HARD NEWS

R: yes they still need help with the bills coming up next week

- a wild time to be on the planet with what is transpiring: it's all about the 5th element called love
- this is part of the generator for which Dr Keshe has released the blueprints today!
- Heard Marianne Williamson on Sirius XM Radio talking to a Wicca lady from England about this particular great Sabbath of 2015 & how it's really 2016 or 2017 & how the calendars are skewed; they are still playing with the 12/60 cycle even though we are in 13/20 - we are in 2017 since August 18th !
- Marianne and the High Priestess talked of this great Sabbath and how, at this time, it is imperative to work with the people creating peace in their lives.
  - They are linking up with Medea Benjamin and that group, bringing up the issues in Palestine at the moment: Mr Yahoo's total crackdown on the people there & his gestapo
- It is happening in the US too: Marianne said it is time to keep focussed on peaceful

T: Benjamin Fulford talks of Richard Armitage needing to be gone & Netanyahu too!

2015-10-26 Benjamin Fulford Arresting Richard Armitage and forcing him to talk may be final straw to break back of Khazarian gangster rule [SEE BELOW]

- Armitage is going after Shinzo Abe who says nothing except what Armitage tells him to say: Armitage was behind the starting up of the nuclear plants. Japan forced through the 9th amendment so they could work with the US & others militarily
- The article talks of the history of the people being killed and how Armitage got rid of them. Fulford follows one Black Op through a plethora of activities.
- Armitage' boss was Bush Sr: which means Hillary, as he is senile and a heroin addict & hse has been in charge since the 80s: Ironic that Angela Merkel's cousin Hillary is wearing the pants!
- Stephen Harper, a notorious Bush operative, went bye-bye: they said in Ashtar on the Road the next PM, Trudeau, plans to legalize marijuana; Bernie will take it off the roster of federal drugs and let the states decide how to deal with it.
  - It was a joke when Boehner said he'd do some housecleaning so things would be cleaned up for the next Speaker – and the Koch Bros would have a happy time with Mr Ryan - Nancy Pelosi must be having hiccups over Ryan becoming Speaker.
  - Trudeau is pro TPP and pro Keystone like Barack: a double agency which is a necessity to stay alive – the things being attributed to these ones are really those following the orders of their overlords, as the same time as they are double agents working for the Light. Quite a Challenge! It takes all of us to wake up to the reality that their handlers, our handlers, the 13 families are preparing for WW III with the idea of reducing world population to 2% - they have already gotten rid of 2 billion people in the last 100 years right under our noses!
- Amy Goodman went into this; she had on Doctors without Borders folks; said that Russia is dropping the barrel bombs on hospitals in Syria which are supposed to be off limits for every country
  - Why are the Russians taking Andromedan technology & bombing Syrian hospitals?
  - It was not talked of on Amy Goodman that it was Netanyahu, Lindsay Graham, John McCain and the Saudis who are the US allies that did the bombing and the 13 families control all of that: they are Khzarians and Nazis: the Black Ops will carry on until they don't
  - Netanyahu is one of the key operators in the Zionist Bush mafia; there are now signs he is being taken on by Real Jews who have finally figured out he works for their nazi tormentors.

- The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act – the RICO Act has been formally launched as the fed are signed – and launched an investigation into fossil fuels corporations – which means going for the jugular which means the Koch Bros
  - there are 20 scientists signed a letter to Obama, dated Sept 1st & others called for a RICO investigation into Exxon Mobil - they knew from their own scientists by 1980 that it was a man-made problem and they'd put the whole planet in jeopardy and that climate change was real and what would happen: in the late 80s, they started putting out the opposite propaganda

The Hague Court: to hear the South China Sea case [SEE BELOW]

2015-10-30 In defeat for Beijing, Hague court to hear South China Sea dispute

- an international case filed by the Phillipine Gov't
- On Thursday court ruled they would hear a part of the case
- Beijing says it's beyond the court's jurisdiction, says it's about sovereignty & boycotted the Tribunal's proceedings.

Marco Rubio: 2015-10-29 Marco Rubio leads race for donations from casino billionaire Sheldon Adelson [SEE BELOW]

- to get lots of money from Shelly Adelson and is going to work on a bill to ban internet gambling which is what Adelson wants! Thinks he's worth about $35 Billion!
- T: Libertarianism is Nazism in disguise.

CONFERENCE CALL

- has to remind people that the blue prints for a Keshe plasma unit should be up on the website now
  - this means that anyone can build one if they can follow instructions, for a few dollars' worth of parts
  - the higher amount is 800 Euros or $700 - $800
  - the ambassadors were to get 2 free ones plus the one they paid 800 Euros for so they would have a couple to give away
  - Keshe said this is not about making money, but everyone getting free energy and helping others – WHICH IS WHAT NESARA IS ABOUT.
    - The buddha path is truth, simplicity and love and our freedom is being acceptable to do service to others - this is about the alchemy of love.

