A beauty pageant called 'A New Dawn' America is the talk of the continent. 'A New Dawn' is unlike any other beauty pageant.
Contestants of Indian heritage from all over North America will compete for the coveted title by exhibiting talent, elegance, personality, beauty and cultural grace. This prestigious event will take place at BC Enterprise Hall in the Plaza of Nations in Vancouver, Canada on June 26.
"We are the first pageant to bring the Indian community together as a North American community of Indian origin," says Sunny, a pioneer of ethnic fashion in Vancouver and New Delhi. "We decided to do something different and on a larger scale, so we came up with this unique idea."

Shamsir Luthra, the '10e11' radio jockey will be the MC and Akshay Kumar the chief guest and one of the judges.
Akshay will also be the one to crown the lucky winner.

The event is endorsed by Ravenna Tandon who remarked: "I would encourage all enterprising women in North America to participate in this pageant and come out on their own. Let their beauty and personalities shine all the way!"
