HARD NEWS

R: some astrologers from Santa Fe: speculating about the results of Electoral College –

- what if they threw Trump into the Lake of Fire, and people voted for HRC
- We are in Mercury Retrograde – this could reverse the whole election result! Only takes 37 votes to change it all!

Richard Wolffe – a live show, not recorded

- Jane Mayer – referred to Trump's conflicts of interest and his children as Udey and Kusey
- Col Kaddafi's son is still [not finished] and that the Libya story is still around and the cover story about the wicked witch of the east: Hillary Rodham Clinton
- Jane Mayer brought up all the dirty money and the stories related to 911, and there has been no closure and that 75,000+ people died
- Medea Benjamin joined them: talking about the unwarranted kidnapping of American people off the streets because of their last names – 100,000s of thousands detained in black site prisons, or in DUMB locations: some may be dead, others will be able to tell their stories later

T: let's say good bye to this empire

- Divine gov't comes into play here. And St Germain will not allow the spirit of what was started to die – and he is joined by Sekhmet.
- Creator Source has said the dark side has lost – now leave. It is about the soulless ones who think they've lost their heart – no, they've just shut it down themselves.

RanaMu: this solstice changes timelines: NO extinction level event on Dec 27th / 28th

- or Nibiru causing destruction on earth -
- the galactics are here en masse: they will not allow extinction events
- there is a war between the media moguls who are owned and chained at the hip
 - in the Tarot deck, the devil card is 15 = 6 and overlit by LM Nada – man and woman, naked, shows a loose chain around each neck which is chained to the goat's pedestal – shows clearly that it's a choice – yet organized religion says we are sinners, and we need an intervenor

R: has heard many say, including Mother Theresa and Sai Baba: we came in in divine love and beauty, knowing the mission ahead of us.

- Yes, R did try to get out of this: and we knew how deep this story would go!

T: all of us are here now, eh? YES!

- The Coming War On China: documentary by John Pilger – doesn't mean it will happen – just that we can change it between now and whenever; we are moving extremely rapidly and growing in self-knowledge

R: the staged events in Poduk, AK – all happening because they are freaking scared: Bush Sr recognized that when we found out what was going on, we'd hang them on the nearest lamp post!

- As you send love instead of hate, it changes the timelines

T: most people don't know what love is, and this is because of the programming – they don't know the love they are

R: he experienced that when he was sitting Mother Theresa – just be in that moment and love that moment – she said: don't think of the war, or home: just be in the moment.

T: Mother Theresa is Sai Baba's twin flame: they died because they volunteered

T: had a reading and a reading of her hand: if she made it to 30, she might never die – and it was hard for her to understand at the time

- it doesn't show what happens

R: his hand does the same thing – a lady called Rosa – not going anywhere: a vegan fit to be tied. She looked at his hand in 1983-4, said we're gonna switch chairs and you're gonna tell me about my life: and Mother came through and told her!

- Love finds a way!
 - Radical shamanism – RanaMu told him to walk off the cliff!
 - We are watching a coup across the planet - the failsafe mechanisms of Goddess herself – like in Avatar: the plants the trees – the special metal called nonobtainium –
 - it is on Pandora at 4.1 light years from earth, 4 hours from Earth at WARP 6; he did it in 1987-89 somewhere then! Alpha Centauri [ie, Pandora is a real planet!!!]
- T: asks him if he ever got his feet back on the ground after that ?
- R: NO: working on it! That is why he wanted to be with his Twin Flame! And yes, he did say he did not want to return to this dungeon [the earth] – and here he is, doing his mission!
- T: so many people hate earth; say “I didn't ask to come here!” THAT IS NOT TRUE; WE ALL VOLUNTEERED TO COME HERE IN FULL CONSCIOUS AWARENESS. And people don't believe her!
- R: this is a matrix of the mind as Morpheuss said: as you break out of it by meditation and using our gifts and abilities, our X Men abilities - it's why he says that the gods wear spandex:
 - we are shown who we are in all the myths and legends before the Flood – now being found is the 22' tall beings who know all this – with love!