- Hillary does not want to break up the banks; Bernie does!
  - Hillary also wants to keep the death penalty – for rare cases: T is thinking of Edward Snowden – that Hillary would get him from Russia, also Chelsea Manning and Julian Assange, have them charged and “off with their heads”
- the lawmakers of the EU want to do something to help Edward Snowden – voted to call him an international rights defenders and should be protected.
  - That same parliament urged not to let Snowden be taken to the US and charged with espionage – called the vote a 'game changer’
- In the American federal law system, 97% of people are not guilty; still and yet, they make a plea deal so they do not end up behind bars; even if you didn't do it, you make a plea deal so you don't go to jail: the plea rate is 90%
  - Charles Mis?? a defence investigator on Al Jazeera news last night said people are wrongfully charged; the rate of pleas rose exponentially about 30 years ago -
  - at a court house in Atlanta, business is booming – making plea deals behind the scenes so you can stay on the outside.
  - The only way to keep up [with the case load] is to make plea deals - this kind of thing takes the power away from the defense and gives it to the prosecutor – and the defendant is over charged
  - a sitting Federal judge, not identified, said that review process is a sham – the idea of a defendant being tried by a jury of peers is not happening now
- T tells the story of T & R learning from a sovereign group how not to make a plea deal
  - Starting “with all due respect, sir, we do not have enough information to make a plea”. The judge made them stay all day and lost a whole bunch of money that day, too. They had to wait from 9:30 am to 5:45pm, as he wanted no one in the court to hear what was going on but there were some people there who wanted to know what had happened: T & R explained to them afterwards what to do, who to go to

Anonymous: al Jazeera last night – more info about the KKK hacking

Rainbird: going back to charter schools: the North Carolina congress took 50% of the money for education and gave it to the charter system

T: they know they are committing crimes and they don't give a ****

RB: South Carolina does not believe in funding schools; the KKK is also active in their state

T: and there are lots more who feel the same and do not join

RB: but they talk it! Grateful for the hacktivists!

T: an article from the opinion pages of the NYTimes – where are black children safe?

BBS RADIO – Mother Sekhmet / Alcyone [M/A]

Giatree Mantra was played, most sacred of mantras; also the celebrated Day of the Dead in Mexico

Greetings!

- Indeed the veils are thin at this time; all the souls choosing to leave in these moments of transfiguration: it is time, it is about this quiet, inner space as we approach winter solstice: the return of the sun.
- In these still quiet moments, she returns; she has been called the Watchers: they who were here before the gods were here. She has returned - it is not a threat, it is a promise:
  - Nibiru has returned and can be seen in various locations around the planet, right beside Sol – it is a direct message to earth: NOW is the time

- the Blue Avians are here, Horus' people: the gatherings of these times are about these moments when the veil is so thin, there is no veil. So they see us, we see them: all we are saying is give peace a chance.
  - The moments we are in are about this story that has been released to the world this day.
    - We have the technology to heal ourselves and the planet; it is about the coil and the copper – Dr Keshe gives the plans of how to create the copper coils in the blueprints. It is all there – the plans for the plasma unit
- She is here to reaffirm what has been said: as he already has these functioning in various locations, as things were to escalate in the Persian Gulf, it will look very bad for our side over here - he will deploy the generators
- It is about peace and this is why she is here: to ensure the peace is kept. Gaia / Vyamus have said "we are ascending; you can come with us since we are joined at the hip."
  - Yet the ones that have messed with the other side of the force – ce ca! It's over! Energies – and oh, by the way – the cubes have returned in the corona of the sun; not the borg mind you: it is another form of visitors in the neighbourhood who have been called by the beacons that are going out across the Milky Way Galaxy – she and hers make it, EARTH MAKES IT, WE MAKE IT
- How that happens: we have the power with love. We have been given the gauntlet today – these are not just - let's say - we have a way to change ourselves and the planet in this moment. The Force will make sure his technology, the generators, is only used in the name of the divine radiance of the Office of the Christ.
  - We have a key to the wisdom here which is how to take this to the next conscious level: we are the merkaba vehicles in these moments here now, as Nassim has already shown us.
  - With these blueprints, we have ways to create the vimanas now in our own reality, as it were. It is about the freedom of who we are as, let's say, there are no accidents – we are all here in these moments that we call All Hallow's Eve, 2015.
  - No accidents; only about love; only about this radiant energy which is pouring forth now from the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy. It is changing everything as Naomi Klien has said – cannot go back, only moving forward. What's happening is that as frequencies exponentially move up an octave, [we have to] be aware and ride the tiger – that is what it is about. And the tiger knows where she is going! We are just along for the ride – as Ben Hicks said, it is just a ride. And believe you me, this ride has only just begun!
- At this moment, if we could see it from her vantage point, we would already be on our knees giving up if we were the ones on the dark side – she won't use the word of that other colour: it is, after all, "I'm Black; I'm beautiful" – the #1 issue in the story here
  - Mother Zudiachus, Mother Africa, began here, comes full circle here; Mother Zudiachus is rising to the occasion and it is about the energies
  - iridium, irodium – the stones that are part of the breast plates and work in conjunction with . . . if we were to play with these frequencies Dr Keshe has given us with iridium, irodium and xenon gas thrown in – we'd have our ascension in our garage – essentially!
  - If we were to take Dr Keshe's generators and add a little xenon gas to the mix , , ,

T: don't give anyone ideas – and don't give away secrets

M/A Of course, she won't pass on any secrets!

T: inaudible

M/A He [Dr Keshe] is doing classes every day – the plasma energy – what he is saying is you don't need to go to charter schools: come to my school and I will teach you the secrets of the universe. No P T A! It is about the wisdom of the music of the spheres as all the gods and goddesses return, as they already have.

- From her vantage point, there are so many ships in our skies: it is quite an unfair . . . ; they have the upper hand and it is only about love. This is the #1 5th element which adds to the mix of the story; as we add ether, love, that divine compassion of the bodisatva vow, we are here and the last shall be first, and the first shall be last. It is about that story.

