Hard News:

T: something is up in the zoo!

- This morning, they had a call from a friend in CA who had a call from an international lawyer friend who had received word that the international banksters were being arrested as she was speaking!

R: talked to KOS who had Heidi with him: R asked "What's up about this, dude?" Both of them said "We can neither confirm nor deny". This involves the 40 zeroes number!

- Grand Caymon, Turks and Caycos - etc etc - send Black Magic Mittens more love - things will never be this way again: no more loopholes when NESARA is announced - NO SECRET PLACES TO HIDE MONEY FOR ANYONE!!!
- KOE/Annubis - we will be taught the proper way to be stewards of the money: we will prosper the land so the people prosper
- Rama as Merlin remembers what Camelot was like - could have a picnic with the fairies

T: "The struggle is over" is what she is hearing!

Ed Shultz show: had on Bernie Sanders, Karen Finney, John Nichol: Bernie was burning it!!! They were all talking about the serious issue: Chained CP-I, and medicare, medicaid being put on the table.

- Mr 19.5* knows how to play 5D chess: because BO puts it on the table, they say NO - he is sticking it in their nose!
- Bernie will have a chat with the C-in- C

T: Mike Quinsey has had a mild heart attack, has lost sight in one eye, cannot drive: let us put him in our Circle of Support, for the highest good of all concerned.

R: a couple from Romania have asked also to be put in the circle of Support.

R: Energy getting more & more intense; we are on active duty; marching orders - SEND ONLY LOVE

T: Carl Boudreau told us that the big boys would get a royal kick in the economic pants

- T & R have their challenges too. T & R took some of the $ to pay for the car - the car has needed attention, having looked after them for a long time; still has all its original parts.

R: Bernie talked about the absolute corruption going on with the sequester fiasco and NOTHING IS GETTING DONE!

- Angelsu: put T & R and Rosie the car in the Circle too!!!

R: stay in neutrality and love, and watch what is going on: one minute you are in the thick of it and the next moment you learn how to surrender more! The story has to do with the increase in frequencies - as Karen Finney said, they are testing us to see how far we will go without losing it and the bar is so high, they think we cannot make it.

- But we can walk on water! We do this as ONE UNIFIED FIELD - and he is grateful to be alive, to be in this body and watch what is happening: the transformation, transfiguration is awesome.

R: Someone sent him a picture of the Scorpi black hole and this is how 450 BILLION YEARS AGO, we came from the anti-matter to the matter universe. As we are co-creator gods in this story, we understand what it is to switch from anti-matter to matter

- Someone saw Soltec's ship over - Shantar was interviewed by Frank Chille and they talked about this. Captain Ashtar will be giving us our marching orders about moving into 5D

T: Wells Fargo got hit with a cyber attack: they blamed it on Iran - but it is the Black Ops of the US stirring up trouble - same as in Korea: it's the Black Ops and covert agents

- KOS said we are going through the bottle neck of April - the most intense time!

T: a man in tears because his little girl cannot stay in Head Start: his whole life has fallen apart because he cannot go to work now because he has to look after her, & she is missing her friends & going to school

R: on NPR today: played Bert and Ernie and Big Bird discussing same sex marriage: talking about Bert being introduced to kids he played with yesterday who had 2 mummies and another set of kids had 2 daddies - and they were in love: the kids said they could see the love in the eyes in each parent!

T: Hitler did an experiment and reversed the codes on purpose; now there are many same sex bodies - THEY ARE BORN THAT WAY, WITH REVERSED DNA. Sometimes as a karmic thing, the Twin Flame is in the same body - in the past life, one of the females was a male and mistreated the female, and in this life, they were born as a female to learn what it was like to be a woman.

R: It was HUGE to hear this: opens the door for our Galactic Friends to show up - it is about the ascended masters showing up!

Reading: Benjamin Fulford

[SEE BELOW]

R: rumour out there that this Pope will announce the galactic presence - A DARK PROJECT

R: Castro spoke publicly to Kim Jong Un: "I would not be so eager to send nukes, as they will be stopped!"

- This is a reference to Captain Ashtar stopping the nukes during the Bay of Pigs episode.

