COR: TC pointed out that people are watching the news, and trying to parse out what is real, what is not; who is telling the truth and who is not; wondering if people are playing games with us, hiding things from us etc

TC: the biggest gift is turn away from the news reports and ask our own inner guides what is going on; what are Trump's true intentions, how is NESARA rolling along, who can I listen and so on. We are all in the place of having to develop our own inner sense of what is really happening and what is my part in it – listening to heart/mind, Higher Self, we know many people who are full of wisdom

- most people are capable of channeling: write out the question and listen and you'll get a response: listen to your intuition, and to children and animals
- come out of the electronics:
- Ask the questions of your own higher wisdom: what would enlighten me? What would inspire me? What information do I need to inspire me?
  - Ask a question before you go to sleep: I need a dream to give me an answer.

Omena: asks listeners to call in!

Hard News

T: O my fur and whiskers!

R talked to some plasma energy today:

- went to cyber cafe / tea house on Canyon Road; ran into a friend who had good news
  - Mr Fenn owns The Fenn gallery, a multi billionaire with clout: he got after Homeland Security because they were blocking the Keshe technology; he caused them to open up the routes so the technology could come into the US
- Mr Fenn took Rama to his home further up the road
  - In his living room, has two 6' Tesla coils = 2 Vibe machines at $17,000 each! [look up on the net "quantum energy device" can see a pic of the device]
  - in between the coils, has a pool with copper plate, gold plate and wires going to the vibe machines
  - told Rama not to freak when the machines turned on: it created a holographic taurus like in the
    - asked R if he wanted to go into the water: NO but he put his hand in the blue green plasma field and a gold field showed up around his hand and focussed on the knuckle on the middle finger, right hand where some arthritis is beginning to form: Mr Fenn told him to take care of it!
    - After 5 minutes of his hand being in the plasma field, he tried to pull his hand out: he couldn't - Mr Fell told him to relax!

- Today he went up there and put both hands in the water: surrendered to the energy and his heart asked what is the highest good of all concerned here:
  - the message from the plasm field focus through the heart with how we work with these energies, moving forward as this is a HUGE test for all us now.
- The rest of the story is about the ancient life forms who are very real not fake, not fictitional – has to do with the picture that goes back to Babylon, Sumer and Mother's people
  - Everything coming forward now is fake: Mr Putin did not hack the elections: it was the Black Ops / the ABC agencies did the hacking because of the infighting between the 13 familes
- Talked to Tom the Cat, Cornell Brooks/CB on Amy Goodman / Democracy Now this morning:
  - CB was arrested at Jeff Sessions' office in Alabama, plus others protesting choice of Sessions as AG
    - Sessions was rejected as a justice in the US because he was considered unfit by the judge at the time of a certain case, as he was so out of balance and anti - everything
  - Cornell & Tom the Cat shared via an encrypted line
    - an outlandish piece of the story that is in the realm of Ancient Aliens, about the times we are in are coming to conclusion
    - no accident that the fiasco going on in Middle East, and the huge things happening between Palestine and Israel: Trump wants to make Jerusalem the capital of Israel [and so does Netanyahu]
    - this will push things over the edge the possibility of a 2 state solution between Palestine and Israel has already been destroyed.
  - [the following came from Tom, CB who said this conversation never happened should it get to the ears of those with not good intentions]
    - Jeff Sessions is not an archon, but a demon in a physical body
    - this story goes back to Ancient Babylon when this being came into a body
    - this goes back to the time of Vuldrona, a reconciliation period in the 4th century BC with Enki, Enlil, & others, including Gozer the destroyer; JS was part of the fallen angel crew this is a huge story as it is about the return of the beings who, in fact, never left, so this is unfinished business
    - the artifacts and the technologies are coming forward now this is about the entire story of Iraq, Syria Iran and others
      - this involves the Gates of Ishtar: to honour Inanana, one enters through the Gates
- Mother says we are already past Armegeddon and Revelations and the prophecies about those who would come & lead the people into the promised land, and it would be the Anti- Christ
  - in reality, Trump is attempting to play that role
  - Mitt Romney was a cheap version of the Anti Christ; Trump is even cheaper version
  - this is avery dark spiral downwards and it is on all sides
    - This is not about choosing either side: we have to go directly to our own Higher Selves and not to any saviour
  - CB said we are going to stop this: they went into Sessions office and sat down as happened with John Lewis in Congress when they sat down and did not participate: it was non-violet civil disobedience
    - there is help because this is the final story

