

FRIDA Was Here

August 2nd, 2008

12 hours of art, performance, and cultural activities
15 neighborhood locations.

The Mission Arts & Performance Project (MAPP), in collaboration with the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA), invites you to a street-level neighborhood arts extravaganza celebrating the life of Frida Kahlo; her art, her politics, her vulnerability, and her inspiration to women worldwide.

Involving an international collaboration of more than 60 artists, the MAPP is a bi-monthly neighborhood arts-cultural event that transforms garages, cafes, studios, gardens, and local businesses into make-shift arts & performance spaces where daily life meets artistic innovation and expression.

Family Art Activities begin at 1pm: paintings, circus, story telling, and music.
The evening MAPP begins at 7pm: 17 locations. (programs with a map will be available)

Download the program at www.sfmapp.com or come to the Red Poppy Art House (2698 Folsom St. @23rd) on August 2nd.