Castro also knows Dr Keshe! Cuba is part of the group of nations working to survive in the face

T: reference to recommendations for dealing with cancer: Tara counters what BF says - need from 20-40,000 IUs a day and 1 gram of vitamin C every 6 hours to counteract the cancer virus

Conf Call:

- Larry, Curly and Mo were there

Al Jazeera English: prosecutions everywhere: the CIA [Mr Brennan] has promoted an undercover officer who played a large part in extra ordinary rendition. There is a kangaroo court in Guantanamo Bay - yet the judge is very good - over 130 of the 166 inmates are on this strike -

88 + 80 = 178 - over half of them were freed to leave over 3 years ago, and are still there.

- Oil spills: Kalamazoo River, MN - 32 months ago; Minnesota - 15,000 barrels & now Mayflower, Arkansas - 13,000 barrels

Caller: about Guantanamo: Chris Hayes did a brief bit on Wed or Thursday - put it on the table:

T: this is Hillary protecting the 13 families: do not want the ones to be free or talk -

- The 13 families have been caught with their economic pants down in the last 2 days.

Caller: speaking of Hillary - has a new haircut or a new face?

T: a brand new clone of the look-alike!!!

Caller: what is consistent: the hair always looks bad!

T: can see that the hair line has receded on this one: much higher

Reading from her notes:

- The Military Commission in Guantanamo has a good judge, yet CIA has been controlling this good judge's court; the court is limited due to the CIA which does not care about rights and does not subscribe to the Constitution - only the Black Pope! [Covert Status CIA: Hillary] The least rule-bound organization there ever was!

- The woman that John Brennan is promoting once ran a black site prison - now they have put detainees on ships! And who knows who is on there? She has no conscience

Iran meeting in Kazakhstan - talks about nuclear capability: saying it is for domestic purposes

- Anonymous has attacked - Pyongyang's Twitter and twitter accounts have stopped sending messages supportONG Kim-Jong-Un; now a picture going out

Gaza Strip: aid agencies are being closed: demonstrators upset over decision to cut off the monthly allowances of poor families; UN Relief and Work Agencies - about 2/3 of the population are on this kind of aid - no jobs, no food, land being stolen; US is suspending its operation after the demonstrators stormed the agency - will remain closed until all groups involved agree to the safety of the agencies - also said they had shortfalls in their budget. Who is responsible for this short fall? Same old, same old; happening in the US due to the sequester

Hamas spokesperson - people have the right to protest the cuts - shutting down the aid stations makes things very bad: used to be able to get help via the underground tunnels to Egypt - Morsi shut them down!

- Are there people who want to see Gazans suffer more than they already are? Shows how dependent on aid these 800,000 people are in the Gaza Strip.
- Global fashion company called Zara - caught using children alongside adults / immigrants, working 13 hours a day. In Argentina - someone from the company expressed surprise: not aware of such things! Labour cost to make a tee shirt is two pennies - and it is sold for $30!! The goods must be timely and that is where the extra legal sweatshops come in - more hands making T-shirts means more profit for the owner.
- A former senior CIA officer says he thinks it's wrong to appoint someone who is implemented in water boarding and signed off on it: she helped run the extra-ordinary rendition program. She had been in charge of a black ops site where torture was used - there were 90 video tapes that show the CIA did this - should have handed the tapes over during 9/11 hearings -

Mother

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant one! In the office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame.

T; we ask for the sounds of spring to heal our hearts and she is glad these time are coming to a change

Greetings, Children of Ra!

- This is the story of all of our children who asked to be here at this time: all of us are perfect, no one better or uglier than the other - time for equality - a bit of this issue going on across this expanse we call the Great Divide, yet it is about how we come together as one unified field of living light, living love at this moment.
- Everything is coming up roses - it's the frequency that is being showered across the cosmos now - the resurrection of the Divine Feminine: it is about the goddess: she's black, she's beautiful and she's back!
- There are fake issues of slavery of the mind, the heart; this drama being played out against each other because a long, long time ago this great story unfolded in a galaxy not so far away: we were all perfect in the Unified Field, not one over the other; we have much to be grateful for: being here at this moment. We are grateful for all of your lives and for your being here at this moment, to bear witness. It is about love, the great issue at hand

T: It's 9:11 pm. Mother says that this was when everything changed; before 9-11 there were no ticker tapes on the bottom of our TV screens putting out false information. The Captain has already said here are your briefing orders: the resurrection of the Divine Feminine - the masculine has taken it over the edge with all the testosterone - is testosterone dangerous?

