Opening Meditation: Angelsu MR wishes Angelsu Happy Birthday

MR: AnnieRose will not be with us this week; another death in the family.

Mayan Calendar: Rainbird

May 24th Thurs: 8 Cuauc - the power of catalyzing

25th Fri: 9 AHAU - completion of this unial; 9 is about completion, larger cycles of time; ahau is rising to the Christ consciousness, about possibility seeking, surrendering

26th Sat: 10 IMIX - 10 is a manifestation day, full moon on this day, as well as the eclipse in western part of the country; being guided by the moon: about telepathy; IMIX is about unity - the day is being guided by the moon, the guide tone; the spirit teacher is the moon; the challenge teacher is the monkey

26th Sun: 11 IK the wind, the spirits of our ancestors - good time to listen to the wind and receive messages; 11 let go of what no longer serves you

27th Mon: 12 AKBAL Akbal is the night; also about abundance; 12 is complex abilities - union of polarity;

28th Tues: 13 KAN we complete the week of IB - Kan is the seed, self-determination

MR: how often does this pattern come? Is it rare? [10 portal days in a row]

Rainbird: yes, it is rare - the 7th unial [20 days] is the core day of the 260; this wave is like Kan - all portal days

Astrology: Annie Rose

Won't be with us tonight; a second death in her family

Hard News:

T: LM Nada said of the 3rd eclipse that it is the love of Christ combined with the Buddha - this is the final nail in the coffin of the cabal - they are going to have all kinds of royal carpet leading to the Dark Rift

Reading: Full Moon/Lunar Eclipse 5-24-2013[SEE BELOW]

We can expect big energies to be moving all kinds of things around!

R: Nada said today that huge things are unravelling right now and they all have to do with the eclipse

T: the potency of this time could trigger security issues of judgement and doubt - this could be what Annie rose was warning us about: these kids who have 24 codons and never get sick are aligned with the awareness that we are All One; that we are connected through the heart; and they have no more judgement of the planet - there are 60+ million of these children, and now adults are actualizing these DNA changes in their bodies too!

MR: how do you take this- the judgement and doubt: is this about people in our country questioning officials?

T: in the commentary of even the most liberal of folks - there are quite a few whistle blowers on the Light side who have fallen through the cracks, getting themselves compromised - Jeremy Scahill; Abby Martin; Mike Papantonio; Thom Hartmann has a few moments as well - he calls NESARA a fraud on his show

T: " I love my country"; "abide by the rule of law"; "you are a constitutional lawyer" - BO let her stay and say all these things until she was complete - Medea Benjamin - talks of Al Awlaki's son - yes, Al Awlaki did try to kill people in this country: remember that the Al Queda is CIA -duh

- Said by nada, Rana Mu, Larry: Barack is 100 paces ahead of these guys - when he says something that Al Queda did all these things; it will come out that Al Queda is us [the US] - yet they have to be arrested first

R: Nada said with all due respect to those who are waiting for the dinar, the dong; Rana Mu also said it - while Cheney, Rove, Bush are still on the planet - how do you receive about what is to occur that is about to change things on the surface of this planet?

- Everything gets revalued when NESARA is announced

T: even those in the higher echeolons who got their dinars paid out - they will lose it; will have to give back every single dime AND will be arrested. Not a joke - this country and the world needs a new economy and retribution for crimes against humanity - the way the dinar and all the existing currencies are sitting now, they are supporting the existing economy

R: the elder dragons are still on the planet - those from Dracos who are Mother's people: they have a right to live as we do yet love is the answer: 28, 826 years ended in Dec 21st/11 - the end of the Mayan calendar. It is about full disclosure.

- We are in the 5th dimension and it is already manifesting; we are catching up with the energies which are going on and all of a sudden, we are seeing how this relates

- Randi Rhodes played 30 minutes of Valerie Plame's closed door meeting with Senate sub-committee where she said 9/11 was an inside job, and Scooter Libby outed her, yet there has been no resolution for high treason! They are not arrested.

