

Fairlington UMC “heart” messages – What do you love about Fairlington?
PAGE ONE OF THREE

Communion – Sebastian (8)

Worship, seeking/study, service, fellowship, sharing

I love that we accept all people! And the inspiring, not “preachy” messages

Music

Snack time – Miles (6)

The great organ music! The unique focus on stewardship

For music that fills our hearts with gladness!

I love this church because it brings so many people together and multiplies the good they can do

The people, children, choirs and service to others

Opportunities for service

I love to come here because it is open for every body. Friendly and loving people

I am Catholic but I really enjoy your open church when I come to visit my grandsons.

Acceptance/outreach

Welcomes me from Washington state

A place to belong

Children’s programming

Music

The joyfulness of serving each other

A loving home for children

Friendly and welcoming

How open we are to all kinds of people and ideas

Our young people

I love FUMC cause of the youth group!

I love the family atmosphere and way of service

I love how many things we do as a church like the Christmas party for the homeless and the bagging potato drop. Thank you.

I love Fairlington because I feel love, peace, hope and so much happiness. I feel God’s love

I love FUMC for ...the connection to God

Openness, open doors, community support

It’s home

Sanctuary

Preaching and teaching

Holy friendships

The people

Christian friendships

I appreciate your hospitality, Wed. Bible study class

PAGE TWO OF THREE

ATP and our pastors

Grace

The music – Amelia Przsawik

Fellowship at Fairlington is nurturing and refreshing

The children are amusing

Music

I love FUMC because it is most like home

Community service

I love that we live according to God by doing so much service to help people. I also love the music.

Our spirit of welcoming all

I love singing in the choir and ringing bells

Our leaders and teachers

Music

I love cherub choir

All of the community support and programs

Caring and giving people

Welcoming

I love the church because it makes me feel wanted, sacred and my family

I love how welcoming Fairlington is

Fairlington centers me with fellowship and focus

Holy friendships

The organ is great

Place of encouragement in times of conflict and doubt

God's love is visible and palpable

The free food!

Many opportunities to serve – BIG and small ☺

It's very strong with God and everybody is so nice and cool.

I love our ministers

I love coming for the singing

That we are a reconciling congregation

I love that my daughter sees two female ministers leading the church

I love how friendly and welcoming everyone is here at Fairlington. Also the worship is very organized and fulfilling – Fatema.

I love this church because they are teaching my grandchild about Jesus

I love that Fairlington is a reconciling congregation and welcomes ALL!

I love to share peace – Chase

I love the strength and #s of youth and children's programs

Music/children's ministry

I like that everyone is friendly to new people to new people and that everyone is included

Welcoming and friendliness

PAGE THREE OF THREE

People and music

Music!

The children's program, the music, the joy, the service to others

Service

I love that FUMC is unconditionally inclusive

I like the church because people are nice

The outreach projects

Members of over 50 years

I love Fairlington because it's so welcome and makes me feel safe and blessed

Personal friendships

The music

I love all the children!

I love Sunday School

The amazing children's Sunday School teachers

Singing in the choir

Children and children's programming

Thoughtful series

The people

I love choir

The way that I see God in others in this place

Serving

Music

Music

Youth group

Reconciliation

Friendship, warmth & support

All are welcomed; all are celebrated

Love the Methodist men for pancakes, grilled chicken and Xmas tree sales

Music for all ages

I love the people in this church – Janna

Service opportunities, friendships, connective

Support in the joys and challenges of parenting

I always feel at home

Great place for families to raise children together!

The love and fellowship is evident in the church – a place to serve and feel God's presence. Thanks for loving my family.

Thankful to be a member of this church choir

Music

Music, community, thoughtful, loving and inspiring sermons

Love of the people

Children's music ministry

What I love at FUMC – the organ! The organist!