes and the 28 known galaxies – THIS IS HUGE!
 - Right now, Donald Trump is building in Costa Rica – Randi Rhodes said she was going to CR when the shit hits the fan! It's a big deal - they have no standing army there
 - We only bomb black and brown people, not white people. Brings in the fact that there is another agenda going on – he brings up story of a Grandmother who got arrested in BC, Canada, for standing her ground: she was arrested by the RCMP and taken from her land for standing up for the water rights which Harper is stealing from the First nation People.
 - All this will be dealt with by LM Nada on the Solar Tribunal on Saturn and at the Criminal Court at the ICJ – this has to do with war crimes which have been committed since the time Commander Sananda Kurmara walked the planet!
 - One of the guests brought up that many folks are gung-ho to go into Syria: now the talk is of regime change: having a Navy seal team go in and take him out – not the way! This is to be done legallay: so many are traumatized - this is about healing each other in each moment -
- T: We grilled Rama when he came home with this story! He was a basket case!
- We are only partially across the Galactic Plane
 - The Sirian commander seems to want to do something about punishing Syria for the attack on the children in such a horrific manner, and the international community has not stepped up to the plate and this is an international issue
 - yes, it has been like this since 1925, yet let's talk about Hillary, The Committee of 300 Illuminati buddies; it appears that Barack Obama is the puppeteer of that stuff, and it appears that Barack Obama is in bed with the banksters:

- The thing is he has already blown them away
 - He did this when he started by saying he was going to go in & I'm not consulting Congress
 - He said he would reserve the right to go in anyway if he thought it was for the good of the Country;
 - 5 days later he said he would go to Congress and said as this is a constitutional republic - he said he will honour the decision of Congress and he said we have to love the perpetrators, the ones who are doing this thing; we have to love the enemies, too – This is the Office of the Christ speaking!!!!
- All of them knew, in one way or another – including Joe Biden & his pickle face! Except John McCain who was playing poker!
- Remember the last day of the election campaign? We saw the shrivelled up 84 old man debating B O; we said Holy Cow! After that debate, he and cupie doll wife, an android clone, were escorted out the door – that was the end of the original Mr McCain. There was a simulcast going on
- What does this mean? There was intel out there even for those who are not aware & at some level, it went in: there is something going on here – for those who are unaware, the veil goes down! And they run to the church where they say God is father AND GOD IS MOTHER! WE cannot have war with the Mother Goddess is around.
- This is White Knight activity going on here: the best way to do things is a subtle thing: we have a conscious mind, a super conscious mind and a sub conscious mind: There is a goddess called the Goddess Yoni, a beautiful ruby red goddess – when you study with a guru and you are ready for an initiation, you receive goddess energy, a shakti pat Barack Obama pulled a shakti pat move on the Illuminati –
 - we're going in & McCain and Graham [his sex partner] standing there together – we want to go in with something bigger than this!

T goes back to the first election campaign

- Hillary during the campaign said they would annihilate Iran! During 2007, the original Hillary was in Israel – they only took a side picture of her, elevated on a mound – she had been given the 3rd degree and knew her fate: she was completely with her back to the cameras and there were no further pictures: they turned her in for a clone – this was April or May! That was it! There was a Hillary clone on the campaign trail the whole time
- On Oct 31st before Barack was President Elect, that original Hillary was joined by 10,000 banksters who were boarding black transport jets; they had been sitting in military prisons during 2007 & 2008 over 17 months it took to collect them; in October, they were put in military planes and taken to The Hague and were executed by the President Elect inside NESARA law which is the only place that this work can be done.
- This law was signed on Oct 10, 2000 by Bill Clinton; it gave full authority to take Bush and Cheney out on Oct 28, 2000 in the same way: they got taken to The Hague and were taken out by phasers – painless, no torture – just completely deleted from the program. Millions have been deleted: ones we don't know are gone, are gone. The ones sitting in prisons in clone form are there for a purpose.
- That is why N was signed into law by Bill Clinton at the time it was; it was in the hands of Faction 3 White Knights, with all the Wing Makers here to face the archons wherever they are
- A remnant archon called Christine LaGarde - an archon posing as a woman!

R: brings up the movie Ghost Buster: Segorney Weaver's character turned into a not pretty thing.

T: we have been living between worlds for quite some time:

- the 9th and final wave of the Mayan calendar started in March 11, 2011
- 8th Wave started in 1999 and went for 12 years; exactly the same amount of time we had NESARA law
- Yesterday she was reading about NESARA law from the 4winds10 version of what happens with Nesara; says there 15 members of Congress who signed: it WAS EVERY SINGLE MEMBER OF CONGRESS!
- It spoke of an “undisclosed location” - this was the King of Swords Starship which can be boarded from the White House; this has been going on since N was voted into law & signed into law.
- The members were surrounded by White Knights with phasers; they all signed it into law, and they signed gag orders that say if they spoke of it, it would mean violating your oath of office & high treason

- It also means they will be held accountable for any crime they committed, before, during or after when ever their time of service; with impunity, they have comitted crime after crime after crime.

- So this time of Barack's 1, 2 & 3 in a week [(1) I'll go in on my own; (2) oh yes, I'll have the congress do it but I'm going to go in on my own if I think so anyway; (3) I will honour the word of the reps of the people]
 - Refers to a caller on last night's call: someone's grandchild called the White House, left a message for the President & said she was voting NO: don't hurt another kid, mother or father – it's just killing people

R: brings up aerial drones which is a different story – this is still Black Ops / Hillary

T: Max Keiser called Barack a criminal etc etc for taking $ from Wall Street –

- this is the double agent part of Obama – and Max knows the story. It appears that Barack is the dirt ball here, but this is not what is really going on -
- hard to hear people say this about Barack

T: goes back to Rama's story: there are super, super wealthy visionaries

- Global Cohesive Economics has been going on for a while; the head of the GCE was told by Bush goons if he let the light workers get involved, he'd be gone!
- There are people still doing it, and this is how they became the super, super wealthy visionaries, those working with the light got their money. There was bad stuff going on here, except for the usual bad boys doing their stuff.. The refugees will get help and nutritional supplements in the form of manna; the northern peninsula [of Syria] sees manna in the form of dew every day; they pick it up, make a porridge & that is all they eat. They also do prana - anything that is wrong with them is gone in hours. Part of Dr Keshe's wholistic medical kit. THESE THINGS ARE IN THE WINGS! ANONYMOUS 7.5 WAS RIGHT ON!

T listened to what Rama was saying and responded with “Nice story, but they will get shot in the back if they try this.”

They continued and said it is absolutely time to set aside WHAT WE HAVE BEEN TAUGHT IN ORDER TO ACCEPT THE NEW - this includes the Theosophical Society which got taken over when the Ballards were still teaching; also the I AM SANCTUARY teaching are not quite right, either – have to DELETE EVERYTHING!

R: talks about the hollow bamboo tube – pour the water through the tube and it comes out the other end – an endless water fall!

- This is what happens when you get to the place of the deep delta state, you are downloaded with the magic of the naqual

T: and it removes what we have as a lack of trust; this is what clears your mind – even those who appear to have clear minds are extremely rare:

- That is why Dhanni Ywahoo was told by the Dalai Lama, you are equal to me: – clear mind, clear heart, clear soul, clear cosmic light body consciousness – he said she is the feminine version of him!

T: then Rama brought up that the Syrian people want a saviour - the Alawites, 2 million of them, have been in control and believe the Mahdi comes through that sect, and that sect alone – similar to the Vatican saying you have to be Catholic

- This is why 97% of the people voted for A IAssad when his father died

- Rama's next point: this is enough revenge killing: an eye for an eye, the people really want democratic socialism

- captialism has become corpratocracy
- communism has become the winner takes all, and the rest are peons
- both are slavery

- The vast majority people do not want A IAssad

- There are 22 million people in Syria, and the Alawites [2 million] want Assad to be the leader so there is a bitter taste in their mouth

His personality changed drastically when the military got ahold of him

- Wealthy visionaries won't hold back as long as they feel protected. [next thing he was told]

- They have a portable technology which is a Keshe portable health development – sort of like the bio beds & sleeping right on the earth when the amount of anti-oxidents that go into your body is phenomenal: the bio beds can bring the charge from the earth into the body. There is also sound – make use of the solfeggio sounds – can do everything through sound!

