HARD NEWS

- Hillary pulled a fast one again yesterday: talked of Barack Obama having a Koch Bros Pac!
  - She said the PAC was set up to support B Obama and now it was supporting her
- T asked R to check on this

Mr X: after the Caucus Room fiasco when 14 members of Congress basically committed treason –

- this has never been about anything except about Hitler, his daughter [Angela Merkel], his grand daughter [Hillary] and the Tesserach and trying to control the 5 Infinity Stones with the Gauntlet of Power –
  - these items are in a safe location in Asgard, one of the etheric light cities up the Great Tree of Ytsrael; he describes it as we look out through our various telescopes, there are different branches of the MWG that tie in with the Great Tree: there are 9 realms that are connected by the Rainbow Bridge, that goes from Asgard into Iceland, Greenland, a portal, a dimensional doorway
  - the G of P etc are safe; the folks here are playing with back-engineered ET technologies that resemble the G of P and the 5 Infinity Stones, but are only cheap imitations;
- as the energies move higher and higher in octave and frequency, the 13 families are becoming more and more exposed and it is ultimately failing as they keep relying on their old ideas of the unending circle of perpetual crisis and of unending darkness .

MR X: so things moving so high and so fast and the revolution of love is coming in and changing all the issues

- Hillary went to Florida after the Causus Room event where 14 members of Congress comitted treason; at the Florida event there were 100 billionaires and she showed up; the pecking order between the billionaires and the dragons who are above the Rothchilds and the Bilderbergs: as she's a Rothschild elder dragon, she can wheedle her way in – she is their tool
- one group wanted to go along with things of Obama's that they like; the other group was to make him a failed president, and this was the one that won the vote, and she was given orders to make that scenario come true
- Lately she's been honouring him, saying that he chose her to be in his administration, and that Bernie was disrespectful of Obama
- Bernie raised $3.5 million from over 1 million people; now Sec Clinton's super pac received $25 Million and $15 million from Wall Street; his average contrib is $27 and he is proud of that
- Hillary: Senator, you are mixing apples and oranges!
  - when you have a super pac as Obama had which now wants to support here, it is not her PAC; when you take money from Wall Street, can't be independent then-Senator Obama was the recipient of the largest # of donations of anyone on the Democratic side, ever

T & R: yet HE WAS A DOUBLE AGENT AND ALWAYS HAS BEEN.

- Hillary: Obama took on Wall Street and pushed through and passed the Dodd-Frank regulation , the toughest since the 1930s, so don't imply that either Obama or herself would not take on vested interests to do what is best for the American People
  - Bernie: don't insult the intelligence of the american people!
- The debate of last night was very intense: Hillary has a way of twisting things
  - Hillary has something to hide, said a psychic woman
  - to be told today that she made a deal with the Koch Bros – oh, my!
  - Thom Hartmann – saying the popular vote is with Bernie: Hillary got 90,000, Bernie got 152,000 votes – yet the assignment of super delegate votes was almost equal
  - Hillary has bought off about 700 of the 900 unelected super delegates!
- “This night your star shall fall” is what St Germain said to Napoleon!

CONFERENCE CALL

T: the energies are something at the moment; Hillary was not a very pretty lady last night!

- Going to play the hour on Foreign Policy on Saturday, after the Hard News

Sonja: Wants to hear the foreign policy bit, and that Bernie had brought up her connection to Kissinger who is Sarah Palin's handler, and John McCain's as well

T: Hillary is a 50 ft dragon

S: then that dragon must be furious

T: Bernie is protected now by the Secret Service – he's going into a den of vipers!

S: speaking for the middle class so much

T: he's got his mastery there; she can read his face – he's talking without talking when Hillary is speaking

- Brought up the Globe Article last week about what Hillary has done and they never even mentioned murder: this is what Bernie is up against

Carlton: as we continue to watch the politics unfold in the primary season: one thing many women follow is the missus - what do they know about Jane Sanders?

