MUDRAS FOR ALL ROUND DEVELOPMENT OF MIND AND BODY

Pushan Mudra

Give and Take Gesture

The Pushan mudra demonstrates the understanding that life energy moves with ebb and flow motion.

How to form the Pushan mudra:

Right hand: Thumb, index finger, and middle finger touch at tips. Ring finger and pinky fingers are fully extended.

Left hand: Thumb, middle finger, and ring finger touch at tips. Index and pinky fingers are fully extended.
Apana Mudra
Earth Connection
The Apana mudra has a grounding force to help you connect with the earth's energies whenever you are feeling off balance or flighty.

How to form the Apana mudra: Tips of thumb, middle and ring finger are joined. Pinky and index fingers are extended.
Hakini Mudra

Remembrance Mudra

The Hakini mudra helps thinking and concentration. Powers the brain.

How to form the Hakini mudra: Hands and fingers are open and spread apart. Join hands together at the thumbs and fingertips.
Mantangi Mudra
Hindu Goddess of Peace

The Mantangi mudra creates an atmosphere of calmness and serenity. Tames conflicts. This hand gesture resembles the trunk of an elephant.

How to form the Mantangi mudra: Fold both hands together with fingers inter-twined. Extend both middle fingers outward and point them toward the skies.
Akash Mudra
Heart Mudra
The Akash Mudra helps to "center" your energies. It nourishes any part of your body that is lacking.

How to form the Akash mudra: Thumb and middle finger are joined. Index, ring, and pinky fingers are extended.
Vajra Mudra
Alternate Name: Fist of Wisdom
The Vajra mudra transforms ignorance into wisdom. Symbolizes the five elements: earth, water, fire, air, and metal.

How to form the Vajra Mudra: Right-handed fist surrounds left index finger. Remaining fingers of left hand also form a fist below the right hand.
Gyan Mudra

Grounding

The Gyan mudra represents the starting place or home. It takes you back to your roots, or a simpler time. Clears the mental faculties.

How to form the Gyan mudra: Thumb and index fingers touch at tips. Middle, ring, and pinky fingers are relaxed, curved slightly.
Ushas Mudra

Stimulates Sacral Chakra

The Ushas mudra gesture helps to spark creativity and enliven sexuality. Good catalyst for new projects.

How to form the Ushas mudra:

Females: Interlaced fingers with palms facing upwards. Encircle right thumb between left thumb and index fingers.

Males: Interlaced fingers with palms facing upwards. Right thumb rests on top of left thumb with gentle pressure.
Garuda Mudra
Mystical Bird
The Garuda mudra is used to heighten intuition and enable communication with the spirit world.

How to form the Garuda mudra: Place right palm over the top of left hand, spreading fingers apart and crossing thumbs.
The Vitarka mudra, a symbol of wisdom, is a variation of the Dharma chakra mudra.

How to form the Vitarka mudra: Thumbs and index fingers of both hands join at tips forming circles. Left hand sits upon lap palm facing upwards. Right hand is held at shoulder height with palm facing downwards.
Prana Mudra
Symbolized Life Force
The Prana mudra can be used whenever you feel drained or need an extra boost of energy. Good to use in the morning to awaken and fully embrace the new day.

How to form the Prana mudra: Thumb, ring, and pinky are touching. Index and middle finger are extended.
Buddha Mudra
Receptivity
The Buddha symbolizes being humble and learning to be grateful. Palms are open to receive gifts.

How to form the Buddha mudra: Both palms open. Rest one hand inside the other hand's open palm. Thumb tips are touching (traditionally, right hand rests on left for men, left on right for women).
Shunya Mudra
Alternative Name: Heave Mudra

The Shunya mudra assists listening and speech. Primarily a remedy for ear afflictions.

How to form the Shunya mudra: Lower the middle finger and place finger pad on the fleshy mound area of your thumb, cover it with your thumb. Index, ring and pinky fingers are extended.
Kubera Mudra
Manifestation / Wish Mudra
The Kubera mudra is used for creating wealth and reaching your goals.

How to form the Kubera mudra: Tips of thumb, index, and middle fingers are joined. Ring finger and pinky are folded into the palm.
Uttarabodhi Mudra
Enlightenment

The Uttarabodhi mudra is a gesture that identifies with a supreme power. Symbolizes perfection.

How to form the Uttarabodhi mudra: Index fingers touch one another and are extended, pointing toward the skies. Remaining fingers are crossed and folded down. Thumbs are cross or held next to each other. Clasped hands are held over the head.
Dharmachakra Mudra
Teaching
The Dharmachakra Mudra symbolizes the role of the teacher.

How to form the Dharmachakra mudra: Thumbs and index fingers are joined. Middle, ring, and pinky fingers are extended in a relaxed fashion. With left palm facing the body and right palm faced outward join thumbs and index fingers of both hands.
Bhutadamar Mudra
Protection - Wards Off Evil

The Bhutadamar mudra serves as a shield keeping negative energies away.

How to form the Bhutadamar mudra: Palms are facing outwards away from the body. WristS are crossed. Ring fingers are placed down toward the palms.
Ahamkara Mudra
Self Confidence
The Ahamkara mudra can be used when you are feeling "less-than" or fearful.

How to form the Ahamkara mudra: Index finger is bent slightly. Place thumb on the middle of bent index finger. Middle, ring and pink fingers are extended.
Dhyana Mudra

Meditation Pose

The Dhyana mudra is universally used during meditation and relaxed states.