- T: noticed some interesting statements today: listening with inner eye and inner ear to know what is really being said
- Started out with Bob Graham: a former Senator got his NESARA blessings in 1999 and used it to help the pople as opposed to Wendy, Phil Gram who used it to set up the Tea Party and gave the finger to Mr Obama!
 - Bob is quite an elder now; a surprise that he has shown up - has been out of the picture – it's about the so-called bi-partisan investigation into Russia being responsible for hacking the DNC – THAT DID NOT HAPPEN
 - Rama was told it was the US Black Ops, like Lindsay Graham, Mitch McConnell, John McCain, Paul Ryan, the Koch bros – they have cyber technologies they use to hack into Russia's site, make it look as if Russia did it. And Obama is speaking as if what the CIA is saying is clear
 - There are good ones in the CIA not hooked into these dark ones: so when you listen to Obama and Sen Bob Graham they are starting to get it out -
 - have to pull the plug on ALL the main news; Fox News is telling the truth on many levels, [it's not true that Russian did it] as is Trump – but the reasons they are saying that are completely obliterated: they want to go after the Austrian Illuminati and are trying to sway and keep people out of the story: Hitler was cool & collected in front of the people who are not educated and are mind-controlled because they depend on someone else to feed them or they will die
 - Thom Hartmann: when you travel around the country see only Fox news, can understand why

- T: there is a mole in Fox News called Shepherd Smith who has to be careful what he says and Rachel [MSNBC] likewise – or they will be killed.
- this secret gov't activity keeps both sides thinking there is some truth somewhere – yet when you go deeper, you find BOTH SIDES ARE CONTROLLED – everything is tethered
 - on the Trump side: people think he can save them and that he is independently wealthy - yet he owes more than he has – they think with their heart he will help them - and they are so uneducated about what is going on!
 - He has 4 primary members of Goldman Sachs in his new cabinet!! and the original perpetration on the people was Goldman Sachs & Hank Paulson who bargained for
 - Mario Dragi, head of European Central Bank, is from Goldman Sachs; did 911
 - Paulson took Greece out!
 - Shepherd on Jan 2, 2002 – announced the euro and said it was gold backed! He was making an important announcement there.
 - Christine Leagrde is 50' male dragon, head of International Monetary Fund
 - World Bank is #3 of the Troika – every country on earth, every day, every single tally on every single day is known and it's in Rihad, Saudi Arabia!! Which is why there is an American alignment with such a brutal monarchy! And Wahabism.

- We are aligned with that philosophy: in Saudi Arabia, if gays are to die, they are rounded up and beheaded in a public square. In the US, get mind-controlled ones who hate gays to do it for them - like Dylan Storm Roofe - whose mind-controlled activities were set up by Hillary Clinton.
- People will say they don't believe this but Trump has murdered many people via the Mafiosa; he is doing the bidding of Shelly Adelson, Koch Bros, Netanyahu as they are supporting him financially.
- Trump will make sure it is OK to settle the whole of the Palestinian land that appears to be theirs - to steal every inch of Palestinian land; that is just fine!
- Are You seeing the 4th Reich yet?
- There is no duality here, and the experiment of polarity on earth is over - it may appear that we can choose but we do not
- Discussion of levels of awareness - each chakra has 7 levels of awareness: in one chakra we might be at the 7th level of awareness, or at another chakra in a different level of awareness - these are a constant synergistic choice.
 - we all made a conscious choice with all the cards on the table before we incarnated with the agreement that we'd be at various stages of the veil - or not!
 - there are more people who came into this life who did not have to than ever, in the whole era of 450 billion years - ever!
- Bob Graham: said something that is really important:
 - one of the lessons of 911 is that it is 15 years since that horrific event and there are still major sources of information about what happened that have NOT BEEN RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC.
 - (1) This emboldens the opposition to do more because they think they are not being held to account - meaning by the intelligence community, the gov't
 - (2) He also believes the gaping hole in the story of truth contributes to the americans peoples' concern, cynicism, skepticism about gov't.
 - he did not agree with the status quo story: he said very clearly there is a big hole in the truth with stuff that has not been released!
 - There are 2 weeks unto new year eve: the criminals who did 911 have 14 days left of the immunity and on Sat am, on MSNBC, on AM Joy, we have a bombshell!
- Audio: plays the clip between the host of AM Joy and former Sen Bob Graham of Florida
 - he talked about Putin wanting to disrupt democracy around the world: THERE AREN'T NONE!
 - He got his NESARA Blessings in 1999 - he is in a prominent place and can effect change
 - Pres Putin, Prex Xi and Pres Obama have individual very secret agendas - and T & R can speak of this because Rama is the only one who is not gagged
 - the galactics represent the truth; and not intervening in our free will choice and they are millions of years ahead of us in the time/space continuum; they know every thought, of each individual soul on the planet and they know how not to break the timeline or to wreck things:
 - this is the perfect time for him to say that these democracies and the people in them have reached a level of 'awareness of awareness' of the truth that he can say something and if someone is not at the 7th level of that awareness, that person will not get it.
 - we know that there is a two tiered society in the so-called democracies: the super rich and the rest of us and depending on the prejudices they like to keep in place: colour, sex, reducing the human population by 2 billion plus - and both Trump and Hillary are hog tied: he is an archon and is being used in the archonic way for those who have money