- She say again: they have returned; they are in the 'hood: bake us a pie!

T: to sign the petition on Astharonthe Road.com for NESARA - that is our pi!

M/A: Take a ride with that tiger!

T: Try your best to balance the outrage of the injustice that appears to be real just now, and look deeply inside one's self because if you have not walked in another's shoes, you cannot judge – T does not know the whole story but is aware of the following:

- Hillary had some plans for some money and Vince Foster knew too much and he had to be removed; then the queen of Egnland got involved and threatened to feed Hillary to the spiders she has under the palace if she did not do the queen's bidding – the spiders that are the size of VW s – and she has the power as there are overlords to her, too, called 200' and higher dragons who would have a human just for a morsel!

M/A: all of it is an ancient story that is coming full circle

T: the thing of being a double agent in the face of such things is not comprehended by most people. People think the president has the highest power in the land & the world; that is not true and never has been. It appears you are taking money from the banksters which is not an apparition though there is nothing there

- as long as they have the people afraid that they have the power and the ability to put you into an incarceration unit – a very nasty thing

M/A: the gestapo are loose

T: it is said there are no debtor prisons; that's only for those in the other tier, not for certain people who are doing the bidding of the other dragons; they get all kinds of luxuries

M/A: the shyster lawyers who bend at the knee

T: don't even need a lawyer if you are in the right place & doing the bidding; they don't even acknowledge you have committed a crime – like the police department

- there are at least 2 tiers [in the American justice system]; nothing easy about this – an endless trail of really . . .

M/A: this is why she returned – because of the oceans of blood: the stories are about her are true: she drinks the oceans of blood. It is about the transfiguration – blood into wine, remember? Or structured water – it is about ascension frequencies right in our hands, right now – we get there by working with the heart frequencies. It is the answer to how we can heal this planet in a matter of days and she does mean DAYS!

- The terra forming: as she can come in with her craft and perform certain functions of how to restructure various matter, anti-matter ??? within the framework of our assistance – they can bring our planet back up on line

- Like Marietta Robert's friend who was on Stargate Roundtable – Dr Heather Ann Harder who ran for president; yes, she was compromised but from Mother's vantage point, Mother can fix the planet in 30 days with her teams and Lord Kryon of Magnetic Service

T: thinks Mother is obligated in some ways as it was her galactic children who were the ones who came in uninvited and made the mess – it's a bitch to be a mother some days! those Paschats . . .

M/A: they love to play

T: that was not playing – that was nasty!

M/A: yes, that was malevolent

T: 70 children died in the last 2 months trying to get from Turkey to Lesbos, Greece; and the last time where the ship capsized and the people who got to shore were prevented from getting too far in; another alternative group gave them space blankets to try & save the kids totalitarianism a political situation where the state knows no limitation to its impunity!

M/A: We are watching this: at the same time, we are being given the keys to the kingdom to heal the planet

T: that what it says: inverted total ayrianism

M/A: the issues at hand are very much in her . . . - he is talking about the Day of the Dead

T: in a less than sacred manner! Talking about Redacted Tonight – was on Thom Hartmann's Big Picture tonight

M/A: there is much transpiring as we move ever closer; already, the Force is moving humanity into the awareness that we have ability within ourselves, now, how to transform these temples of the living god/goddess/ all that is – in these moments, we have been given the wisdom of how to built a rejuvenation chamber essentially

T: Benton Harbour is a testing ground in MN to see how far they can get away with

- they hired some kind of managers and got rid of the duly elected mayors, councillors
- Benton Harbour is on the shore of Lake Michigan; 100 years ago, a couple created a public park which has been taken away from the people; the city's governance structure was replaced with a republican manager, and the park was turned into a golf course, & took away the water – The governor is an enabler of all this.
- In Flint, MN, water for the city was taken from the Flint River which is contaminated with lead, arsenic, instead of from Detroit; the kids are getting deathly ill; has been going on for 3 years & the people finally became aware : all of this will be accountable for those who played the game

M/A: Indeed; she has already enacted - Nibiru in orbit affecting earth and the rest of the solar system – IT IS NOT ABOUT EXTINCTION LEVEL EVENTS; IT'S ABOUT ASCENSION

T: although the extinction level events seems to be that we have lost any remnant of democratic governance - the time is up

M/A: they want to play with prison planet stories; earth is not for sale; as she chooses to do what she is already doing - the frequencies pouring in: we must surrender to love, it is that simple or we cease to exist – no if, ands or buts!

T: EU leaders are desperate right now; making deals with Erdowan to keep the refugees from crossing over there; they want to let Erdowan into the EU and there are lots of alternative news stories about the human rights violations that Erdowan has been imposing like killing his own people – and you want to let that into the EU?

M/A: all the European countries has to fall apart; it's part of the plan; all the countries go back to their own autonomy; this evil cadre of life forms – let's say we are in the middle of a very bad dream. She and her colleagues are on the other side saying "you are waking up; just another nano second; we cannot tell you how long the nano second is because if we do, we change the timelines." Just like anyone that knows, who is within the loop: cannot say

- As in the movie "Back to the Future", Dr Emmet Brown said: you've gotta go through that doorway! In this moment, here, now – we make it!
  - Bernie Sanders is one of the critical keys of this timeline changing in this nano second:
  - as he continues to do what he is doing, it is about the transfiguration of what we've ask for - the heros, the prophets, the 4th turning

Greetings in the Light . . .

T: anything else about the sacred weekend we are in?

