HARD NEWS

R: lots of good, magical things going on, lifting us higher and higher, and with the solar eclipse

- Has spoken to Natasha and Rana Mu;
 - RanaMu took him into a virtual reality world – similar to the VR goggles [virtual reality goggles] – go to MSNBC.com and put in “google glass”, you'll get the idea
 - He put on the goggles, was in a VR world, linked up to all the crystal beings around the planet – they could see each other and interact by thinking, which turned into pictures and words
 - It was something similar to what Prof Xavier has in the X Men movies – his computer was called Cerebru and could turn into all the thoughts
 - She asked him to focus on Donald Trump – which brought up all his stuff! From his sub-atomic level, he saw all the nano particles streaming through Trump's body;
 - RM asked him to use the blue, the pink, the gold, the 3-fold flame – will be able to see the kind & amount of energy pouring out of the being; if the being is not from the Office of the Crhist
 - there are beings all across the planet deoing what Rama was doing – as he meditates, he can go to various beings and create a unified field and send light to the darker ones
 - as the energies get higher and higher, those not of the Office of the Christ will have a harder and harder time staying in their bodies

Natasha: explained Nibiru and in the proximity of what N is doing across the solar system – getting more intense: hurricane brewing off the coast of FL; one around Hawaii; earthquake in New Zealand – all are in relationship to Nibiru coming into our solar system & making waves as it gets closer and closer

- that plus the orange hitler talking about what he thinks

- every day, stories about disclosure – R can't keep up to the sightings
 - Nick Pope who spoke at the Citizens' Hearings – talking about things in Iraq, Syria where people put up you tube videos using CGI – it is NOT the case are attacking cities
 - Turkey [Erdowan] is saying there is no truce between the Kurds and the Turkish fighters – this is counter-indicating what R has heard: doctors without borders are coming in to help citizens
 - Erdowan is saying he will take Turkery out of NATO and will declare war on the US because the US is backing the Kurds – could lead to Erdowant killing Americans

- the rising energy means people could lose their centres and believe what the media is saying – and the media is in bed with the 13 families.

RanaMu: tells him when he gets to low moments: just focus on the magical beings that you connect with, and they will hook up with others – and the circle will continue: they [13 families] cannot stop the light and the love pouring in

Reading: 2016-08-23 New Moon & Solar Eclipse On 1 September 2016 – This Is What We Should Expect [SEE BELOW]

- the new moon: to be the best event of the year for the people taking the Be Postive road – we can affect others around us with joy and love
- EST – 5:03 am today;
- visibility from south central part of Atlantic ocean – Africa to the southern point of Australia

RanaMu: Mr Trump is a game show host, does not want to be president –

- what he is doing is turning the elections into a reality TV show, hoping that Roger Ayles or similar people will give him a news network
- we know this story is cancelled completely!

Reading: 2016-09-01 DNC member e-mail: Sanders stayed in the contest in case Clinton is forced out of the election [SEE BELOW]

- as Hillary were removed from the ticket, the majority of the DNC members would have to be present to vote for a replacement; Congress could also decide to change the date of the election: an unlikely path – could be a great mess!

T & R got a call from GG Lilly of the Aboriginal Moabite Nation – her people had told her that between Oct 12 -15 that Obama would declare martial Law

RanaMu said that would be a good possibility as there would be no one to elect – Trump would also be out of the picture

1. Julian Assange will put out another set of e-mails in October: this will put her in jail and she will not be anywhere on a ticket. R says this leads right into unacknowledged black budget funds / operations that suck money into a black hole and no one is the wiser: like all the billions that disappeared the morning before the 911 attack and no one knew about it
 - Also Sybel Edmunds put out an article that said voting for Hillary Clinton is voting for George Soros who has been moving all his NGOs to Turkey where they are geared for WW 3 – HRC would be the WW 3 president, as he has laid out $30 million for her to get elected! Sybel Edmunds said not on your life; this is war crimes!
 - KOS told them 8 months ago that, on the D Trump side: there is a fight between groups in Faction 1 to remove Donald T

Reading: article about Bloomberg running for president: ref to an article in Arkansas Law Review which talks about the election being postponed for 4 weeks if there are no candidates