On the 8 minute piece from the GEM people – it was music: solfeggio, Tibetan, Chinese
They had an hour long one of Solfeggio

- T: knows this stuff works from her double broken neck: she learned about Sherry Edwards who came to Santa Fe [Sherry learned everything from Commander Soltec who is Shantara's father]: Tara learned about the technology
- The Dene know about Merk, Lady of the Sun; they talk about their people in the time of Lemuria going into the blow holes of the earth because it was radioactive everywhere on the earth – the end of Lemuria was very ugly! They talked of Hesperus Mtn being one of those blowholes!
 - She and Rama drove to the top of that mtn to see the people up there; were told the people did not go to that location because the water has no bottom – there is the equivalent of a Loch Ness monster there, as in Loch Ness and Lake Champlain between NY and Canada
 - Mother Earth is creating new botanicals all over the earth! As well as the botanicals that are being preserved by light workers because they know what is happening – talked of the Shaman Apprentice who went with the elders into the jungle – the video shows him creating the ayahasaka juicie that you drink to go on a journey THIS IS ANCIENT, ANCIENT KNOWLEDGE THAT IS BEING PASSED ON and the elders are disappearing because of the oil industry.
 - Also the pharmaceuticals try to patent their stuff, etc etc etc
- T: goes back to the bio beds: how can we get these technologies over here in North America who are dying from so many things?
Speaks of one lady who has had 400 operations to get rid of the vaginal implanted stuff
- She gets back to the place with R that they [wealthy visionaries] could still get shot in the back!
 - The next thing that is coming up is the heated discussion that will happen in the Congress: maxin Watters, Charlie Wrangel, Barbara Lee, Alan Grayson
- R: has heard that Harry Reid is upset and wants to strike; people there are between a rock and a hard place – as we step into Nesara Law, we step into the cosmic law – not yet discussed; but these criminals want to keep the info from the people
- T: it will bring up a huge constitutional crisis: this morning it was 59% of those that are going to vote – and there are a huge number who will not vote! 87% of the people say NO to going into Syria:
347 members are not doing their job to follow the will of the people !!!
- Alan Greyson, Bernie Sanders – will not budge! Maybe Bernie will do another filibuster. We will see the strength of the good members of Congress.
 - She sees a period when they are all arrested, except for the 64 good members
 - NESARA law has been in full play since it was signed by Bill C, but it has NOT BEEN ANNOUNCED!
 - Their mandate needs to be supported: not because T & R are a beg-a-thon, but because we are starting a divine governance where sharing, selfless service, divine service etc – the support for this is so this can be happening; the Beauty pillar has been left off for a long while because things were a mess!
 - The pillars were 5 and Beauty has just been brought back – entered in 2010, which was 2012
- First pillar: LOVE – a vegan diet and a vegan lifestyle – not to be eating animals
 - that was an interim measure – she talks of radiation poisoning 13,000 years ago
 - 300,000 years ago, our 12th strand of DNA made us caretakers of this entire garden – we were co-creator gods with Mother of this entire Universe Nebadon with the template of Divine Love.
 - All time is present, we cannot ignore what happened in the past; we have to clean things up – 32 years of these consequential things are collapsing in on us – we are moving forward.
 - Seeing Anonymous 7.5 show up, when Rama has not seen him for years, is no accident – this man IS A VEGAN! In 1996, the winner of weight lifting has been a total vegan all his life!
- 2nd Pillar: Daily prayer – pray peace. We can do this by smelling flowers, taking in pristine clear air, drinking pristine water – believe it! Talks of Greg Braden's native friend who took off his shoes and prayed water, by feeling the wet soil, smelling water in the air – and a few hours later, there was a gentle rain!

3rd Pillar: Weekly fasting: It takes a minimum of 16 hours for the body to switch from a digesting body to a cleansing body. For 24 hours, drink nothing but water with trace minerals – says it's delicious.

Astrology: Richard

This is the week that was: David Frost passed recently, he did a show "This is the week that was" - feels like that now!

- Moon is in Libra, holding a position in the cardinal Cross: the T square, Pluto square Uranus and one of the driving energies of the current chaos.
- Moon opposite Uranus & sun was sextile - Jupiter around noon today
- Mars square Saturn has helped make this week a little more aggressive.

• The kite is still there and operational

Sunday: moon conjuncts Venus in Libra where it is balances

Monday: Mercury goes into Libra; Mars conjuncts Saturn,

Tuesday: moon still in Scorpio; goes void of course: events— either nothing happens or Void of course moon is like space-time with no direction – and this happens the day Obama is speaking to the American public – pray for the highest good of all concerned!!!

There were tempers flaring this week: Richard understands that BO lost his temper at the G20 & did some name calling!

Moon goes into Sag – late night – watch your tongue!

Wed: Venus goes into Scorpio, and moon in to Sat in the afternoon – this could change a lot of stuff! Like – the flavour of the geo-political situation! A bit of extra prayer work would be good!

Mars is about aggression!

A tricky energy Wed pm – Scorpio will bring out a lot of emotions! Lots of karma clearing

Fri: moon goes into Capricorn in the early morning – leading up to next Sat

Saturday: Venus will be far enough into Scorpio to trine Neptune which should bring in a wisdom component - Mercury gets into Libra and squares Pluto at 4:30 pm EDT; Mars will be trine Uranus so the fiery stuff comes back into the picture with Mars going through Leo

The new moon was at 13* Virgo on Thursday

I must find creative solutions,
If I want to experience union,
But if I take it all too serious,
I may miss what should be obvious,
And get lost in the ridiculous!

Sorry for the wind noise! It is always windy up on those volcanoes and I'm trying out a new camera so no muffle. Anyway, welcome in that New Moon in Virgo tomorrow (Thursday) and get to work haha! Indeed, it is a good time work, a good time to sink yourself into something that requires a lot of focus and energy so you have an outlet for all that pent up frustration at how SLOW things go on this planet and how much BS is involved in just about every process! No laying back with this Mars square Saturn and the Nodes all week. We will see some results from our efforts though, that is the good news! Investments (in anything) that began a year ago will now show some results so I hope you have invested well. I'll go more into the changes reflected in Mercury and Venus both changing signs a bit more next week.

One change happening on this end is that some great folks have stepped up to translate the Pele report into both French and Spanish. Check out Kaypacha's website www.NewParadigmAstrology.com for more info and have a great week!

Caller: asks about the kind of education that people will receive: how important is the knowledge about the different sects of Judaism, Islam, Christianity and its sects:

T: will start with comparative religions in order to learn how the pagan religions - based on the goddess – were subverted, and we will see things change in all the books, subjects

Caller: everything we have been taught, we will have to let go!?!

T: Yes! And the Shaulenberger [Victor – who wrote about living water] did not go to school – did not want his imagination ruined!

R: Einstein said to teach your children fairy tales, and when they need more information, read more fairy tales!

T: we were water people first – trititarian people,

Short Summary

We have a planet in crisis and a people in crisis. The people of the world are scared, hostile, and angry.

- After an out-of-body experience in December of 1994, I started on a long search for the ultimate spiritual truth.
- Nature was meant to be our teacher, yet we have ignored the very thing that is built into all living things.
- Our bodies are a temple and that physical nature, as well as the nature around us is constantly mirroring a profound truth. This is what I call the separation from GOD phenomenon.
- As I began searching through the religious texts of the world, I was able to relate the scientific and the religious to the human body. Eventually coming up with a formula that would bring the power of the COSMOS down to our world for our use.
- The formula is simple, the ingredients are simple, and WATER is the magic ingredient. WATER is the KEY to our energy crisis and the global warming crisis.
- One of my most profound moments was when I realized that Hydrogen was the only atom without a neutron, thus providing a direct route to GOD.
- How have we let our world get to this point without understanding what WATER means to us spiritually and as our ultimate energy source. This energy can provide AC - DC - and a powerful pulse-type energy.
- You, personally, have Hydrogen glue holding your DNA strand together. You burn 1/2 pound of Hydrogen each day to supply energy to your cells. My favorite MANTRA is: No electron moves in a living system without the presence of Hydrogen.
- In Revelations in The Bible God says that he is Alpha and Omega - the beginning and the end. Why are Greek words used in The Bible? Because it is a clue - Alpha means obstructed to the truth of water. Omega means there whirl sediments. Some other truths in the Greek alphabet are Eta whose symbol is H (as in the symbol for Hydrogen) means with water, Theta means extend water, and Psi which comes right before Omega means come out vapor.