- Rachel said Putin is worth about $200 billion – and maybe at least that much; he has been around for about 500 years, so he is a master who does not get his feathers ruffled.
 - They are doing a darn good job of play acting – Obama and Putin – the power of knowledge as a group is so important.
- Steve Cohen, as the former chair of the intelligence committee in the past, said something that is so important
 - we'll be going over lots of stuff: something in 2011 called "Cultures of Resistance" – has been brought forward on LINK TV to be reviewed now and made possible by hundreds of artists with their insights into peace and justice – music, dance, is woven into the presentation, showing the destruction caused by the oligarchs – to bring forth compassion, mercy and wisdom to help bring forth peace
- Obama: for too long, everything that happened in this town everything that is said, is seen through the lens of "does this help or hurt us" relative to democrats or to me as president; and unless that changes, we will continue to be vulnerable to foreign influence because we have lost track as a people on what it is we are about and what we stand for.
- That was another bombshell!
 - To level the playing field of truth – we have never had a president who is an orator at this level of consciousness -
- He also said hackings should not be about political footballs – that nailed Hillary! This is a supporter of H nailing her in a neutral way -

Audio: AM Joy 2016-12-17 Backlash against North Carolina GOP power grab

<http://www.msnbc.com/am-joy>

Rev. Dr. William Barber, president of the North Carolina NAACP, joins Joy Reid on the coming fight in North Carolina after the GOP-majority legislature enacted a last-minute bill to limit the powers of the incoming Democratic governor. Duration: 7:39

He lists all the Republicans have done to the people of North Carolina:

T: on either Chenelle's show or Joy's show, Oprah was quoted as she was interviewing Michelle – Michelle Obama says Farewell – [7pm MT]

- she will talk of the legacy she leaves behind, the future

Oprah: his election was all about hope: did he achieve this?

MO: yes we did: now we are seeing what living without hope is!

Steve Cohen: on the Putin interference on Brian Leer show – until they do an actual estimate which will take months, you cannot talk about consensus in the intelligence community –

- until then, it is only assessment; in the meantime, we are polluting our interaction with Russia

• Bob Graham: [voted against the Iraq War]

- there is 0 evidence that
- and even Greg Palast cannot say ...
- and the 3 million votes went to

R: Jane Mayer said do not continue to poke the bear with a sharp stick as he

- when the eagle and the bear align against the dragon – this is an old prophecy WHICH IS CANCELLED!!

• as Hillary said when she was in her frenzy, on Nov 7 – if that guy wins, my neck is in a noose!

Audio: from RT's headline news – about Syria – the Canadian journalist, Eva, is good at nailing this [Eva Bartlett – Canadian journalist and human rights activist on the ground]

- Eva was talking to a Norwegian MSM reporter

Audio: On Contact – Chris Hedges - a documentary on Palestinians and the new weapons being tested on the people there. Israel is the single largest source of weaponry

2016-12-16 Yahoo! hack affects one BILLION user accounts

The Bank of England has declined to hike its bank rate, keeping it at 0.25 percent, while the US Federal Reserve is doing the opposite. Ameera David has the details. Then, Bianca Facchinei takes a look at India's attempt to placate citizens angry about the government's move to remove billions of banknotes from circulation. Afterwards, Lindsay France examines a hack on Yahoo! that has reportedly affected one billion user accounts.

Following the break, Gary Leff, co-founder of MilePoint.com and blogger for View from the Wing, tells Ameera how Donald Trump's Twitter antagonism towards Boeing could affect the company's future, and how the airline industry is increasingly catering to Chinese consumers. And finally, in The Big Deal, Edward Harrison breaks down how markets are reacting to the Federal Reserve's and Bank of England's recent interest rate decisions.