- Julian Assange said that Bernie was threatened within an inch of his life to drop out of the race and support HRC; if he were asked, would he still want the Democratic nomination? The Answer is – from the White Knights – for the last 8 years, meetings in Costa Rica with Randi Rhodes, Michelle Obama – via encrypted phones, etc; Oprah Winfrey; Bernie Sanders; E. Warren to plan how they could bring Michelle into the presidency
- the Republicans have carried out treasonous actions for the last 8 years to make sure that his 2 terms would gain nothing, and he would be offered a 3rd term and he would offer it to Michelle when NESARA is announced

Guest : CAROLYN OCEAN RYAN [COR] & The Collective [TC]

[To receive the full impact of the words of TC: listen to the podcast!!!!]

COR: for last 2.5 years, has been channelling The Collective – had been doing it all her life -

- they look like Nordic galactics – some seemed quite angelic; she could clearly see them
- She started writing weekly messages and it's been quite successful
- she has put out 2 books, and the 3rd one has just come out on August 31st
 - the idea behind them is about remembering who we are – we are not humans with a bit of divinity: we are divine beings having a human experience
- her teacher at divinity school talked of the spark of divinity – had never heard anyone use that phrase of human beings before: the traditional religious position is to make people small and ineffective
- we are all of us connecting with the beings etherically, even inwardly when we appreciate something outside; we are remembering that we come from there – we are not just “little people”: we belong to a huge expanse, a galactic story.
- They are asking us to remember our background – to feel really enlivened; we came back at an astounding time in earth's history
- suspects that NESARA has never been closer.
- Title of book: Abundance for All: the Lightworker's Way to Creating Money and True Wealth – creates a whole new paradigm

TC are called in:

- an impressive group is assembled here
- none of us are aware of the great person that we were in the past which we have tapped into is still here and we are bursting at the seams with great light; our true presence is just pouring through us – give thanks for all our beautiful presence on the planet now

Via e-mail: please ask if TC has a message – has been feeling the presence beings of the blue lodge all week – Cmdr Randy

TC: an integration of higher energies happening – true for all too – both galactic, angelic, of the earth; earth is receiving energies that are for all – used to be just for the angelic beings – but now, these energies are now being anchored into the earth through each of us

- be aware that dreams not dreams
- impatience with others who are not as far along; also a desire to celebrate them – we will begin seeing that there is something above judgment – we are beginning to feel that interconnection
- Understand that we will not treat things as we used to: music can be cacophony – we may be drawn to classical; we will rejoice in every form of weather – seeing the higher aspect of what is around us. A part of your psyche will rebel & ask why do you send love to people like Trump? Because we are stepping into our light bodies, a new role.
- On the subject of abundance: everything you receive simply flows through you – impossible to own anything, as per the indigenous people which is why they were killed: they refused to be drones and if people catch on that ownership is meaningless, they won't be controllable and will remain absolutely free. On the other side of that, at the same time you are everything and everything is you: you will never go without anything: I need a demonstration of that abundance which I know is my reality and the reality for others

MR: what about people who have accumulated a lot in this life time: how they are shifted?

TC: a heart shift will help them & inspire them to either give things away or live in community where wealthy is shared.

- a trend of people selling all they have and living in a tiny house, travelling – this is not just for young people or retirees – it is an outpicturing of an increasing desire to give and to expand; it appears they are making their lives smaller but they are really expanding their energies to live freely.

- Those who are hanging on to things will come up shocked when they find that investments have come up zero: some will feel freedom, others fear, some both – depending on the amount of light
- the natives of the US, Canada are very proudly protecting the earth from pipelines, etc – they realize the value of their inheritance – the culture forced on them is disintegrating and their own culture comes forward, filling the vacuum with help from their ancestors

E-mail: thanks to COR and TC for the answer.

Omena [O]: about her waves of lack of energy

TC: a bit of a paradox: not a lack of energy, but she is exhausted from the energies pouring in through the crown chakra

- it is her job to absorb and take the energies in – most people think the job is helping people here or consulting with people here yet she has a more important one
- for her, her own ascension, development, evolvment is most important – will have to rest in the middle of the day; can ask “send in my galactic team, my medical team and send in the energy I need and help me integrate these energies – do it quickly please”
- she has taken on a great deal at once in this lifetime – she was joyous about leaping back in at this time of earth's evolvment and wanted to do it: once her mind is made up, she's ready to do it.
- She has a great deal of help: a galactic team, fairy & elven friends, her angelic teams to call upon

O: thanks TC: this gives her more info to work with

- These are not normal times: would not expect a woman giving birth to run around during or after the birthing process & expect things to be as they always were - allow a rest for self – this is quite strenuous – some time, we will feel exhilaration, sometimes utterly exhausted: need to rest which is when the body makes its adjustments – harder if you don't rest.