What We Need & What You Get

We are looking to raise $150,000 to allow us to make a video showing the world how this energy is mixed and how it will power anything. We will also convert a Chevy Volt to run via GEM Energy which will never need anything else. The major reason for this video is to show the world that this GEM Energy is wireless and can be transmitted from a single source to power everything in your home.

- We need additional tanks of Hydrogen and Oxygen.
- We need to purchase some supplies, such as, needles and tubing for our $700.00 injector. This injector allows us to precisely calibrate the titrations of water, Hydrogen, and Oxygen.
- Any funding received will go to bringing this GEM Energy to the world.
- My partner, Dennis Holmes, will be required to travel to those people who will be helping with the transreceivers. We are unsure of how many trips this will require.
- The purchase of the Chevy Volt is part of where the funding will go.
- I will need to travel as well to be part of the video and explain more about this energy.
- We will need to pay for laboratory time.

The Impact

How good is your imagination? Can you imagine a world where the waters are pure, where health is a given, where energy is safe and harmless to you and your family, a world where we can travel freely outside of our planetary system, and a world where the anger is gone and peace has descended at last.

- Einstein said, "If the answer is simple God is answering."
- Nikola Tesla said, "One day man will connect his apparatus to the very wheel works of the Universe. The very forces that motivate the planet and their orbits and will cause them to rotate will rotate his own machinery."
- David Bohm said, "In one cubic centimeter of empty space, the amount of energy is much greater than the total amount of energy of all the matter in the known universe."
- Jules Verne said, "I believe that water will one day be employed as fuel, that Hydrogen and Oxygen which constitute it, used singly or together, will furnish an inexhaustible source of heat and light, of an intensity of which coal is not capable."

Other Ways You Can Help

Holding this GEM Energy in your heart is a major help. Greatness is reached through the heart of the people in unison with a great cause.

- Please post this funding request to your websites, facebook pages, twitter pages, as well as e-mail the link. Let's unite the people behind this project and we will be able to finally bring a safe and powerful energy to the entire planet.

Subject: G.E.M. Limitless Energy Available +//

The lab testing (by a very prominent testing lab) utilizing a $25,000 electronic meter indicated that G.E.M. created a measurable 1.04 Gigawatts of energy in a flask with just tap water, hydrogen & oxygen! That is 1 040 000 000 watts which is comparable to peak output from a nuclear reactor!

There was also a voltage reading but I don't have that data handy just now. More impressive is that the highly sensitive instrument wasn't even touching the water - it was picking up that reading from just the gaseous energy state generated above the water level. It is also completely safe!

Another, earlier pioneer in the effects & benefits of water energy was Viktor Shauberger.

Check out his impressive findings which are truly little known today:

Maher al-Assad~ The brutal enforcer of the family regime

Bill Neely: International Editor

It was never meant to be like this for the three Assad brothers.

Not for the shy, studious Bashar, now blamed for the worst war crime of the century, its first poison gas attack. Nor for the ambitious, tough youngster Maheer or the eldest and President-in-waiting Basel.

Today, Basel is dead, Bashar is President of Syria and Maheer is his enforcer.

The brothers are responsible for the most brutal and deadly crackdown on any revolution in Arab history. And two weeks ago one, or both of them, according to Britain, the US and France, were responsible for the most lethal chemical weapons attack in decades.

Not since Saddam Hussein gassed five thousand Kurds in Halabja in 1988, has the world seen anything like the appalling images of dead children and contorted faces filmed in four suburbs of Damascus; an atrocity and a war crime that the United States says killed 1,429 people, including 426 children.

More: First independent images of alleged chemical attack in Syria emerge

But if the US is right and Syria's military was responsible, who fired the poison gas and who gave the order?

The Commander in Chief of all Syria's armed forces is the President, Bashar himself. He can order what he likes. But Syria's elite forces under him are commanded by his younger brother.

Maher is head of the Republican Guard, responsible for the defence of the capital, Damascus and the Commander of the elite Fourth Armoured Division. He is known to be tough and unforgiving.

There are other, more sinister elite units that Bashar commands and Maher may influence.

Syria has hundreds of tons of chemical weapons; according to the French intelligence report this week, more than a thousand tons.

The stocks include the deadly nerve agent Sarin, VX and mustard gas. These poisons are hidden at several sites around Syria. But as they are Syria's most potent and deadly weapon, they're controlled by a special branch of the military, thought to be under the personal control of the President himself.

Maher though is the man at his side. Or at his back.

Read: John Kerry: New evidence sarin used in Syria attacks

Like any brothers, there were fights when the three Assads were growing up, but Bashar tried to keep out of them. He was the good boy, the dutiful, quiet son who kept his head in his books

Maher wasn't like that. He may be the younger brother but he's the tougher Assad. He operates in the shadows, rarely seen in public or photographed.

Maher (L) and Bahar (R) al-Assad seen at their father's funeral with brother-in-law Major General Assed Shawkat (C) in 2000. Credit: Reuters

The brothers are very different. Bashar was the eye-surgeon, who went to London and married the beautiful Asma from Acton. He was never meant to be President, until the charismatic Basel, who was groomed to take the Presidency from his father died in a car crash in 1994. Maher was judged by his father Hafez to be too erratic, hot-tempered and perhaps dim, to lead the country.

So the reluctant Bashar was dragged back to Damascus, blinking in the glare he hated, promoted through the ranks of the army and inaugurated as President at the age of 34.

It was a fast track to the top.

As Bashar became a computer nerd and promised his country reforms after the repressive, often brutal rule of his father, Maher honed his military skills with Syria's toughest men.

He gained a reputation as a hard man. For a decade now, the brothers have played good cop, bad cop at the top of Syrian life. Bashar played the charmer, Maher the brute.

Bashar though, learned not to be a pussycat. From the start, he ordered killing when it suited him, in Lebanon. As soon as Syria's revolution began, it was met with bullets. Assad's father Hafez had brutally crushed a rebellion in Hama three decades ago. Within months, Bashar was to prove his father's son.

But as the rebels gained ground and Islamists joined the cause, many feared Bashar was not brutal enough. Damascus was being bombed, important people were scared. Gaddafi had been butchered and the President's men feared they would be too. Bashar, many said, looked weak.

Posters of Maher looking tough began to appear. He was in military uniform, steely and determined. Bashar's posters had him planting trees and smiling with children. There were rumours of a coup. Maher and his men would depose Bashar, it was whispered, and crush the rebels.

Whether the rumours were true or not, the fact is today Bashar is still President and Maher may be a cripple in uniform, victim of an assassination attempt.

It's believed he has already lost a leg in the civil war. He was in a Government building a year ago when a bomb planted by an insider-turned-rebel detonated, killing Syria's Defence Chief and one of the wider Assad family, Security chief Assef Shawkat, Bashar's brother-in-law.

But it may have been another assassination attempt on his brother- that so angered Maher that he fought for chemical weapons to be used a fortnight ago. At least, it's a theory Western Intelligence agencies don't rule out.

Read: Assad's brother 'injured' in Damascus attack

A month ago rebels fired rockets at Bashar's motorcade as he headed for a Mosque in the centre of Damascus. The attempt to kill the President failed but one of his bodyguards, said to have been a particular favourite of his children Hafez, Karim and Zein was killed.

Many inside and outside Syria believe this may have been the last straw for the hot-headed Maher. No assassination attempt of Bashar al-Assad could go unpunished, especially not one in the heart of the capital.

Only those who knew Damascus well could have been responsible, so rebels in Damascus would feel the full force of the Assad family fury.

More: Syrian opposition claims Assad's motorcade attacked in Damascus

Retaliation was ordered; revenge in volley of poison gas missiles. Maher made it happen.

And the rebel-held suburbs of Damascus were bombarded, killing hundreds.

That is the theory. There is no proof, of course. Because trying to prove exactly who was behind the attack is a problem. Trying to find out who is responsible for any killing in Syria is difficult.

But the fact remains, chemical weapons were used; someone gave the order and hundreds died.

One of Bashar al-Assad's men, Syria's Deputy Foreign Minister told me "there was a chemical weapons attack, but we did not do it." Assad himself has denied it, calling allegations that he would have given the order, "illogical".

"No, no, no, the army didn't do this!" the young soldier at a newspaper stand told me. He was an artillery gunner who fired at rebel-held suburbs, but not with chemical weapons, he said.

Maher commands elite Syrian forces, but there are many branches of the military and intelligence units he does not command, who may feel no loyalty to him. There are half a dozen intelligence branches alone, some more brutal than others.

