The Society for Library Professionals (SLP) was established on 3 January 2008 under the Societies Registration Act 1860. The role of this Society is to achieve a high standard of Librarianship in India. This will be achieved by the development of strong linkages among libraries and information centers across the globe; promotion of the library and information science profession in India by fostering collaboration with national and international agencies; and for intellectual development and education exchange of its members.

National Law University, Delhi established in 2008 by Act No.1 of 2008 of National Capital Territory of Delhi and with the initiative of High Court of Delhi is another Law University in the list of premier law Universities established in India. The Vision of the University is to create a Global Legal Institution which competes with the best outside India and to prepare Lawyers for a legal career that introduce them to wide range of opportunities in legal procession across the globe. The University has state of Art infrastructure with all facilities for best of learning and research. The University offers B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Year Degree Programme, LL.M., Post Graduate Diplomas and Ph.D. (Law). The University within such a short span has tied up a number of MOUs with international universities, institutions and organizations for best growth of students and faculty members.

Justice T.P.S. Chawla Library

Justice T.P.S. Chawla Library is an indispensable partner with the law university, in preparing competent lawyers, advancing legal scholarship and improving the law. The Mission of the Library is to support teaching and research needs of faculty, students and legal researchers by providing access to high-tech electronic as well as traditional form of information to enhance and support legal research and scholarship in the 21st Century. Library provides an innovative and comprehensive information environment for study and scholarship to prepare students for responsible and productive lives in the legal profession and to support national and international leadership in improving the law and legal institutions through teaching, research and public service.

Justice T.P.S. Chawla Library has a rich hybrid collection of books, reporting journals, academic journals, conference proceedings, annual reports, government documents, newspaper clippings, legal and general dictionaries and encyclopedias along with immense number of electronic databases. Library provides access to its digital resources 24X7 within and outside Campus through Wi-Fi (intranet) and remote login (internet).

United Nations Information Centre for India & Bhutan