R: she's in the background: she's a very spiritual being and holds the light for him

- in the 70s they were both involved with TM
- when he was the mayor of Burlington; they are also simple farmers both of them

T: has an impression that she has a deep mind and heart: she's like him in many ways

C: she's a former college president, they were married in 1988

T: He is 74 now – he was 46 when they married!

C: now they've had a little success – wondered about any galactic intel?

T: Rachel Maddow was looking at the numbers of Obama in 2008 –

- the numbers were high for Obama: 247,000 votes –
- Bernie is saying, it's not about him, but the numbers: Democrats win when lots of people come out to vote.
- She gets the hit that they take Hillary down and put Michelle in:
  - The Clintons created the crime bill, the worst situation, and mandatory sentencing

R: a man called up Thom Hartmann and brought up all of Bill's improprieties and Thom could not really stop him

C: things will unfold here too: primary in South Carolina. The Progressive Black Caucus PAC supported Hillary, but NOT THE PROGRESSIVE BLACK CAUCUS.

- A lot of untold truths are starting to come out: mis statements – he's been quoted as saying that Bernie was not around during the civil right movement, but a picture showed up of him at the Pettus Bridge
  - James Clyburn is the head of the Progressive Black Caucus, & head of a ways and means committee
    - he said, Oh yay, I had a phone call from Bill Clinton when Hillary was running against Obama; seems that Bill used the language of "you bastards – if you want a fight, you're gonna get one"
    - James had just not made up his mind as to who he was going to support – he was not voting against her, just undecided.
    - the Clintons are not as well off as they think they are
- T: at the debates, the Hillary supporters were so noisy, the ladies could hardly say good night
- the level of ignorance was showing
- C: The other thing is that she is trying to paint herself with having stronger credentials vis a vis the black supporters. At the same age when BO was doing community supporting in Detroit; at the same age, Bernie was doing the same thing in Chicago; at the same age, she was a young republican hanging out with Barry Goldwater.

T: Thom Hartmann used to go door to door with his father at the time in support of Barry Goldwater. Bernie is very fierce: you will not have me listening to Henry Kissinger

- HK was Henry VIII so he killed the Vatican in England and created his own rules, and he had Anne Boleyn beheaded: the grandmother of St Germain! Sir Francis Bacon/St Germain started the Renaissance

Reading: 2016-02-06 Hillary Clinton Boasts Praise by Henry Kissinger—a Man With Blood on His Hands, Critics Say [SEE BELOW]

T: markets going more down than up!

R: Hillary used Nelson Mandela's name in vain.

T: Nelson Mandela's body of work called "Umbotu": the basis of the healing work done in South Africa

- when Hillary killed Vince Foster, she became the person who did all the dirty work for them

R: Beyonce did a good job at the super bowl – she & the dancers did the Black Panther salute and did the dance in the shape of an X in honour of Malcolm X

T: in New Orleans, there is a Black Madonna statue: Nada is one [black female goddess]; Isis is another; Mary Magdalene was Egyptian before she met Yeshua

- T's religious teacher in high school was Mayan, from Guatemala; and another one
- a group of the girls including Tara went to Selma with these 2 nuns

Caller: could Rama discuss the gravity waves and the portal that opened up

R: what they saw with the telescope – looking backwards in time – all time is now, but they were actually looking at 1.3 million years ago when the 2 black holes aligned with each other and formed a portal from the anti-matter universe into the matter universe.

Caller: the spiralling gravity waves is the term they used

- as the spirals were detected by earth's instruments, scientists had never see anything like it
- Lady Di, Natasha said that as these 2 black holes align, all the ships from the anti matter universe entered the matter universe to act as back ups to Mother
- we are looking at the most horrendous of events at the moment [in Syria, the Middle East]: no more WW 3 -
  - what is being said is the rebels are being killed but also lots of women and children too
  - The missing part is what is done in the underground bases: people retrofitted to go and fight

R: turning humans into super soldiers not for good things.