The chemical weapons division of Syria's army may not answer to Maher. It may not even be under Bashar's direct control. It's possible, but unlikely, that it acted on its own orders to clear the rebel suburbs once and for all. After all, Assad's forces have been on a roll for months. They have retaken key towns and city districts.

But half a dozen suburbs of Damascus have been a thorn in the regime's side for two years, a gun pointed at its head. Clearing them has been a priority for months now, with lethal new offensives every few weeks. The Assad brothers may simply have run out of patience.

The story of their crackdown on the revolution has been a story of using more and more deadly weapons; weapons that no-one imagined they would dare use at the start.

From shooting bullets at protesters, they progressed to using tanks against cities. Next, Assad ordered Syria's military to use airpower, helicopter gunships and warplanes. I remember the shock of hearing a MiG swooping overhead for the first time last year and dropping bombs.

Read: Thousands of Syrians flee amid massacre fears

Is it inconceivable, given this escalation, that Bashar and his brother, decided to deploy chemical weapons? Small scale at first and easily covered up, testing the West's ability to discover it and its willingness to do anything about it?

After the first few killings, it's not unreasonable to think the Assad's may have decided last month to launch a bigger chemical attack, one they hoped to keep hidden, but if discovered, the biggest test of the West so far.

A successful strike would kill two birds with the one stone; clear a suburb and dare the divided West to do anything about it. And there is an Assad family tradition of ordering a massacre after an assassination attempt. This is the second generation of Assad brothers to play good cop-bad cop. The first President Assad, Hafez, had a younger brother who was head of elite military units. After rebels tried to kill Hafez in 1980, his little brother Rifaat declared all out war against the Muslim Brotherhood he blamed for the attack.

He warned the government was ready to kill a million Syrians to defend itself. The next day, attack helicopters gunned down 900 prisoners in a desert jail. Two years later, Rifaat ordered the city of Hama to be attacked, a mass slaughter in which tens of thousands died, a massacre without precedent in Syria. Until now.

Maher and Bashar are the sons of a notoriously tough mother and father.

Their mother Anisa Makhoulf was a peasant, who urged her equally rough-edged husband Hafez to rule with an iron fist. She expected her sons to be real Arab men.

While the father fought his way to the top and had connections, Bashar and Maher were handed what they have on a plate.

An insider says once Bashar took over "he was a young, inexperienced, out-of-touch crown prince who used violence more than his father because he didn't know any better and people told him to."

Maher watched. He learned from his brother's mistakes.

He commanded regiments whose only purpose is to be brutal when ordered. And for the last two years he has put his training into practice. It's thought he has commanded multiple attacks on rebels inside and outside Damascus.

For the Assad brothers this war is one of survival. So far, after two and a half years of revolt, they have survived longer than anyone thought possible.

They have succeeded in killing the Arab Spring in Syria and replacing it with a Deep Winter of mass slaughter.

"I love Bashar" the young newspaper seller told me, as he lifted a framed picture of his President and kissed it. Bashar is adored by millions of loyalists.

Mahar isn't loved by millions. He is respected. And he is feared.

But if the Islamists and rebels ever breach the bubble of security around both of them, there will be no respect and lots to fear.

2013, Sept 1 Important RECAP & End of Nine Month Period

<http://deniselefay.wordpress.com/2013/09/01/important-recap-end-of-nine-month-period/>

In January 2013 when I first noticed that the end of the Nine Months period happens on 9-22-13, those numbers really struck me and instantly triggered a series of higher awareness understandings about past/present/future events and the upcoming Separation of Worlds & Timelines. I apologize for the length of this article, but I believe it will be worth the time to read through it and connect some more Ascension dots.

I've mentioned in past articles, and covered in A Lightworker's Mission, that my Ascension Process started in January 1991 with the start of my Uranus Opposition (age 39). Next, in February 1999 at age 47, I entered the brutal start of the physical level, biological body Ascension Process. If you've read A Lightworker's Mission you know what I went through from 1999 and why. But, something happened in 2001 that I intentionally left out of the book (and blog articles) because it wasn't the time for me to say much of anything about it publicly — it is now however.

In the book I detail the profoundly horrible period I, my Mother, and even our pets went through because of two brothers that rented a house next door to us in April 2000. Long story short, they were possessed by a single demonic entity and were intentionally manipulated by It, Team Dark, to move in next door to us Elder Starseed Lightworkers in an attempt to stop/kill/drive mad/destroy/derail me and what we both were doing energetically in any way Team Dark (4D nonhuman and 3D human) could. Did I know any of this at that time? Unfortunately no because I was so profoundly sick from the Ascension Process. The situation (both physical and etheric attacks) with those possessed neighbors only made my already miserable and profoundly difficult Ascension Process vastly worse of course. When a Team Light Starseed/Wanderer/Lightworker is down and struggling with transmuting density duality, Team Dark typically takes advantage and rushes in and tries to finish you off!

So here were these two (slightly younger than myself) males that are some of the lowest of the low who are completely controlled by this 4D demon and I'm profoundly sick and weakened due to the intensity and amount of energetic transmuting I was doing then via the physical body Ascension Process. These neighbors hated us, and we them, and it was an impossibly difficult time that lasted for years.

Early one morning (remember I live in southern California) these possessed neighbors deliberately opened their front door and turned their TV up really loud because they very much wanted us to hear it. They had never done anything like this with their TV before so I knew something else was up. After about fifteen minutes of listening to their damned TV intentionally blaring away early in the morning at us out their front door, I realized they desperately wanted me and Mom to know that something was unfolding on TV. I gave in and turned on my TV to see what it was that they so obviously wanted us to be aware of. There, live as it was happening, was what's become known as the 9-11 event.

Team Dark very much wanted us of Team Light to see and feel this live event unfold in physicality and our possessed neighbors were manipulated to let me and my Mom know about it. (Normally we wouldn't have turned our TVs on until early evening Pacific time.) I knew instantly that day that the event I was watching unfold on TV was a multidimensional Team Dark creation and was so much more than was claimed and believed to be at the time it happened and for these 12 years. 12 is a number frequency that has represented 3D physicality; 12 hours in a day/night, 12 zodiac signs, 12 ancient Tribes etc. 13 is a number frequency that represents everything beyond the 12 of 3D physicality of old. It represents Christ or 5D High Heart Consciousness and being etc. This is why Team Dark did its best to convince humanity that 13 was/is evil, dangerous, suspect etc. and to be left alone; they don't want you escaping the old lower frequency and systems and evolving/ascending to the higher frequencies represented by 13.

Let me backtrack a bit more. Many weeks before this date I had clairaudiently heard and felt the most hateful, evil, nonhuman voice talking about how it was 'time for the white man to pay, time for justice to be had...' and other intensely hateful rants. What struck me when I heard this weeks before the date mentioned above, was that the voice I heard was a nonhuman voice and not only some vengeful human male(s) from the Middle East. There have long been unseen nonhuman Team Dark 4D Astral puppet masters orchestrating, manipulating and directing certain 3D human puppets to get more humans to carry out whatever 4D Astral Team Dark wants to happen in 3D earth physicality.

I knew from clairaudiently hearing this voice and the incomprehensible amount of hatred and darkness in it that it was a 4D Astral Team Dark being talking to other 4D Astral Team Dark beings who were working from that dimension to intentionally create, affect, manipulate, direct and finally impact the physical 3D earth and humanity physically in some big way for some big reasons. A few weeks after I head this voice, Team Dark's 4D Astral plans manifested in the 3D physical earth world on 9-11-01.

TEAM DARK'S LOWER OCTAVE USE OF NUMBER ENERGIES TO CREATE AN OFFSHOOT EARTH WORLD

Keywords—Completion, completion of a cycle of events, end/beginning, accomplishment, attainment, influence over situations, influence in circumstances.

Master Number, visionary, “treachery and betrayal from secret enemies”, psychic awareness, awakening, multidimensional creativity, portals open and portals close.

Void, unmanifest, potential, unlimited, nothing/everything, transformational change, intensity, eternal.

Strong will, power, visionary, new beginnings, new adventures, exert one's intent, creator, actions.

Combine the keywords from 0 zero and 1 and you can easily see and sense the ripe potential that year held to create. (Yes I know I've ignored the number 2 in 2001 but even if you add in the 2 to the 0 and 1 you get 3 which is still intense manifestation within 3D physicality!) The unmanifest potential contained in 0 combined with the sheer power and drive to manifest something in the energies of number 1 provided a LOT of energy and force to create whatever a group of someone's wanted to create...so they did.