T: More of the astrology reading: Venus, Mercury and gift-giving Jupiter are all happily aligned in Gemini. In fact, if you look at the sky just after sunset this weekend, you will see these three heavenly bodies clustered together shining like diamonds in the western sky. [We will be able to see this for next month!]

Guest: Lloyd Mear [has been coming on these calls for years]

- has helped lots of people on the call, also creates structured water
- the sun flares are one thing that are affecting us; as we deal with them, we become more knowledgeable
 - at the moment, body balances are out - like a vertigo; can even get feeling of sea-sickness
- Additions to the program in Alzheimer's, dementia areas - has developed numbers to identify that the brain cells are dying off; the number can stop the progression of that issue
 - the number he develops gets rid of the dominating frequency of the dementia and then the balance in the brain returns
- Lloyd gives the background of how he came to do this work and adds that the general development of Numbers to affect body changes is ongoing every day;

Water product: the water is a delivery system; the info in the water is the secret

- the balanced water/ the mineral water serves the systems of the body as a whole
- the 2nd bottle deals with the nutritional needs of the body - drink from one bottle for a week, then switch to the other
- take water out of the container and refill with water without any chemicals; use the 108 number
- Water will last 6-8 months
- He explains how to energize the water

TO UNDERSTAND HIS WORK FULLY & HOW HE TAILORS NUMBERS TO INDIVIDUAL NEEDS, PLEASE LISTEN TO THIS SEGMENT OF THE CALL

T & MR: discussion about Lloyd's call - that it started with the subject of water - this corresponds to what was being said in the astrological reading about the need for water in watery, changeable signs.

Other headlines:

T: British authorities arrest 2 more people on the fatal attack in London

R: Nada said the attack was another distraction; like the IRS hearing & Issa, Holder - all distractions

T: Socialist Democratic party in Germany is 150 years old; they are not Angelca Merkel's people, yet she works with them in a fairly good way

R: Nada said the Euro is doomed to fail at any time now, and Merkel will have to answer to the people and tell the whole story of the Nazi Satanist goings on - send them more love; this is what the Admiral said to say and to share.

T: From Journal News: Obama said - before any strike is taken, there must be certainty that no civilians will be killed, the highest standard that we can set.

Caller: is there a group in the military/scientific community, about 20% that are nervous about doing the right thing, about coming to the Light?

T: the focus is on the Pentagon: there are only 2% that are still recalcitrant - has been true for a long time, and they aren't going to budge - they are not in control any more! What Obama has done in tonight's speech is off the charts

R: the fact that he acknowledged Medea Benjamin and said her voice needs to be heard as well as the other voices because that is how we come to resolution and closure and peace

T: he moved light years ahead of them today with what he did - there has never been a sitting president that has honoured a speech from an audience member like he did; it was an amazing grace!

Caller: this chart is making us go very deep

T: Finishes the reading: says B Fulford did a commendable job this time

MR: this week, she has not had the same kind of questions come in at all; those who have called are in over whelm, can't even find the question!

T: Jon Stewart - May 23, 2013 - Morgan Freeman is guest; plays some of Obama's speech as set-up to a segment called "Priorities USA"

Jon Stewart Hammers Obama And The Justice Department For Leak Investigations On Journalists

Comedy Central

Jon Stewart tore into the Obama administration and the Department of Justice on "The Daily Show" Thursday, ripping the administration's aggressive handling of leak investigations.

Stewart took issue with the administration's approach to leak investigations and prosecution of marijuana-related offenses and how it contrasts to a softer approach in going after banks.

Highlighting the renewed attention to a 2009 case involving Fox News reporter James Rosen, Stewart said that the Obama administration "believes in freedom of the press — just not freedom of speech for people who might talk to the press."

"That's just them exhibiting fairness," Stewart said of the Rosen case. "If you're going to go after whistleblowers, you've also got to go after those who have had their whistles blown."