- Going back to Tuesday, Dec 4th and the story about St Germain sending a messenger to Trump and telling him he was toast if he aligned with Netanyahu at this time: T&R were asked if St Germain was threatening Trump?
  - No was the answer from KOS, via the Poppy Lady:
    - there have been 4 war crime tribunals: Netanyau was indicted, prosectued, ried and convicted as a genocidal war criminal with many crimes against humanity
    - the message was a warning to Trump to disengage; he has ignored that advice
- T: Says to put this situation in the Circle of Support we are requested to do this work at a higher level & this will filter through to the action on the ground
- R: Larry Silverstein a good friend of TrumP: RanaMu said he had foreknowledge that the World Trade Centre would go down [he had insurance on the building and made lots of money when it was destroyed]
- Katrina venden Heuval's main message on Dec 31st on Josh Barro's show: her comments
  - time to honour the comet that has come in at this time; it came in the time period right over New Years Eve into New Years Day powerful synchronicity
    - the energy that is provided is clear up what has not yet been cleared up
    - and to hold the accountability fro 911 and everything since

Reading: 2017-01-02 Observing Comet 45P/Honda-Mrkos-Pajdusakova [SEE BELOW]

- Monday: Republicans tried to get rid of Ethics Committee so they could not be held accountable; they got caught [and the people are letting them know what they think!]
- Cmdr Randy: about the tesla coils: all you have to do is recall that energy in your meditation times; it will come back to you: the Tesla energy is MULTI DIMENSIONAL and it stays with you!

MR: so even those of us who were not there in the physical can all re-create it!

CR: Yes and also know: when Rama showed a little bit of fear; it locks you into its energy: breathe and calm down; CR has played with that energy: remain calm, cool and collected!

T: sat in a Tesla chair a long time ago - have to cooperate fully with the energies of coil

GUESTS: Carolyn Oceana Ryan, Omena – COR, O Call in #: 888- 429 – 5471; 530- 413- 9537

- COR: people feeling apprehensive: a number of celebrities on TV about Trump gratifying to hear them say this is ridiculous; he's a nut case, how did this happen?
  - He's an actor and many of us do: she grew up in a church where her troubled father was a protestant minister and he was quite an actor: not a surprise to see people in power being actors! Up to us to realize what is really happening and do our own discernment
- O: can understand everyone's fear and that is one of the problems what we fear is what we bring into manifestation
  - change this fear to allowing whatever is going to happen, to happen
  - will either be implosion or explosion the work being done at the higher levels and is coming down faster than we think!
- Trump is serving a purpose: stirring everyone up so much:
  - O watched some of the sessions on TV today and saw those who are representing the people think the people are stupid –
  - people need to wake up and start questioning a lot of stuff will be coming out and there will be so much, people will not believe it
  - We need to get out of the fear factor and think in a higher level

- there is so much muck higher up, they are going to be falling on their face!
- Has asked about the dream which she had twice: got that there will be 2 Black Ops operating

COR: so the message is that Trump will be going down, due to an inside job. O: yes

TC: pleased to be here.

- There is a great deal happening that makes people want to close off to truth rather than to open up to truth; the time is coming when that closing, hiding won't be possible
  - There are two paths: one is people hiding, not wanting to know, heads in the sand;
  - the other is people waking up, gathering: we'll sit in congressional offices either in DC or in our home state, going to make things very clear.
- There is a great shift going on in the balance of power in the US
  - what people have been told: we will call this a democracy but you will be cared for, your decisions will be make for you; don't worry; we'll look after you!
    - Did things to make people feel it is patriotic to go buy things, go to fight, get into consumerism
    - lots of technology is being used to catch the brain waves and have people think in certain ways, and close down and to not think in other ways
  - the energies coming to earth are breaking this up people are sitting up and saying we won't do this any more; people are surprised and asking where did this energy come from when they find themselves standing up for themselves, as is seen in the protests against the idea of a Muslim registry, the potential destruction of ACA
- be aware of the 2 streams, that people can do either -
  - falling into fear & apprehension, even a well-informed fear is anti-productive no matter how well informed it is – people getting together to create affirmations can make the ideas so
  - what are you creating in this moment? Are you creating full disclosure, full enactment of NESARA law or status quo? Are you faceless sheep being lead by the left or the right we cannot go backward.
    - what can we do to help people wake up?
- TC are supporting us and our individual support teams they are sending energies to those listening; we can tap into that energy and deal with each new piece of info with calm, grace and knowing the the bigger picture is filled with grace
- There is nothing to fear!
- O: on subject of people full of fear: need protective energy: if they cannot bring it up, think of what would you do if your child was threatened: react with passion send the same kind of energy to those people so they might wake up as well.
- this is talking about freedom, spiritual survival more than physical survival: the choices we have to make she also thinks those who are doing what they are doing are nowhere near as powerful as they think they are! We have to focus on this and send out the energy that they cannot do that
- As for the ACA they looked like buffoons thinking people are stupid; they have no idea of how to replace it
  - the insurance cos are behind this as they are losing $ it all comes down to money
  - send out the energy of not taking away anyone's freedom away from them

