

WHO WE ARE

The World Bank–IMF Young African Society (YAS), established in 2014, is an inclusive association of young, dynamic World Bank and IMF staff members who are passionate about the African continent.

YAS is committed to carrying out the mission of the World Bank of ending extreme poverty by 2030 and promoting shared prosperity in the developing world, with a specific focus on Africa. YAS' particular areas of interest are Youth unemployment, education, health, entrepreneurship, good governance, and Climate Change.

YAS members believe that they have an obligation to contribute their talent and expertise for the benefit of Africa's development—to help Africa fulfill its great potential.

OUR OBJECTIVES

YAS' objectives are:

- Establish a Youth driven platform to promote Youth participation and inclusion in ending extreme poverty in Africa by 2030;
- Develop comradeship and a sense of community amongst Young African development professionals;
- Promote knowledge-sharing and mentorship among Young African professionals and students; and
- Engage the Young African Community globally by holding an inclusive, transparent, and results oriented annual Forum aimed at discussing the development indicators in Africa.
