

Hello,

I feel like testifying what the Lord has done for me; this is just a very, very small portion of what God has done in my life and I owe my life to Him and I give myself away to Him to be used for His glory.

I want to start off by saying, God has brought me from a mighty long ways; I am not just saying something. In my book, "Unholy Matrimony: Healing For The Abused Woman" (click link to order), I tell of some of the things God delivered me from and give my testimony of how He brought me out of the bondage of seven, yes seven abusive marriage; I WAS like the woman at the well who encountered Jesus and He gave her living water, as He did me.

Now the only thing I thirst for is more of God, more of His presence, love, joy, peace, just more of everything He has for me. I thank Jesus for giving me Bread of Life and introducing me to the Father. I will NEVER turn my back on God again. I love Him so much and He love me soooooooooooooo much; He gave His Son Jesus, to die on the cross for me and not just for me, but for all who would accept Him and come back to the Father (click below to order, "The Love of the Father;" a book God gave me after spending time in prayer and worship with Him).

I can truly say that Father has given me beauty for my ashes, the oil of joy for my mourning, the garment of praise for my spirit of heaviness so that I may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord so He can be glorified (Isa. 61:3); and Him do I glorify.

I know that no matter what I face, I win; because God, my Father, Jesus and Holy Spirit are on my side. That means all things, as God sees fit, will work out for my good. That does not mean everything is going to go my way, it means God cause His perfect will to be done in my life; I have given Him, Jesus, and Holy Spirit permission to do so. Remember my previous post, God will not force Himself on us, we must invite Him into our lives.

Shalom,

Dr. Hooks