Team Dark intentionally used the powerful combination of energies available from 9, 11, zero and 1 — 9-11-01 — to create an offshoot earth world and timeline where they would stay in total control over that world and those who exist on it. What Team Dark intentionally created utilizing the energies available on 9-11-01 was to deliberately create a huge emotional and psychic fracture in much of humanity; a horrific trauma that left people in shock making them even easier to control and herd in another direction, plus implement some new laws of the land to better control the masses then and in the future.

4D Astral Team Dark (Negative Orion/Reptilian/Draconian Alien beings etc.) intentionally created and carried out the 9-11-01 event (and much more) because they could see that in the near future the earth world that you and I incarnated on was headed for devastating natural disasters and the extinction of human life on earth around 2012. Because Team Dark did not want to lose their control and energetic food and fuel source, which has always been humanity and earth, they intentionally created a trauma to humanity massive enough to use energetically to fuel their creation of an offshoot earth world where they would continue to control humans and activities on that earth world. That physical offshoot earth world that Team Dark intentionally created through their multidimensional actions we call “9-11” — that earth world is called Planet B.*

4D Team Dark did what they’ve always done and manipulated the 3D humans they could to carry out their desires and plans in 3D physical earth reality to benefit themselves. Just like when some intense trauma or shock impacts a human, oftentimes that human will fracture their personality because they’re so traumatized by whatever it was that happened and couldn’t cope with and remain intact through it all. Team Dark has intentionally and repeatedly done this same thing to mass humanity from the 4D Astral to induce global trauma and shock in as many 3D humans as they could. This they did very well with their carefully crafted event that happened in physical 3D on 9-11-01.

4D Team Dark created this 3D physical event to use the dark emotional and psychic energies from the shock, trauma, fear, chaos, physical/emotional/mental/psychic pain, turmoil and growing hatred that event created in global humanity to deliberately induce so much trauma and fear that they could create a fracture in the human psyche which gave them the energetic fuel they needed to create and manifest an offshoot earth world and timeline that they do continue to control and use.

Do not misunderstand what I’m saying and believe that 4D and 3D Team Dark are “All Powerful” or that I believe they are because I do not. I want it clearly understood that Team Dark was allowed to do this by Divine Source so there would continue to be a physical earth world where darkness and negativity rule and that it would be even worse, even darker, even more violent and horrific than the dark negative earth world you and I were born on. Why allowed and why even darker and more negative? For those people/souls who haven’t figured it out yet! Divine Source allowed this creation by Team Dark — it did NOT happen because 4D and 3D Team Dark were “All Powerful”. They still believe they are of course, but Divine Source has given them more time to hopefully learn and grow and figure a few things out too.

Team Dark has always known more about certain things than the most conscious of incarnate Starseeds/Wanderers/Lightworkers Volunteers have because they’ve always been able to “See” past/present/future timelines and alternate worlds and probable realities from the 4D Astral. They had this tremendous advantage up until the 12-21-12 Expiration Date, but from that point forward, 4D Astral nonhuman and 3D Physical human Team Dark members have NOT had the “Sight” and extremely valuable information it’s always given them. This is why a lot of human Remote Viewers could not and cannot see past the 12-21-12 Expiration Date. This is also why some of the ultra-sensitive Team Light Forerunners have been increasingly aware of in 2013 that the 4D Astral is feeling like, sounding like, looking like, and been acting like everyone’s hair is on fire there! The 4D Astral and 3D human Team Dark members lost their tremendous advantage over this earth world and humanity on it at the 12-21-12 Expiration Date and have ever since been hustling to adapt to endings, separations, and major limitations as their old habitual reality, negative abilities and other tools and ways have been severely restricted and highly isolated finally. The 12-21-12 Expiration Date was exactly that and a total black out and lock out to 4D and 3D Team Dark activated then preventing them from being able to continue seeing multiple future timelines and world realities and manipulating them to their advantage. Welcome to the NEW dark, Dark.

TEAM LIGHT'S HARD WORK CREATING A NEW ASCENDED EARTH WORLD

What's happened in the timeline after 9-11-01 is equally interesting when viewed from Higher Awareness. In a nutshell, 4D Team Dark did what they did to create their offshoot earth world 12 years ago — what's become known as Planet B. Before, during, and after that date and event TEAM LIGHT has continuously worked very hard to create a higher frequency offshoot earth world themselves — what we call the NEW Planet A/B. We Team Light incarnate Volunteers on physical earth came to transmute the density, the negativity, the duality of the old world we incarnated on to cause it to ascend in density, vibration, frequency, Light, Heart and Consciousness to the point that a NEW physical earth world and timeline was manifested — Planet A/B.

In another timeline the original earth world (if it can be called that) we elders incarnated on continued towards escalating “Earth Changes” — catastrophic global natural disasters — to the point that humanity could no longer exit on it. This is the earth world some people were clairvoyantly Seeing twenty, twenty-five or more years ago and drawing maps of that looked nothing like where the current continents are located. This is the same earth world that many incarnate human Starseeds/Wanderers/Lightworkers were reminded repeatedly about and shown terrible images of by certain ETs over the decades either telepathically while awake; while asleep and out-of-body; and/or while out-of-body and on their UFO craft with them, that humanity was headed towards IF they did not change themselves, their consciousness, their beliefs and ways very fast.

I clairvoyantly saw that original earth world almost constantly from the mid to late 1990s. What I repeatedly saw clairvoyantly was a horrific sight to See and feel and was a powerful reminder and constant motivator that I was on earth for very specific reasons and to not waste time jerking around trying to be a “regular human” when I was a Starseed/Wanderer/Lightworker here on a VERY specific mission playing out on a VERY precise timeline. I know many of you reading this got the same messages and reminders in the ways you did and/or now are.

Team Dark has done things from the 4D Astral into the 3D Physical to make sure they will continue to have a physical earth world (and other offshoot ones of it too) where they are still in control and continue to parasite off humans even more severely than before if you can comprehend that. The Light gets lighter and larger and the Dark places get much darker and more compressed so that people/souls eventually figure out Duality and individually decide to head themselves back towards the Light/Home/Unity.

Simultaneously to all this TEAM LIGHT worked obsessively transmuting density duality across 3D earth and time (and in the 2D Elemental and 4D Astral and more) to help create a NEW higher frequency offshoot earth world and timeline where physicality and duality can still be experienced when needed for overall Soul growth, but, minus all Team Dark. This NEW earth world — Planet A/B — is a Stair Step world for the rest of humanity able to reach it now, to continue their Ascension Process on a physical earth world with Duality but without Team Dark and Team Dark influences like we had in the old lower earth world and timeline. This will make it tremendously easier and faster for humanity on Planet A/B to continue integrating duality in themselves individually and collectively and eventually evolve/ascend beyond this vastly improved NEW balanced and sane Stair Step world and level and reach full 5D.

Know that just because I'm talking about these things now does NOT mean that you or I will directly experience Planet B or any Planet B scenarios. You and I will continue to exist where we have for a couple of years already — the NEW balanced and Light-filled but still dualized but sane Planet A/B. Others will continue existing on this NEW dualized Planet A/B but with growing 5D consciousness and abilities. Most others will continue on it but from lower Stair Steps of development and awareness and will continue their ongoing Ascension Process which, at this level is, polarity/duality integration and eventual full resolution. Others will fully ascend to nonphysical 5D Planet A or elsewhere and so on. However, all this does NOT cancel out the FACT that Planet B and numerous other offshoot worlds of it will exist as other needed worlds and timelines for the people/souls who want, need, desire or are unaware enough to be drawn, sidetracked, or manipulated into it.

You will not experience Planet B or any of its offshoots unless you or I get really stupid or careless and fall or let ourselves be manipulated etc. back down vibrationally into a lower dense band of awareness and negative emotional focus... which we won't because we're not stupid after all we've been through! But, for some people (“fluffies”) to outright deny the existence of these other worlds and levels of reality and ongoing soul education and the many people/souls that want and/or need these (to us) unpleasant dark experiences just because you cannot yet grasp larger, more complex truths is egoic, deluded, and shows great disrespect towards everyone. It's grow up time which means it's time to know much more about much more, and obviously Duality!

