MISSING

Jon Van Dyke faked his own disappearance, leaving his family devastated, lost and forced to endure an aimless, constant state of the horrific unknown.

Officially a missing person, vast resources and tax payer's funds were spent trying to locate him. His wife, Maureen Reintjes, out of love for her husband and father of her girls, dedicated every waking moment possible to Finding Her Missing Husband.

Meanwhile, Van Dyke was just "hiding-out", eluding authorities, tormenting his family, concerned friends and countless volunteers who were all desperately looking for him, a Maliciously Missing Man.

May of 2005, Jon Van Dyke kissed his wife of 24 years, Maureen, good bye, left for work and went MALICIOUSLY MISSING FOR 4 YEARS!

"The last true thing I know about my life is I walked my husband to the door on May 19, 2005, we had a pleasant conversation, talked about the flowers I had planted, talked about the weekend and talked about the upcoming visit of my sister and brother-in-law...I kissed him goodbye.

He told me he loved me and I told him I loved him too.

That was the last time I saw or spoke with my husband."

WHEN JON VAN DYKE WENT MALICIOUSLY MISSING

When Jon faked his disappearance he committed the most selfish of actions imaginable. His family are the ones who suffered. Maureen's life was now ridden with unrelenting anguish ... burdened with the financial nightmares left by a "missing husband" ... losing 2 homes ... she was left homeless ... this is just a peek at the hell of living in the unknown, Maureen's everyday life for over 4 years.

"Late into the night Maureen scoured the web sites of coroners across America looking for information on unidentified bodies, not wanting to find Jon among the dead but desperately looking for the truth." by Diane Dimond
