

School of Congregational Development
San Diego, CA

TURN AROUND — DISCIPLESHIP AND WORSHIP

Thursday, August 16th from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Friday, August 17th from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon

Dottie Escobedo Frank, lead pastor of Catalina UMC in Tucson, AZ and Joe Daniels, lead pastor of Emory United Methodist Church (The Emory Fellowship) in Washington, D.C. team up once again to facilitate this year's turnaround track focusing on discipleship and worship.

In these two interactive sessions, Dottie and Joe will focus on the following:

DISCIPLESHIP

- * strategies for moving people in our congregations from membership to discipleship
- * how to use congregational vision to facilitate the shift from membership to discipleship
- * how to implement the concepts of mysticism and groundedness to reach more disciples for Jesus Christ.
- * maneuvering through the sacred and secular to develop creative ways for offering salvation to individuals from all walks of life, and
- * the role of the community in dynamic discipleship

WORSHIP

- * how to make worship relevant, enthusiastic, authentic and loving in our respective contexts
- * the impact of the environment on the worship experience
- * developing an effective worship team, and the power of the worship team in planning and implementing worship
- * engaging the senses in worship and how sensory worship can lead to a powerful encounter with God and others

Dottie and Joe look forward to seeing you in both sessions!
