

Sponsored by: <http://jobradio.fm>

The 1-Page Guide to Finding Government Jobs

<http://www.govtjobs.com/> - listing positions with govtjobs.com include cities, counties, states, executive search firms, advertising agencies and other governmental jurisdictions.

<http://www.govtjob.net/> - provides a centralized online source of jobs available in local government nationally.

<http://www.govjobs.com/> - jobs in all kind of government positions (local, state, Feds, military, etc).

<https://www.careersingovernment.com/> - clearinghouse of information, resources and jobs available in public sector organizations in America and abroad.

<http://www.clearancejobs.com/> - matches job seekers that hold active or current Department of Defense, Department of State, and Department of Energy security clearances to hiring employers

<http://www.fedguide.com/> - features information and good excerpts on all facets of employment and work in the Federal Government

<http://www.jobsfed.com/> - private resource for listings of Federal jobs.

<http://2010.census.gov/2010censusjobs/> - jobs with the 2010 census

<http://www.usajobs.opm.gov/> - web page from the Office of Personnel Management with the official job listings for the Federal Government and the salary charts, resume info, etc

<http://www.studentjobs.gov/> - one stop for information you need to find the job you want in the Federal Government. Whether you're in high school, college, or graduate school, you could be eligible for a variety of special opportunities for students in the Federal government.

<http://www.usajobs.gov/> - The Federal government's official job list. Shown are employment search, information center, veteran information and forms.

<http://federaljobs.net/> - Federal jobs Net explores all government jobs and guides you step-by-step through the government job hiring process