HARD NEWS • • •

R: a wild week with weather, frequencies, all the hair that is flying around that has little to do with reality! A HUGE LESSON in non-ordinary reality that makes no sense

- hearing that the energies are higher and higher: the 13 families are taking themselves out on the race to the bottom
- Hair is claiming that ISIL took the Egyptian plane down – no debris; the 2 bodies found are not from that plane; brings up the notion of the big red X and Fox Mulder: X Files!

Tom the Cat, Curly, Mo: [Larry was with Mr Obama]

- large spherical ships are gathering at the north and south poles, is raising the frequencies of everything and everybody; brings up undealt-with emotions, unhealed energy that has been going on for a long time
- those caught in the matrix, watching the fake news and getting freaked out about it and the idea of going to Armageddon: the 13 families know how chaotic the energies are and they amp it up to create more chaos
- the increased energies caused by the ones at the poles, and by the Nibiru, Mother's ship - which is in the neighbourhood – it all brings to the surface that the 13 families will make more and more outrageous statements and act more outrageously because this "sells"; they are clamouring for getting the most attention by saying the most outrageous comments
- everything else that is real news is going by the wayside: the news is not being told – Ed Schultz on RT tv

T: HRC is now saying she is the presumptive nominee!! And California has not even voted yet

- in NV, the Democratic party was completely out of integrity - NO VIOLENCE ON THE GROUND! Nina Turner was there for 8 solid hours - there was rigging and a no allowance for the delegates; because the rules were changed, Bernie's delegates were shut out
- Mike Papantonio was on Ring of Fire and on Ed Schultz [RT TV] he said we are watching Hillary take herself out – she cannot get elected without the people from Bernie AND she has not won a primary except by manipulation

Tom, Curly, Mo: say we are in the final, final, final nano seconds

- R showed T something he had received on Twitter: a huge declassified craft – a group of Chinese people in a car, travelling along a highway and see the ship moving beside them, just above the treeline; the ship landed, let out a platform and a gray person walks out – VERY PLAIN TO SEE! One person used the cell phone to capture the people running to the ship, not afraid at all! They were happy, excited!

Caller from Nebraska: interested in what is going on: thought he'd check in and see if there were going to be any evacuations.

MR: thanks him for calling: to listen, go to 1-605 475-1600 and hear all of the show; on the computer, go to BBS Radio

T: the galactics are raising the frequencies with their technologies which helps bring about balance in spite of negativity and intentions to harm from extremist behaviour. As a result of people choosing to engage with these higher frequencies and change their lives for the better, and integrating more and more activities to help our neighbours we become morphogenic fields that overrides the energies everywhere

- Drumpf et al are feeling the Bern: Drumpf flew over with a helicopter and a sign saying Bernie Done – this was on The Last Word of Laurence O'Donnell – and Bernie says "Not Now, Not Ever!"
- the naughty Democrats and the Repubs are feeling the increase in energies and then they act out more

- another example is the lack of integrity of the Clinton campaign in conjunction with the establishment party

BW: wants Rama to complete his report without Tara interrupting

T: behind the scenes, they are coordinating what is being said – they are not interrupting each other.

BW: what about the Egyptian airliner – what is R's report on this?

R: as far as he knows – a bit of a mystery what took it down, and the way it made a sharp-angled turn to avoid something – very suspicious. What caused it to lose altitude still be investigated.

Tom, Curly, Mo: When Rama asked them what was happening, they said:

- as usual it's an ongoing investigation – some kind of explosive device on the plane ; there were 3 Egyptian air marshals on the plane - very unusual; who was on the plane of such great importance?

