

September

2016

Tuesday 6th September: Indoor Meeting: 'The Natural History of Smallcombe Cemetery' Presented by Marion Rayner

Bath Royal Literary and Scientific Institution, 16-18 Queen Square, Bath. BA1 2HN.
Doors open 7.00 pm for 7.30 pm start

Marion will describe the fascinating and diverse natural history of flora, fauna and fungi revealed by the results of biodiversity surveys made by members of Bath Nats at Smallcombe Cemetery, in support of the Heritage Lottery Funded Restoration project there.

Thursday 15th September: FOLLY FARM NATURE RESERVE, nr Pensford, Somerset

Leaders: HELENA CROUCH AND ALAN RAYNER

Meet: 10.30 am, Folly Farm car park. GR ST 606604 Landranger 172/Explorer 155

Finish: 15.30

Focus: Plants and fungi in species-rich grassland, recent and ancient woodland

Description: Leisurely walking along marked paths, up to 3 km, with some gradual ascents and descents. Bring packed lunch. Stout footwear advised. Toilets available on site. The meeting will be joint with Cam Valley Wildlife Group.

Sunday 25th September: WESTHAY MOOR NATIONAL NATURE RESERVE

Leader: GLEN MADDISON

Meet: 11.00 am in Reserve car park. GR ST 456437 Landranger 182 /Explorer 141

Finish: 15.30

Focus: Wetland birds and other wildlife

Description: Slow walking, up to 6 km along Reserve rides and tracks, visiting hides. Waterproof footwear advised. Bring packed lunch.

Informative website: http://www.somersetwildlife.org/westhay\_moor.html

Skills Improvement Groups are also run by the Bath Natural History Society by and for its members.

The Skills Improvement Groups are as follows: Biodiversity,

Dragonfly, Grasshopper, Moths, Birdsong.

News Site: <http://bathnats.blogspot.com> ; Website: <http://www.bathnats.org.uk> Twitter: @Bathnats

Reg Charity No 1107468