T: What to worry about is what is in the chemtrails: can we just stop the chemtrails?

Mo: now is a good time to end this story: Madame Palfrey's black book, and the revolving door called the Matrix in DC & those who took the blue pill and only want to eat steak and forget the rest!

- What is unravelling is the fact that all they want is - and she puts in certain noises!
- Bill Maher is a man after Mother's heart!!! We do this together and we have the unique abilities to describe the divine conditions: we are at our best when we are at our worst: what is on the table: scandal, Jamie Diamon, hedge funds, bonds, Mr Olsen, sex crimes, paedophilia - it is over:
- St Germain will be dividing the 40 zeros any time; yet we have arrests first, war crimes tribunals - how can we receive what we expect to steward when we still have Goldman Sachs out there still wanting a bite out of your cookie! Yet is it not the Holy See that blessed the wafer! It is the moment when WE are the Holy See and Creator Source.
- We asked "Teach us how to love, Mother; teach us what it is like to expand a universe; how to be a sun in this dimension " and here we are, full circle, 450 billion years later and a picture shows up of the entrance way, the Scorpi Black Hole [this was in Ashtar's Bulletin from the Bridge April 4, 2013]
- She refers to the Six Pillars of Justice in the Aboriginal Moabite Nation - the first Goddess was black; the issue in the moment is how we do this with love: we have Mr 19.5* and his Beloved bringing forth the wisdom of the ancient, ancient land called Sirius A and Sirius B, the wisdom of those of the Black Land, the Bantu, the Massai - so many names
- Yet it is how we are all one, based in the Divine Feminine; all of this in this moment being turned on its ear as the Divine goddess takes the reins - yet there is accountability here too; how we do this with justice and mercy as each one of our children are divine creators in their magnificence even if they are Bush and Cheney and Rummy and Rice and Powell - we added some salt and pepper to the mix a long time ago to make things interesting! We have to start with some stones to the soup - stones add minerals - those ones have played both sides against the middle - the just rewards of that is here and it is now - we are here!
- This moment is about the divine resurrection of the Feminine - best that we mind our Ps and Qs in this moment: the ones we see before us have not done that! Every thing exposed: the tax havens, the scandals; the issues up for review; who's right, who's wrong; who's top dog, who is not: it is neither - we are all One here. It is equality in the moment - how we do this in the frequency of Divine free will choice within the Laws of the One.
- The chips have hit the ground, and how it gets picked up is just that: war crimes tribunals, accountability - it is well and good to do the work of spirit, yet good works mean nothing if you have piles of cash and the criminals are running about to shoot you in the face. These are the issues of the moment. The levelling of the playing field is at hand - we hold the turf, the reins, the gauntlet: the goddess is back and it is about the business of of Oneness: we are a warrior goddess for peace - how we do it with the swiftness and wisdom of say, Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan - there is much to learn from the great masters who have come from Sirius A, Sirius B and inhabited land of Lau Tzu - now this wisdom coming forth has us learning how to keep the union of body, mind and spirit; the return of the king is now, the divine union of the king and the divine goddess is at hand - we speak of the realm of divine creation we are in and that all is laid before us and the vastness of this canyon of corruption, of greed, obfuscation: not an accident that we are looking at the picture of the Tower of London where it all began [on TV]