Tom said “for us to know and for you to find out: keep your nose clean if you don't want it cut off! If you get too involved, Homeland Security just may show up and ask you about the role you have to play

R: we are watching events which are high treason; yet as you get nosy and ask questions, you get met by the Men in Black who say shut up. If you have enough power – we are in a real climate where the 13 families know their days are twilight and they are freaked out to the max, will do all they can to maintain a power structure: their comfort zone has been shattered

R talked to KOS and Ellen Ratner yesterday:

Ellen Ratner is in a safe place; said her brother Michael Ratner was killed by the 13 families – primarily the Rothschilds and the Rockefeller, and she has evidence -

Guest: Omena

- still not 100%; to those who called about appointments, they will get calls to set up app'ts

Tools people use

- Tools represent different parts of our personalities, of our sub-conscious; might tell us about hidden things that we've forgotten about that interrupt our lives in some ways
- This provides a way for people to learn about themselves in a fun way

Tells the story of a woman who kicked a soccer ball

O: you really like to kick things around!

- The lady said yes – and it turned out she collected all her anger and then let it fly!

O: let's say that the energies in the world are affecting our brain and our electro magnetic fields

MR: the weather patterns are so erratic – what we used to know as regular and dependable are no longer so

O: what is happening with the major shift is that it's cleaning out: the crashes, the mud throwing, the anger, the evil bubbling to the top – crap has to be cleaned up first before energy flows freely

- We might experience anger and depression of the non-clinical variety: often a cleaning out of the emotional body – ask your body what's going on.

Caller- NYC: strangest thing happening – since March/ap, started working with rock – uncovering rocks that were covered with dirt and other things – now she's restoring walks, walls

O: she's reclaiming a natural part of herself, it's grounding her – yes, she started at the end of March – at this time, she started a new phase of her life and a part of her has not accepted this yet; Ask the rocks to tell you what's going on – NYC loses track of time when she works with the rocks O: she is giving birth to something: change is here!

O: tells the story of a man who picked up a rubics cube [living in a square], and then a gun [anger] and what that was about.

MR: noticing about neices and nephews, also young boys – they pick up a ball to play with: have to have something to do with their hands while they are talking

O: has to do with the amount of energy coming into their bodies – if they don't do something, they will burst out of their bodies – tapping their legs, playing with the phone, looking around – the energy just goes flying

Ana, CA: pencils –

O: she likes to keep account of things!

A: She doodles or writes or creates poetry- hasn't made them into a collection: likes pencils that feel good in her hand

MR: her daughter used to draw on everything – mandalas – a way to bleed off energy

O: anything we can do that we enjoy – knitting, making albums, etc help to move the energy
• One lady in her group had a teddy bear: her son would not let her have a cat so she got the bear – then they got into the whole relationship – then family anger came up – the supportive group helped her get through this – she was older, a grandmother – got down to her having to grow into her own power.

MR: she gets e-mails from publishers and others who are doing the mandalas – the adult colouring books – now quite prolific

O: some are absolutely beautiful

Caller, TX: left side is hurting – wants to know what's wrong before she goes to a medical dr

O: seems to the last 3 vertebrae – may have pulled a muscle or something is out seems like she needs to be stretched and the left leg needs to be stretched and returned into better shape

Caller: was exercising

O: she pulled something out of line.

Cathy: limping around the planet! For last 5 weeks – bone spur on Right foot -

O: bone spurs don't go away on their own; anyone she's ever know with such has had it scraped off

Cathy: just thought today she should soak it in epsom salts

O: it's relatively new – soaking may help

Cathy: does not what to do cortisone

O: only masks the problem – doesn't help it

Edgar Cayce always made up a castor oil pack

MR: use an old cotton sock or a plastic bag -

O: castor oil draws out impurities – the body also absorbs the oil soak the foot first, then wrap the foot in a castor oil filled cloth

MR: asks Rama about his healing

R: getting better and better: waves and waves of pain now and then – has to get horizontal and breathe through them; healing salve on scar tissue; the people at Ashtar on the Road are having people make donations so T & R can eat organic food and not be hungry.