I'm tired of the bullshit,
And want what's true and real,
So rather than getting stuck in my head,
I expand my magnetic field.

Ah, what can I say besides that really! Tune in to the Galactic Center (a black hole) this week and get a dose of reality haha! It's pretty darn expansive! There may be a lot of fanfare and fireworks coming from human sources but let's try and remember there is a lot more going on and a lot more to life than that. Gaia was here before us and she'll be here after we're gone.... let's make the most of our time with her eh? Namaste'

FUNCTION	PLANETS	PERSON'S NAME	TODAY
Concrete Mind	Saturn		In Sag: fire +ve
Spiritual made concrete	Jupiter		In Libra: air +ve
Instinct and Action	Mars		In Aquarius: +ve to -ve
Rules Abstract emotion	Venus		12 Aquarius: +ve
Abstract Mind	Mercury		Capricorn:earth: -ve
Symbol of source of all things	Sun		In Sag: +ve; will go into Gemini -ve
Physical Plane	Earth		Always opposite sun
Etheric Plane	Moon Chiron, Uranus – Aries: +ve Neptune–Pisces: -ve Pluto: - ve		Moon changes every 2 days – back and forth between -ve and +ve

- After listening to the Pele Report, more information is added in
 - That gives us 3 more magnetic influences and 1 more electrical
 - By the middle of next week: 7 receptive, 4 electrical
- so we've been coming through the zone with extra electrical energy

RI: the chart is complete in itself; yet we can add other influences - like the // on the earth's atmosphere – like Chiron: its orbit is between Saturn and Uranus so there are higher influencing

Reading: going over a part of Carl Boudreau's December report

[SEE BELOW]

T begins with this part:

Neptune in Pisces would dramatically augment the power of Chiron and Nessus in Pisces. These simultaneous transits of Pisces added new layers of psychospiritual turmoil to the political and economic turmoil done by Pluto and Uranus, damage we had only begun to work through.

Neptune's return to Pisces, its home sign, was especially important. It marked the onset of a new, 165 year Neptune cycle. This new Neptune cycle, would bring a prolonged testing and renewal of our worldviews - individual and collective, mundane and spiritual.

Leaves out the asteroids – goes to the part on the breakup of oligarchic energies

CONFERENCE CALL

G: story from 1996 – friend said there's a saint here from Uganda – Bambi Baaba, a Ugandan saint because he raised a man from the dead: his right hand man was Ben – had an entourage of wonderful youngsters:

- he raised a man from the dead; also protected twins from Idi Amin
- He was in LA enroute to India via Hawaii – to raise money to create a surface spiritual city near Nampak – it all started in Africa; everyone is welcome to come home and share in this glorious place together. He went on to India – when they realized Gerry was an Eckanar, they were excited – they got some books so they could teach Eck in Africa.
- His saying about each race;
 - white – stand down; you don't know everything
 - black – we are all the same, come home, enjoy each other joyfully
- the site at that time that related to was Seralanda
- Does not know the update – but 4 mos later, the royal Twins were born: the first born one was the king; and in their presence something very extra ordinary about the girl –
 - he met the twins in Jan of '97 – once Idi Amin was gone

T: Northern Uganda is a slaughter house: US military go into little villages and torture people – looking to annihilate all the people in northern Uganda - - oil; exotic minerals that are rare

G: Chinese are in there: Africa as a continent will become more prominent because of their wealth

T: as Mother says, these characters will be gone – to Dracos; to Herculobus; they will not be here!!! What they are doing is inhumane, diabolical

- Civilization is at high risk right now – yes, Mother says no extinction events – yet the human race is in danger!

T: would like to hear Richard's feedback on the potential chaos at the end of the year

- Carl said we'd be wrangling with this stuff all through 2017

RI: changes on this scale take a long time to manifest unless extraordinary conditions show up

- we know what the problems are: mostly we have people are living with fear in their makeup
 - the prime problem is based in ignorance – education system is inadequate –
 - there is not knowing: when one is incarnated, all is forgotten – get born into the planet, pick parents
 - the condition for learning has to do with the veil of forgetfulness – need proper education, work on Self to know Self, gain information
 - as you get older, gather a bit of wisdom – the elders responsibility is to work on this problem – train and educate the children
 - One source of ignorance – believing that there is just one lifetime: no sense of own immortality and have not been able to re-acquire past life experience, higher psychism – pre experience: once you have some of those experiences, can get over fear of death.