MR: think of a dome of divine protective energy, a bubble of protection that makes us OK O: She adds: we need to think of THE ONENESS OF ALL US IN THAT BUBBLE.

If we go into a meditation, invite all the oneness people into that bubble as they are who are all positive energy

- COR: creating a new earth, a new reality, where everyone is cared for; no one can take away food, homes, health care, education
  - in this moment, you are buoying the potential when you hold that vision! Helping that vision unfold
  - What O says about calling in the lion energy who growls to make people aware that he is not fooling around; take on the wolf medicine, the bear medicine, the lion medicine to banish your own fears, that of others – let out growls when you are watching all this – no need to cower!
- O: what is going on is enlightening: has definitely got her attention who has seldom paid attention to politics and that of others! Maybe the swamp is going to be drained!!!
- COR: many are paying attention: sensing the galactic presence, the activity in the higher reals of those spreading the 5th dimension energy throughout this system which cannot stay as it is and many of those "in power" know this and are very afraid.
  - In the past we would have heard certain politicians saying they would make changes – now they have to use words about the system being replaced don't worry, it will be OK
    - Now they have to talk about replacing the health care because there is now an expectation that healthcare is a right: people will not give it up. In the past they would not have talked of replacing now 30 million people and their thought formsare impacting what is happening; the people are not willing to give this up

CR: a male lion when he roars, he can be heard 5 miles away! So think of our power when we roar!

O: think of that kind of power going into the air

COR: It breaks through the lower vibrations!

T: when we do this as a collective mind and heart, it gets broadcast around the whole planet –
THIS IS VERY ACTIVE PARTICIAPATION - POWERFUL WORK WHEN WE DO THIS TOGETHER

O: people don't realize how powerful they are until they are threatened

- the animals in the ocean travel all over the world and are wonderful carriers of information; we can tune into the basic nature of the beings, animals and send out our requests demand and command! Get the collective consciousness going the Universe has to respond to the demand, command!
- COR: People are just beginning to understand about command- ability not only belongs to certain persons in religion or gov't, it belongs to us!!
  - it is the co-creative push and desire/ability they click into place when the desire, requirement, expectation is there
- One person can make a great change with a powerful set of affirmations this has been greatly underplayed over the centuries too inconvenient for the working ones to stand up for themselves, and those in control realized that if we don't keep them small & weak, they will turn on us and
- the galactic aspect of TC say they are participating increasingly in human affairs now as there is a conscious and unconscious—desire on the part of humanity to break out of the old structure of being small, oppressed and ordered about
  - TC are intervening in every way they can
  - We also need to understand that in our sleep state, we are working with galactic brothers and sisters, Twin Flames NONE OF THIS IS AN ACCIDENT.

O: a story about Jesus and us who are thinking we don't have any power.

- Before he incarnated, the higher level collective approached him and asked him to go back to earth because it's a mess!!! There's a seed in every soul that needs to wake up J: I just did this 500 years ago and it didn't help not sure he wanted to do it!
- they perusaded him because his TF would be with him an offer he couldn't refuse!