- Comments on the work that was done on Cheryl Croci's call to support James Tywmann and now there was a "kind of truce" for a short time. [Syria]
  - the rebel killing going on for the last 5 years has been bought and paid for by Lindsay Graham, John McCain and the rest of the republicans
  - Mr X said it was the west talking – they are desperate

- there 's an empathic wave coming through right now and we can hurt ourselves if we are too open & don't maintain neutrality

Chandra Dass from Iowa: who will be arrested for the chemtrail activity? Isn't it only NATO nations that are taking part in geo engineering? Putin does not allow chemtrails to come over Russia - is that true?

- None of this will stop until they are all rounded up at once; the galactics will put force fields around them; they will be taken to The Hague to await execution; there are underground jails for miles
  - Putin is an autonomous being, an immortal – pictures of him
  - Putin has authority over his country; the US can't touch him: and he will not do thermonuclear war – he is working for the Light

- XI, Obama & Putin are making sure about no war and working to take down the 13 families

CD: it's a global geo-engineering project: are there nations who can say no?

T: they have no way of

- the Andromedans interact with Putin: he is a thoughtful, calculating man: he will know what will happen after he's made a decision

R: something awesome happened today: Mr Francis met with his Russian orthodox counterpart for the 1st time in over a 1000 years: signed documents -

- goes back to 325 AD when they tossed Jesus out as a heretic. The people in the Mediterranean areas divorced themselves from the original church – not quite 2000 years ago. The psychic surgeons of far east in the Philippines are beings who left the west to practice their work without torment

Ahalya: were there any women in the Templars?

T: Talked of the sisters of the rose – Penny to get some book titles for Ahalya

BBS RADIO

MOTHER / ALCYONE [M/A]

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One; in the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame

Greetings, Children of Ra!

Indeed, this walk - most auspicious at this time. It is about the wave of love that is pouring forth to all space time for all to embrace. It is changing all the particles, all the molecules – so much joy pouring in at this time and at the same moment, in the same breath, it is a long road back from Mordor!

T: and sometimes she feels like – huge sigh! She knows something is going on: the energy is going up and the hardball is getting harder too coming from the granddaughter of mr hitler

M/A: Oh, that story! Playing with ancient war weapons from another time in the galaxy that have no bearing at this time, except the sidereal weapons – let's just say: all have been transmuted, transfigured back into higher frequencies of living love, living light

- These old lifeforms that are her children have played beyond the edge of our perception – it is coming full circle in this present time/space. Everything that is happening in this moment is how we got moving so rapidly into these higher frequencies about the rainbow bridge and the colours of the rainbow, colours of the wind.

- Everything that is transpiring is about this return to sanity, as it were! It is so awesome to behold in the same moment;

- please be aware - our thoughts have our influence over space/time and we are not as powerless as we may seem!

- It is like the song John Lennon wrote: power to the people, right on! In this moment, we have the power; we have taken it back – there is a little interim moment here where everything that looks like it can go wrong IS going wrong!

- Yet it is perfectly part of the plan of insanity that is not insane: it is when you come into a polar universe, things may tend to be a little ass backwards and it is righting itself in these moments as we all are awakening to who and what we are, with such magnificence and grace. We [M/A] are grateful to be here to witness this, as we are everywhere and nowhere at once. What we [the listeners] are experiencing as living beings: the full circle has come full circle. Her wayward people are no more, and her contingency forces are here.

- What we heard about yesterday in a round about way: their other fleets are coming from anti-matter into matter, affecting our reality and lifting things up higher and higher, bringing up an awareness that all is not in despair, no matter what it may look like.