O: needs a little more rest – will pay attention to this - thanks to TC and COR

MR: ask if similar things are happening to her; head feels full; not the normal level of energy

TC: quite a challenging month for everyone on the planet as they feel the expansion of new potentials and feel the galactic presence around them, also feeling the resistance of the old paradigm of 3D

- speaks to MR's support team: MR is assisting, as many are, in dissolving a matrix created around false cures, remedies – big pharma; bringing in the truth is what she does about natural cures and remedies, and dissolving the old matrix is doing battle and she is feeling the effects: feeling drained, also feeling the physical things of the detoxification of what is going on, both in her own system and other people's systems

MR: asks for assistance, more protection from the outside influences in the physical; if there is more she needs to understand, she's OK with it

TC: important to have NO DAIRY – they are putting energy around MR and us

MR: as for conventional dairy: her recent understanding is that using organic, grass fed, using the right type of cow was fine; physical testing has shown that she is OK

TC: the testing does not reveal a lot - her body is throwing off the toxicity of the dairy.

- Even from grass fed animals – dairy products have mucus attached and this creates more mucus – body is saying no to dairy: coconut milk is fine – and her body needs to throw off the toxins: eating dairy makes it harder.
- use dark greens, water cress, things that fight inflammation, that flush the system
- body is saying this may have worked in the past [standard understanding], does not now.

TC: Humanity being detoxed now

MR: has lived on fresh and raw for a long time; can't use the greens at the moment: the things she's always done are not working

TC: try cooked: the real problem is the de-toxification process – body is desperately trying to detox - go without dairy for 3 weeks and see what happens

MR: not the only one experiencing these things – applies to all people

TC: this is a general issue for others, too

- every single animal on the planet has shifting energies – the cows do not want to be in service any more: their milk is for their babies, not humans. They have asked to be off the planet; as things raise in vibration and people learn to live with the animals, will make a difference. People are moving away from solid food too – can put things in the blender or have soup; a broth would be good for some days

MR: as TC have pointed out, we /she, by asking these questions, is allowing those who don't ask questions also get an answer

TC: no one is left out! The answers they give empower everyone

MR: what can be shared about spiritual growth, to get through these times with ease and grace?

TC: TC often talk to people during their readings about the comments of those who have passed over, who say to those who remain on earth:

- let go of the stresses of life
- look up: we are surrounded by trillions of galactics and family – we can call upon them at any time and they are waiting for us to call on them: yes, they will intervene in unusual moments though, for the most part, people work in clouds of doubt and fear and 98% of what they stress about does not happen.
- There are legions of powerful beings around us all the time: give them a job to do! Ask them to come and help: what social connections do I need; what directions do I need? And so on - say it and mean it
- this is the reason for the empowered a bundance prayer and the life purpose prayer
 - many people say they don't really have any interests, but that they like to connect with nature: this is already a big admission: just require help and back-up from those who are around us – it is why they are there; they are waiting for us to call on them. They cannot make every challenge disappear because we said we wanted to work through this ourselves so we could learn in this life
- In Abundance for All, we have a life blueprint which we drew up with our guides, etc: we knew on the soul level what we needed to learn –
 - we've heard of great athletes who began a sport to help strengthen a weak area in their body; then grew immensely from that sport: so there is a beautiful pattern behind things.
- Talks about the reason for revising the life blue print - not to get out of the growth, but to speed up the evolvment – we can do this, as we wrote it in the first place!
 - If we are ascending, we are basically saying we are becoming our higher self – it's a game changer; we will no longer go through the slow, labourious experiences but work with the energies of the thing and evolve our consciousness
 - we go into the higher realms, see the beautiful ball of energy and we call it to us and it can be the fulfillment of our life purpose or the money – we are looking at the essence of the situation – they give an example
 - the essence of the struggle is to learn, and now we can absorb the energy of the lesson without going through the hardships again
 - Talks of the Ball of Light and how to use it
 - pour the characteristics that you want into the ball of light
- we don't have things in our lives because we don't have the same frequency with it – we can create that vibration, that frequency & draw it to our cells
 - we do this all the time: we do it in the higher realms, with our galactic friends - this is how planets are made – we are just remembering how we are – we are alchemists, time to rinse the darkness away

