

Traditional Swedish Music and Dance

Dance Workshop, Concert and Gathering

Led by Erik Ask-Upmark and Anna Rynefors,
of the Swedish group Dråm

Saturday 30th August 2008

Arts Centre Ballroom, Stamford PE9 2DL 1 mile from the A1

Swedish musicians Erik Ask-Upmark and Anna Rynefors are both “official players of the Swedish realm” and founder members of the group Dråm, touring extensively in Europe and America. Along with accompanying musicians and dancers, they will teach a range of traditional Swedish dances at an afternoon workshop, followed by an evening concert and dance with traditional Swedish dance music played on harp, bagpipes and nyckelharpa. This is part of the 10th Stamford International Harp Festival weekend www.stamfordharpfestival.co.uk

“ .. Sweden’s finest musical ambassadors“

www.draam.com

3.00 pm Afternoon music and dance workshops.
No experience necessary – just instruments and dance shoes.
£10 (£7 concessions)

7.30 pm Evening “Spelmansstämman” (literally: musician's gathering) with Swedish music and dancing.
£ 7 (£5 concessions)

Bookings through Stamford Arts Centre
Box Office 01780 763 203 www.stamfordartscentre.com