

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL AND/OR EMOTIONAL SUPPORT

NOTES FOR APPLICANTS (TERMS AND CONDITIONS)

1. Bouncing for Breast Cancer aims to respond to all applicants within 7 working days.
2. Bouncing for Breast Cancer financial aid comes as a package, and all successful applicants will be assigned a Bouncing for Breast Cancer mentor.
3. Bouncing for Breast Cancer Mentors are all trained to provide emotional support to our standards. Not all of our mentors are medically trained, and we do not offer a psychological counseling service. Any emotional support provided by us in no way replaces standard medical or psychologist advice, but rather works in conjunction with them. Bouncing for Breast Cancer does not offer advice, however we do offer resources which applicants have the choice to use.
4. Where applicants are successful, Bouncing for Breast Cancer will provide necessary support to finance the basic costs of living. As such we do not guarantee to match the amount of financial aid you are applying for.
5. When calculating your financial requirements we recommend you calculate your costs for the next 90 days. Applications will be reviewed at the end of the 90 day period, and a re-application may then be submitted.
6. Bouncing for Breast Cancer reserves the right to apply terms to any financial aid we provide.
7. In isolated cases we may need to contact your doctor directly, in order to clarify details of information given.
8. Applications to Bouncing for Breast Cancer support do not guarantee that support will be forthcoming. Due to the large number of applications received not all applications are successful.
9. All applications are considered on merit, and available resources.
10. The application form constitutes a legal document, and by signing this form you agree that you meet all our conditions as stated on the application form, and that all information provided by you is true, and can be backed up in court if deemed necessary. Whilst we do not usually require proof of savings, investments and earnings on application, you understand that you will be liable for all monies paid and the financial value of services provided, with legal costs, should it later come to light that information you have provided is incorrect.