T: in addition to ignorance, there is intentional misinformation and getting us way off track and trapped in materialism

Ri: another major problem: those who are so inclined to be the boss of everything – selfishness combined with greed in various forms

- also outright nasty ones: intentional misbehaviour: progaganda, misinformation – now they are outnumbered and they know it

T: the good energies are increasing: their odds are even greater – used to work that they could figure out how to pull the wool over peoples' eyes –

- this no longer happening: oligarchic matrix is decomposong & smelling at the same time.

RI: useful to remember that right now from the point of view of planet earth, all the other planets are on one side between Libra and Aries – we do not see any significant changes until we get one of the major planets into Taurus – we have Pluto and Mercury in Capricorn, Saturn in Sagitarius; Mars and Venus in Aquarius – meaning that things will be intense as the balance is way off!

- Last summer was the same - with things out of balance

T: takes a lot of discipline and mastery – it is required that we take time to meditate at least 2x a day – it is so easy to get off in that area!

Ri: has thought as one grows, one gets control over one's instincts and passion – if you are being ruled by them, it's difficult to think clearly

- on the Venus side of things – abstract emotion: there are no passions, & you're not in your body;
 - function – what function do individuals provide for the community? When the masters are looking for students, they want students who perform a function for them – as T's function is to manage the collection of information, and Ri is to teach: so she provides the microphone for Ri to teach – become better parents, mates – get this education going on.
 - The controllers of the planet have screwed up the education system; of course, it was intentional and we have to grow our numbers!

T: is noticing at every level of society there is a strong speaking out for this education – it is present yet the intentions are about putting a lid on our ability to have this learning.

- as per Boom bust - Dec 16 segment -
- we have a 4 level chess game going on here!

RI: With a lot more than 64 squares!

T: over whelming – we see the child prodigies showing up more than ever – what was I doing when I was 10?

- the program out there via church dogma is that we only have one existence – one life, so have to get it together

Ri: a controller trick – one of the hugest!

T: dubbed jesus' teachings as heresy so he was / could be considered to be treasonous!

Rama: who would Jesus bomb?

T: there was a big “unless: in that sentence - something coming from left field . . . and says that Rama pointed upwards with his index finger!!

Ri: in the Hermes / pre-christian material: spoke of comets that heralded large changes: extra solar system bodies – he remembers when Haley's comet came by, and Hale Bopp – and now we've got Nibiru is in the solar system;

Ra: It's close to earth – closer than the moon!

T: how long has it been there?

Ri: not having the effect that it could have – it's still running dark, or cloaked – to change consciousness, need a very large mothership to park in an orbit where it cannot be denied or glossed over

T: thinks that's what's up!

- Everytime Ra talks to his people, it's “full disclosure”!

Ri: sometimes amuses himself thinking about how to run this planet! [P: doesn't that give you a headache?]

- until we get something we can wrap our brains around, we won't get along – they don't get it that we are here to be initiated – so besides having ships decloaked and emissaries speaking to the world as ONE, we will still have Arabs, Israelis; it is so very unnecessary

P: when the galactics come, their presence will influence us positively

Ri: it's like an experience that you have – like a dream that is actually a recall of a past life and once you've had such an experience, you never forget it.

- those kind of events happen when the person [is ready for the revelations it brings]

Rawlene: Anrita Melchizedek always talks of this Milky Way Galaxy and then Andromeda – they are getting closer – and Andromeda is bigger: they represent the catalyst of change and freedom- changing into a golden galaxy – which will help the shift

T: talks of a friend and her boy friend who were astrologists and how they decorated their home

- everyone was having a good time at a gathering; those present saw a beautiful rose ray – a band of energy that ran around every single wall in every room of the house -

Raw: she has been asking where she was from when she woke up: Amrita goes into the idea of people helping

T: and Obama is from Andromeda too

Raw: 2017 – can feel the energy: it's getting more and more amped up -

T: the clip she played about being in austerity all over the place – the collapse of various places for so many reasons: water has dried up from Himalayas and in India – people dying for lack of water. Mother Gaia and our galactics . . about g?ing dead[?]