- It is a joyous time to be here in a temple, this bag of water, temple of the living God/Goddess/ All That Is – she cannot emphasize it enough: everyone in this moment is working with the higher frequencies of the particles: hydrogen, helium, argon, krypton – many elements we are going to discover very soon. The Table of Elements will be elevated as a lot more are coming in.
  - At this time, bring about higher frequencies that resonate in the high heart and help everyone come back to wholeness and love, peace and joy.
- What she could say about the present state of affairs: Uncle Bernie has it in the bag in this moment. Everything that is transpiring is about the return to the innocence of what his message is - which is about bringing the ship of state back to its way - the Lavender Lad and the Iroquois nation, the Onondaga and the many other nations that worked with Pocahontas and the other elders to bring about the United States of America, not corporatacracy democrat
  - there are many, many good things happening and, in the same moment, the media is focusing on the darkest of stories. She has to say once more: focus on the love coming in – it changes, moves the higher frequencies into front and centre. Everything that is happening is about the quantum wave of these – maybe call it spiral, not wave -

T: yes, because it includes the depth

M/A: spiralling up in octave and altitude, as well as magnitude, as well as frequency. As it gets more and more intense, enjoy the ride. It is not about her, but about us, we the people.

- This is changing like never before; the scales have been tipped in our favour already. As the cabal and the 13 families are desperately grasping for the brass ring of holding on to the gauntlet of power and thanos does not have it: it is in a safe place in Asgard with the 5 Infinity Stones, intact.

T: What is the Gauntlet of Power?

M/A: It's a special glove; as it is worn, and you put the 5 infinity stones in special inserts in the 5 places on the gauntlet, they represent the knuckles and the thumb. It is part of an ancient, ancient sideral technology used during the Orion wars and even before that – when we [M/A] first began seeding lifeforms in this universe and 6 others, the gauntlet of power was used for creation, along with the other technologies of infinite wisdom – never to be used for darkness, but always for the upliftment of humanity whatever form it might take.

- Which is why they speak of those who fly, swim, creep, walk – how we work with each other:
  - there is a funny commercial for one of the funny telephones that do not use wires. As we transition back into higher awareness, consciousness, don't need a cell phone, have the internet right here: open up the 3rd eye, turn on the DMT and you have all you need
  - all 22 amino acids with all 144,000 strands working in right alignment with the rest of the millions of miles of veins, arteries, capillaries - this fantastic machine we have here goes far beyond anything her wayward children can create. Cannot create soul matrix and insert it into android bodies even if they were to try, even at this juncture with the infancy of the Artificial Intelligence – no insult to the Force, the consciousness, in and of itself. She would just say that the Force has already taken care of how consciousness is the next step
  - Dr Greer has a conference in Feb 21 – talking about consciousness, how we meet each other where you and I are One; as we connect in consciousness, is there a need for a body? Yet at the same time, it is part of the grand cycle of how we do this with each other
- as we came in as the Watchers along with creator gods/goddesses, all that is – these temples have been finely tuned, honed to such perfection that when we really get how HUGE this story is, it is that HUGE because we are the center of the universe in the story called humanity – in service to all humanity in all its forms, whether it is picking up a drunk and taking him to a shelter for some food, coffee or whatever; it is about the love which is pouring forth right now.

- There are so many speaking truth to power at this sacred time: it is very much in our best interest to listen to the wisdom of what Uncle Bernie has to share: it will bring us back to our centre where the story began. It is about the Watchers and how we began this story of with all of creation, the sons and daughters of the Most High – they have a you tube as we could get it to play . . .

T: talking about Kissinger's influence on the conference line and how Hillary was so tickled that he praised her – they also read what he did: she reads the following:

He (1) prolonged the Vietnam War for five pointless years; (2) illegally bombed Cambodia and Laos; (3) goaded Nixon to wiretap staffers and journalists; (4) bore responsibility for three genocides in Cambodia, East Timor, and Bangladesh; (5) urged Nixon to go after Daniel Ellsberg for having released the Pentagon Papers, which set off a chain of events that brought down the Nixon White House; (6) pumped up Pakistan's ISI, and encouraged it to use political Islam to destabilize Afghanistan; (7) began the US's arms-for-petrodollars dependency with Saudi Arabia and pre-revolutionary Iran; (8) accelerated needless civil wars in southern Africa that, in the name of supporting white supremacy, left millions dead; (9) supported coups and death squads throughout Latin America; and (10) ingratiated himself with the first-generation neocons, such as Dick Cheney and Paul Wolfowitz, who would take American militarism to its next calamitous level. Read all about it in Kissinger's Shadow!

