The WTCA is proud to announce the opening of the USF BFA Exhibition

RIOT @ THE FACTORY is a fitting title for the unbridled outbreak of artistic talent that will be featured at the WTCA.

The WTCA is proud to announce the opening of the USF BFA Exhibition, a venue which will feature cutting edge works from over a dozen graduating artists. These works exemplify exciting new directions in contemporary art, and utilize a diverse scope of media such as painting, electronic media, installation, ceramic, sculpture, and printmaking. The exhibition opens April 7th and runs through April 25th, with a reception being held on April 11th. Starting at 7PM, the reception will provide the public with an opportunity to interact with the artists and enjoy the food, refreshments, and live music.

Recent works will be featured from Katrina Bennett, Rachel Bishop, Jennifer Costello, Jesse Crozier, Desiree D'Alessandro, Ryan DeFreitas, Erica Ellis, Matthew Friese, Gail Gosselin, Marlow Gum, Benjamin Hooper, Daniel Mantilla, Marissa Nazario, Ronald Pehmoeller, Yimarie Rivera, and Ryan Zook.

With the WTCA graciously hosting this event, a suggested donation box will be placed to assist them in their mission of "restoring the multi-cultural community of West Tampa*." *The WTCA is located at 1906 N. Armenia Avenue, Tampa, FL 33607. Hours run from 10am-5pm Mon. - Fri. and on Sat. by appointment only. Further details are available online at myspace.com/riotatfactory.
