

The Expected

Politics

- No serious support by any governmental level or major party.
- Through treaties, activism, and movements Indian Education is below the National Average.

Economics

- Reservations have opportunities to make money through the usage of resources.

Technology

- To have advanced computers and internet access for better education.

Environment

- Logistics between a Reservation and a good equality school.

Demographics

- Native American students are behind the national average when it comes to education.
- Lack of support from family and peers.

Culture/Social

- Lack of Native Educators as Role Models.
- B.I.A performs cultural genocide.

The Feared

Politics

- Indian Education will never be taken seriously by the government.

Economics

- Nations economy really goes deep down hill.

Technology

- Can't supplement their education.

Environment

- If Native Americans can't get to school how are they going to learn?

Demographics

- Western Education isn't traditional for Native Americans.

Cultural/Social

- Native Americans choose between higher education and their tribal community.

The Preferred

Politics

- Implement and Follow Through.

Economics

- Expand Funding
- Use PL874 law tax Property

Technology

- Advanced computers are critical.

Environment

- Free Transportation to school.

Demographics

- Graduating from high school and maintain a higher education.
- Access to early childhood education programs.
- Maintain tribal languages and enhance the many cultures in the school.

Cultural/Social

- Inter-Cultural Communicaton
- Embrace Education.

Aspiration Statement

- By 2030, all Native Americans will have a equal opportunity for a quality education and to obtain a higher education that would help themselves, their people, and their communities.