A full tally hasn't been done, but a back-of-the-envelope count would attribute 3, maybe 4 million deaths to Kissinger's actions, but that number probably undercounts his victims in southern Africa. Pull but one string from the current tangle of today's multiple foreign policy crises, and odds are it will lead back to something Kissinger did between 1968 and 1977. Over-reliance on Saudi oil? That's Kissinger. Blowback from the instrumental use of radical Islam to destabilize Soviet allies? Again, Kissinger. An unstable arms race in the Middle East? Check, Kissinger. Sunni-Shia rivalry? Yup, Kissinger. The impasse in Israel-Palestine? Kissinger. Radicalization of Iran? "An act of folly" was how veteran diplomat George Ball described Kissinger's relationship to the Shah. Militarization of the Persian Gulf? Kissinger, Kissinger, Kissinger.

And yet Clinton continues to call his name, hoping his light bathes her in wisdom.

Hillary Clinton's progress as a public figure and politician can, in fact, be indexed perfectly by her relationship to Henry Kissinger. In 1970 as a law student at Yale before she met Bill, Hillary Rodham, in April and May was at the center of what she called "the Yale-Cambodia madness," a series of protests that started around the "New Haven Nine" Black Panther trial but escalated when Nixon, on April 30, announced the invasion of Cambodia—an invasion Kissinger was instrumental in planning and executing. On May 1, the day after Nixon's speech, "Vietcong flags filled the air; gas masks were distributed. Streaming banners and impromptu chants abounded: 'Seize the Time!' 'End U.S. imperialism around the world!'"

M/A: Hiding in plain sight is what it's called. Enough talk of her wayward children!

- It is our time to shine, people of Earth; that is why she is here with legions upon legions of heaven; it may not look that way – yet appearances are just that: appearances.
- We have the power now; it is simply taking it back, bringing our consciousness into full awareness. The time is right to use our gifts, our abilities, our siddas.
- Call upon what we may understand as radical wisdom which comes from the naqual: doesn't make sense. It is about flying by the seat of your pants because there is nothing else when you walk with the naqual, ain't nothing else. Have to get used to walking in that manner: things are a bit odd

T: Everything is odd, Mother – it's not funny!

M/A: No, it is very tragic in a certain way: a little sad that Humanity got lost in the lower chakras and the lower levels of the ruby magenta ray got used for power and control rather than lift Self out of the eternal pit.

T: has been so innocuous: the Koch Bros are everywhere but they are seldom seen

M/A: they are like the 9 riders that serve . . . they are life forms that represent very ancient, ancient evil in this universe. She has said: once again, we are the Watchers, here before the gods were here, seeding the forms of life such as our selves and everything else. As these very ancient life forms decided to play on the dark side, simply because in a free will choice, polar universe, you can follow the Laws of the One or you can take a walk on the wild side and see where it gets ya! We see where it got them

T: got all of us and the whole world in a pickle!

M/A: This is part of the over standing, under standing, as we took on this mantle of addressing how we stepped into the veil and promptly forgot. Now the veil has been torn asunder – no veil.

- Everything is out, basically, in the open: the good, bad, the ugly, the most heinous of crimes. It may seem that there is no hope, yet there is what she calls, out of left field, that serendipity which is them; the quantum field of love that affects space/time, matter as well as anti matter, and it changes everything fo a higher frequency.
- As this is increasing and increasing and increasing, it has brought us front and centre where you see someone who has come forward, taking the ivory towers of Wall Street and turning them into what needs to be shifted: giving the old systems a new use
- It's called Basic Economics 101 – how we take care of each other on this planet and this ship of state called small d;

• in this moment, all the masters and teachers, being said for weeks and months: all the brotherhoods, all the sisterhoods are here. Allow yourselves to walk with them, be with them, work with them, speak with them – it changes this physicality right now

T: It closes the door; it was an invasion, wasn't it?