M/A: As we go through these moments of this, the thinnest of veils, she would just say –

- as it is the passing of many souls in this moment of time, and she is on duty, as it were: that is what is being said: It is about that time when the dark mother, Black Moon Lillith, rises from the other side of that story, and she comes with Peli, Dirga and the others who do what they do best: consume that old energy which is out of its time-space continuum called evil. In the moment, there is much to shattered and consumed because it is about : earth is already free, we are already free: we have the power Dr Keshe gave it to us – use it wisely.

- Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One: Kadoish, Kadoish – Mother does some sounds for us.

- R: he was in Buton which borders India and Tibet – in the Himalyas, and goes into Indonesia
- there was a gathering of the Eva people/ the big foot people, and some other Andromedans – reminded him of Chubaka in Star Gate of a group of wookies –
  - they werediscussing things with the llamas – had no idea what they were talking about –
- Several of their craft had landed: looked like giant horseshoes
- T: has seen them on the net
- R: Not a boomerang shape, but a horseshoe
- the only message is that they are here! They have already landed in Buton!

INFORMATION RELATED TO THE NOTES

2015-10-26 Benjamin Fulford Arresting Richard Armitage and forcing him to talk may be final straw to break back of Khazarian gangster rule

The story of a single individual gangster, Richard Armitage, and of his crimes over the years, provides good insight into the inner workings of the Khazarian gangster cabal. It also shows us how just arresting, or deleting, a few key individuals would be enough to change the future of this planet for the better. As his criminal history makes clear, Armitage is a key hatchet-man in Asia for the Bush/Nazionist branch of the Khazarian mob.

The information below was provided to us by CIA colleagues of Armitage as well as by Japanese government sources, members of Japanese yakuza crime syndicates and others. Armitage was given a chance, by phone and e-mail, to rebut what is written below but he refused to answer, meaning that he is not denying what we are hearing about him.

Armitage is the senior person in the group that controls Japanese puppet prime minister Shinzo Abe. The hapless Abe is terrified of being killed and will only read from scripts he is given by Armitage and his acolytes. Armitage also controls the right to create and distribute Japanese yen. The so-called Abenomics, or money printing by the Bank of Japan, is just a cover for the continued looting of this country by Armitage and his fellow gangsters. Capturing Armitage and forcing him to hand over the codes that allow for the creation and distribution of yen would cut off one of the Khazarian cabal's Nazi faction's most vital sources of funding. The White Dragon Society is offering a 10% reward, potentially worth billions of dollars, to any individual or group who manages to capture Armitage and force him to return to the Japanese people the money he and his fellow gangsters, like Michael Green, have stolen from them.

Golden triangle heroin dealer Armitage first came into notoriety in the secret world when he sold out the government of South Vietnam to the communist North for money. Even Henry Kissinger was unaware this was the real reason why the South Vietnamese regime collapsed so suddenly. In other words, the biggest defeat in US military history was caused by a traitor within and not by military defeat.

The next big operation that Armitage was involved in was the overthrow of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines. The US government was unable to afford to maintain its huge military bases in the Philippines so it decided to shut them down. Marcos, who was a firm US ally, wanted to keep the bases so, Armitage and crew arranged anti-Marcos demonstrations and advised Marcos to leave the Philippines and go to Hawaii. Marcos was poisoned in Hawaii. That is how the Bush/CIA faction treats close US allies.

Armitage was also a key player behind the failed attempt to overthrow the communist Chinese government known as the Tiananmen Square incident. Regardless of the rights and wrongs of what happened at Tiananmen Square, later Armitage and Bush began to provide the Communist Chinese government army with US military secrets in exchange for money. For example, according to US military intelligence, they provided China with guidance systems for their wildly inaccurate nuclear missiles. This shows the utter and total lack of principles behind the Bush mafia and their operators like Armitage.

Armitage and crew were able to seize control of Japan's finances through the murder of Japanese Prime Ministers. The two murdered Prime Ministers where the evidence trail is clearest are Ryutaro Hashimoto and Noboru Takeshita. These murders were part of a campaign run by Armitage to seize control of the Bank of Japan and thus of the right to issue Japanese yen, according to multiple sources including former close associates of Takeshita.

Hashimoto was killed with a poison inserted in his rectum during a hospital stay, Japanese right wing sources say. Takeshita was tortured to death in Alaska, according to multiple sources including members of the Japanese royal family.

Takeshita was hung upside-down from a helicopter, then he was stripped naked and chased through the snow by helicopters. Finally his testicles were smashed and he was killed. We have mentioned before that both Takamasa Kawase from Japanese Military Intelligence and a member of the Japanese royal family claim to have been shown a video of the murder of Takeshita. What we are claiming now is that Richard Armitage and his boss George Bush Sr. were in charge of this operation.

A person who worked as Takeshita's "money man," claimed he was threatened with "death by stroke" unless he handed over an attache case carrying the codes needed for issuing Japanese yen.

Armitage is but one of the key operators in the Nazionist Bush mafia. Benyamin Netanyahu is another and there are now signs he is being taken down by genuine Jews who have finally figured out Netanyahu actually works for their Nazi tormentors. Recent bizarre comments made by Netanyahu about Hitler show that somebody is forcing him to commit political hara kiri.

