

Privacy Statement

MAABN is committed to respecting the privacy of its members on this Web Space, as well as French law provisions and statutes regarding the collection and use of personal information through an automated system.

As a result, and as provided by the Commission nationale informatique et libertés (CNIL)'s decision n° 2006-130 dated May 9th, 2006:

Any personal information requested from MAABN members will only be used for the following purposes:

- Recording and updating the necessary information regarding its members, donators and membership fees;
- Establishing statistics and lists of its members in order to issue bulletins, newsletters or announcements and, more generally, pursuing MAABN's objectives, as described in its articles of association. The criteria for establishing such lists will always be objective and related to MAABN's core purpose; or
- Establishing a directory of its members.

MAABN will never collect or request any personal information related to its members':

- Race, ethnicity, political, philosophical or religious opinions;
- Health or sexual life;
- Criminal offenses or convictions;
- Social or economic difficulties; or
- INSEE or social security number.