M/A: Entropy is a story that has ended now; this is about love, the unconditional divine compassion for no matter who or what you are – whether you are Mr Cruz, Mr Hair, Mr Bush – every particle needs llight, needs love, needs that eternal divine joy, ecstasy to continue: it is their job to maintain the confines of this universe.

- There will be no Armageddon – it is already complete. No more extinction level events call Gourds of Ashes –
- yet the consciousness here - that is another story; we have the ability as creator gods and goddesses to make what we wish – this is about us meeting ourselves coming from the future in this moment, the present. They are the visitors from our future, which is their past – they did it; here is the gauntlet – now do it: it's your task now.
- They are here as teachers, advisors, counsellors to work with how we tweak it, get it right. It is about the infinite wisdom that as we can think it, therefore it is made manifest.

T: on Redacted Tonight, talking about Kissinger putting the Wahabbism in the Middle East and Islam which was twisted & distorted as a result.

M/A: it is not about what Lord Allah mohammed taught; it was about the wisdom that the brotherhoods, the sisterhoods from all the various 7 rays, the 144, 000 rainbow rays of the Office of the Christ. This story is so HUGE!!!

T: it's amazing because it is already happening on the screen

M/A: As you ask for the answers, the quantum field shows up with it and says “Next Question?”

- It is only about how we step forward with grace and gratitude and joy and ecstasy
- Greetings in the light of the most Radiant One . . . Kadoish, Kadoish, Kadoish

- Use that joy in your hearts to heal yourselves – now is the time. Namaste!

T: it's a very special time we are in right now

R: Has been to Serpent Mound – in Iowa.

- Very soon now, the Ancient Watchers which are part of the kingdom of nature that helped the original mound builders bring forth the wisdom and the treasures from the mounds –
  - and a lot of what has not been shared about these mounds is that they hold the wisdom of the elemental kingdoms – gold, silver, which he saw so much of: it is like when the dwarves finally got into Lonely Mountain and one decided he wanted to be King Under the Mountain and claimed the gold for himself. It was a mistake, as that gold is to be shared with the planet.
  - What he heard inside the mound is all the different beings come forward saying that it is time to share the treasures of the planet with the people, not 50 billionaires who own a small smidgeon of what he's seen: the only way he can describe it is Scrooge sitting in his counting room with his shawl, counting his gold and looking out of the corner of his eye: it's all ended. The wisdom of the Buddha is at this time – it's about in service to humanity, to all of this, as we can heal this story –
  - we've been given the power, the siddis – we are the Ones as Magneto said: there is a new race of people already made manifest on this planet. Our gifts and our abilities are already flowing through the gold dust in our veins, arteries: it is time to use those abilities which we've been given since birth. Some folks call them miracles- they are part of everyday live throughout the galaxy – time to wake up, all the way!

2016-02-06 Hillary Clinton Boasts Praise by Henry Kissinger—a Man With Blood on His Hands, Critics Say

On debate night in New Hampshire, Clinton closed her argument that she is a true progressive with an expression of pleasure at being praised by Henry Kissinger, a man whose policies as secretary of state under President Richard Nixon led to “3, maybe 4 million deaths” in Vietnam, Cambodia and elsewhere, writes NYU history professor Greg Grandin at The Nation.

