

The Morehead Writing Project

presents

Workshops are 9 a.m. to noon and offers 3-hours professional development credit.

Saturday Series-Take Two!

Writing: It's an All-Day Thing (K-8)

This workshop shows teachers how to incorporate writing across the curriculum. Presenters share classroom-tested, research-based strategies and activities to entice students into building writing skills throughout the day.

Location/Date

MSU	Ashland
January 17, 2009	February 7, 2009

On-Demand Writing: A Toolkit for Teachers! (7-12)

This workshop will offer teachers a variety of strategies for teaching key writing skills required of successful writers. These strategies are user friendly and fun, but most importantly, they are effective.

Location/Date

Mt. Sterling	MSU
Jan. 24, 2009	Jan. 31, 2009

Writing to Learn: Strategies to use in Content Area Classrooms (K-12)

This workshop gives teachers just what they need -- quick, easy-to-modify writing strategies for all content areas.

Location/Date

Mt. Sterling	Morehead
February 21, 2009	February 28, 2009

Step Back and Reflect! (9-12)

This workshop will give teachers what they need to get students ready to write the reflective entry for portfolios. Participants will receive a standards based unit which includes professional models and student samples, as well as a list of resources for teaching reflective skills.

Location/Date

Jackson	Mt. Sterling
February 7, 2009	March 28, 2009

Download registration form at www.moreheadwritingproject.org/Saturday_Series.html

150 University Blvd. - UPO 1224
Morehead, KY 40351
(606) 783-2426
mwp@moreheadstate.edu
www.moreheadwritingproject.org