He mocked the premise of the case against Rosen, who was labeled a "co-conspirator" for reporting that North Korea might respond to United Nations sanctions with more nuclear tests. Stewart wondered if Rosen's other scoops included "Jon Stewart is Jewish."

Thursday Night Call

The Justice Department's strategy, Stewart noted, seems to be rooted in going after hackers, "potheads," medical marijuana dispensaries. He said that their priorities are skewed.

"Basically, if you could be played in a movie by Kevin Smith, the feds would like a word with you," Stewart said.

But when it comes to the big fish in banks, Stewart noted that no top Wall Street executives have been arrested — more than four years after the financial crisis.

2013, May 24 Full Moon/Lunar Eclipse 5-24-2013Dear Friends,

Full Moon with a Lunar Eclipse is Friday, May 24, at 10:25 PM Mountain Daylight Time. This is the third eclipse and bookend to this powerful and transformative time. It is difficult to predict what the fallout may be from what has been stirred up during this month but you can expect some big energy to be moving around. The potency of this time could trigger security issues, judgment and doubt. Hopefully you will have had synchronicity and signs during the month that will keep you focused positively on your newfound abilities to manifest. This full moon is a time to recommit to what you know in your heart to be true about what you want to manifest.

Keep in mind that every thought, intention, desire, doubt, emotion, reaction and action has been greatly magnified during this time. Most likely you have had to deal with an intensity level in your life that feels bigger than what you have had to deal with in the past. You are giving birth to a new self and the birth process is stretching you in ways that you have not experienced before. Think of yourself in training for the higher frequency and expansive energy emerging on the planet. It is always important that you take some time and be in gratitude for your ability to step up to what life is giving you as well as to take a breath and a break from it all when you need balance. And take care of the body in some way as the body struggles with new energies it does not understand. You may be experiencing aches and pains you never had before. Work with water, drink lots of it, immerse yourself in it and make sure you are getting enough minerals.

Blessings,
Lena

ASTROLOGICAL NOTES:

Full Moon in Sagittarius/Lunar Eclipse Friday, May 24, 2013 10:25 PM MDT
(Saturday, May 25, 2013 4:25 AM GMT)

Support and ease is abundant in the Full Moon chart and at the same time, challenges and tensions are strong in this powerful, amplified window.

Keep in mind three interacting factors for this Moon:

1-Lunar eclipse

2-SuperMoon! (Which means the Moon is closest to the Earth, and Sun, Moon, Earth are in alignment to each other in a straight arrow fashion)

3-Exact Pluto square Uranus aspect period May 20 (third of seven squares from 2012 to 2015)

We are completing a notable growth period provided by the three-eclipse container of the last month and fueled by the awakening of the solar flares. With 2012-13 the peak in the 11-year sunspot cycle, the sunspots, so rapid fire in 2012 have remained quiet all year until now. Currently, totally active! They held their fire until we needed some extra fuel for the growth we have experienced in the last eclipse month. We're being stretched, prodded, pressured and examined to see what we're made of, and what we value enough to show up for. Windows like these help us destabilize, lose the familiar, and get out of our well-developed minds and get a glimpse of Spirit's intention for our highest good. Our bodies don't like it; resistance surfaces, but destabilization brings our best shot for regrouping, expanding and shepherding in the higher frequencies, quickened time, and greater balance our planet is now ready for.

At the same time, there is such effortless, easeful trine energy available here especially from the water signs-our emotional, receptive, fluid nature where we just tap in and intuitively understand what is going on from our deep knowingness. This trine water energy is part of our learning as well at this time - how to be fluid, receive, use our feminine powers of cooperation. Being connected feels so nourishing now - to others, to Spirit, to Nature, to our own hearts. If we don't let the pressure of the dense physical illusion move us into fear (and there is plenty of reason to go there!), then we can tap into the frequencies that are supporting us in this extremely creative, exciting time.