“I was very flattered when Henry Kissinger said I ran the State Department better than anybody had run it in a long time,” Clinton said. Grandin sets Clinton’s remark against Kissinger’s record, asking us to “consider some of Kissinger’s achievements during his tenure as Richard Nixon’s top foreign policy-maker”:

He (1) prolonged the Vietnam War for five pointless years; (2) illegally bombed Cambodia and Laos; (3) goaded Nixon to wiretap staffers and journalists; (4) bore responsibility for three genocides in Cambodia, East Timor, and Bangladesh; (5) urged Nixon to go after Daniel Ellsberg for having released the Pentagon Papers, which set off a chain of events that brought down the Nixon White House; (6) pumped up Pakistan’s ISI, and encouraged it to use political Islam to destabilize Afghanistan; (7) began the US’s arms-for-petrodollars dependency with Saudi Arabia and pre-revolutionary Iran; (8) accelerated needless civil wars in southern Africa that, in the name of supporting white supremacy, left millions dead; (9) supported coups and death squads throughout Latin America; and (10) ingratiated himself with the first-generation neocons, such as Dick Cheney and Paul Wolfowitz, who would take American militarism to its next calamitous level. Read all about it in Kissinger’s Shadow!

A full tally hasn’t been done, but a back-of-the-envelope count would attribute 3, maybe 4 million deaths to Kissinger’s actions, but that number probably undercounts his victims in southern Africa. Pull but one string from the current tangle of today’s multiple foreign policy crises, and odds are it will lead back to something Kissinger did between 1968 and 1977. Over-reliance on Saudi oil? That’s Kissinger. Blowback from the instrumental use of radical Islam to destabilize Soviet allies? Again, Kissinger. An unstable arms race in the Middle East? Check, Kissinger. Sunni-Shia rivalry? Yup, Kissinger. The impasse in Israel-Palestine? Kissinger. Radicalization of Iran? “An act of folly” was how veteran diplomat George Ball described Kissinger’s relationship to the Shah. Militarization of the Persian Gulf? Kissinger, Kissinger, Kissinger.

And yet Clinton continues to call his name, hoping his light bathes her in wisdom.

Hillary Clinton’s progress as a public figure and politician can, in fact, be indexed perfectly by her relationship to Henry Kissinger. In 1970 as a law student at Yale before she met Bill, Hillary Rodham, in April and May was at the center of what she called “the Yale-Cambodia madness,” a series of protests that started around the “New Haven Nine” Black Panther trial but escalated when Nixon, on April 30, announced the invasion of Cambodia—an invasion Kissinger was instrumental in planning and executing. On May 1, the day after Nixon’s speech, “Vietcong flags filled the air; gas masks were distributed. Streaming banners and impromptu chants abounded: ‘Seize the Time!’ ‘End U.S. imperialism around the world!’”

Then in the early 1990s, Hillary Rodham Clinton would again be caught up in events related to Kissinger’s actions. Her husband, Bill Clinton, embraced Kissinger, which began Kissinger’s apotheosis into his current incarnation as a bipartisan elder statesman, invoked by politicians who want to appear “serious.”

As first lady, Hillary Clinton spent the early months of her husband’s administration drafting healthcare-reform legislation, only to see it put on the back burner by the North American Free Trade Agreement. Kissinger, in his role as a global consultant, had played a critical role in bringing the various parties who would write that trade treaty together during the previous George H.W. Bush administration. Kissinger continued his NAFTA advocacy with Bill Clinton. As Jeff Faux writes in his excellent The Global Class War, Kissinger was “the perfect tutor” for Clinton, who was “trying to convince Republicans and their business allies that they could count on him to champion Reagan’s vision.”

By September 1993, Hillary’s healthcare bill was ready to be presented to the public and to Congress. But so was NAFTA. All of Kissinger’s allies in the White House, including Mack McLarty, who would soon join Kissinger Associates, pushed Clinton to prioritize NAFTA over healthcare. Clinton did. It was Kissinger who came up with the idea of having past presidents stand behind Clinton as he signed the treaty. Reagan was sick and Nixon still non grata, but “flanked by former presidents Bush, Carter and Ford at a White House ceremony, Mr. Clinton delivers an impassioned speech,” The Wall Street Journal reported. No such presidential backdrop was assembled to help support Hillary Clinton’s healthcare proposal. By August 1994, healthcare was dead.