- no reason to continue the struggle – we can call on Merlin himself and ask for his help: we can raise the frequencies to the level where we can create a new reality

MR: because TC is making the answers so universal, it fits everyone and that is helpful – both a

TC: it for everyone and for everyone whose consciousness is open to receiving

O: It's of for us to command and demand

TC: we are all leaders! Commanders – would we be here if we were not leaders?

O: most people do not realize the only way they can do it is to do to – the more their confidence grows with command and demand, the faster things will materialize for themselves

TC: there has been a systematic downgrading of how people see one another and themselves;

- It happened over many centuries – we have gone from moment to the higher realms like the indigenous people were and it's why they were destroyed – can't have empowered people walking around – part of the systematic disempowerment of people – we are coming to the point where we will either evolve or keel over: there are no other choices!
- realize that we are commanders – command and draw forth – reads from the Abundance Prayer: I am now accepting the daily reality – on all levels of life –
 - abundance is an area of severe disempowerment – we've been told for so long by “bosses” and others: aren't we lucky to be a cog in the machine? and human kind is saying “actually we are not; we have a bigger vision now”

O: the animals changing their service too: tells the story she has read of the lion, lioness and the cubs walking down the road and see a fox which is usually lunch. The lioness roars at the lion to leave the fox alone, she lies down & nurses the fox and the lion, cubs watch her.

TC: We are seeing examples like this around the world. The power of the divine feminine is interrupting the expectation, the consciousness of the wounded warrior: we are going to nurture and sustain life.

- Nothing is business as usual – being said on TV talk shows by the pundits too.

MR: asks for closing words

TC: look up to the skies for the ships; look up also to our own Higher Self and say I am becoming you & each day to practice and how would we do things if we loved Our Self and others completely and felt incredibly powerful – would be interesting to do

- Many blessings, dear ones!

COR: great questions: learned some stuff, too.

- website: Carolynoceanaryan.com Ascensiontimes@gmail.com

 - will be putting them out in print eventually contact: via e-mail or via skype or contact Marietta and then COR will contact the person.

- the I-Ching is pretty much aligned with tonight's comments
- Mother Earth is ascending: she is sending messages to us too

2016-08-23 New Moon & Solar Eclipse On 1 September 2016 – This Is What We Should Expect

by GOSTICA · <http://gostica.com/spiritual-lifestyle/new-moon-solar-eclipse-1-september-2016-expect/>

The New Moon Solar Eclipse at 9 degrees Virgo takes place on Thursday, September 1st, 4:03 AM Central Standard Time. It is an annular solar eclipse, meaning it will create the visible coronal ring (“ring of fire”) most people associate with eclipses. Like any new moon, a solar eclipse represents the end of one cycle and the beginning of a new cycle.

This is where the solar eclipse will be mainly visible

Even though not everyone may be able to see the eclipse, its affects most definitely will hit you. It is a powerfully energy charged eclipse because this new moon will be in Virgo while Mercury is moving retrograde through Virgo as well. So it is expected to have a profound and meaningful impact on our lives.

Each and every person will experience some unique sort of change in their own personal way. For some of us the impact will be slight, for others life-altering; only time will reveal what the heavens have in store for us all. Here are some of the more significant ways in which the solar eclipse in Virgo may affect us:

During the eclipse different people will be affected in different ways. This mainly is up to the way that you will choose to feel and what will reflect from the universe. These are some of the ways the solar eclipse in Virgo may affect you:

During this period if you start to feel weak or insecure and confused about overall situation, it is better for you to start trying something new in order to overcome these feelings. Don't get discouraged and have faith in yourself. Be positive!

For some of you this may be the perfect period of relaxation you have been waiting for. Even after the vacations, you may still feel like you totally need some rest; this is mainly because only your body has rested and not your soul and mind. Instead of constantly being on the go or involved in a hundred different things, take your break and use the energy of this event to rethink your position. Next you can start back your works one by one, now with a much more relaxed mind.