It's a dance! A balancing of pressure and surrender and the Sun's shift into Gemini is just the energy we need to lighten the dense quality of our physicality so more miraculous energies of the invisible world can be made manifest through each of us. Part of the turn of 2012 relates to turning the corner on this planet of not only masculine polarity and violence, but in the denseness our bodies hold. Lighten up! Allow spaciousness. Give Spirit some room to work miracles and give you your heart's desire. We are breaking the container we hold collectively of the suffering, hardship and loss of connection to Spirit and our planet of the last 2000+ years. Let's allow this Gemini/Sagittarius Full Moon to work with our minds, thinking and connecting processes, beliefs, interpretations, and visionary abilities to create a larger, richer and more vibrant, abundant container for ourselves. We need to 'hundred monkey' this frame of mind, and this is the Moon for it.

Venus, Mercury and gift-giving Jupiter are all happily aligned in Gemini. In fact, if you look at the sky just after sunset this weekend, you will see these three heavenly bodies clustered together shining like diamonds in the western sky. Mercury is powerful in its own sign and ruler of the Gemini Sun; Jupiter in Gemini rules the full Sagittarius Moon. Venus is also in Gemini and in the same degree as Mercury - perfect support for playing with your mind and mental habits in new ways. The trio, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, are supporting Juno, Goddess of Committed Relationship, who is challenging and squaring the North and South Nodes. The Nodes represent what we have brought in from the past (South) and the cutting edge of where we are growing and learning (North). The challenge is in fixed, power signs (Taurus, Scorpio, Aquarius) so it represents a long-standing pattern that needs to be moved in the way we hold our personal relationships.

If we back out and look at a bigger picture, Pluto squaring Uranus is affecting our planet and our consciousness with an extended period of transformative forces and revolutionary change. We have to look at the traditional, calcified structures within our society and ourselves and submit them to the radical change demanded by Uranus. These two square again on November 1st, in the spring and fall of 2014, and for the last time in the spring of 2015. In the Full Moon chart, it is Vesta, Goddess of the Sacred Temple Flame, who is exactly opposing Pluto and squaring Uranus. Vesta is the feminine part of us that preserves our sexual/creative energy for focused dedication to a personal calling (sometimes sacred, artistic or enterprising). So Vesta is challenging the status quo and encouraging us to clarify from deep within our heart's sanctuary where we want to concentrate and devote our energies.

The awakening our planet is experiencing will not move forward without the influences of the feminine aspects of ourselves holding a core position. We are all part of the shift from the constructs of cause and effect Newtonian physics to quantum physics. An eclipse in Gemini/Sagittarius has the potential to move our mental energies to a place that can encompass even greater capacities focused through the heart. Our very bodies must evolve from an electro-magnetic based manifestation to a more crystalline field with far greater abilities to connect with our planet, heal and nourish our bodies, manifest with ease, and utilize all the support available to us from the invisible worlds. Everything will be amplified during this eclipse period, so let's consciously put forth our thoughts, prayers, intentions, and visualizations to activate the highest good for all and the best possible future.

2013, May 20 ~ Signs Of End Game In Washington D.C. Proliferate, End Of Cold War In North East Asia
Also Coming by Benjamin Fulford

North Korean countryside

One of the most frustrating but necessary things for journalists is to hold information on embargo until a go ahead is given for publishing. This is one of those frustrating times. Embargoes are needed to ensure plans are not sabotaged and lives are not endangered.

However, there are enough hints available in the public domain for us to put some dots together. What is clear is that there is a lot of hysteria in Washington D.C. (IRS, Benghazi etc.) and London, England (pedophilia, gold market). It is also clear that for at least six months public statements by the US State Department repeated in the Zionist media have been regularly contradicted by the Pentagon. There are also proliferating signs of a breakdown in the financial system. All of this points to some sort of dramatic black swan incident soon. We will talk more about this below.

In Asia as well, secret negotiations with North Korea and among Asian powers are clearly preparations for a change in the post-war global power structure. The visit to North Korea last week by Isao Iijima, special envoy of Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe, was a case in point. We got four different versions of what was talked about, two Japanese, one North Korean and one Chinese. Like the Sufi story of the blind men and the elephant (an elephant is big and flat, it is like a hose, it is like a tree trunk etc.) you need to piece the different versions together to figure out what is really going on. What the stories all agree upon though is that the visit was a best a fishing expedition, at worst a failure.

