Outlaw Motor Cycle Gangs (OMG's) have expanded across the area in recent years and have a significant impact on criminal activity in Iowa and surrounding states, especially in small to medium sized communities and rural areas. OMG members are known to carry weapons and exhibit extreme violence, therefore, posing a clear and present officer safety concern to law enforcement, corrections, and prosecution personnel. Support clubs and newly developed local motorcycle clubs often engage in illicit criminal activities in support of the major OMG's and members are often coerced into supporting OMG's through extortion. Fierce rivalry between OMG's has often erupted into major violence which can often impact innocent members of the community and responding law enforcement personnel.