Be careful if this eclipse will cause on you anger and upset, or generally a "feel down" mood. Take extra precautions to remain conscious of what you say and do. Try to avoid too much contact with people and instead do some physically exhausting work. The gym is the perfect solution!

Don't get too obsessed with details. Some of us may start to behave too much detail oriented this period and analyze deeply every situation like never before. This may bring you too much overload and will make you feel exhausted. Try to move away from overthinking and just go with the natural flow of the things

This will be the best event of the year for those people who will take the "be positive" road. This is a good chance to shift your life in a more enlightened phase, and much better, affect the ones around you with your joy and harmony. After all every event of the nature and the universe is in perfect harmony with itself. Do you feel yourself part of the universe? This is up to you!

Enjoy the eclipse and don't forget to share with your close people!

2016-09-01 DNC Member Email: 'Sanders Stayed In The Contest' In Case Clinton Is Forced Out Of General Election

Dawn Papple

DNC member and former Oklahoma state senator Connie Johnson reportedly told U.S. News & World Report in an email that in the event that Hillary Clinton is forced out of the November election, the DNC could give the nomination to Senator Bernie Sanders, the runner-up for the Democratic nomination. The DNC member went as far as to say that choosing Senator Sanders to replace Clinton on the ballot would be the most appropriate choice if Hillary Clinton were to drop out or be forced out before the election.

"I believe that's why Sen. Sanders stayed in the contest," Johnson reportedly wrote in an email.

At the convention in July, many remember the outrage from Sanders' supporters when Bernie Sanders officially nominated Hillary Clinton. Still, his delivery of that nomination was curious.

"Madame chair, I move that the convention suspend the procedural rules," Sanders said while nominating Hillary Clinton with far less enthusiasm than Clinton supporters probably hoped for.

"I move that all votes, all votes cast by delegates be reflected in the official record," Sanders stressed before adding, "and I move that Hillary Clinton be selected as the nominee of the Democratic party for the president of the United States."

https://youtu.be/m2r_eXmWBHg

Of course, Clinton made the same move in 2008 when she nominated Barack Obama as the nominee. Watch how the two say essentially the same thing, although the delivery of the two nominations by acclamation were polar opposites of each other. Plus, Sanders' delegates were adamant that they wanted the full roll call, whereas, in 2008, Clinton suspended the roll call much earlier.

<https://youtu.be/T3w6IcU418E>

Johnson said that she is not sure the DNC would actually follow through on what she calls the most appropriate action should Hillary Clinton be unable to continue as the Democrats' nominee.

According to U.S. News & World Report published Tuesday, if Clinton is removed from the ticket for whatever reason, DNC members would gather to vote on a replacement. According to DNC spokesman Mark Paustenbach, there are 445 committee members. The DNC's official rules simply state that a majority of the DNC members would have to be present at a special meeting if they had to suddenly choose a new nominee.

John Fortier, director of the Democracy Project at the Bipartisan Policy Center, says that Congress could also decide to postpone the election date, but according to Fortier, that path is unlikely because absentee ballots and early voting would make that option a horrible mess. Fortier says that the party could encourage electors to simply support the existing vice presidential nominee in Clinton's place.

With the turbulence of the 2016 election, Yale Law School professor Akhil Reed Amar mentioned another possible snag in the November election. If there is a major terrorist attack, the election really could be postponed, Amar says. He even recommended up to a four-week postponement in the event of a terrorist attack or the removal of a candidate. The idea that either situation would happen seems far-fetched, but Amar brought up the September 11 terrorist attacks.

"We should never forget 9/11 was a local election day in New York," Amar said.

On Tuesday, September 11, 2001, Democrats and Republicans were set to hold some high stakes primary elections, including the primary for mayor, according to SIlive.

"Citywide, billionaire media mogul Mike Bloomberg, a total unknown, was making his first bid for public office, running in a GOP primary for mayor. 9/11 would have a profound impact on his fortunes."

Bloomberg, a long-time member of the Democratic Party, had decided to run on the Republican ticket. The primary was postponed due to the terrorist attack in the city. Bloomberg eventually won the position of mayor by a slim margin: 50 to 48 percent.