Confusion with a Chance of Chaos

But rather than offer yet another postmortem of the election, or predict the consequences of this election result, I would like to continue examining the underlying astrological influences.

December's charts are promising to help us rebuild, but only if we can avoid falling into old traps.

Recap

For the past several months or more we have been discussing the gradual break up of an astrological formation in effect since the 1970s, what I referred to as the oligarchic alignment. Basically, from the early 1970s until recently, the most powerful planets in the Zodiac were all in signs associated with the 1%, massively empowering the 1%.

Accordingly, this alignment (or misalignment) led to a tremendous imbalance of global economic and political power in favor of the 1%. In other words; it led to global oligarchy.

The oligarchic alignment is now breaking up, all too slowly for most of us, in gradual, overlapping phases.

This break up is leaving in its wake a tsunami of unanswered questions, unmet challenges and untried ideas.

Conditions have effectively blocked action on any currently existing ideas for rebuilding and reform. So, to an extent, the quality or advisability of these ideas hasn't mattered. Nobody could act on them anyway.

These defective ideas are now headed willy-nilly into December's energies and these energies are highly supportive of manifestation. All of a sudden, the quality of these ideas matter a great deal.

The Breakup of the Oligarchic Alignment

The Great Testing

November 2008 ~ Pluto enters Capricorn

Pluto's Capricorn ingress in 2008 was the last major planetary shift to occur before the oligarchic alignment began breaking up. In Capricorn, Pluto severely tested economic systems put in place during the oligarchic alignment, i.e., during the last forty odd years.

Pluto's testing brought us within a hair's breadth of a catastrophic global economic collapse. In other words, the structures left behind by the oligarchic alignment failed Pluto's test. Miserably so.

The Transition Begins (in the Nick of Time)

In 2011, Uranus left Pisces, and the oligarchic alignment, to enter Aries. The Uranus Aries ingress took the power to implement change unilaterally out of the hands of the 1%. The power to make change re-emerged quickly among the 99% as a wholesome and hearty inclination to protest, rebel and otherwise revolt against the oligarchic order.

The scale of the imbalance that so favored the 1% was reduced by the Uranus Aries ingress. The 1% would now have to negotiate with the now increasingly testy 99%.

Protest, demands for reform and resistance to government and corporate - i.e., oligarchic - initiatives were vigorous and commonplace. The power of the global oligarchy, while still strong, began to erode.

In Aries, Uranus established a square to Pluto. That square would be exact 7 times over a period of three years.

This square severely tested global political systems. They, too, were found wanting. And badly so.

Soul Cleansing and Release

February 2011 ~ Chiron enters Pisces

February 2012 ~ Neptune enters Pisces

February 2015 ~ Nessus enters Pisces

During the next several years, the planets set the stage for an intense, prolonged period of psychospiritual cleansing, release and healing.

With Chiron involved, long buried blocks and trauma surged back into awareness, sometimes rather forcefully. Nessus is still one of the new asteroids on the block and we don't hear much about it. However, based on my own work, I can say that it would be difficult to underestimate its power to expose, activate and resolve karma.

Neptune in Pisces would dramatically augment the power of Chiron and Nessus in Pisces. These simultaneous transits of Pisces added new layers of psychospiritual turmoil to the political and economic turmoil done by Pluto and Uranus, damage we had only begun to work through.

Neptune's return to Pisces, its home sign, was especially important. It marked the onset of a new, 165 year Neptune cycle. This new Neptune cycle, would bring a prolonged testing and renewal of our worldviews - individual and collective, mundane and spiritual.

Pluto in Capricorn took a wrecking ball to the economic status quo. Neptune in Pisces took a wrecking ball to our beliefs.

Our worldview didn't do any better against Neptune in Pisces than our economic institutions did against Pluto in Capricorn, or our political institutions did against the Uranus/Pluto square.

The combined effects of Neptune, Chiron and Nessus in Pisces were impressive. Together, they cleared the emotional sludge in which many elements of our existing worldview were so stubbornly rooted.

Rooting out Error: The Mutable T-Square

August 2015 ~ Jupiter enters Virgo

September 2015 ~ Saturn enters Sagittarius

November 2015 ~ The North Node enters Virgo.