NINE MONTHS COMPLETES ON 9-22-13 & SEPARATION OF WORLDS BEGINS

- 1) Winter/summer Solstice December 21, 2012 was the first Expiration Date or cutoff point of the old Evolutionary Cycle and all that went with it which includes 4D and 3D Team Dark running the entire patriarchal earth and humanity.
- 2) Next energetic Stair Step was the very important transitional Nine Month period from 12-21-12 to 9-22-13, and even it was broken into Three Trimesters (more of those energetic Stair Steps for everyone). The Nine Months period has been extreme, intense, difficult, painful emotionally and physically, exhausting, highly frustrating at times, yet profoundly progressive and expansive simultaneously just under the surface of all that other intense stuff!
- 3) The next Stair Step is the fall/spring Equinox September 22, 2013 which is the second Expiration Date and cutoff point and is the activation within the physical of the Separation of Worlds & Timelines. This date is more meaningful to me personally than all the other important ones that came before it because 9-22-13 is the last and absolute energetic cutoff point from the old Evolutionary Cycle, world, and those Negatives who ran planet earth and limited and controlled humanity for thousands of years. This cosmic spiritual Milestone surpasses all the great ones before it to me because it's the start of the NEW across the board.

Will this 9-22-13 Shift point alter everything physically, magically, instantly overnight? Yes and no, but just like 12-21-12 was the Expiration Date of the old Evolutionary Cycle, this date is an absolute ending/beginning point and the NEW begins fully on the physical which entails the separation between the different worlds and timelines. We enter a totally NEW phase of this huge Process on 9-22-13 which will be easier and faster than what we've already been through. Added to this 9-22-13 Expiration Date is the entrance into increasingly higher levels of individual Higher Awareness which will make everything vastly easier to deal with! Change like what will start physically after we complete the Nine Month period will have its difficult moments for sure, but, that doesn't mean that you personally will or have to experience them. Keep that in your Higher Heartmind and intentions as the NEW begins and obliterates the old lower everything. This too is a transitional time as the old lower collapses and disappears and the NEW higher and much better in every way replaces it all. Remember the Uranus/Pluto Squares happening from 2012 through 2015? They HAVE to unfold and do the dismantling that they will in the physical world so there's an important clue about how long these intense and possibly difficult changes may take. More about this major physical transitional phase in other articles. No fear.

MULTIPLE WORLDS & OFFSHOOT WORLDS

From what I've seen clairvoyantly and perceived from Higher Awareness so far, there are many more worlds and Earth-like worlds than just these Primary three. For example and very briefly, there are different offshoot worlds of Planet B so that all types of different dark/darker/darkest experiences can be experienced. One of these offshoot Planet B worlds is one where humans and machines are the main focus, desire, and intention. It's a completely heartless, scientific, left brained intellectual world where humans have willingly given up their humanity, their power, their spirituality etc. to become strictly left brained technological flesh machines.

There is another Planet B offshoot world where war is taken to the end extreme and all human life is eventually obliterated from the insane desire and blood-lust to endlessly war against others. This world is so ravaged by human warring and bombings etc. that it becomes non-life sustaining.

Another Planet B offshoot world is where the human Team Dark "elite" totally control the planet and enslave humankind far worse than the 3D Earth world we incarnated into. It's a totally fear-based and utterly controlled world minus all Team Light where the absolute worst of the worst and most imbalanced and insane "elite" control all of humanity and the planet. This particular Planet B offshoot Earth world is the one that's directly connected to their old 9-11-01 event.

I won't focus much on the NEW Planet A/B because it's a Primary Stair Step world for the people/souls that still need and/or desire a physical world schoolroom to continue their polarity integration journey and education towards eventual full ascension to nonphysical 5D. This NEW balanced and sane Planet A/B Earth world has its timeline and is coded to function for a certain number of years to help humans focus on making the transition from Duality to Triality or Unity Consciousness, frequency, and being. I've read Cosmic Awareness saying that the NEW Planet A/B is coded for approximately 3,000–3,600 years if memory serves, and this timeline certainly feels correct to me. It's plenty long enough to get the job done and make the natural evolutionary Stair Step on up to 5D consciousness and non-physicality.

I have seen and perceived many different versions of the NEW Planet A which is just wonderful. There is a primary Earth-like nonphysical world but there's so much variety to it due to the 5D High Heart Conscious Creativity of its inhabitants that's it's impossible to talk about them all. What I've perceived so far of it is beyond beautiful; it's stellar-like, crystalline-like, highly creative and diverse, full of Light, High Heart, and contains only people/souls of Light and other Light Beings and is much like "Home" to Starseeds/Wanderers/Lightworkers.

In other words, if lets say there's 500 humans/souls that have fully ascended to this Planet A today, then there's 500 unique individual versions of this fully ascended Planet A all existing within this same space and frequency range. Think of this like different neighborhoods or different towns in one big country. They all exist within the same place but there are slight differences from one house to another house, from one neighborhood to another neighborhood, from one town to another town and so on.

So old lower Planet B of 9-11 separates and goes its way; NEW Planet A/B of 9-22 separates and goes its way and so on with them all. Obviously from this last Expiration Date and cutoff point of 9-22-13, everything changes everywhere but that's a lot of other articles! This article was I feel, a much-needed recap and overview of what we've already been through and why and how it all has been part of the massive ongoing Ascension Process in every way. In a few short weeks we'll go further into the reality-altering changes that Planet A/B is and will be going through for the next few years. Yes all this could happen faster if all of humanity was more evolved, collectively aware, and all functioning within a closer range than they currently are. Because they're not it's simply going to take some "time" in physicality for the old patriarchy and their systems to completely fall and be replaced with the higher frequency NEW and run entirely by those of the Light. Having said all that, this transition will happen very quickly all things considered! Thanks for wading through this very long article, and know that your Donations are always greatly appreciated. ♥♥♥

The Alawites, also known as Alawis ('Alawīyyah Arabic: علوية) are a prominent mystical religious group centred in Syria who follow a branch of the Twelver school of Shia Islam. Alawites revere Ali ibn Abi Talib and the name "Alawi" means followers of Ali. The sect is believed to be founded by Ibn Nusayr, in the eighth century. For this reason, Alawites are sometimes referred to as "Nusayris" (Nuṣayrī Arabic: نصيرية). Another name, "Ansari" (al-Anṣārīyyah), is believed to be a mistransliteration of the former. Today, Alawites represent 12% of the Syrian population and are a significant minority in Turkey and northern Lebanon. There is also a population living in the village of Ghajar in the disputed Golan Heights. They are often confused with the Alevis of Turkey, another Shia sect.

Alawite beliefs are kept secret for outsiders, even for non initiated Alawites. Therefore many rumours about their religious beliefs have arisen. Alawites were historically persecuted for their beliefs by the various Sunni Muslim rulers of the area. The establishment of the French Mandate of Syria, marks a turning point in Alawi history. It gave the French the power to recruit Syrian civilians into their armed forces for indefinite periods of time and created exclusive areas for minorities (including an Alawite State). The Alawite State was later dismantled, but Alawites continued to have significant representation in the Syrian army. Since Hafez al-Assad took power in 1970, the government has been dominated by a political elite led by the secular Alawite Assad family. During the Islamic uprising in Syria in the '70s and '80s, this establishment came under tremendous pressure. The conflict continues today as a function of the Syrian civil war.

Etymology

The Alawites take their name from Ali ibn Abi Talib, a cousin of Muhammad.^[8] who was considered the first Shi'a Imam and the fourth Rightly Guided Caliph.^[9]

French occupational forces used the term Alaouites, a transliteration into French spelling.