- he went on a collective mission; had the higher powers with him all the way: not sure he'd survive and he certainly stirred things up! They called him a heretic and thought him insane: he acknowledged women, he evolved all he met; he was a carpenter that put him in the higher levels of society, yet worked with the poor he passed into the collective consciousness and set out to change things
- we can all bring in that kind of passion, goal
- If you don't believe in animals, call in those deities in your specific religion to call in your power and get rid of the fear
- fear is irrational

COR: fear is irrational in the context of the realization of how great the Universe is and how great we people are

- he was a threat to the existing leadership of Rome
- exuding the energy of love and freedom that the leaders of the country were terrified of
- he told people they could create anything they needed through the power they had in themselves which is connected to the universal power the story got misconstrued
- If you say you have faith, act on it and call on your own divinity and create it is with you right now we are never separate from our soul!

O: separate the fear from the irrational fear

- Gandhi knew that the horses would not trample on him when he sat in the middle of the road; he was absolutely without fear because he knew what the horses would do: they rode around him and the soldiers thought he had some kind of power
- G was also a master soul when he came in to do this: that kind of wisdom and spirituality is built over eons
- separate the healthy fear and the irrational fear
  - a healthy fear is looking both ways before you cross the road, or knowing that a hungry lion will not lick your face!
  - irrational fear is when you come from a powerless place and then everything becomes irrational, especially the fear and the anxiety

MR: yes, people do not realize there are various kinds of fear - don't know how to name it

T: this whole week all of US aircraft carriers are in port - all brought home by Obama

- F1 and F2 are saying Obama wants to get us all killed!
- Is this a signal that the galactics are stepping in more, and we might not be using these weapons of war any more?

COR: they are indeed stepping in more powerfully – not named as such: may still some use of the weaponry for show

O: who are they going to blame after Jan 20th??? Won't be Obama!

COR: so much apprehension among the power crowd and those who support them as they realize that thay can no longer make that easy assignment of blame: how can we do what we do and still look innocent?

O: now they will turn on each other as there is no point of blame outside of themselves

- T: It's already going on: the overlords in the background of the Illuminati are killing each other already
  - the vying for the power stick getting weaker and weather
  - looking for a way in as there is no one out there who can be trusted
  - ordinary people feel there is going to be a hole when BO leaves: there was some kind of connection to love and that will be gone when BO goes this is where we step in as our awareness of awareness

COR: his presidency is a bridge between the old power structure where people felt weak

2017-01-05 Stargate Roundtable Call 8 / 14

- and the new one where the empowerment is put back on the people he wanted people to help him, couldn't do it himself
  - they toppled the paradigm of leader as king, removed those energies from the WH
- those coming in will have a hard time trying re-establish that which has no foundation in the Presidency any more
- Also, there are powerful shifts in power going on in DC in the House and the Senat
- the point of power has shifted to the individual, from the old expectation of who's going to save us to how we have to save ourselves Sanders picked up the baton from Obama and now individuals are sending in petitions, making calls, sitting in congressional office see how the old structure reacted when the ethics committee tried to change thing
- O: the incoming group have no vibrations: what they have is not high enough to do what they say they are going to do
  - the energy vibrations are being taken out of the White House as a building: they will find only a cold building when they get there people know when they walk into a
- T: Trump has been given a clear indication of the level of galactic presence in american politics there really is!
  - was shaken after his meeting with Obama
  - the vibrations of the galactics will remain in the White House

O: opines he won't feel them or will ignore them

COR: on the contrary: he feels them quite sharply – he thinks he can override them! He's being lied to – has been given assurances he can and that those working with him can cut through them – it is not so, but that is what he is being told.

MR: who is giving Trump this kind of information?

COR: dark beings - some in physical form, some non-physical who work through him subconsciously, through dreams, sometimes consciously

O: yet they are low vibrations

COR: exceedingly low!

O: this will bring down his vibrations! Still not the 20th – it's wait and see.

MR: next week a full moon – Jan 12th – this is an energy boost for that day

- Two more gatherings before Jan 20th one 19th of Jan
- asks R if there is any indication of how that spectacle will unfold?
- R: simply put: there are so many billions of people on the planet who do not want to see this man step into that office: the hue and cry is going to get even more intense because the undealt-with energy of violations against the feminine will come up
  - in the last day or so: Marianne Williamson has put out a YouTube
    - She was also on the Stephanie Miller show and had a very straight forward heart-to-heart with everyone: you have to come with your hearts now, as we are at a very dangerous time & not get caught in the fear or get caught in the fascination of the "what ifs?"
    - she didn't call him an archon but when a man has no respect from the feminine and he has his finger on that button we won't go there!
  - •There is some kind of evolution, revolution brewing right now
    - Has heard through those he talks to that those connected to ABC agencies: when push comes to shove, the members will see Trump lose!