- A month on April 12 – 5 weeks. Notices his body getting stronger and better
- O: her knee surgery – a month or more before she was pain free
 - any kind of surgery takes a while – thinks it will be another month before she is pain free
 - one of her friends had a hernia repaired – it took a while.
- R: when he's walking, sometimes he tries to walk faster and then has to slow down when the tingles start
- O: the tingles are good because that means the blood is flowing to bring the healing!
 - O is doing physical therapy and is constantly being reminded to slow down!
- MR: talking of slowing down – garden is too wet and she's frustrated about not being able to move forward and having hip challenges – all these things slow us down
- O: a higher purpose: the energies are speeding up but there is no way we can move at the speed the energies are moving – we'd crash! We have to have the vibrations slow down and we have to be mindful!
 - She tried to do an exercise to get balanced and she was lying down and got dizzy – the brain is out of balance and
 - Cat Scan, MRI – nothing wrong with the brain;
 - she's just a dizzy broad! She did get a download from a higher realm – she told them to ask her first before they did that again! It's a weird feeling!
- T: likes to work with fairies – can expect the unexpected from them -
- O: the fairies keep hiding things on her! Couldn't find her sunglasses – went to work, put her keys in her bag and there were the sunglasses!
- MR: maybe they're trying to tell her she can see well enough – doesn't need the darkness
- O: easier to drive than walk when you have vertigo
- Big Will: status of hillary clinton; what's in her future? Not become President/
- O: thinks Trump will put her in the White House
- BW: that she will be in WH and not be arrested!
- O: they are just investigating to see if anything is there and so far have found nothing
 - Asked about Benghazi – was told it was a set-up that was allowed to happen, and she knew nothing about it!
 - As for the e-mail situation: telling her there was nothing classified in the e-mails – all that is going on is meant to be going on and clean out people's frustrations – we'll be in trouble if we have a business man in the WH - a very strange year! She's paying attention this year because of the nonsense – a sad place for the country to be in when there is no one fresh
- BW: asks about VP
- O: sees no one beside any of those running
- BW: thinks H will not become president; Seeing Bernie Sanders winning CA and pave the way for a new beginning
- O: where is he going to get all the money for the housing etc – prays for the highest good to be met
- COR: thinks O got a huge download: she has a very wide portal for receiving information –
- O: glad for the validation!
- COR: as for the fairies: they have been with her family for a long time – they want her to put them to work – they want something to do!
- O: that's wonderful news! Has lots for them to do!
- COR: don't want to give up working for her and her family.
- MR: when she is planting, puts the seeds in and then says it's time for the lettuce fairies to take over
- O: now sees her job is to slow down and delegate! Never thought of that!
 - It's how we help each other
 - Thanks to COR for bringing this up

Jeff from Ohio: Cheney is in Trump's back pocket – asks what he'll do for us

O: her words of wisdom: so many are feeling the shift of energies: not to be impatient with our bodies for not going as fast as we want to – do lots of self-talking and if we slow down, we won't drop dead! So grateful to hear from COR about putting the fairies to work – she grew up with fairies

MR: she and robert had fairies and gnome who used to interact with them – sometimes we forget that we have this kind of help – her experience with the Bach Flower remedies was bypassed because she did something else and has just been brought back to the flower remedies

O: she has a variety of tools – need to honour that and use them for whomever is in front of her – and we all can do that.

2016-05-16 EXCLUSIVE: Anonymous Strikes the Heart of the Empire — Takes Down U.S. Federal Reserve Bank

Jay Szymopoulos

After announcing a global call to arms against the "corrupt global banking cartel," the hacker collective known as Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous other hacktivist groups, have taken over 20 central banks offline, including striking at the heart of the Western imperialist empire; the U.S. Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, the Bank of England and the Bank of France.

A press release by Anonymous explained in the intentions behind the operation know as #OpIcarus:

"The banks have been getting away with murder, fraud, conspiracy, war profiteering, money laundering for terrorists and drug cartels, have put millions of people out on the street without food or shelter and have successfully bought all our governments to help keep us silenced. We represent the voice of the voiceless. We are uniting to make a stand. The central banks which were attacked in recent days were attacked to remind people that the biggest threat we face to an open and free society is the banks. The bankers are the problem and #OpIcarus is the solution."