These scenarios seem unlikely, but an article in Arkansas Law Review called these possibilities a ticking time bomb and discussed all of the ideas for what should be done in the event that a nominee is suddenly unable to remain on the ticket. The solution offered in that article for such a situation was the same as Amar's solution: Postpone the election for four weeks if the candidate is removed within four weeks of the General Election.

Of course, former Senator Johnson's speculation on why Bernie stayed in the race could be considered in opposition to WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange's claim that Bernie Sanders was threatened to drop out of the race and support Hillary Clinton. If Assange's claim is true, would Sanders even still want the Democrats' nomination?

2016-08-28 I Ching For The Week of August 29, 2016

#46 Sheng Ascending

Below Sun root, foundation; subtle penetration, like the wind; small, steady effort.

The Wisdom:

You are in a time of ascension

What you have been working for is beginning to show

It is vital now to be present

Be mindful of where you stand

This is your season of harvesting. Your harvest, in this case, consists of the ripe fruits of small and steady efforts. You have been paying attention to all the details, remaining steadfast to the principles of working for the greater good and, until now, it seemed as if the fruits of your efforts have been elusive. Be without expectation. In your present situation, your expectations are about to be humbled by the good fortune that is coming your way.

The energy and ideas that have been illusive no longer are. All possibilities are available to you now. Do not sit back and await the genie to come out of the lantern to grant your wishes. Be very active to seize your dreams. This is a short window. Summoning your self worth is the benefit now. If you do not believe you are worthy of your dream, it will pass you by and leave you grasping at the wind. Repeat the inner mantra, " I am Good enough" as you make your moves toward the benefits you have desired and dreamed

In the recent past, try yesterday, it has felt like your waiting period has been interminable. That was your analytical mind interfering with the universal law of right timing. Patience and quiet nurturing is what is needed now, whether in your relationship to your own inner self or in your projects, external relationships, and your connection with the your service to the basic systems of the earth--you remember her—your home.

It is happening; no need to push it, find your stillness every day. What you have desired is coming your way. Don't ask when—just take a look . . . it is now. Trust and faith is the powerful engine that will propel you forward in your quest for what is right and in harmony with the natural way of being.

Quiet your heart and mind.
Allow the natural way to unfold.
Be steady and don't miss a step;
Progress and prosperity are assured.

All things that you have worked and wished for in life are moving forward, toward yours and the greater good. It is as if you are exactly synchronized with the calendar of your life path. The energies of the Earth and the universe are moving in harmony with you, with your actions and desires. Your intuition is at an extremely high level. Trust it and make your well-considered moves, whether in love, business, or in the care of our planet and all her beings. Bring all together and be the giver of love and life to your tribe, your family and your relationships.

Note well that while you may harvest the bounty that is available to you now, the benefit will be to return this energy in equal measure to the living organism of Gaia to which you are deeply rooted. This is your "family," which has silently and elegantly supported and nurtured you so that you could get to this point of beneficial harvest. Keep feeding the whole, the oneness of which we are each a part. Fail this and you fail yourself.

Have confidence in the work you have done, that you have correctly nurtured yourself, your relationships, your tribe, or your project to this point. Stop beating yourself up; it is a useless exercise that leaves you weak and pitiful. Have faith that your growth is assured if you allow everything to unfold without the judgment or interference of the critical, analytical mind. Refrain from picking things apart and just let the mind relax in its own vast, natural spaciousness.

This hexagram signals that your personal magic could not be at a higher and more beneficial point. Your ideas will be well received. Externally, you will advance in your relationships and your career, and your words will be heard. You are part of a network that is connecting all good things for the benefit of yourself, your tribe, and the world community.

Stay steady and remain humble. Meditate and take part in activities that keep you centered and grounded. By adhering to the higher laws, those of compassion, kindness, and integrity, what you will gain will remain, and any doubts about yourself will wash away like dust after a longed-for spring rain.

This week listen to the wind as it speaks to you, hear the waters as they nurture and teach you, celebrate fire as it burns away the dross. Taste of the Earth herself as she nurtures all sentient beings, and wear the air on your skin like a royal robe of ritual and celebration.

Be love; teach peace.

Make an offering to Gaia in gratitude and humility. Keep in mind without being in service to our mother, our earth, we are a clanging gong, signifying nothing.
