POHLMAN KNOWLES & LINDSAY PICHASKE

October 21st - December 3rd

Opening Reception
Friday, October 21st
5-8 p.m.

ST. LOUIS - Duane Reed Gallery is excited to present the work of glass artist duo Pohlman Knowles and ceramic artist extraordinaire Lindsay Pichaske. Pleasantly unexpected and visually gripping, Pohlman Knowles features a body of work combining photography with elegantly hot and cold sculpted glass forms. Similarly, Pichaske takes an unanticipated approach to her ceramic work, covering each lovingly crafted life-like animal form with an unconventional material that gives each piece an individual personality and identity.

POHLMAN KNOWLES - Jenny Pohlman and Sabrina Knowles began their collaboration in 1992. Using a variety of materials in their rich assemblages, the artists achieve a fine sense of formal balance while simultaneously establishing a narrative that embodies the stories of the cultures and people they encountered in their travels.

LINDSAY PICHASKE - Since 2010, Pichaske has risen to attention in the art world. Her work achieves a believable sense of life that creates an intersection between the familiar and the strange, investigating the shared space in this duality while creating empathy for beings that are not human.
