Generation No. 1

1. ROBERT JOHN1 WITHROW was born June 24, 1692 in Scotland or Ulster, Ireland, and died 1741 in VA. He married JENNET MAY UNKNOWN June 14, 1714 in Ulster, Ireland. She was born 1686 in Ulster, Ireland.

Notes for ROBERT JOHN WITHROW:
Looking at the frame of time in Ireland, it has always been my theory that the Withrows or Witherows which would have been their Scottish name immigrated to Northern Ireland by force of the English to help control the Irish.

Interesting note: It has been said by a Samuel Woodrow in 1885, "Thomas Woodrow, born in 1646, was brother of Rev. Jams Woodrow. Thomas was the youngest son of Robert Woodrow. He studied law, lived at one time in Greenock. It was said he became involved in political troubles, being on the patriotic side. He moved with his wife and children to Ireland where he died soon after in 1681, when he was only 35 years of age. Whether it was the dialect of the people of Ireland, or whether it was to avoid being picked out for political reasons, as he was unpopular with the Gov. officers of King James II. The name was modified into Witherow or Witherow. It may have been an easy translation from Wodrow, but it is certain that while some of the descendants of Thomas Woodrow were known by Withrow or Witherow, whom still were known by Woodrow. I have referred to Thomas Wodrow settling in Ireland a few years before he died. I have no data of number of his children.

Notes for Willis Benjamin Withrow:
LANDERS CEMETERY: This cemetery is located 12.2 miles from the intersection of Route 62 and Silver Street in Poca. To reach this cemetery, you begin at Silver Street, and go out Poca River, staying on the east side of the river for about 3.5 miles. At the bridge, cross to the west side of the river and proceed another 4.5 miles to Lanham. Immediately after crossing the small bridge, make a left on Harmon's Creek road. The pavement will end 0.7 miles in front of the Harmon's Creek Church of Nazarene. You must continue another 3.5 miles on a dirt road. Shortly after reaching the top of the mountain, you will start down the other side and will reach an intersection with another dirt road. Continue straight ahead on out the ridge, for another 0.7 miles after the intersection. This cemetery is on the right side of the road. You will have to park next to a barn, and walk the last 100 yards. The cemetery is well kept and sits atop a hill overlooking a large farm. Cataloged by Nada and Richard Smith on May 23, 1991. [NOTE: Ridgeline marks county boundary. This cemetery is probably in Kanawha County. -- SPS]

Article from Charleston, WV Paper dated 03-01-1930:

"Capt. J. M. Craigo Is Taken by Death; Veteran Police Officer Dies After Long Illness:

Police headquarters was draped in mourning last night for Capt. J. Madison Craigo, 63 year old, veteran police officer, clerk and frequently acting Judge of the municipal court, who died at his home, 1027 Sixth Street, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening. Captain Craigo had been in ill health for a long time. Until a few days ago he bravely attended to his duties in connection with the municipal court against the objections of his physicians. His condition finally became so grave that he was forced to remain in bed. For several days before death, he gradually grew weaker. He was appointed as a patrolman in the Charleston police department by Mayor George E. Breece in 1916. He later was made a member of the traffic squad. A change in the city's administration upon the election of the late Mayor G. A. MacQueen caused Captain Craigo's temporary relief from duty. He was reappointed upon the election of Mayor Grant P. Hall. He was appointed as a lieutenant of Traffic during the Hall administration. He was later made Captain, in which capacity he served until February 3, 1925. He was then chosen clerk of the municipal court and served as Judge in the absence of the regular municipal judge.

Department in Mourning

The entire police department was in mourning for Captain Craigo last night. He was one of the most respected and liked officers in the departments. For the first time in many months police went about their duties without their customary light-heartedness. A large black piece of drapery was hung over the entrance to police headquarters through which Captain Craigo had passed countless times. Even the municipal court room seemed more silent than usual. Although impending business would not permit the omission of the daily court session this morning, cases will be dispatched as quickly as possible and court will be adjourned early out of respect of the veteran officer who seldom had missed a session. Even the prisoners who had been arraigned before him liked Captain Craigo. He was respected for his impartiality and square dealing with those who came before him. Chief of Police John Britton last night said that Captain Craigo was one of his most valuable men. "A man whom it will be difficult to replace and one who commanded the respect of the entire administration."

Native of Putnam

Captain Craigo was a native of Putnam county. He was the son of the late Madison and Angelina Kersey Craigo, pioneer residents of Raymond City. His youth was spent working in the coal mines in Raymond City. He arrose to a position on the board of District No. 17 and was later made secretary of the United Mine Workers. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Frank Hudson, Mrs. Dale Thomas and Mrs. C. L. Baker; one son, James M. Craigo Jr.; three sisters, Mrs. Barah Dotson, Mrs. G. W. Wright and Mrs. O. T. Carver and five brothers, J. E. Craigo of the city police department, W. W. Craigo, R. E. Craigo, W. E. Craigo and C. B. Craigo. Captain Craigo was a member of the Emmanuel Baptist church, the I. O. O. F. and the Knights of Pythias orders. Funeral arrangements will be announced later."