In the final months of 2015, the Jupiter, Saturn and North Node ingresses would make the group in Pisces part of a potent T-square in mutable signs. Do not want to underestimate either the power or the importance of this mutable T-square.

Virgo governs meticulous, fact-based, analysis. Sagittarius governs philosophy, including moral and ethical philosophy. Pisces governs religious, theological and metaphysical thinking.

During the T-square, people began trying to apply each of these three modes of thought and appropriately and strike a proper balance between. Since the advent of this T-square, the media, too, became more critical and self-critical. They're still working on it.

The Virgo/Pisces Dichotomy

The North Node in Virgo instructs us to attend to the details, to the concrete specifics of the case. South Node in Pisces instructs us to downplay fuzzy, expansive, otherworldly thinking in favor of Virgoan modes of thought.

Under the potent but unbalanced influence of the Moon's nodes, the Virgo/Pisces polarity would destabilize our thinking. The seductive South Node would tempt us into overly idealistic, overly expansive, illusory, and self-serving thought, i.e., Piscean thought at its worst. The sober, dignified authority of the North Node would compel us instead to think logically, meticulously, concretely and selflessly, i.e., Virgo at its best.

The square from Saturn in Sagittarius would ground the Virgo/Pisces energy, rendered volatile and unstable by the powerful tensions of the Moon's Nodes. Sober, systematic Saturn in Sagittarius would bring balance, uplift, rigor, and system. Over time, Saturn's square from Sagittarius would instill order, balance, fairness and a taste for factual accuracy .

Rebuilding Energies Emerge

September 2016 - Jupiter enters Libra

By the fall of 2016, as Jupiter entered Libra restorative, reconstructive impulses began to stir more forcefully and enthusiastically.

Jupiter's Libra ingress significantly reduced the level of impairment under which it had been laboring for some years. We could now depend on Jupiter's supportive and generous energies in the arduous work of restoring order and stability in our lives.

Piecing it All Back Together

November 2016 - Mars enters Aquarius

The energies of Aquarius motivate us to fine tune society. The Mars transit of Aquarius will energize and facilitate such efforts. The effects of Mars in Aquarius will be all the more intense because Mars in Aquarius and Uranus in Aries are in mutual reception.

Aquarius and the Asteroids

Not enough is known about the asteroids to assign them a home in the Zodiac. However, when we consider the asteroids in terms of the values they represent, we see a clear functional link between the asteroids and Aquarius.

Consider the example of the asteroid Pallas. Pallas, or Pallas Athena, was discovered in 1802. To the ancient Greeks, Pallas Athena represented virtues essential to civilized life, in wartime and peacetime. They named their proud capital city after her.

On a general, archetypal level, Pallas Athena represents virtues to which all Greeks should aspire. If practiced by everyone, these virtues would bring peace, justice, prosperity and stability for all - i.e., they would bring all the benefits of an ideal society.

Pallas has this function in common with Aquarius. Aquarius urges us to create an ideal society by creating ideal social relationships. The same kind of thing appears to be true of the three other asteroids discovered in the those years, Ceres, Juno and Vesta.

The same thing also appears true of the many recently discovered asteroids. Among which are Chiron (1977), Pholus (1992), Nessus (1993), Chariklo (1997), Varuna (2000), Ixion (2001), Quaoar (2002), Sedna (2003), Orcus (2004), Eris (2005).

The mythology associated with the figures for whom these more recently discovered asteroids are named suggests that they, too, are related to work of fine tuning society. That is, they appear to be functionally related to Aquarius.

Consider Chariklo, discovered in 1997: The mythology surrounding Chariklo suggests that she supports respect for subtle mental, emotional and physical boundaries. "She works to improve all your relationships by clarifying what is and what is not acceptable to your spirit."

Chariklo, for example, would have been associated with political correctness, the quest for "safe spaces," and attention to "triggers" and so-called "microaggressions." Chariklo checks the often unconscious intentions behind our words and actions.

The discovery of asteroids like Chariklo suggests that these concerns are underwritten by archetypal energies and they are rooted in and slowly permeating collective consciousness. They are not going away. Indications are that they will only grow stronger.

As Mars transits and stimulates Aquarius, issues related to the asteroids do seem to coming into the foreground. They have become noticeably more intense.

Mars in Aquarius is trining Jupiter in Libra. Appropriately, alliances are also forming around concerns governed by the asteroids. This is yet another indication that these concerns are not going away. Rather they are becoming better established in collective awareness.