- It all began in London a long time ago; soon the true king and queen will be back [Dodi, Di] - how this gets done now is in the realm of manifestation; Mr Anubis [KOE] is at work revealing how this fake queen and her so-called lackeys Mr Charlie and the rest tried to remove the true queen and the Stone of Scone - much to show the people;
- Lots of issues at hand about accountability: take a lesson from Neo - it is the wisdom of who you are: you are Nothingness and everything in this one moment - as we do this with the grace of the Divine Feminine
- We have already seen some arrests, and more to come: Mr Mittens and his wife and family will have to answer for their crimes against the people: much to be shared with the people of Planet Earth - what we have not been told - not just about the white folks, about the story that to this day that Jim Crow is still alive and well in DC - and it is going on everywhere you look and that we have to discuss transvaginal probes in order to get welfare and peeing in a cup to get help? These things are being discussed because this system is in its death throes: any moment the bell will be ringing
- All of the issues brought up by Max and Stacy have to do with the question of the fake money system by how to game one over the other; this is not what the Admiral taught, yet it is unravelling before us - accountability first and foremost. It does not serve the people of earth if they receive money and there is no accountability, first and foremost:
- The re-ordering of the Universe is at hand: a small group will get 'er done, a very small group - 144,000 X ten hundred thousand x ten hundred thousand, physically manifest: - a small number considering the size of the universal neighbourhood! And how many people have a piece to play in this puzzle? Even the ants know that it is the Divine queen that gives the orders!
- And we shall study war no more! Speaks of the body not having meat for eons: wise to eat of the fruit of the vine - the grass and the seeds have all you need; eat the greens and get the blood of green - chlorophyll - the movie coming out from Dr Greer shows that the ET's blood is gold
- It is a new era and the last shall be first: this is how it is done; the day after Dr King brought forth his speech in Memphis about the least among us, those who pick up the trash, do not get $20 / hours.
T: in NYC, people in fast food outlets only get $8 / year
Mo: as Bill Hicks said, it is just a ride, yet it is the ride of your life, as you are defending your light - there is no more death; it is about eternal life, and living each moment as if it is our last.
  - Just take each moment just breathe and hear the one hand clapping, which is the sound of Thor's hammer hitting the ground!

T: feels such a big change, though it will still be gruelling - they won't go without kicking and screaming

Mo: the Wisdom of the Ages is before us; all will be revealed, Halls of Amenti are open for all to see - the universe with one thought - that is how magnificent we are in these temples of the living god! Yet it brings tears to see how defiled things are at the moment: dog-eat-dog world, obfuscation of the truth and people having to do this to survive - there are now New Rules for this day! And it is not about the number of guns people have or how much $ in the Grand Cayman a/c or measured in linear terms

T: asks about Mark Rockefeller Zukerberg

Mo: these families of the 13 families have made their choice to exit stage left, and the Dark Rift is open and accepting people

T: things are changing: Eve Ensler has done something marvellous: dealing with the male and female energies but from a whole new level of discussion - all men on the panel. The brighter side of mind emerging - chasing rug rats gets boring!

Mo: in the interests of everyone to work with divine compassion, wisdom. Love and joy - yet first is accountability - without that, we start a new cycle of Samsara - which is over: suffering is optional.

T: how do we deal with this one who has destroyed the videos of water boarding?

Mo: the Real men in black love to play with the water boards - lots of ugly stories

T: there is the Secret Service of the Nazis

Mo: how many body parts do we pick up int he beam and they are ecstatic with joy - miraculous stories that we are witnessing with our own eyes: we are all involved in the night work whether we remember it or not - we all volunteered: we saw the hands go up years ago

T: we can see each other's auras without the blink

Caller: asking for guidance; feels she has been misunderstood

Mo: darkness has been dispelled - what is coming up now is what we have created for ourselves, that sliver of Vader that is in all of us; an interesting interplay in the moment as we, as creator gods, can create what we wish

- They hold no power at the moment and have only the fear card - as we keep the thoughts pure and the mind pure,
- the Darkness of dark is just a reflection of the light - as we are in a polar universe that is ceasing to exist - what we understand as holding a place here,

2013, Ap 3 What is Going on With North Korea is Not What it Seems

by Benjamin Fulford

<http://www.veteranstoday.com/2013/04/03/what-is-going-on-with-north-korea-is-not-what-it-seems/>

(April 3rd, 2013) – The biggest eye opener for me in decades of reporting about North Korea came seven years ago when a top Chinese government agent in Japan told me China considered North Korea to be a US colony.

