

DESIGN & LACE BY LOUISE COLGAN

Milanese & Bedfordshire Workshop

Bobbin Lace

April 15 - 17, 2016

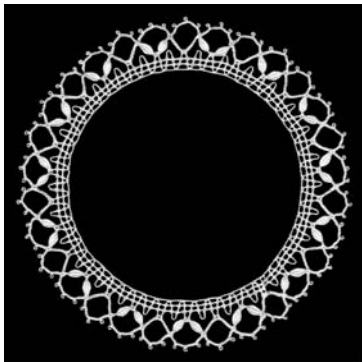

Class will be held near Chagrin Falls, Ohio

National instructor Louise Colgan will be teaching Milanese, a free flowing form of tape lace, and Bedfordshire lace, using many special joining techniques which make the lace structurally very interesting and pleasing.

Louise teaches classes nationally and internationally, written 3 books of patterns, published in several magazines, and has been very active in the lace community as an officer and President of IOLI. (International Organization of Lace, Incorporated) Louise resides in California.

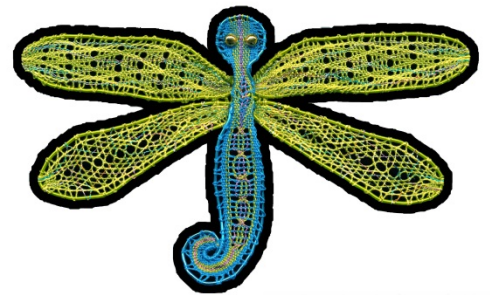

Beginner and experienced lacers are welcome. Maximum class size is 12 students.

This class is presented by the Lace Special Interest Group of the Western Reserve Weavers & Spinners Guild.