T: on the 19th, the sun goes into Aquarius – interesting

MR: Mercury goes direct pretty soon

O, R: do their best when Mercury is retrograde! R was born on such a day; O had 7 planets going backwards when she was born!!!

MR: sometimes with adversity we get stronger

O: her karma is now done - she did a lot in earlier years of this lifetime

• not easy to not create more karma

MR: suggestion for talking about karma next week when Omena is guest on the show.

• If we could be in pure love for ½ hour a day, it would have a terrifically positive effect on the world. Pure love is the only thing that heals.

- Intention is everything: forget about time and time zones: if we were to put ourselves in pure love and hold that time and bring that love into our 3D world:
- To get in touch with that pure love: think about something that made you very joyous
- To the members of the panel: come up with your toughest questions about karma for next week then it is not a personal thing: karma is only an energy and can talk about how it works.
  - Agreement around the group

T: looked up Mercury – does direct on Jan 8th which is Omena's galactic birthday!!!

- Jupiter the moon over this 3 day period:
- a grand T-square: moon is blocking Uranus in Aries; the Jupiter in Libra is available Jupiter is concrete spirituality

O: Trump birthday: born on the eclipse - 1946, June 14 -

- galactic birthday: blue electric hand 3 Manik [Rainbird]
  - destiny pattern: monkey

MR: a 4 in terms of numerology – putting things together in a workable, usable form

T: he was born in South Africa!

MR: made such a thing about Obama? Why has no one brought this up?

O: Can't be a president if not born on American soil!

T: there is no one of the light who will bring this up: the Illuminati are making sure no one brings it up – he's their boy and they want to stay in power

TC: they would lose their job and potentiall their lives.

CR: is that his real birthday?

T: NO it's been covered up

T: Drumpf is his real name – his mother is a Dutch royal princess; a member of the illuminati

- member of the 3rd reich rich because he has Dutch royal money in his background, though he is not rich any more! Blew it big time!
- Russia, China, German Duetsche bank & a few others have his money!!!

Next week: Omena as guest.

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2017-01-02 Observing Comet 45P/Honda-Mrkos-Pajdusakova

http://skyhound.com/45P.html

Seeing a comet visually is more difficult than the pretty pictures make it appear. Standing next to the photographer, few people would have noticed the comet above, and binoculars were required for most to see it at all. This image of comet PANSTARRS was captured by SkyTools user Ernie Parker on March 14, 2013 at StargateCOlorado Observatory in Trinidad, CO.

All You Need is a Small Telescope or Binoculars

Observing 45P from the northern hemisphere through January 5th will be relatively easy. This comet will not be visible to the naked eye, but if you know where to look, it will be fairly easy to spot in a small telescope or binoculars.

Timing is Everything

45P is visible right after sunset, low in the southwestern sky, so a location with a relatively clear western horizon is required. The less light pollution the better. The tricky part is the timing. The comet is following the setting sun, so it will be highest in the sky as twilight begins, but very difficult to see because of the bright sky. As the minutes pass the sky will become darker, but the comet will move closer to the horizon, making it harder to see. There are few magic minutes in between when the comet will be most easily seen.

Unfortunately, the exact time depends on your latitude and how bright your sky is. If I knew exactly where you would be observing from I could tell you exactly when and where to look. But we can get pretty close. The chart below shows the position of the comet on the evening of January 2. Note the position of Venus and Mars and how they point out where the star Theta Cap is. The comet will be near this star, so finding this star will be most of the battle.

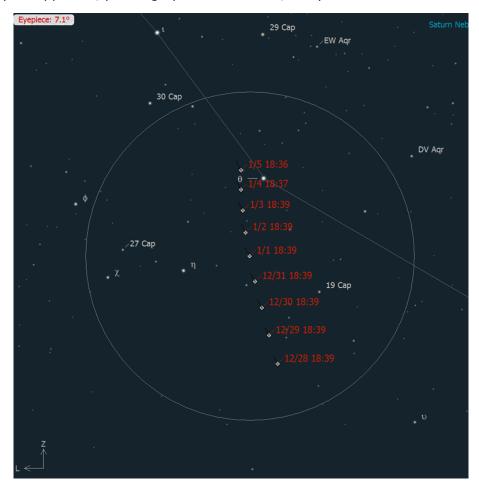

45P on the evening of January 2, as seen for New Mexico

The chart below shows the approximate position of the comet each night until the moon begins to interfere too much. It shows the field of view and stars that you would see from a dark location in typical 7x50 binoculars. The date and best time to view is marked for each night. The times depend on your latitude. If you are in the south, say at 24N in Florida, it may be as late as 7PM before you get the best view. Farther north, at say 50N, the best view may be as early as 5:50 PM.