The recent so-called threats of war by North Korea being widely reported in the Western press are in fact cabal efforts to intimidate that country as it seeks independence from secret US rule. The North Korean moves are a part of an overall East Asian move away from cabal rule.

However, recent corporate media coverage of North Korea makes it obvious that very few members of the Western media have a clue about what is really going on there. That is why I have decided to write a basic primer for the benefit of interested readers and policy makers.

The first thing people need to understand when looking at North Korea is to realize the country was set up by remnants of the Japanese army that was stationed in China during and before World War 2.

The regime in North Korea thus closely resembles the war time government of Japan with the main difference being the God King is named Kim and not Hirohito. Remember, what is North Korea now was part of Japan or under Japanese influence from the late 19th century until the middle of the 20th century.

Roosevelt in very frail condition at Yalta

The next thing people need to understand is that part way through the post-war US occupation of Japan, a fundamental change in US policy took place.

Following the murder of President Roosevelt by Nazi sympathizers towards the end of World War 2, a large part of the US intelligence community was gradually taken over by Nazis.

In Japan this meant that during the first part of the US occupation strenuous efforts were made to turn Japan into a pacifist, socialist country.

Then as Nazi influence grew the fake so-called Cold War started and the policy shifted to fighting the Soviet Union. As a part of this new strategy 50,000 Japanese intelligence and military officers, experts in fighting communism in China, were brought over to Japan from North Korea.

This group has, to this day, exerted serious but hidden control over the Japanese political world in the post-war era. That is why it is no coincidence that the headquarters of the unofficial North Korean Embassy in Japan, the Chosen Soren (North Korean Citizens Association) is located next to the Yasukuni shrine honouring Japan's war dead.

For much of the post-war era, the North Korean group in Japan was headed by Yasuhiro Nakasone and was closely allied to US power brokers like George Bush Sr. and David Rockefeller. For example, until recently the 20,000 strong Inagawa-kai yakuza gang prominently displayed a picture of George Bush Senior at its headquarters.

However, this cozy relationship started to change during the Bush Jr. regime when Asian secret societies found out that SARS was a race-specific Nazi bioweapon spread by the Bush regime with the aim of wiping out much of Asia's population.

In Japan the result was large, but unreported midnight gang fights pitting supporters of the Nazis or Sabbatean Satanists against Asian secret societies and their Western allies.

As a part of this ongoing struggle, a regime change took place in North Korea after Kim Jong Il was assassinated with a stroke inducing poison administered by a Swedish prostitute.

Yokota Megumi

The new ruler, Kim Jong-un, is the son of Yokota Megumi, a girl of Japanese royal family lineage who was kidnapped from a beach in Niigata when she was 13.

The Kim regime is thus very pro-Japanese. The regime change in North Korea led to a severe split between the North Korean government and North Korean organizations in Japan.

Some of the North Korean organizations in Japan have been deeply in bed with the Sabbateans or Nazis and earned their money either using Nazi CIA manufactured “super-K” banknotes or else selling amphetamines. It was also the Nazis who supplied the North Koreans with both nuclear weapons and missile technology.

They also carried out some very nasty secret projects with their Nazi allies. For example, the attack on the Japanese subway system using poisonous sarin gas, and blamed on the Aum Shinrikyo Cult, was an operation run by a North Korean agent by the name of Ota in cooperation with “Jewish Al-Qaeda types,” according to several witnesses.

The nuclear and tsunami terror attack against Japan on March 11, 2011 was also carried out by the Sabbatean Nazis and some of their North Korean allies. The missile used in the attack was a 500 kiloton device stolen from the Russian submarine Kursk in 2000.

It was transferred by the secret Nazi submarine network to the Nazi base on the Atlantic Island of Sao Tome. From there it was taken to the other Nazi submarine base in New Guinea before being taken to Japan via yacht and fishing boat.

Our sources – the Kursk bow was way too damaged for a collision.

After being landed in Kyushu it was then taken to a property in Hinodecho in Western Tokyo owned by Yasuhiro Nakasone.