How to form the Dhyana mudra: Hands form a cup or bowl. Thumbs touch at the tips or comfortably overlapped.
Yoni Mudra

Femininity

Feminine Adi Shakti Primal Power Mudra - The Yoni Mudra represents getting in touch with female energies. Symbolizes a woman's vulva.

How to form the Yoni mudra: Hands form an almond shape with joined thumbs extended upwards. Fingers are joined at tips extended downwards.
Prithivi Mudra

Alternate Name: Earth Mudra

The Prithivi mudra recharges the root chakra aligning it with earth energies.

How to form the Prithivi mudra: Tips of thumb and ring finger are joined. Remaining fingers are extended.
Kapitthaka Mudra

How to form the Kapitthaka mudra: Index and middle fingers are held beside each other while extended. Ring and pinky fingers are tucked inside the palm. Thumbs rest on tucked fingers.

Happiness

Smiling Buddha Mudra
Shankh Mudra
Alternate names: Conch or Shell Mudra
The Shankh mudra is commonly used during worship or prayer.

How to form the Shankh mudra: The left thumb is placed on the center of the right palm. The right hand forms a firm grip around the left thumb. The left hand rests against the right fist. Right thumb touching the left index finger.
Kalesvara Mudra
Calms Anxieties
The Kalesvara mudra calms anxious thoughts and agitated feelings.

How to form the Kalesvara mudra: Place both palms together pairing thumbs and all fingers at tips. Fold index, ring, and pinky fingers downward. Middle fingers are extended outward. Point thumbs toward your body.
Linga Mudra
Protective Mudra
The Linga mudra is used as a remedy for the lungs, guarding against colds and cold weather. Strengthens Immune system.

How to form the Linga mudra: Interlace fingers of both hands, extending one thumb upwards; encircle extended thumb with the index finger and thumb of your other hand.
Mukula Mudra
Closed Lotus
The Mukula Mudra's appearance resembles the bud of a lotus flower. Represents new beginnings or start up a new enterprise.

How to form the Mukula mudra: All fingers and thumb are joined together, pointed upwards.
Surabhi Mudra
Alternate Name: Dhenu Mudra
Balances the five elements: Air Fire Water Earth and Metal

How to form the Surabhi mudra: Fingers and thumbs are joined at tips. Thumbs touching each other. Left index finger joins right middle finger. Right index finger joins left middle finger. Left ring finger joins right pinky finger. Right ring finger joins left pinky finger.
Mida-no Jouin Mudra
Dual Worlds Meditation Pose
The left hand mirrors the right hand representing two worlds: Enlightenment and Illusion

How to form Mida-no Jouin mudra: Middle, ring, and pinky fingers create a flat or slightly curved bed resting upon the lap. Two circles are formed with index fingers held together while extended upwards meeting the tips of both thumbs.
Suchi Mudra

Releasing

Helpful for chronic constipation. Tames uncontrolled behaviors such as impatience, temper tantrums, clinging to others, etc.

How to form the Suchi mudra: Form a fist, extend index finger pointing up and out away from the body, preferably arms are extended over the head.
Abhayaprada Mudra
No Fear
Abhayaprada mudra is a protective hand gesture symbolizes strength or being fearless.

How to form the Abhayaprada mudra: Hand is held upward with palm facing away from your body.
Varada Mudra
Charity Mudra
The Varada mudra pose is customarily used whenever a blessing is being offered.

How to form the Varada mudra: Fingers and thumb are downwards. Flattened palm facing outwards away from the body.
Ganesha Mudra

Overcoming Obstacles

The Ganesha mudra can be employed whenever you are struggling. Symbolizes strength when facing troubles. Eases tension.

How to form the Ganesha mudra: Palm of your right hands facing your chest. Left hand grasps the right hand forming a locking grasp, tugging firmly.
Mahasirs Mudra
Tension Reliever

The Mahasirs mudra is used to help give relief for head-related afflictions. Headaches, stress, tension, etc.

How to form the Mahasirs mudra: Thumb, index and middle fingers are joined at tips. Ring finger is folded into the palm and tucked into the fleshy part of the thumb. Pinky is extended.
Mushti Mudra
Releasing
The Mushti mudra is used as an outlet for "letting go" or releasing pent up emotions or energies.

How to form the Mushti mudra: Hold hand in a fist with thumb placed over the ring finger.
Bhudy Mudra
Intuition
The Bhudy mudra helps you get in touch with your innermost feelings.

How to form the Bhudy mudra: Pinky and thumb tips are touching. Index, middle, and ring fingers are extended.
Anjali Mudra
Alternate Name: Namaste
The Anjali mudra is used as a salutation or greeting.

How to form the Anjali mudra: Hands are held together in prayer fashion directly over the heart/chest.

Thank you everyone for going through the Mudras presentation and they transcend all the boundaries of Religion, caste, creed, color and whatever we humans consider as valuable to satisfy our egos.

These will help open up the underlying and dormant energies in each one of us and make us better human beings for what we are destined to be. An elevated soul has a higher purpose and thinks better of others. I hope these will change your perspective of living life and “LIVING LIFE”

OM TAT SAT

Yours Sincerely
Tej Pratap N.

Footage courtesy: http://www.healing-about.com