A source in the Japanese imperial family had the most interesting take on what Iijima had to say to the North Koreans. According to this source, Iijima asked the North Koreans if they would be willing to host 1 million Sabbatean refugees expected to want to leave Europe and the United States soon and was told no. This story about 1 million refugees looking for a place to go after leaving the United States has propped up repeatedly and from enough different sources that it seems to stem from a genuine belief that 1 million people will be asked to leave the US once the truth about what has been done by them to the American people is made public. My sources say they will not be allowed to leave but will have to face the music (i.e. be sent to the FEMA camps they prepared for others).

The Chinese government source had a different angle on what went on during this visit. According to him, Iijima was told very clearly that North Korea was not willing to negotiate through the Japanese Foreign Ministry because it was staffed with Zionist slaves who have twice sabotaged deals reached between Japan and North Korea to normalize relations. This was in line with what a source in the Japanese public security police heard too.

The North Korean source also said the Japanese Foreign Ministry was not to be trusted. North Korea has made a very friendly and detailed proposal to deal with all outstanding issues preventing resumption of friendly diplomatic relations between North Korea and Japan. We know the details but have been asked to keep them secret for now.

The Japanese official also pointed out that countries like Germany, France and the UK already have extensive relations with North Korea that they were not talking about. British Tobacco, for example, sells North Korean Tobacco labeled as British, he said.

There is also something going on under the surface in South Korea that is related to this issue somehow. South Korean conglomerates are desperate to get their hands on South Korean Won and have been offering to trade them for yen at a two to one rate compared to the official exchange rate. They are also trying to sell old imperial South Korean gold (although they have not yet provided satisfactory proof of its existence).

This is related to a major attack on control of the South Korean banking system by Goldman Sachs, according to an executive at a Japanese securities company. It is also related, as reported in previous issues, to plans to tax the assets of South Korean residents of Japan who wish to take their yen to Korea before tax officials seize them.

The Asians all seem to be waiting for some sort of major event in the United States that will allow the map of North East Asia to be fundamentally redrawn.

The question everybody who is not brain dead or bribed is asking, of course, is when the crooks on Wall Street and in Washington D.C. will finally be rounded up and put in jail where they belong. Some sources say the takedown has already begun. The firing of 26 generals was a start. Now the Internal Revenue Service is being taken down, they say.

The real question, of course, is when the elders of Zion are rounded up and put in jail. Never mind the debate over whether or not the Protocols of the Elders of Zion is a racist forgery. The fact of the matter is that Zionism exists, it is not (but pretends to be) Judaism, and it is guilty of massive crimes against humanity.

Here is a link for those of you who still have heads in the sand over this issue:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=-Iyj6UPCChA

The Zionists must have leaders who could be labeled "Elders of Zion." A senior member of the Italian P2 lodge says two names in particular are now blocking the start of the new financial system: Cohen and Levi. Chinese sources have already identified a Jean Cohen of the Hoche Group in France as having paid Chinese demonstrators 1200 yuan a day to stage anti-Japanese riots. The Levi name is more mysterious but they will be flushed out of the woodwork sooner rather than later.

When this high level crime syndicate is finally brought down, a redistribution of criminally obtained assets (think hedge fund, offshore, 100 times leverage, insider trading etc.) is certain to follow.

That is probably why many of the richest Americans are in a panic to take their fraudulently earned fiat dollars and turn them into hard assets as quickly as possible. That is why there is frantic buying of gold, art, real estate and anything else that actually exists in reality and not just in a bank computer.

What we are about to witness is the unraveling of a giant apparatus of lies, bribery, murder and illusion that has fooled us into wars and out of our money for centuries. The repercussions will be historical. Imagine the fall of the Soviet Union on steroids.