Rather than go by the time, It is best to go out as the sun is setting and start looking for Venus and Mars. As the sky darkens, more stars will appear. Looking at the naked-eye chart above, try looking where you think the star Theta Cap is. This is the brighter star that 45P is moving toward as each night passes. It will pass close to this star on the nights of the 4th and 5th. Holding your gaze steady, bring the binoculars up to your eyes. The brightest star you see will likely be Theta Cap. Use the binocular finder chart provided below to spot the comet relative to this star on the night you are looking.

On New Year's Eve the moon will be to the right of the comet, which may help in spotting it. But the moon will be a very thin crescent and difficult to spot itself. It will also be outside of the comet field of view in typical binoculars.

The comet will appear as a faint round smudge of light. In very dark skies, or in a small telescope, a faint tail may be apparent, pointing up and to the left, away from the sun.

Behind the Scenes -- How I Made the Calculations

You may notice that the predictions of other web sites and various software are different from those presented here. Others have focused on the close pass to the earth in February, but I think this is a mistake. Unless it brightens dramatically, the best opportunity to see this comet is in early January.

I follow the observations that are reported by observers around the world. Based on these observations I compute magnitude, coma diameter, and "degree of concentration" parameters. These parameters are made available to SkyTools users when they update their Current Comets observing list, which is always kept up to date with the latest bright comets. Using these parameters, SkyTools can accurately predict the magnitude and size of the comet for a month or two in advance, presuming that the comet doesn't suddenly change. If the comet does change suddenly, the parameters are quickly updated.

But there is more to being able to detect a comet than its magnitude alone. In fact, the magnitude of a comet is a poor predictor of visibility in the eyepiece. This is because comets vary greatly in size and how concentrated their light is. A large diffuse comet will be much more difficult to spot than a small one, or one that has a bright center, even though the magnitudes are the same. To make things even more interesting, a bright twilight sky will affect the visibility of the large or diffuse comet to a greater degree than that of the small or concentrated one. It is at this point that most people simply throw up their hands.

For my SkyTools software, I developed a scientific model for the detectability of extended objects in the eyepiece, based on the sky brightness and visual contrast. Given the magnitude, size, and degree of concentration, this model can be successfully applied to comets.

As the altitude of the comet and brightness of the sky changes during the night, SkyTools samples the visual detectability of the comet, selecting the time of night when the contrast is at its highest. When this is done for successive nights, a Nightly Optimum Viewing Ephemeris can be computed. It is this ephemeris that was used to make the predictions above, and no other software can compute it.

The ephemeris can be displayed on a chart, like the binocular finder chart above, for any location and telescope.

The Story of Comet 45P

Sixty-eight years ago, in December 1948, Moniru Honda discovered a new comet. Antonín Mrkos, and Ľudmila Pajdušáková also shared in the discovery.

45P started way out in the Oort cloud, where millions of comets circle the sun, so distantly that they cannot be detected. Out that far they are easily deflected, and sometimes they fall toward the sun and the inner solar system. Most make a pass and then head back out to where they came from, perhaps never to be seen again. But a few will pass close enough to the gravity of a planet, usually Jupiter, such that the orbit is altered. These comets can be deflected so that they no longer go far away from the sun, but orbit the sun regularly, and because they periodically appear in our skies, they are called periodic comets. Each periodic comet is given a number. The most famous is the first one that was recognized, comet 1P/Halley. The comet discovered by Honda is the 45th numbered periodic comet. The orbit of 45P stretches out to Jupiter, but every 5.3 years it passes closer to the sun, between the orbits of Venus and Mercury. It is at these times that it can be spotted in backyard telescopes, although some opportunities are better than others. This is one of the better opportunities.

The next time 45P/Honda-Mrkos-Pajdusakova will be close to the earth and sun will be in early April 2022, when it is predicted to reach a maximum brightness of magnitude 8.5, more than a magnitude fainter than now.