December's Charts

Be Careful What You Wish

Each of the phases in the weakening of the oligarchic alignment described above generated a plethora of unanswered questions, conflicting ideas, and challenges. Up to now, answering the questions, resolving the conflicts and addressing the challenges has proven impossible. But December's energies strongly suggest that that is no longer the case.

Given what I know to be the incredible complexity of the energetics of December I have pretty much abandoned the idea of doing an aspect, by aspect, technical analysis. Instead I will use a somewhat impressionistic approach, focusing on facets of these charts that draw my attention. Specifically, December's New and Full Moon charts present two characteristics of a dynamic, highly charged field. This field strongly supports manifestation. With an important twist.

More Than you Bargained for

December 14, UT, Full Moon Chart (December 13, EST)

December's Full Moon chart is dominated by a formation made up of sextiles and trines. This formation is two sextiles short of a Grand Sextile.

Such structures strongly support manifestation, indeed, rapid and intense manifestation. They give us what we desire. At the same time, though, they hold up a mirror to our hidden motives and mistaken thinking and 'reward' us accordingly.

In the early going, we appear to be getting exactly what we wished for. As matters proceed, though, events begin to reflect our flawed motivation and the errors in our thinking, if any there be.

The dispositor chart for December's Full Moon reinforces the message of the main chart. With the exception of Mars and Neptune, all the planets in the chart are subordinate to Uranus. Uranus is in mutual reception with Mars. This harmonious relation between Mars and Uranus underlines the impression of a very high energy chart that reacts rapidly to our desires and intentions, for better or for worse.

Neptune is also strongly placed in the Full Moon dispositor chart. It's strong influence will soften boundaries. This in turn will support compromise and accommodation, facilitating the emergence of a shared vision, and progress.

The Dispositor Chart for the December New Moon

Neptune vs. the North Node

December 29 UT - New Moon Chart

The North and South Nodes set the grain of a chart, the intended, preferred direction of all thought and effort. Following the North Node's imperative can be challenging because it represents new things, with which we might not be familiar. But you will be rewarded with positive synchronicities.

Following the South Node, though, is comparatively easy. It draws us to the familiar. It pulls us onto the path of least resistance. However, following the South Node path will bring negative synchronicities.

The soul loves the North Node path and will assist you in any way that it can when you commit to it. Conversely, the soul doesn't enjoy the South Node path and will withhold its assistance if you choose comfortable and familiar South Node options. In fact, the soul will resist you aggressively if you choose the South Node path.

The North Node is currently in Virgo. North Node in Virgo is all about supporting well-thought out, workmanlike, down-to-earth solutions, solutions with selfless service as a core value - i.e., Virgoan solutions. Under North Node influence, our current life experience will school us in the ways of Virgo.

Neptune in Pisces, conjunct the South Node, however, works strongly against the purposes of the Virgo North Node. Neptune will lend its powers of deception and seduction. It will reinforce the illusory appeal of the South Node, strengthening the allure of self-defeating South Node options. Neptune's support of the South Node will also intensify the naturally strong tensions between the North and South Nodes. It will, thus, increase the inner conflict and confusion of those struggling to decide between their North and South Node options and inclinations. On the level of public debate, it will exacerbate the disruptive, counterproductive conflict and confusion already plaguing public discourse.

Bad Timing and Mixed Messages.

None of this could have happened at a worse time. Collective consciousness is inundated with unanswered questions, conflicting ideas, and intersecting, overlapping, challenges and, overall, plagued with often acrimonious disagreements.

The North Node is telling us to search for a Virgoan method. The South Node is telling us to embrace an outdated and inappropriate Piscean solution. Neptune conjunct the South Node in Pisces is pouring kerosene on the flames.

Meanwhile December's charts present us with highly energized and responsive field of manifestation. It will give life to our intentions, however poorly formed, however mixed the messages we are putting out to the universe.

Where to from Here

So this is happening in December. But how long will it go on?

The December New Moon chart occurs within 48 hours of midnight on New Year's Eve. The dispositor chart for midnight on New Year's eve is very similar. These are two very good indications that events in December charts are a preview of things to come.

We could be looking at no-holds-barred, free-style public brawling accompanied by ill-conceived and ill-advised manifesting through 2017.