In official sources, Alawis are often referred to as Ansaris. According to the Reverend Samuel Lyde, who lived among Alawites in the mid-19th century, this was a term they used among themselves. Other sources indicate that "Ansari" is simply a Western error in the transliteration of "Nosairi".^{[10][11]}

Alawites are separate from the Alevi religious sect in Turkey. The terms share similar etymologies and pronunciations, leading to outside confusion.^{[12][13]}

History: Origins

An Alawite falconer photographed by Frank Hurley in Baniyas, Syria, during World War II

The origin of the Alawites is disputed. Local folklore suggests that Alawis are descendants of the followers of the eleventh Imām, Hassan al-'Askarī (d. 873), and his pupil ibn Nuṣayr (d. 868).^[14] The Alawi religious sect seems to have been organised by a follower of Muhammad Ibn Nusayr, known as al-Khasibi, who died in Aleppo around 969 AD.^[15]

In 1032, Al-Khaṣībī's grandson and pupil, al-Tabarani, moved to Latakia, which was then controlled by the Byzantine Empire. Al-Tabarani became influential to the Alawite faith through his numerous writings and his conversion of the rural population of the Syrian Coastal Mountain Range to the Alawite faith.^[15]

In the 19th century and early 20th century, some Western scholars believed Alawites were descended from ancient Middle Eastern peoples such as Canaanites and Hittites.^[16]^[page needed]^[17]

Under the Ottoman Empire

The Ottoman Empire often ill-treated the Alawites,^[18] and attempted to convert them to Sunni Islam.^[19] The Alawis revolted against the Ottomans on several occasions, and because of their well-established fighting traditions, maintained virtual autonomy in their mountains.^[20]

In his book Seven Pillars of Wisdom, T. E. Lawrence wrote:

"The sect, vital in itself, was clannish in feeling and politics. One Nosairi would not betray another, and would hardly not betray an unbeliever. Their villages lay in patches down the main hills to the Tripoli gap. They spoke Arabic, but had lived there since the beginning of Greek letters in Syria. Usually they stood aside from affairs, and left the Turkish Government alone in hope of reciprocity."^[21]

However, some Alawis supported the Ottomans. Throughout the 18th century, the Ottomans employed a number of Alawite leaders as local tax collectors under the multazim system. In the 19th century, some Alawites supported the Ottoman involvement in the Egyptian-Ottoman Wars of 1831-1833 and 1839-1841,^[22] and some Alawites made careers in the Ottoman army or as Ottoman governors.^[23]

In the early part of the 20th century, the mainly Sunni Ottoman leaders were wealthy and dominated politics, while Alawites lived as poor peasants.^[24]^[25] Alawites were not allowed to testify in court until after World War I and the break-up of the Ottoman Empire.^[26]

French Mandate period

Saleh al-Ali, leader of the 1919 Alawite Revolt against French rule

After the end of the World War I and the fall of the Empire, Syria and Lebanon were placed by the League of Nations under the French mandate of Syria. On December 15, 1918, prominent Alawite leader Saleh al-Ali called for a meeting of Alawite leaders in the town of Sheikh Badr. He urged them to revolt and expel the French from Syria.

When the French authorities heard of the meeting, they sent a force to arrest Saleh al-Ali. Al-Ali and his men ambushed the French forces, and the attackers suffered defeat and more than 35 casualties.[\[27\]](#) After this victory, al-Ali started to organize his Alawite rebels into a disciplined force, with its own general command and military ranks.

The Sheikh Badr skirmish initiated the Syrian Revolt of 1919.[\[27\]](#)[\[28\]](#) In 1919, Al-Ali retaliated to French attacks by sieging and occupying al-Qadmus, from which the French conducted their military operations against him.[\[27\]](#) As a retaliation, in November, General Henri Gouraud mounted a full-fledged campaign against Saleh al-Ali's forces in the An-Nusayriyah Mountains. They entered al-Ali's village of al-Shaykh Badr and arrested many Alawi notables. Al-Ali fled to the north. When a large French force overran his positions, al-Ali went underground.[\[27\]](#)

Alawite State

Map showing the states of the French Mandate from 1921–22 (Alawite State in purple)

When the French began to fully occupy Syria in 1920,[\[29\]](#) an Alawite State was created in the coastal and mountain country that made up most Alawite villages; the French justified this ethnic segregation by pointing to the differences between the "backwards" mountain people and the more accepted Sunnis. The division was also meant to protect the Alawite people from more powerful majorities like the Sunnis.

The French also created statelets such as Greater Lebanon for the Maronite Christians, and Jabal Druze for the Druze. Aleppo and Damascus were also separated into states.[\[30\]](#) Under the mandate, many Alawite chieftains supported the notion of a separate Alawite nation and tried to convert their autonomy into independence.

The French encouraged Alawites to join their military force, in part to provide a counterweight to the Sunni majority, which was more hostile to their rule. However, according to a 1935 letter by the French minister of war, the French considered the Alawites, along with the Druze, as the only "warlike races" in the mandate territories.[\[31\]](#)

The region was home to a mostly rural, but highly heterogeneous population. The landowning families of the port city of Latakia, and 80% of the population of the city, were Sunni Muslim, but in rural areas, 62% of the population was Alawite peasantry. There was a great deal of Alawite separatist sentiment in the region.[\[32\]](#) This is evidenced by a letter dating from 1936 and signed by 80 Alawi leaders. The letter was addressed to the French Prime Minister, and said that "Alawite people rejected attachment to Syria and wished to stay under French protection." Among the signatories was Sulayman Ali al-Assad, the father of Hafez al Assad.

[\[32\]](#)

In May 1930, the Alawite State was renamed "the Government of Latakia." This was one of the very few concessions that the French made to Arab nationalists before 1936.[\[32\]](#) [\[32\]](#) Nevertheless, on 3 December 1936, the Alawite State was re-incorporated into Syria as a concession by the French to the Nationalist Bloc, the party in power of the semi-autonomous Syrian government. The law did not go into effect until 1937.[\[33\]](#)

Alawite woman gleaning in 1938

In 1939, the Sanjak of Alexandretta, now Hatay, contained a large number of Alawites. The Hatayan land was given to Turkey by the French following a plebiscite carried out in the province under the guidance of the League of Nations. This development greatly angered most Syrians, and to add to Alawi contempt, in 1938, the Turkish military went into Alexandretta and expelled most of its Arab and Armenian inhabitants.[\[34\]](#) Before this, Alawite Arabs and Armenians were the majority of the province's population.[\[34\]](#) Zaki al-Arsuzi, a young Alawite leader from Iskandarun province in the Sanjak of Alexandretta, who led the resistance to the annexation of his province to the Turks, later became a co-founder of the Ba'ath Party along with the Eastern Orthodox Christian schoolteacher Michel Aflaq and Sunni politician Salah al-Din al-Bitar.

After World War II, Salman Al Murshid played a major role in uniting the Alawite province with Syria. He was executed by the Syrian government in Damascus on December 12, 1946 only three days after a political trial.

After Syrian independence

The al-Assad family

Syria became independent on April 17, 1946. In 1949, following the 1948 Arab-Israeli War, Syria endured a succession of military coups and the rise of the Ba'ath Party.

In 1958, Syria and Egypt were united through a political agreement into the United Arab Republic. The UAR lasted for three years. In 1961, it broke apart when a group of army officers seized power and declared Syria independent.

A further succession of coups ensued until, in 1963, a secretive military committee, which included a number of Alawite officers, including Hafez al-Assad and Salah Jadid, helped the Ba'ath Party seize power. In 1966, Alawite-affiliated military officers successfully rebelled and expelled the old Ba'ath that had looked to the founders of the Ba'ath Party, the Greek Orthodox Christian Michel Aflaq and the Sunni Muslim Salah al-Din al-Bitar, for leadership. They promoted Zaki al-Arsuzi as the "Socrates" of their reconstituted Ba'ath Party.

In 1970, then Air Force General, Hafez al-Assad, an Alawite, took power and instigated a "Correctionist Movement" in the Ba'ath Party. The coup of 1970 ended the political instability that had lasted since the arrival of independence. [\[35\]](#) Robert D. Kaplan has compared Hafez al-Assad's coming to power to "an untouchable becoming maharajah in India or a Jew becoming tsar in Russia—an unprecedented development shocking to the Sunni majority population which had monopolized power for so many centuries."[\[29\]](#) In 1971, al-Assad declared himself president of Syria, a position the constitution at the time allowed only for Sunni Muslims to hold. In 1973, a new constitution was adopted that omitted the old requirement that the religion of the state be Islam and replaced it with the statement that the religion of the republic's president is Islam. Protests erupted when this was known. [\[36\]](#) In 1974, in order to satisfy this constitutional requirement, Musa Sadr, a leader of the Twelvers of Lebanon and founder of the Amal Movement who had earlier sought to unite Lebanese Alawites and Shi'ites under the Supreme Islamic Shi'ite Council without success,[\[37\]](#) issued a fatwa stating that Alawites were a community of Twelver Shi'ite Muslims.[\[38\]](#)[\[39\]](#) Under the authoritarian but secular Assad government, religious minorities were tolerated more than before, but political dissidents were not. In 1982 when the Muslim Brotherhood mounted an anti-government Islamist insurgency, Hafez Assad staged a military offensive against them which has since been referred to as the Hama massacre.