<http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/worldnews/middleeast/israel/11951314/Benjamin-Netanyahus-claim-that-Palestinians-caused-the-Holocaust-is-a-ludicrous-distortion.html>

In Canada too, Stephen Harper, a notorious Bush operative and source of deep shame for Canada, was decisively ousted from power last week. Once the purge of political operatives appointed by Harper to the Canadian police and military command structure is completed, Harper's crimes will be prosecuted for sure. Hopefully this traitor will sing like a canary about his handlers.

New Prime Minister Justin Trudeau immediately pulled the Canadian military out of the illegal bombing campaign in Syria. He has also cancelled Canadian plans to buy the F-35 turkey from the US. Trudeau also plans to legalize marijuana.

We understand Trudeau may well be from a cabal family, notably through his Sinclair grandfather but, if so, he is from a faction that opposed the plans to start World War 3 and kill 90% of humanity.

We can only hope that under Trudeau the Canadian military and intelligence apparatus will now help their like-minded colleagues in the US finally purge the military industrial complex of genocidal mass murderers. If Trudeau really wants to make a splash, he should march the Canadian army into New York and Washington DC and remove all the gangsters like Armitage who still rule there.

There are, in any case, growing signs that the US military are well under way in their own ongoing purge of Khazarian traitors in their midst. The biggest sign of this was the unprecedented veto by President Barack Obama (on orders from the Pentagon) of the 2016 defense appropriations bill because it blocks the closing of the prison camp in Guantanamo Bay. He also vetoed it to stop payment of $600 million to Syrian "rebels" and $350 million to neo-Nazis in the Ukraine, according to Pentagon sources.

Also, while closet neo-con Defense Secretary Ashton Carter officially refused to inform the Russians of the location of ISIS (Israeli/Saudi) military facilities in Syria, the information was given to them through former US President Jimmy Carter.

General Joseph Dunford, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the Pentagon, also flew to Iraq last week in an unsuccessful attempt, (including the use of US special forces to free Iraqis from ISIS), to convince the Iraqis the US military was now against ISIS. Nonetheless, the US military will not intervene against any future Russian bombing inside Iraq if it comes at the request of the Iraqi government, the sources say.

In another blow the Nazionists, Jordan has now agreed to help Russia in its campaign against ISIS, the pentagon sources say. This means Israel, Qatar and Saudi Arabia are now the only countries in the Middle East still working with the Bush Nazi faction. Turkey is in a state of internal turmoil as the Nazis struggle to keep their puppet Erdogan in power.

Inside the US, the "Saudi loving, ISIS supporting" CIA Director John Brennan got his e-mails hacked and his contacts exposed as part of the ongoing purge in Washington DC.

Clearly though, the cesspool in Washington DC is a deep one and a lot remains to be done yet. The so-called Benghazi hearing in Washington DC last week about the death of so-called Ambassador Christopher Stevens was total charade. When Washington hearings start implicating Stevens in the smuggling of nuclear weapons into Japan for use in the 311 nuclear and tsunami terror attack against that nation, then the world will pay attention.

In any case, the Washington DC power structure remains bankrupt and in a state of deep denial. Some news articles from the past week indicate this. For example, Bloomberg had an article saying the US could not care less that China was dumping its debt because "hedge funds" were now buying it.

<http://www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2015-10-18/china-s-selling-tons-of-u-s-debt-americans-couldn-t-care-less->

Everybody who knows what is real in the financial world knows this is just fake accounting. In the most recent example of US fake accounts, a 72% price increase is being labelled as a 0% increase.

<http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2015-10-23/how-us-government-covers-72-inflation>

Meanwhile China has issued, in London, its first government bonds outside of Asia.

<https://www.rt.com/business/319264-china-yuan-offshore-bonds-london>

This means China is learning to treat the financial gangsters in Washington and New York as the pariahs they are.

The Chinese are also strengthening their ties with the US military to show they know the difference between America's armed forces and the gangster politicians. That is why China called its naval ties with the US "best in history,"

<http://www.reuters.com/article/2015/10/23/us-china-usa-defence-idUSKCN0SH04420151023>

even as Chinese warships dock in Florida.

<http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2015-10-23/three-chinese-warships-dock-florida-port>

The Vatican has also joined the British and the Pentagon in strengthening its ties with China. A Vatican delegation has just returned from China where it was agreed that from now on China and the Vatican would jointly select Catholic Bishops. This means the Vatican, China, the Pentagon, the British, Iran and now Canada are joining the growing alliance against the Khazarian mafia. If we can get Armitage and his cronies out of the way, Japan will join too.

In a legal setback for Beijing, an arbitration court in the Netherlands ruled on Thursday that it has jurisdiction to hear some territorial claims the Philippines has filed against China over disputed areas in the South China Sea.

Manila filed the case in 2013 to seek a ruling on its right to exploit the South China Sea waters in its 200-nautical mile exclusive economic zone (EEZ) as allowed under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS).

The Hague-based Permanent Court of Arbitration rejected Beijing's claim that the disputes were about territorial sovereignty and said additional hearings would be held to decide the merits of the Philippines' arguments.

China has boycotted the proceedings and rejects the court's authority in the case. Beijing claims sovereignty over almost the entire South China Sea, dismissing claims to parts of it from Vietnam, the Philippines, Taiwan, Malaysia and Brunei.

The tribunal found it had authority to hear seven of Manila's submissions under UNCLOS and China's decision not to participate did "not deprive the tribunal of jurisdiction".

The Chinese government, facing international legal scrutiny for the first time over its assertiveness in the South China Sea, would neither participate in nor accept the case, Vice Foreign Minister Liu Zhenmin told reporters.

