

[ Into the History ]

Messianic Jew

These people are the ones who believe that Jesus is the Messiah. Today among 6.5 million Israel populations, about 14,000 Jews are Messianic Jew. Since their faith is different from the tradition, they are living a life of faith with their face hidden.

Who would hate the most when the number of Christians in Israel increases?

They are the Orthodox Jew who strictly follows the interpretation and application of the laws. Today in Israel, Messianic Jew, those who believe in Jesus, are under the persecution of Orthodox Jew who rejects Jesus. For past two thousand years Jews were suffered and persecuted on account of killing Jesus. Today the sufferings they had to go through have turned into hatred and revenge towards Christians.

Even in this condition, Messianic Jews are keeping their faith.

Many of them have a hidden testimony. Amazingly Jesus appeared to many of them and testified himself that he is the Messiah and because of this amazing experience they became Christian.
 Why is God restoring Israel in this miraculous ways?
 Why is Jesus appearing to sons of Israel?
 What is the restoration of Israel signifying to us?

[ Synopsis ]

Ami incident

On one day of April in the year of 2007, from a town not far from Jerusalem, bomb exploded in a Jewish family. As a result, sixteen year old boy Ami was seriously injured and carried to the hospital by ambulance. The reason for the bomb terror was only because they believed Jesus in the Jewish town.
 Then, who sent the bomb?
 This documentary film is tracing the truth of this bomb incident that took place in Israel. It illuminates sufferings of Christians who believe in Jesus and their inextinguishable life of faith.

Background for Jew in hatred of Jesus

Jesus ignored the law that the Jews wanted to keep strictly. A typical example for this is healing the sick on the day of Sabbath.
 Jews crucified Jesus on the cross and because of what they have done they earned the wrath of Christians all over the world. During their two thousand years of diaspora life, they were persecuted. By the crusader they were burned to death, by the Nazis they suffered greatly from the holocaust. Through these historical incidents, in the heart of Jews, the hatred toward Jesus grew deeply.

The site of rejecting Jesus

In 1948, as soon as Jews established Israel again, they began to earnestly wash off Jesus in the land of Israel and considered everybody who believed in Him as their enemy and began to persecute them.
 They searched for the Jews believing in Jesus and attacked them. Also they casted out them from the town so that they couldn't even think of staying in a town, It became impossible to believe Jesus in Israel.

Reasons why they keep their faith in Jesus despite all these hardships

Believing Jesus in the midst of all this hardship is same as living a life of martyr.
 Only because they believe in Jesus they are thrown out of family, suffer from violence and in danger of terror. However, their faith is so firm and even burnind!