Operation Icarus was relaunched in conjunction with a video release announcing the beginning of a "30-day campaign against central bank sites across the world." Since that time, the scope and magnitude of the attacks have increased exponentially, with Anonymous, Ghost Squad Hackers, a number of Sec groups and BannedOffline coordinating attacks — each focusing on separate financial institutions in an effort to maximize the number of targets hit.

Some individuals have expressed reservations about Anonymous attacking the central banking system – thinking that this will in some way impact their individual accounts held in the banks. In an exclusive interview with The Free Thought Project, an Anonymous member explained that this operation is directed solely at the 1%:

“We would just like to make it very clear that all targets of #OpIcarus have been Rothschild and BIS central owned banks. In fact most of the targets so far such as Guernsey, Cyprus, Panama, Jordan, British Virgin Isles, etc are in the top 10 places of tax havens for the elite. No on-line consumer accounts were harmed, no ATM’s were blocked and no personal client data was leaked. This has been a protest against the Central Banks and the 1% — no innocent or poor people were harmed”

The operation began with an initial attack on the Central Bank of Greece and was quickly followed up with a similar DDoS attack on the Central Bank of Cyprus. Last weekend, hackers reportedly targeted the Central Bank of the Dominican Republic, the Dutch Central Bank, the Central Bank of Maldives, and Guernsey Financial Services Commission, according to the official @OpIcarus Twitter account, which has been taken offline — presumably by Twitter. The National Bank of Panama and the Central Bank of Kenya were also reportedly targeted a day later, according to hacking news publication HackRead.

Additionally, reported Ghost Squad Hacker, s1ege also tweeted about taking the Central Bank of Bosnia-Herzegovina offline and provided a screenshot to verify. The Twitter account @BannedOffline also reported the Central Bank of Mexico had succumbed to a DDoS attack by the hacking collective. The online hacktivist groups have continued to conduct a series of high-powered distributed denial-of-service \(DDoS\) attacks, which forced the website of Central Bank of Jordan, Central Bank of South Korea, Bank of Compagnie, Monegasque and the Central Bank of Montenegro offline.

On Saturday, hackers conducted a series of 250 Gbps DDoS attacks on the Bank of France, Central Bank of the United Arab Emirates, Central Bank of Tunisia, Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago and Philippine National Bank. The recent attack, on Monday morning, took down the Central Bank of Iraq.

#TangoDown Central Bank of Iraq. We will never forgive the banks and governments who created this illegal war in Iraq and lied to the world to justify it. We will never forget the lives of the men, women and children who died during the Iraq war, and the many who still suffer today. Expect Us.

In an exclusive interview with The Free Thought Project, an Anonymous representative explained:

OpIcarus in support of Nuit Debout took the bank of France off line throughout the day as we continue to address the corruption of the banking elite. We are acting on behalf of the countless victims and the voiceless as the banking cartels continue their agenda of buying the governments while selling out the people they are supposed to govern. This Op in no way is meant to harm or disrupt the common person and their day-to-day activities. We are you, we may be your neighbors, those you pass in the street and we are the working class. A Filipino hacker within Anonymous was also able to disrupt services in the Philippines as an act of protest against his nation's corrupt and brutal government. We will not and cannot sit by idly while the banking systems strip man of his dignity.