Then it was transferred to the Chosen Soren building next to the Yasukuni shrine before being taken to the deep sea drilling ship Chikyu.

The sources for the information include smugglers and yakuza members actually involved in the transportation of the missile. These people are willing to testify to this in court.

On board the Chikyu, the nuclear material in the missile was divided to make several smaller devices that were drilled 10 kilometers into the sea-bed.

One of the technicians involved in this operation ran to a church seeking help after his co-workers started to be murdered in order to silence them after the tsunami occurred. He was sheltered by a Christian group connected to the Tachikawa church of the reverend Paolo Izumi and is now in protective custody in the US.

Disgust at the 311 attacks is one of the main reasons for the split between the old North Korean organizations in Japan and the new North Korean government. This has led to the arrest of Yasuhiro Nakasone and an ongoing secret purge of all those involved in this operation.

A visible sign of this is that the Japanese government seized the Chosen Soren headquarters building and auctioned it off. It was bought for 4.5 billion yen (about $50 million) by Eikan Ikeguchi a Buddhist monk powerbroker who is very friendly with both Prime Minister Shinzo Abe of Japan and the regime of supreme leader Kim Jong-un of North Korea.

The Sabbateans Nazis, of course, are not taking this passively. For example, we can confirm from sources extremely close to Prime Minister Shinzo Abe that he has come down with cancer and suspects he was hit with a cancer causing virus during his recent visit to the US.

Abe is now taking hemp extract and has been advised by this writer to take 5000 IUs of vitamin D3 per day and 1 gram of vitamin C every six hours to counter-act the cancer causing virus.

Huge financial battles going on behind the scenes in Japan

The ongoing power struggle is also revealing itself in the form of a financial crisis brewing in South Korea, North Korea and Japan.

This crisis has several interlocking dimensions. First of all, the Japanese government is considering passing a bill to tax all assets worth over 50 million yen (about $500,000) owned by South and North Korean nationals living in Japan.

Since Korean gangsters seized large amounts of prime real estate near train stations during the chaos after WW2, huge funds are involved.

That may explain why a several Korean groups are now offering to trade yen for won at a huge discount to the official exchange rate, according to a South Korean CIA source.

That also explains a lot of the North Korean saber rattling in recent days since the North Koreans secretly control huge swathes of the Japanese economy and are understandably reluctant to have those assets seized by Japanese taxmen.

There is also a huge credit card debt crisis brewing in South Korea, according to a veteran Japanese securities company executive.

South Korean women are being sold into prostitution around the world to pay for their credit card debt, he says, but this option is not available for other Koreans. He expects a major credit card debt crisis to hit Goldman Sachs in particular, very hard.

The other crisis in South Korea has to do with bank loans, he says. Bank officers in South Korea with the authority to approve loans have been taking personal commissions of 10% or more on the loans they approve. This corruption is also leading to a bad loan scandal, he says.

The executive further made an interesting comment saying that “the people above me were Hillary Clinton and Henry Kissinger but they have lost power and we are not sure who is in charge now.” This comment makes it quite clear that a temporary power vacuum is emerging as the old post-war political structures in East Asia change.

The new North Korean regime wants to unify with South Korea and are offering the South Koreans economic control in exchange for North Korean political control. The South Koreans are offering a ceremonial role to Kim Jon-un.

US military bases in Japan

Both sides also want closer relations with Japan. That is why plans have already been approved to build a railway line linking Japan with the Korean peninsula.

The Japanese, for their part, want to keep the US military presence in the region to make sure they are not bullied into a submissive relationship with China. However, they are no longer willing to accept status as a junior partner of the US.

The Chinese are saying that Okinawa must once again become either a Chinese protectorate or an independent kingdom.

They might be persuaded to allow Okinawa to become an independent free trade zone with a US military presence to assure its neutrality. Such a force would be paid for by the Japanese and Chinese.

There is also a proposal on the table to build a transnational East Asian development bank staffed by members of regional governments. In any case, the recent saber rattling in East Asian can be equated to table pounding and shouting of the sort seen during M&A negotiations between major corporations.

Things are still very much in flux and hard to predict but the end result, though, is expected to be a win-win solution.