"The result of this arbitration will not impact China's sovereignty, rights or jurisdiction over the South China Sea under historical facts and international law," Liu said.

"From this ruling you can see the Philippines' aim in presenting the case is not to resolve the dispute. Its aim is to deny China's rights in the South China Sea and confirm its own rights in the South China Sea."

The Philippine government welcomed the decision.

Solicitor General Florin Hilbay, Manila's chief lawyer in the case, said the ruling represented a "significant step forward in the Philippines' quest for a peaceful, impartial resolution of the disputes between the parties and the clarification of their rights under UNCLOS".

Bonnie Glaser, a South China Sea expert at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, called the outcome "a major blow for China given that the opinion explicitly rejects China's arguments that ... the Philippines has not done enough to negotiate the issues with China."

The United States, a treaty ally of the Philippines that this week challenged Beijing's pursuit of territorial claims by sailing close to artificial islands China has constructed in the South China Sea, welcomed the decision, according to a senior U.S. defense official.

"It shows that judging issues like this on the basis of international law and international practice are a viable way of, at a minimum, managing territorial conflicts if not resolving them," the official said, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Another U.S. official said the tribunal's decision undercut China's claims under the so-called nine-dashed line that takes in about 90 percent of the 3.5 million sq km (1.35 million sq mile) South China Sea on Chinese maps.

This vague boundary was officially published on a map by China's Nationalist government in 1947 and has been included in subsequent maps under Communist rule.

"You can't say that the nine-dashed line is indisputable anymore because by acknowledging jurisdiction here the court has made clear that there is indeed a dispute," said the official, who asked not to be named. "To my mind, this announcement drives a stake through the heart of the nine-dash line."

The court's rulings are binding, although it has no power to enforce them and countries have ignored them in the past.

"QUESTIONABLE CLAIMS"

Nevertheless, the decision keeps the spotlight on China.

"Today's ruling is an important step forward in upholding international law against China's attempts to assert vast and, in my view, questionable claims in the South China Sea," said John McCain, chairman of the U.S. Senate's armed services committee.

On Thursday during a visit to Beijing, German Chancellor Angela Merkel suggested China go to international courts to resolve its rows over the South China Sea.

In a position paper in December, China argued the dispute was not covered by UNCLOS because it was ultimately a matter of sovereignty, not exploitation rights.

UNCLOS does not rule on sovereignty but it does outline a system of territory and economic zones that can be claimed from features such as islands, rocks and reefs.

The court said it could hear arguments including one contending that several South China Sea reefs and shoals were not important enough to base territorial claims on.

On seven other submissions, including that China had violated the Philippines' sovereign right to exploit its own territorial waters, the court said it would reserve judgment about jurisdiction until it had decided the merits of the case.

No date has been set for the next hearings.

The Permanent Court of Arbitration was established in the Netherlands in 1899 to encourage peaceful resolution of disputes between states, organizations and private parties. China and the Philippines are among its 117 member countries.

Rich in resources and traversed by a quarter of global shipping, the South China Sea is the stage for several territorial disputes that threaten to escalate tensions in the region.

2015-10-29 Marco Rubio leads race for donations from casino billionaire Sheldon Adelson

A number of donors to Jeb Bush's campaign were reportedly jittery about sticking by him even before Wednesday's lackluster performance in the Republican debate, but in the fierce competition among GOP presidential candidates to win seven- or eight-figure checks from multibillionaire businessman Sheldon Adelson, Marco Rubio has already emerged as the frontrunner, the Guardian can reveal.

That is due in no small part to the Florida senator's championing of some of the casino owner's top policy concerns, including Israeli security, and Rubio's frequent outreach to the mega-donor, say GOP operatives and donors.

Adelson looks poised to make a multimillion-dollar donation to the pro-Rubio Conservative Solutions Project nonprofit or an allied Super Pac, also called Conservative Solutions, say three GOP sources familiar with Adelson.

Rubio and his political allies have gone the extra mile to appeal to Adelson, Republican sources say. Over the summer, Rubio and the Conservative Solutions nonprofit backing him both took action on issues of paramount concern to the casino tycoon.

Rubio co-sponsored a bill that would ban internet gambling, something Adelson once said he would "spend whatever it takes" to pass.

And the Conservative Solutions Project spent at least $4.5m from July onwards on TV spots featuring the senator that called for killing the Iran nuclear deal, an important issue for Adelson. Adelson – who has a net worth close to $27bn – has deep ties to Israel's conservative leader, Binyamin Netanyahu, and has historically given tens of millions to groups that share his hawkish views on Israel and national defense.

Rubio has met with Adelson a few times in Washington DC and Las Vegas in recent months, and they reportedly speak fairly often on the phone: this month, the two met during a retreat for scores of Rubio fundraisers and donors in Las Vegas, where Adelson's Las Vegas Sands casino empire is based.

Super Pacs are organizations independent of the candidates' campaigns which, unlike the campaigns, may raise unlimited amounts of money from individual donors. It is fairly common for a Super Pac to have an allied nonprofit. These nonprofits may also raise unlimited amounts from individuals, but unlike with Super Pacs their donations do not have to be disclosed. Super Pacs and nonprofits are barred from coordinating spending with campaigns.

Donald Trump attacked Super Pacs at Wednesday's Republican debate, telling his fellow GOP candidates: "A lot of bad decisions ... are being made for the benefit of lobbyists and special interests ... You better get rid of them."