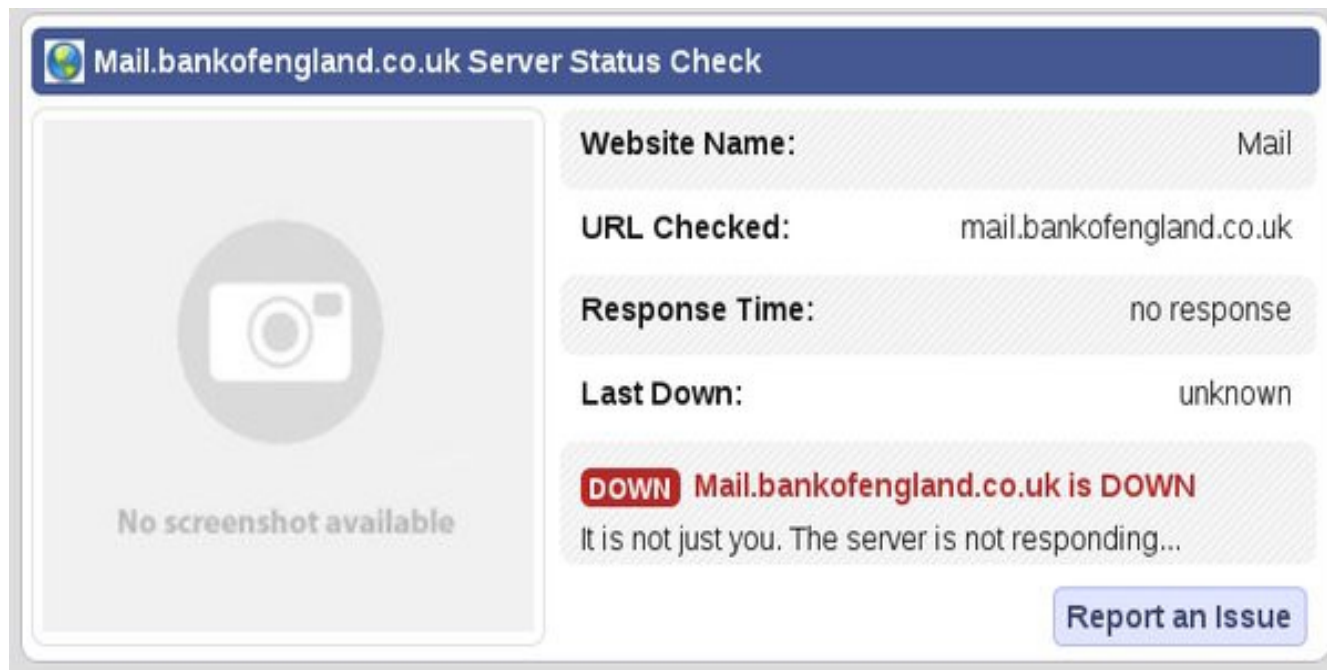

Anonymous has released a list of institutions the collective plans to target, which is divided into four sections; websites associated with the U.S. Federal Reserve, the International Monetary Fund (IMF), sites owned by the World Bank, and over 150 sites associated with national banks around the globe.

In two weeks, OpIcarus hackers have hit dozens of financial institutions listed in their online manifesto. Any questions about whether the hacktivists would be able to take out some of the more high-profile institutions seem to have been answered with the recent successful attacks on the U.S. Federal Reserve Bank in Boston, the Bank of France and the Bank of England — the central banks of the U.K. and France.

The attack on the Bank of England was unique from the previous attacks, as it reportedly took down the internal email server, <http://mail.bankofengland.co.uk>

While some have questioned the effectiveness of OpIcarus, senior director at Corero Network Security, Stephanie Weagle told Info Security magazine:

“While the impact on the individual targets of the DDoS attack campaign, ‘OpIcarus’ is unclear; obstructing or eliminating the availability of email servers is significant. In an online world any type of service outage is barely tolerated, especially in the banking industry where transactions and communications are often time-sensitive, and account security is of utmost importance.”

Make no mistake that this operation has already been extremely effective — evolving and growing rapidly. In the world of high finance time is money, and every minute that a bank is forced offline it is losing potential revenue, which in turn hurts the bottom line of those that support the imperial war machine. Thus far, all targeted banks have refused to comment on the damage inflicted by the continuous cyber attacks.