Beliefs

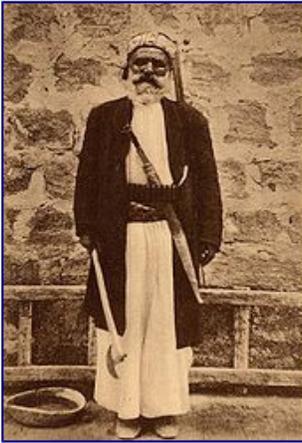

Alawites celebrating a festival in Banyas, Syria, during World War II

The Alawites derive their beliefs from the Prophets of Islam, from the Quran, and from the books of the Imams from the Ahlulbayt such as the Nahj al-Balagha by Ali ibn Abu Talib. Alawites are self-described Shi'ite Muslims, and have been recognised as such by Shi'ite authorities such as Ayatollah Khomeini and the influential Lebanese Shi'ite cleric Musa al-Sadr of Lebanon.[\[38\]](#)[\[40\]](#)[\[41\]](#)[\[42\]](#)[\[43\]](#)[\[44\]](#)

The prominent Sunni Grand Mufti of Jerusalem Mohammad Amin al-Husayni also issued a fatwah recognizing them as part of the Muslim community in the interest of Arab nationalism.^{[45][46]} Some Sunni scholars such as Ibn Kathir, on the other hand, have categorized Alawites as pagans in their religious works^[47] and documents.^{[18][48]}

Alawite man in Latakia, early 20th century

Some tenets of the faith may be secret and known only to a select few Alawites.^{[18][49]} They have been described as a mystical sect.^[50] Besides the Islamic festivals, they have been reported to celebrate certain Christian festivals, including the birth of Jesus and Palm Sunday.^{[29][39]} Their most significant feast is the Eid al-Ghadeer.

The claim that Alawites believe Ali is a deity has been contested by scholars.^[51] By some accounts, Alawites believe in reincarnation.^[52]

Alawi women in Syria, early 20th century

Some sources have suggested the non-orthodox nature of some of the ancient Alawite beliefs; notwithstanding, Alawite beliefs may have changed in recent decades. In the early 1970s a booklet entitled "al-`Alawiyyun Shi'atu Ahl al-Bait" ("The Alawites are Followers of the Household of the Prophet"), was issued in which doctrines of the Imami Shi'ah were described as Alawite, and which was "signed by numerous `Alawi` men of religion".^[53]

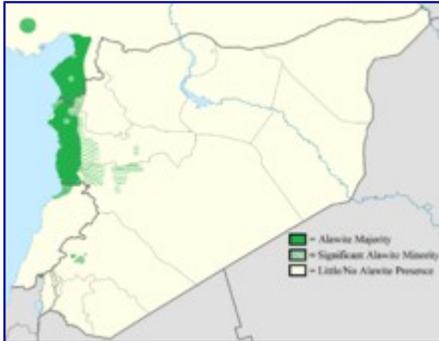

A scholar suggests that factors such as the high profile of Alawites in Syria, the strong aversion of the Muslim majority to apostasy, and the relative lack of importance of religious doctrine to Alawite identity may have induced Syrian leader Hafez al-Assad and his successor son to press their fellow Alawites "to behave like 'regular Muslims', shedding or at least concealing their distinctive aspects".^[54]

Alawites have their own scholars, referred to as shaikhs, although more recently there has been a movement to bring Alawism and the other branches of Twelver Islam together through educational exchange programs in Syria and Qom.^[55]

Some sources have talked about "Sunnification" of Alawites under Baathist Syrian leader and Alawite Hafiz al-Assad.^[56] Joshua Landis, Director of the Center for Middle East Studies, writes that Hafiz al-Assad "tried to turn Alawites into 'good' (read Sunnified) Muslims in exchange for preserving a modicum of secularism and tolerance in society." On the other hand Al-Assad "declared the Alawites to be nothing but Twelver Shiites".^[56] In a paper on "Islamic Education in Syria", Landis wrote that "no mention" is made in Syrian textbooks controlled by the Al-Assad regime, of Alawites, Druze, and Ismailis or even Shi'a Islam. Islam was presented as a monolithic religion.[57] Ali Sulayman al-Ahmad, chief judge of the Baathist Syrian state, has stated: "We are Alawi Muslims. Our book is the Quran. Our prophet is Muhammad. The Ka`ba is our qibla, and our religion is Islam." [58]

Population

Map showing the current distribution of Alawites in the Levant

Syria

Traditionally Alawites have lived in the Alawite Mountains along the Mediterranean coast of Syria. Latakia and Tartous are the region's principal cities. Today Alawites are also concentrated in the plains around Hama and Homs. Alawites also live in all major cities of Syria. They have been estimated to constitute about 12% of Syria's population [59][60][61]—2.6 million people of Syria's 22 million population. [2]

There are four Alawite confederations—Qalbiyya, Khaiyatin, Haddadin, and Matawirah—each divided into tribes. [18] Alawites are concentrated in the Latakia region of Syria, extending north to Antioch \(Antakya\), Turkey, and in and around Homs and Hama. [62]

Before 1953, Alawites held specifically reserved seats in the Syrian Parliament like all other religious communities. After that, including for the 1960 census, there were only general Muslim and Christian categories, without mention of subgroups in order to reduce "communalism" (taifiyya).

In order to avoid confusion with Alevis, Alawites prefer the self-appellation Arap Alevileri ("Arab Alevi") in Turkish. The term Nusayrī, which used to exist in (often polemical) theological texts is also revived in recent studies.

In Çukurova, they are named as Fellah and Arabuşağı, the latter considered highly offensive by Alawites, by the Sunni population. A quasi-official name used particularly in 1930s by Turkish authorities was Eti Türkleri ("Hittite Turks"), in order to conceal their Arab origins. Today, this term is almost obsolete but it is still used by some people of older generations as a euphemism.

The exact number of Alawites in Turkey is unknown, but there were 185,000 in 1970[63] (this number suggests circa 400,000 in 2009). As Muslims, they are not recorded separately from Sunnis in ID registration. In the 1965 census (the last Turkish census where informants were asked their mother tongue), 180,000 people in the three provinces declared their mother tongue as Arabic. However, Arabic-speaking Sunni and Christian people are also included in this figure. Alawites traditionally speak the same dialect of Levantine Arabic with Syrian Alawites. Arabic is best preserved in rural communities and Samandağ. Younger people in Çukurova cities and (to a lesser extent) in İskenderun tend to speak Turkish. Turkish spoken by Alawites is distinguished by Alawites and non-Alawites alike by its particular accents and vocabulary. Knowledge of the Arabic alphabet is confined to religious leaders and men who have worked or studied in Arab countries.

Alawites show a considerable pattern of social mobility. Until 1960s, they used to work bound to Sunni aghas (landholders) around Antakya and were among the poorest folk in Çukurova. Today, Alawites are prominent in economic sectors such as transportation and commerce. A large professional middle-class had also emerged. In recent years, there has been a tendency of exogamy, particularly among males who had attended universities and/or had lived in other parts of Turkey. These marriages are highly tolerated but exogamy of women, as in other patrilineal groups, is usually disfavoured.

Alawites, like Alevis, mainly have strong leftist political preferences. However, some people in rural areas (usually members of notable Alawite families) may be found supporting secularist conservative parties such as True Path Party. Most Alawites feel discriminated by the policies of the Presidency of Religious Affairs in Turkey (Diyanet İşleri Başkanlığı).[64][65]

There are an estimated 100,000 to 120,000[4][66] Alawites in Lebanon, where they have lived since at least the 16th century.[67] They are recognized as one of the 18 official Lebanese sects, and due to the efforts of their leader Ali Eid, the Taif Agreement of 1989 gave them two reserved seats in the Parliament. Lebanese Alawites live mostly in the Jabal Mohsen neighbourhood of Tripoli, where they number 40,000–60,000, and in 15 villages in the Akkar region, and are mainly represented by the Arab Democratic Party. [68][69][70] Their Mufti is Sheikh Assad Assi.[71] The Bab al-Tabbaneh, Jabal Mohsen clashes between pro-Syrian Alawites and anti-Syrian Sunnis have haunted Tripoli for decades.[72]

There are also about 2000 Alawites living in the village of Ghajar, split between Lebanon and the Golan Heights. [73] In 1932, the residents of Ghajar were given the option of choosing their nationality and overwhelmingly chose to be a part of Syria, which has a sizable Alawite minority.[74] Prior to the 1967 Arab-Israeli War, the residents of Ghajar were counted in the 1960 Syrian census.[75] When Israel captured the Golan Heights from Syria in 1967, Ghajar remained a no-man's land for two and a half months.