Rubio also mentioned Super Pacs – but only to turn the focus on the media, claiming: "The Democrats have the ultimate Super Pac – it's called the mainstream media," asserting that Democratic rival Hillary Clinton has been given an easy ride over the Benghazi attack in 2012.

Jeff Sadosky, a spokesman for the Conservative Solutions Project nonprofit and its allied Super Pac, would not comment on whether Adelson had donated to either. Andy Abboud, Adelson's political aide, declined to comment on his plans but said no donations had yet been made to the two pro-Rubio groups.

The recent Rubio retreat in Las Vegas drew his campaign's state finance chairs and numerous "bundlers" who round up donations from individuals, who can only give $2,700 each per election.

Warren Tompkins, who runs the pro-Rubio Conservative Solutions Super Pac and sits on the board of the allied nonprofit, hosted a meeting attended by wealthy donors and Super Pac strategists to discuss its needs and plans, one donor told the Guardian.

Two of Rubio's key Republican rivals, former Florida governor Bush and Texas senator Ted Cruz, have also met several times with Adelson, and worked hard to convey their strong support for Israel, but neither one seems to have so far generated the rapport that Rubio has with the business mogul, who like him is the son of immigrants.

Since the supreme court's Citizens United decision in 2010 jettisoned decades of campaign finance laws and opened the door for corporations, individuals and unions to give unlimited sums to outside groups such as Super Pacs backing candidates, Adelson has become a go-to guy for Republican candidates. In 2012, Adelson and his wife gave close to $150m to a mix of Super Pacs and nonprofits, including $15m for a pro-Newt Gingrich Super Pac and $30m to a pro-Mitt Romney Super Pac.

Now the Conservative Solutions Project nonprofit has come under fire from campaign finance watchdogs and legal experts who say it appears the group does not meet the IRS criteria for a tax-exempt "social welfare" outfit.

Critics note that the Conservative Solutions Project nonprofit's tax-exempt status hinges on adhering to an IRS standard that "social welfare" be its primary purpose (generally these groups can spend as much as 49% on political activities) and that it must not operate for the private benefit of a group or individual. The pro-Rubio nonprofit raised $15.8m at mid-year and has spent close to $6m on ads attacking the Iran nuclear deal, advocating for tax reforms and more, which prominently feature Rubio.

"Everything I've seen indicates that the group's overwhelming purpose is to benefit Rubio," said Lloyd H Mayer, a law professor at Notre Dame and nonprofit expert.

"If there's a high degree of concurrence between the nonprofit's positions and the position of the candidate, who is prominently featured in the media messages, and the [nonprofit] doesn't discuss any alternative views, that suggests they're simply promoting the candidate," said Marc Owens, a DC lawyer at Loeb & Loeb, who used to run the IRS's tax-exempt division.

Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, a liberal-leaning watchdog group, this month filed a complaint with the IRS asserting that the Conservative Solutions Project nonprofit is functioning basically to benefit the Rubio campaign and abusing IRS rules for "social welfare" groups.

Sadosky, the spokesman for the Conservative Solutions Project, rejects the arguments of the critics, stressing that the nonprofit is promoting conservative stances on key issues, including tax reform and the Iran nuclear deal, and not Rubio's candidacy. Many of the group's ads, he noted, link to its website, which cites other GOP senators such as Tom Cotton of Arkansas and Mike Lee of Utah.

Rubio's move to co-sponsor the bill banning internet gambling, which Adelson has pushed by hiring expensive lobbyists, has also come under scrutiny.

Rubio did not sponsor the bill when it was introduced in 2014, although he has previously voiced concerns about online gambling. "Rubio's political history does include opposition to internet gambling but it also includes strong support for states' rights," said one GOP operative who is not backing any candidate. "So it's a little surprising that Rubio would come down on the side of federal regulation ... It's a hell of a coincidence that at the same time he was courting Sheldon, Rubio went on the bill."

Another GOP operative claimed: "It's pandering to the one guy that matters most."

Given Adelson's comments about spending "whatever it takes" to enact an internet gambling ban, "it would be no surprise if he viewed campaign donations as one tool in that campaign", added Sheila Krumholz, who leads the nonpartisan Center for Responsive Politics.

Rubio has dismissed such criticism. On the campaign trail in New Hampshire, he said: "When someone supports me, they buy into my agenda, I'm not buying into theirs."

2015-10-27 Anonymous to expose 1,000 KKK members

by Leslie Salzillo

It's not hard to admire and respect Anonymous when they seek to destroy the scum of the earth. In a non-violent way, they often target those who are rarely challenged, due to others fearing retaliation. In this case, Anonymous has set its sites on shutting down the KKK/Ku Klux Klan. In the past year, Anonymous has become more aggressive and attacked KKK's main Twitter account, publishing personal information of members from TALKKK, causing some members to leave. Bye, Felicia.

In a statement released last week, Anonymous said they respect the First Amendment. The attack is for different reason:

"We are not attacking you because of what you believe in, as we fight for freedom of speech. We are attacking you because of what you do to our brothers and sisters.

In Anonymous's "Operation KKK," they now plan to release 1,000 identities from the hate group. It would seem exposing members of this malicious, racist, and sometimes murderous gang would have taken place decades ago. But then, we didn't have the same internet/social media tools we have today. KKK is one of the most vicious groups in America. To give you an idea of how powerful they can be in influencing the historical course of this country, here is an example:

Klan violence worked to suppress black voting, and campaign seasons were deadly. More than 2,000 persons were killed, wounded and otherwise injured in Louisiana within a few weeks prior to the Presidential election of November 1868. Although St. Landry Parish had a registered Republican majority of 1,071, after the murders, no Republicans voted in the fall elections. White Democrats cast the full vote of the parish for President Grant's opponent.