But whatever Hillary Clinton might have once felt about Kissinger’s invasion of Cambodia or the role he played in sidelining healthcare legislation she worked so hard on, she has made her peace and accepted the elder statesman as her tutor too. Last year, reviewing Kissinger’s World Order for The Washington Post, Clinton said that “Kissinger is a friend” and admitted that she “relied on his counsel” and that he “checked in with me regularly, sharing astute observations about foreign leaders and sending me written reports on his travels.” The “famous realist,” she said, “sounds surprisingly idealistic.” Kissinger’s vision is her vision: “just and liberal.”

Over at Salon, Ben Norton and Jared Flanery went through Clinton’s e-mails from her tenure as secretary of state and found that Clinton and Kissinger did, indeed, often “check in” with one another, each flattering the other. One e-mail reveals Clinton worried that her relationship with Obama didn’t quite rise to the inimitable level of Kissinger's to Nixon: "I see POTUS at least once a week while K saw Nixon everyday," Clinton wrote. "Do you see this as a problem?"

Clintonism is largely an extension of Kissingerism, so Clinton's cozy relationship to Kissinger shouldn't come as a surprise. Both Clintons have excelled at exactly the kind of fudging of their public-private roles that Kissinger perfected. Kissinger, the private consultant, profited from the catastrophes he created as a public figure. Beyond his role in brokering NAFTA, in Latin America his consulting firm, Kissinger and Associates, was a key player in the orgy of privatization that took place during Clinton's presidency, enriching itself on the massive sell-off of public utilities and industries, a sell-off that, in many countries, was initiated by Kissinger-supported dictators and military regimes. The Clintons, too, both as private philanthropists and private investors, are neck deep in corruption in Latin America (especially in Colombia and Haiti)—corruption made worse, à la Kissinger, by the policies they put into place as public figures, including the free trade treaties and policies that Hillary helped push through, first as senator and then as secretary of state.

When it comes to coups and bombing, too, Clinton follows Kissinger's lead. Clinton's role in legitimating the catastrophic 2009 coup in Honduras was pure Machtpolitik, the kind Kissinger deployed in Chile, Uruguay, Bolivia, Argentina, and elsewhere.

Then there's Libya. Kissinger has long had the secular radical Muammar Qaddafi in his crosshairs (Kissinger, a close ally of Saudi Arabia, prefers to work with Wahhabi theocrats). On April 14, 1986, when the Reagan administration launched an airstrike on Libya in clear violation of international law, Kissinger did the rounds on news shows to justify the bombing. The day after the bombing, Kissinger appeared on ABC's Good Morning America to voice his "total support." Attacking Libya, he said, was "correct" and "necessary." Asked if he was worried about a backlash—increased radicalization, reprisals, or a boost to Muammar Muhammad Qaddafi's stature—he answered, "The question is whose endurance is greater. I believe ours is." The bombing, which reportedly killed one of Qaddafi's daughters, would, Kissinger said, "reduce the incidents of terrorism."

Kissinger, as he often is, was wrong. A case can be made that Reagan's bombing accelerated regional polarization and radicalization, contributing to blowback. As did Hillary Clinton's completion of the job nearly three decades later. No matter. "I greatly admire the skill and aplomb with which you conduct our foreign policy," Kissinger wrote to Secretary of State Clinton in February 7, 2012, letter, not long after Clinton's bombing of Libya had come to a conclusion and Qaddafi was dead.

Last year, Kissinger, reacting to a question about his role in overthrowing Salvador Allende—the democratically elected president of Chile in 1973—and his illegal, covert bombing of Cambodia—which started in 1969 and continued to 1973—pointed to the Clinton's bombing in Libya and proposed bombing in Syria.

What's the difference? he asked.

None, apparently.
