

Morris Animal Foundation Announces Call for Wildlife Research Proposals

Morris Animal Foundation (MAF) is pleased to announce a call for submissions of research proposals on topics relevant to the health and welfare of wild animals. Wildlife proposals will be due November 13, 2009. MAF funds nearly 50 new and continuing wildlife projects each year totaling close to $1.5 million.

If you would like to review MAF's currently funded wildlife research, click here.

Application instructions and deadlines for small (dogs and cats) and large (horses and llamas/alpacas) companion animal submissions will be posted by January 2010. Both will have spring 2010 deadlines.

For more information about MAF grants and the application process, please visit www.MorrisAnimalFoundation.org/professionals/scientists.

About Morris Animal Foundation: Morris Animal Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit established in 1948, is dedicated to funding animal health research that protects, treats and cures companion animals, horses and wildlife. MAF has been at the forefront of funding breakthrough research studies benefiting animals on all seven continents. MAF has its headquarters in Denver. Charity Navigator ranks MAF as a four-star charity, the highest rating. MAF is a BBB Wise Giving Alliance Charity Seal Holder. For more information, call 800.243.2345 or visit www.MorrisAnimalFoundation.org.

Spread the word about Morris Animal Foundation.