On the other hand ... Anonymous, a "leaderless, idea/entity," launched Operation Darknet in October 2011. They targeted a child pornography site, called Lolita City, releasing 1,589 usernames from the site in Anonymous's OpDarknetV2. This was just one of many of the Operations from a pretty massive and impressive list.

Where Are Black Children Safe?

Roxane Gay

BLACK children are not allowed to be children. They are not allowed to be safe, not at home, not at pool parties, not driving or sitting in cars listening to music, not walking down the street, not in school. For black children, for black people, to exist is to be endangered. Our bodies receive no sanctity or safe harbor.

We can never forget this truth. We are never allowed to forget this truth.

On Monday, in Columbia, S.C., Ben Fields, a sheriff's deputy assigned to Spring Valley High School, was called to a classroom to exert control over an allegedly disobedient student — a black girl. She wouldn't give up her cellphone to her teacher, an infraction wholly disproportionate to what came to pass. There are at least three videos of the incident. When Mr. Fields approaches the girl, she is sitting quietly. He quickly muscles her out of her seat and throws her across the room.

The video of this brutality is unbearable in its violence, in what it reminds us, once again, about the value of black life in America, and about the challenges black children, in particular, face.

Schools are not merely sites of education, they are sites of control. In fact, they are sites of control well before they are sites of education. And for certain populations — students of color, working-class students, anyone on the margins — the sites of control in the school system can be incredibly restrictive, suffocating, perilous.

Statistics from a recent study showed that in South Carolina, black students made up 36 percent of the population and accounted for 60 percent of suspensions. It is disheartening, at best, that even school discipline is applied disproportionately. And what took place at Spring Valley High goes well beyond disproportion.

In the wake of such indecency, there has been a vigorous public response — shock and outrage, with many people denouncing Mr. Fields's actions. There have also been those who questioned what the young girl did to beget such brutality and sought for her to take responsibility. Oh, how we are, as a culture, enamored with this ideal of responsibility when we don't want to acknowledge the extent of an injustice or when we want to pretend that if we behave well enough, we will find the acceptance we have long been denied.

Sheriff Leon Lott defended some of his deputy's actions and called for the young girl to accept responsibility, too. The sheriff also revealed that the deputy was dating a black woman, as if through such intimate connection, Mr. Fields might be absolved of any racism or wrongdoing. Nonetheless, Ben Fields has been fired and the Department of Justice has begun an investigation. There is the faintest hope that finally, justice will be done.

And yet, we have these inescapable reminders that no form of justice after the fact can erase trauma, or bring people back to life. There are the precedents of Eric Garner, Walter Scott, Samuel DuBose, Christian Taylor, and this is a list that has no end. When black people commit or are perceived to have committed infractions, the punishment is severe — physical brutality, prison or death without due process.

There are always questions, so many questions that elude both common sense and the heart of the matter at hand. What was the girl doing before the cameras started filming? The CNN anchor Don Lemon asked this question on the air. Why didn't she comply with white authority? Why didn't she just behave, fall in line? This question came from Raven-Symoné, a co-host of "The View," also on the air.

Time and again, in such situations, black people are asked, why don't we mind our place? To be black in America is to exist with the presumption of guilt, burdened by an implacable demand to prove our innocence. We are asked impossible questions by people who completely ignore a reality where so many of the rules we are supposed to follow are expressly designed to subjugate and work against our best interests. We ignore the reality that we cannot just follow the rules and find our way to acceptance, equality or justice. Respectability politics are a delusion.

Far too little attention is being given to who the young girl is, or that, according to the lawyer representing her, she is in foster care. When that officer saw her, sitting quietly, defiantly, she was not allowed to be human. She was not allowed to have a complex story. She was held to a standard of absolute obedience. She was not given the opportunity to explain the why of her defiance because she was a black body that needed to be disciplined by any means necessary.

Michel Foucault — the philosopher who was deeply concerned about power and how power was enforced — wrote of the panopticon, inspired by the work of Jeremy Bentham, who designed a prison where prisoners could be watched without knowing when or if they were being watched. Discipline, in such a structure, would be enforced by prisoners never knowing when the watchful eye would be turned toward them. We can certainly see how the panopticon functions in any organization predicated on hierarchies of power and the preservation of that power.

Technology has made the world a panopticon. It has widened the range of who watches and who is watched. Each day, we learn of a new injustice against the black body and in many cases, we now have pictures, videos. We have incontrovertible evidence of flagrant brutalities though, sadly and predictably, this evidence is never enough. At some point, this evidence, these breathtaking, sickening images, will render us numb or they will break our hearts irreparably. There is no respite from the harsh reminder that our black bodies are not safe. The black bodies of those we love are not safe.

We are watchers and the watched, and we are burdened, never knowing when our best, or our most abject, moments will be preserved digitally and disseminated virally, exposing the vulnerabilities we aren't allowed to keep to ourselves.

Given how pervasive surveillance has become, I would think the black body, black people would be safer. I would think that police officers or assorted racists would think twice before acting, inappropriately, against the black body. It is a horrifying, desperate reality where such people act with impunity, undeterred by the threat of surveillance. They know they might be seen and remain empowered in their racism, their sense of dominion. They realize the nauseating truth — there are some injustices, against certain groups of people, that can be witnessed without consequence.
