

MEMO 2008 Fall Conference - F R I D A Y

Breakfast Keynote:

Patrick Jones, Author and HCL Youth Services Director

"Leading the 21st Century Students to YA Literature"

Tom Hoogland

MN History Day

This session will introduce the National History Day program and how school Media Specialists can support student researchers in their buildings and tap into the extensive resources at the Minnesota Historical Society and the University of Minnesota.

Kathy Niebuhr

Media Units to support MCA standards in Poetry and Genres.

Cathy Nelson and Julie Morales

Making a Difference One Ball of Yarn at a Time

Join Media Specialist Cathy Nelson and ELL teacher Julie Morales for a hands on workshop that will discuss novel ideas on how to create a sense of belonging for ELL students.

Marc Johnson

New MEMO webpage

MEMOweb is changing! Learn how to navigate the new site to provide members with more current.

Ann Melrose and Sharon Hilts McGlenn HCL

Books, Literacy and Computers: Online opportunities for your students.

Hennepin County Library invites readers to get involved in literacy activities online.

Dave Eisenmann and Lisa Carlson catchin ^

W hi tek kdz

(Catching Up w/High-Tech Kids: from Texting Answers 2 MySpace and YouTube Postings)

Leah Delia Larson

Best of Social Justice Books for Middle School students.

Sue Klund

Using research, MEMO can help Empower Parents and Caregiver to Raise Students

Reading Ability Forever! Use research and its application to enable students to gain in reading every year.

Connie Stirling and Denise Beckstrand

MYRA: the myth, the mystery and why do we do the Maud Hart Lovelace award

Sally Kimmes

Making Connections: Media Specialists teach reading strategies.

I will share tips on how librarian-teachers can help open the world of books.

Shelly Pierson

Using a SMARTboard to enhance learning!

Ann Woell (Media Specialist) and Andrea Manston (classroom teacher)

How to make flexible scheduling work at the K-5 level?

Laurie Conzemius

Computer Programming with Scratch

Melissa Weinand and Rachelle Weinand

101(or so) great books for the Secondary students

Luncheon Keynote

Wendy Pradt Lougee

"The Digital U: Transforming Library Roles in a Digital Age"

Kathy Niebuhr

ATPPS (aka Q-Comp) and the Media Specialist!

Kristen Mastel

Advanced Web Searches

Dave Zukor

Professional Development Convergence: What everything has to do with Everything!

Marc Johnson

Portable applications Dozens of useful cross-platform applications are available that run directly from a flash drive or other portable device.

Donna Nix

What Blogging Has Taught Me About Minnesota and Children's Literature.

Doug Johnson

Beating the No U-Turn Syndrome: A new approach to teaching and enforcing copyright compliance.

Sara Swenson, Martha Cosgrove, and Sarah Burgess

Reading for themselves: Inspiring students to be lifelong readers through school book clubs.

Steve Maanum

"Making Nature Photography Part of Your Technology Experience (no matter what you teach)"

Kent Pekel

Not Just for Some Kids Anymore: Why a Focus on College Readiness for All Can and Must Transform Our Schools and Society

Jane Rolnick

Media and Information Study Skills for 7th & 8th grade

Wendy Wolfe

Real E-Engage: Using Technology to Connect 21st Century Learners.

How can we better engage 21st century learners?

Jean Oswald

Using the SMART Board Lesson Activity Toolkit in the Library Media Center

Mindy Rhiger

Books Around the World: International Books for Kids and Teens

Laurie Conzemius and Ann Walker Smalley

Beyond 23 Things: Using 23 Things as a Basis for Teacher Training

Jane Prestebak hosts Destiny Users Group

Let's embrace our DESTINY and share our joys and tribulations

MEMO 2008 Fall Conference - S A T U R D A Y

Breakfast keynote:

Joanne Bongaarts and Mark DeYoung

"Books! Breakfast of Champion a Bowlful of Champion Books and Practical idea to Use in your Media Center"

Barry Britt Copyright

Wisdom for Music Multimedia

"Am I breaking the law when using music in my podcasts and presentations?"

Brock Dubbels Pandora's Xbox Video games as Learning tools!

Cheryl Burdick

What in the World is Digital Story Telling?

Patricia Post

23 Things on a Stick Showcase

Mary Garlie and panel

Revisioning library, Reading and Staff Development for the 21st Century

Bruce Pomerantz and Suzanne Miller

Lucky numbers, bad numbers, and the rest: The 2007-2008 Library Media Center Annual Report

Beth Staats,

MINITEX Partnerships: The Express Tour.

Patrick Mader

Literature and Learning About 20th Century Farming in the 21st Century

Barbara Cox and Jeanne Iverson

A different Approach to Promoting Critical Thinking with (in) Literacy

Andrew Bay, ProQuest

How are CultureGrams actually created?

Dana Millaway

Yours, Mine, and Ours: Students In A Digital World

Jody Wurl and Michele McGraw HCL Readers Advisory 2.0.

Learn about some 21st century Readers Advisory tools that harness Web 2.0 technology.

Marcia Thompson and Ilene Rutten

Collaboration Plus: Publishing Predictable Books in the Classroom

Jane Prestebak

Beyond Bullet Points or PowerPoint's Bad Attitude

Bernie Farrell and Marcela Sanchez HCL

World Language Story times: Supporting Literacy Development for ELL Students

Leslie Yoder and Jane Prestebak

Standards - Adjusting Our Course to Align With the New AASL and ISTE Standards

Dawn Nelson Blogs, wikis, podcasts –

Web 2.0 tools available to educators to connect students and create excitement

Naiomi Bisram & Erik Eliason

uTead.com: The Social Network For College Admissions

Think of how time consuming, unappealing and inefficient the college admissions process is. Well-- no more.

Jordan Sonneblick, Author and guest and winner of the MHL winner Div II